ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

Registration of Students

Freshmen report first to the office of the Dean of Freshmen for assignment of rooms. There they will be advised where to go in Wilson Hall for matriculation. Other new students report to the office of the Dean of Women.

All students must have their program of classes approved by some member of the Schedule Committee. No changes may then be made except by permission of the Dean of the College, or some designated committee.

Grading System

Following the close of each semester, all grades are mailed from the Registrar's office to the parent or guardian of the student.

On semester reports grades are recorded in letters—A, B, C, D, E, and F. A indicates distinctive achievement and genuine excellence; B, independence of work and high grade of accuracy of knowledge; C, familiarity with the work of the course, and evidence of growth and mastery; D, passable achievement, in work of such quantity and quality as to be allowed for graduation, provided it is balanced by better than average work in other courses; E, a condition which may be removed by examination, or, in a unit course, by making a C in the succeeding semester, and F, failure which may not be removed by examination.

The qualitative rating system requires in general that students must make a record of C in order to complete any curriculum in the usual length of time.

Quality points are assigned for each grade as follows: A, 4 quality points; B, 3 quality points; C, 2 quality points; and D, 1 quality point. Thus the grade of B in a course giving 3 semester hours' credit would give 9 quality points; a grade of C, 6 quality points. No quality points are allowed for an E which is removed by examination or otherwise.
Further information on scholarship, qualitative rating, and classification is found in the Madison College catalog, pp. 62, 65, 66.

Students must make a minimum average grade of C (2.00) to meet requirements for a degree or a diploma.

Attendance and Excused Absences

All students are required to attend the regular exercises of the College from the first day of the session to the closing day.

All full-time students except waitresses and student teachers are required to attend Monday and Wednesday assemblies.

Excuses for absences of boarding students from required exercises are secured as follows:

1. For personal illness—the College Physician
2. For class leaves—the College Registrar
3. For professional interviews—the Dean of the College
4. Any other reason of weight—Committee on Attendance.
   (Students will first present such problems to the Dean of Women, however.)

The Dean of the College will handle excuses for day students.

A day or any part of a day is considered one class leave, except that a leave may be granted for Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. Leaves are dependent upon the quality rating made during the previous semester in residence:

Those with a quality rating of 3.50 or higher—three leaves; of 3.00 to 3.50—two leaves; of 2.00 to 3.00—one leave; below 2.00—one leave during the year.

Freshmen may not have leaves during the first semester in residence.

Class leaves must be secured in advance. The Committee on Attendance cannot honor other absences, unless they are also arranged in advance.
Students will be expected to use class leaves sparingly and to save them for emergencies. The Committee on Attendance reserves the right to deny additional excuses to students who have used their class leaves.

All students missing classes or failing to report to residence halls on time immediately before or immediately after any college vacation must appear in person before the Administrative Council of the Faculty and furnish satisfactory excuses for their absences. In case of personal or family illness, a doctor's statement must be presented.

Withdrawal from College

The President of the college must be notified in writing of a student's intention to withdraw. In the case of a minor, the parents of the student must make such notification to the President.

Further Regulations

Students in registering must use their proper, legal names, and students who are married while in college must immediately register under their married names.

A change of legal name or home address is to be made known promptly to the Registrar, the Dean of Freshmen or Dean of Women, and the Business Manager.

The college is not authorized to extend credit to students. Each student must therefore pay all fees for the preceding term before registering for a subsequent term. For other regulations governing collection of fees see the current college catalog.

The college does not permit hazing in any form.

Despite all the rules and regulations of this college, the President and Faculty reserve the right to discipline or dismiss any student who does not conduct himself in conformity with what is regarded as the proper standards for students in this institution.
PRINCIPLES OF SELF-GOVERNMENT

Every student who matriculates at Madison becomes a member of a community which enjoys a considerable degree of self-government. Truth and honesty are the basis of such community life. Only where there is a deep sense of personal integrity can there be the mutual trust and self-respect upon which any system of self-government must rest.

Every member of the student association shares its obligations as well as its privileges. She must be willing to place the standards of the community above her own. She must accept responsibility not only for herself, but for her fellow-citizens as well. It is presumed that every student who enrolls at Madison is a person of honor and that she will act honorably in all of her relations.

The Honor System is established for the purpose of fostering and preserving these cherished ideals. Lying, cheating, stealing, and failure to report one of these breaches of honor are considered violations of the honor system, whose effective operation is entirely dependent upon each individual student. Each student is equally responsible and should conduct herself so as to be free of reproach or suspicion, and should also be prompt to prosecute dishonorable acts of others. Failure to subscribe to these practices injures the integrity of the group and reflects upon the entire college body.

This committee is "to consider responsibilities and privileges of the students and to present its findings to the President of the college."

SOCIAL PROCEDURES

Student activities develop the poise, self-confidence, and graciousness that are essential to a young woman's success in a home-making, professional, or business career. The Dean of Women, Dean of Freshmen, chaperons, hostesses, the Social Committee, and the Standards Committee exercise general supervision over all the social activities of the students and encourage every means for wholesome enjoyment.

Certain privileges enjoyed by the respective classes are granted by the college with the understanding that these regulations will govern the classes of succeeding years unless in the meantime the college deems it advisable to modify these privileges, the classes having the right to petition the Administrative Council for a modification of privileges whenever special conditions may warrant such action.

These privileges are subject to the following conditions:

1. That the class organizations and the members of the classes individually obligate themselves to observe strictly these regulations and to report to the Student Government all violations of the same by any members of the classes.

2. That members of the respective classes pledge themselves to conduct themselves with all the dignity becoming a young lady, and in no way that would reflect discredit upon themselves or upon the college.

3. That whenever a student violates or abuses one of these privileges, or violates any obligation assumed in receiving these privileges, the regulations shall be automatically suspended for such student and such action taken as the Student Council shall see fit to take.

In granting these privileges, the college reserves the right to suspend at any time any or all of them from any or all of the members of their respective classes, or to modify said privileges as in its judgment may be advisable at the time.

Students receive their social privileges in accordance with their academic rating.

Radio and Victrola Regulations

A radio or a victrola may be used in a dormitory room on the following plan:

1. Not more than one radio may be used in a room.

2. Each radio must be installed with the approval of the college electrician.

3. No radio may be used until a fee for electric current of fifty cents per semester has been paid at the office of the Business Manager.

4. Radios may be turned on low, (dormitory door and transom closed) without restriction as to time between 6:45 A. M. and 11:00 P. M.
5. The volume of the sound of the radio must be controlled so as not to disturb students in other rooms.
6. If these regulations are not observed, the radio will be removed from the room by the Hostess or Director of Dormitories and a call-down is given each member of the room.
7. On the nights of formal dances on the campus, radios may be used till midnight.
8. Victrolas: Regulations 4, 5, 6, 7 shall apply to victrolas as well as radios.

Smoking

Students are allowed to smoke; however, school authorities do not encourage the practice.
Smoking is permitted only in students' dormitory rooms.

Telephone and Telegraph Service

Inter-dormitory calls are not made through the college switchboard. All students will therefore find it desirable to notify their friends of their telephone numbers, since calls between the city switchboard and dormitories are made over pay telephones.

Telegraph messages may be sent at any time from a paytelephone booth; there is one on each floor of each dormitory, as well as in the post office lobby, Harrison Hall.

Students are notified at once of Western Union messages, which are delivered at Alumnae Hall.

Transportation Down Town

When necessary, a taxi may be called to a dormitory. There is also a bus through the campus every hour.

Vacation Periods

During short vacation periods, such as Thanksgiving or Easter, students may leave the campus on approved trips or remain on campus in whatever dormitories are open. All dormitories are closed during the Christmas vacation.
Violations

Violations of good standards for group-living are handled promptly by the House Councils by authority granted them through Student Government. A problem may be referred to the Student Council, the Dean of Freshmen, the Dean of Women, or the President of the College.

Any student will forfeit her privilege of living in a dormitory if she creates disturbance so that others cannot work effectively or sleep.

Violations of the standards, practices, and procedures at Madison College are handled promptly by the Student Council of Student Government.

Violations of administrative regulations are handled by the Faculty Administrative Council.

Penalties which may be given for failure to cooperate with the college government may be "plain campus," "strict campus," "call downs," probation, suspension, or dismissal.

A girl with adjustment difficulties is welcome to talk with the dormitory hostess, Dean of Freshmen, Dean of Women, or any other faculty member who may be able to help her.

The Joint Faculty-Student Committee recommended in the spring of 1944 that special study be given to the principles and organization of an honor system. Following this, a joint student-faculty honor committee was chosen. A special conference on honor systems bringing representatives of all the women's colleges in Virginia was sponsored by the committee in the spring of 1945. From the ideas gleaned there, together with suggestions from campus discussion groups, the committee formulated a plan for an honor system on the campus of Madison College. This plan was adopted by the student body and faculty in the spring of 1946, and the Honor Council was then selected, the plan to go into effect at the beginning of the fall session in September, 1946.

The Breeze has a three-fold aim: to give, as accurately as possible, all the news of the college; to reflect and direct student opinion; and to contribute, as a well organized extracurricular activity, to the welfare of the college.

This official organ of the student body is managed as nearly like a city newspaper as is possible on a college campus. Members of the editorial staff are appointed by the editor after successful completion of a try-out test and a period of probation as cub reporters. The business and typing staffs are chosen from a group of volunteers by the business manager and chief typist.

The editorial policy of The Breeze is based upon the best of student sentiment. It endeavors at all times to support the rules and traditions of the college.

MISS MARGARET V. HOFFMAN

The Schoolma'am, our yearbook, now in its thirty-eighth year, enjoys the distinction of having been the first student publication issued at the college.

The editor-in-chief and the business manager are elected in the annual student body elections. The editor-in-chief appoints her associate editor, the art editor, the photographic editor, the copy editor, and the chief typist. These in turn elect their staff members. The editorial staff is composed of a representative from each of four classes, one each from Kappa Delta Pi, Sigma Phi Lambda, Scribblers, and the Athletic Council, and one from the student body at large.

The Schoolma'am attempts to preserve for us those memories—scenes and events and accomplishments—which have made the year at Madison significant for us.

VII. SORORITIES

Panhellenic Council

This association, composed of three representatives from each national sorority on campus, has as its objects to fix the date of bid day; to pass and enforce rush rules; to regulate other matters pertaining to local panhellenic life.

The Panhellenic Council established a policy to become effective in the fall of 1945 that a student has to be on campus for two regular semesters before she may be rushed by a sorority. Rush week for upper classmen will be in the first semester of the year 1947.

All students must have a cumulative C average for the preceding semester before being rushed by a sorority.

Panhellenic Code of Ethics

Membership in the Association of Education Sororities obligates every sorority on its roll and every initiate thereof:

1. To cooperate with college authorities and to foster closer relationship with faculty and student body.

2. To respect both the letter and the spirit of any agreement made by the college and the Association.

3. To refrain from discussion of sorority affairs with non-members.

4. To refrain from speaking disparagingly of any non-sorority girl.

5. To so regulate personal conduct that it shall at all times conform in spirit and appearance with accepted standards of good breeding.

6. To conduct all rushing as inconspicuously as possible, to keep all rush rules both in the "spirit" and the "letter of the law," and to make the lines of demarcation between sorority and non-sorority girls as slight as possible.

7. To remember that of those to whom much is given, much is required; that a sorority badge is not a mark of superiority but a pledge to high endeavor.

8. To remember that the unity of sororities in the teachers' field means mutual improvement and protection; and to maintain the high standard for which the teacher must strive.

9. To so honor the badge worn that nothing will be done to reflect discredit upon it.

Newman Club

The Newman Club is the organization for Catholic students. It aims to bring about closer relationship and interest, not only between the members of the group on campus, but also among the students of our neighboring colleges. This is done by business meetings and various social activities held monthly in the parish hall. Membership is automatic to all Catholic students on campus.
The Wesley Foundation

A spirit of Christian fellowship and responsibility is maintained among students through the Wesley Foundation. The campus unit, closely affiliated with the church, is open to all Methodist students who sincerely wish to join the search for deeper religious living. The activities of this organization are numerous, and should prove especially interesting to those who participate.

Westminster Fellowship

This group is composed of Presbyterian students and those who make our local church their home. Its purpose is to help the students keep in vital touch with the life, worship, and service of the church and to help them make a larger contribution to the Christian atmosphere and life of the college. Monthly campus meetings and regular weekly services at the church are held.

A Presbyterian Student Council made up of officers and chairmen plan and direct the activities of this group.

CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

Old scrap-books, old songs, old lace, old streets—old things are dearest; and the nicest, most individual, most compelling aspect of Madison is its traditions—some almost as old as the College itself. Of all the memories taken away by girls who have attended Madison, the longest remembered are those of the events that have been going on, year after year, until they have become traditional. It would be impossible to determine just which of the following customs and traditions means the most.

May Day

May Day is the major event sponsored by the Athletic Association. It is held annually during the spring semester. Participants include members from all classes who have part in either the dances or the music of the ceremony. The May Queen, her maid of honor, and the court of twelve, are elected by secret ballot of the entire student body.

Oldgirl—Newgirl Wedding

Symbolical of the union between new students and old, the Oldgirl-Newgirl wedding is solemnized each fall under the auspices of the Student Government Association. The “bride” and her attendants are members of the freshman class or advanced students transferring from other colleges; the officiating “minister” is the president of the association; the “groom” is the president of the senior class; and other members of the wedding party are represented by officers of the Student Government Association.

Candlelight Service

In the fall, soon after the arrival of the students, each girl is given the opportunity of becoming a member of Y. W. C. A. A very impressive candlelight service is held as a public recognition of its new members. This is a most impressive service, as each receives the light symbolical of the Christian life.
Christmas Pageant

Each year, just before the Christmas Holidays begin, a simple but impressive Christmas Pageant is given. The Madonna is chosen by popular election from the student body.

Worship Programs

Worship services are held every Sunday afternoon at 1:50 p.m. The "Y" also sponsors the Friday chapel services. These are held in Wilson Hall, and the entire student body is invited to attend.

Big and Little Sisters

During the summer each upper classman receives the name of her "little sister," to whom she writes and gives an early welcome to the campus and makes her feel as if she were a part of the college before she gets here. The big sister helps her little sister to become adjusted and acts as her adviser all through the year. The Big Sister-Little Sister party is given on the first Wednesday evening of each school year. Each big sister escorts her little sister and delights in introducing her to the old girls.

Sports and Games

All-year-round interest in sports is kept high by the intramural program. The major sport on campus during the fall semester is field hockey. Two clubs are organized and the respective captains schedule practices and games.

The basketball season always opens with the traditional Oldgirl-Newgirl game. During the remainder of the season the four class teams play a series of games. If a girl is present at ten practices and plays in one game, she receives a numeral in her class color.
The popularity of tennis has been increased by the two tennis clubs—the Racquet and the Pinquet. Any student is eligible to try out. The open tournament is held in the fall and the two clubs hold a tournament in the spring.

Spirited competition takes place each spring with the beginning of softball. The double round-robin tournament is arranged for the class teams.

Archery, volley ball, and badminton are under an organized schedule also. Each student has an opportunity to engage in his favorite sport.

There is a faculty sponsor for each sport and the winning team always receives recognition at the close of each season.

Alma Mater

MARY FUNK SLAUGHTER
Oh, Alma Mater, to thy name
We'll ever faithful be,
Lift learning's torch to brighter flame,
Shed Honor's light on thee.

Where mountain blue meets sunset glow,
Our college stands serene,
With passing years its friendships grow
In memory ever green.

Oh, Madison, may wisdom clear
Guide us and prosper thee.
We give thee, Alma Mater dear,
Our love and loyalty,
Our love and loyalty.
