ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

Registration of Students

Freshmen report first to the office of the Dean of Freshmen for assignment of rooms. There they will be advised where to go in Wilson Hall for matriculation. Other new students report to the office of the Dean of Women.

All students must have their program of classes approved by some member of the Schedule Committee. No changes may then be made except by permission of the Dean of the College, or some designated committee.

Grading System

Following the close of each semester, all grades are mailed from the Registrar's office to the parent or guardian of the student.

On semester reports grades are recorded in letters—A, B, C, D, E, and F. A indicates distinctive achievement and genuine excellence; B, independence of work and high grade of accuracy of knowledge; C, familiarity with the work of the course, and evidence of growth and mastery; D, passable achievement, in work of such quantity and quality as to be allowed for graduation, provided it is balanced by better than average work in other courses; E, a condition which may be removed by examination, or, in a unit course, by making a C in the succeeding semester, and F, failure which may not be removed by examination.

The qualitative rating system requires in general that students must make a record of C in order to complete any curriculum in the usual length of time.

Quality points are assigned for each grade as follows: A, 4 quality points; B, 3 quality points; C, 2 quality points; and D, 1 quality point. Thus the grade of B in a course giving 3 semester hours' credit would give 9 quality points; a grade of C, 6 quality points. No quality points are allowed for an E which is removed by examination or otherwise.
Further information on scholarship, qualitative, rating, and classification is found in the Madison College catalog, pp. 71, 74 and 75.

Students must make a minimum average grade of C (2.00) to meet requirements for a degree or a diploma.

Attendance and Excused Absences

All women students except waitresses and student teachers are required to attend Monday and Wednesday assemblies. Men students are required to attend Wednesday assemblies only.

A revision of the former class cut system, together with certain other provisions regarding absences has been approved by the faculty and the administration. These revisions leave a great deal more responsibility to students and to members of the staff.

Professional leaves are not included in this plan. Students are urged not to use all of their cuts in the early part of the semester, as special occasions may arise later.

Students whose scholastic indices in the previous semester are 3.25 or better may take as many class cuts as in their judgment it is wise to take.

First semester freshmen will have no cuts. All other students may have as many as three (3) cuts per class each semester, double laboratory periods are to be considered as a single cut. Scheduled observations and practice hours are on the same basis as regular classes.

Students with records for the previous semester below 2.00 must save their cuts for off-campus student activity trips.

For every occasion that a student takes a cut beyond the number allowed, he shall be reported by his instructor to the Attendance Committee. He will lose his cuts for the following semester and if excessive cuts continue, the student may be recommended for suspension.

Cuts on the first or last meeting of a class in a given semester or for a class period just before or just after a holiday are considered double cuts.

The college physician, Dr. Monger will take care of excuses... for the illness of a student or member of the family. In the same manner, the Attendance Committee will take care of excuses for grave emergencies or for off-campus activities.

Teachers are not responsible for giving makeup tests when these have been announced. No shifting of students from section to section in order to extend a class cut is allowed.

The Committee on Attendance reserves the right to deny additional excuses to students who have used all their class leaves.

All students missing classes or failing to report to residence halls on time immediately before or immediately after any college vacation must appear in person before the Administrative Council of the Faculty and furnish satisfactory excuses for their absences.

Withdrawal from College

The President of the college must be notified in writing of a student’s intention to withdraw. In the case of a minor, the parents of the student must make such notification to the President.

Further Regulations

Students in registering must use their proper, legal names, and students who are married while in college must immediately register under their married names.

A change of legal name or home address is to be made known promptly to the Registrar, the Dean of Freshmen or Dean of Women, and the Business Manager.

The College is not authorized to extend credit to students. Each student must therefore pay all fees for the preceding term before registering for a subsequent term. For other regulations governing collection of fees see the current college catalog.

The college does not permit hazing in any form.

Solicitations (See p. 46, No. 14, College Catalog).

Students are not allowed to sell commodities of any kind in the dormitories or on campus. No outside agent is allowed to sell any form of merchandise without permission from the President.
PRINCIPLES OF SELF-GOVERNMENT

Every student who matriculates at Madison becomes a member of a community which enjoys a considerable degree of self-government. Truth and honesty are the basis of such community life. Only where there is a deep sense of personal integrity can there be the mutual trust and self-respect upon which any system of self-government must rest.

Every member of the student association shares its obligations as well as its privileges. She must be willing to place the standards of the community above her own. She must accept responsibility not only for herself, but for her fellow-citizens as well. It is presumed that every student who enrolls at Madison is a person of honor and that she will act honorably in all of her relations.

The Honor System is established for the purpose of fostering and preserving these cherished ideals. Lying, cheating, stealing and failure to report one of these breaches of honor are considered violations of the honor system, whose effective operation is entirely dependent upon each individual student. Each student is equally responsible and should conduct herself so as to be free of reproach or suspicion, and should also be prompt to prosecute dishonorable acts of others. Failure to subscribe to these practices injures the integrity of the group and reflects upon the entire college body.

(b) All scholastic work, whether in the classroom or out, shall be the student's own, and shall be done in accordance with the requirements of the professor. The Recorder of Points shall act as chairman. See pp. 14, 15 and 78-81.

SOCIAL PROCEDURES

Student activities develop the poise, self-confidence, and graciousness that are essential to a young woman's success in a home-making, professional, or business career. The Dean of Women, Dean of Freshmen, chaperons, hostesses, the Social Committee, and the Standards Committee exercise general supervision over all the social activities of the students and encourage every means for wholesome enjoyment.

Certain privileges enjoyed by the respective classes are granted by the college with the understanding that these regulations will govern the classes of succeeding years unless in the meantime the college deems it advisable to modify these privileges, the classes having the right to petition the Administrative Council for a modification of privileges whenever special conditions may warrant such action.

These privileges are subject to the following conditions:

1. That the class organizations and the members of the classes individually obligate themselves to observe strictly these regulations and to report to the Student Government all violations of the same by any members of the classes.

2. That members of the respective classes promise to conduct themselves with refinement, and in no way that would reflect discredit upon themselves or upon the college.

3. That whenever a student violates or abuses one of these privileges, or violates any obligation assumed in receiving these privileges, the regulations shall be automatically suspended for such student and such action taken as the Student Council shall see fit to take.

4. That all students who wish to sign out or in must do so in their respective social centers during the regular office hours.

In granting these privileges, the college reserves the right to suspend at any time any or all of them from any or all of the members of their respective classes, or to modify said privileges as in its judgment may be advisable at the time.

Students receive their social privileges in accordance with their academic rating and cumulative average.

Campus Calendar

In order to prevent conflicts of time and place, all social events, activities of student organizations, and other special programs are placed on the calendar in the office of Dean of Women, by a member or adviser of any student organization, or a faculty member.

Rehearsals in Wilson Auditorium, social events in Reed or Ashby Gym or Alumnae Hall, picnics, hikes, recitals, plays, dinners, pay-days, movies, class meetings, athletic events, and other special events are to be listed on the calendar. Everyone on campus has immediate access to this information.

6. Students receive their riding privileges according to college regulations, parental permission, and academic rating.

7. Violations of these riding privileges are subject to such penalties as determined by the Student Council and Administrative Council.

8. All requests from the parent or guardian concerning permissions should be mailed from the parent or guardian directly to the Dean of Freshmen or Dean of Women.

9. If a student’s record, (scholastic and personal), declines, these privileges will be restricted by the Administrative Council. See also p. 30.

Sun Bathing

Sun bathing is permitted in season when approved by the college physician. Students are expected to exercise good judgment as to proper weather for sun bathing. No sun bathing is permitted on Sunday until 2:30 p. m.

Students in appropriate attire may go only to the outdoor swimming pool or behind the back-campus tennis courts for sun bathing. Suggestion: halter and shorts or swim-suit.

No excuse from class is given for illness attributed to sun bathing, however cases of sunburn will be treated.

Sunday on Campus

1. Every woman is urged to attend and to participate in some part of the activities of the church of her choice.
2. Students who wish to sign out on Sunday between 10:30 A. M. and 12:30 P. M. in Logan, Junior, and Senior dating centers do so in Alumnae Hall. This will enable the hostesses to attend church.
4. Rest, reading, letter-writing, walking, dating, tennis, visiting, group suppers, games in the gymnasium, victrola records, radio and game rooms or the swimming pool may be enjoyed. The tea room will be open.

Swimming

The swimming pool may be used by all students any day during the dip hours. The pool is supervised by the Physical Education Department and life-guards.

Tennis

Tennis courts of the college are open daily in appropriate weather, except on Sundays, when the hours are 2:30 to 7:00 P. M.

Reservations for specific hours may be made on the main bulletin board in Reed Hall. Students and guests may play tennis if proper tennis attire is worn.
Visiting in Town

Students visiting in private homes in Harrisonburg, during the day other than faculty homes, register in the office of the Dean of Women before the first visit. See p. 35. no. 6.

Requests may be approved for senior and junior resident students to spend the night off-campus in Harrisonburg and vicinity with friends in a private home; and for any resident student to spend the night off-campus with parents, other close relatives, guardian or husband in a private home, tourist home or hotel.

Visitors on Campus

1. Students are permitted to receive and entertain casual out-of-town guests during the day if such visits do not conflict with class attendance.

2. Overnight guests are welcome on week-ends. They are registered in the office of the Dean of Women, and observe the same regulations as students. A charge of 50¢ a night is paid for a room-guest to the dormitory hostess or the Director of Dormitories.

3. Meal tickets for guests may be purchased from the Dietitian.

4. The Dean of Women and the Dean of Freshmen are glad to meet visitors in their respective offices in Alumnae Hall.

5. Members of the students' immediate families may visit in dormitories when properly announced to the hostess.

Visiting, Walking, or Hiking

1. Unescorted students may go walking or shopping before 6:00 p. m. without registering. For walking or calling after 6:00 p. m. see (a) under Permissions on page 39 and Off-Campus on page 37.
2. The business section of the city is avoided on Sunday.
3. Dates walking on campus are restricted to the quadrangle.
4. Walking is not permitted on back-campus after 7:00 p.m.
5. Students may go in groups of three or more on hikes or picnics, with plans approved by the Dean of Women.
6. Students may visit friends in the Rockingham Hospital during the visiting hours.
DORMITORY LIFE

In the dormitories women live as cooperative and reliable members of a large group. Their behavior is governed by good taste and intelligence. By living up to the best standards, students are oriented to the traditions and regulations of college life, lasting friendships are established, health is protected, effective study is promoted, wholesome personalities develop, and college proves to be a successful experience.

The Madison College way of living and working as presented in this Handbook assumes intelligence, good college spirit, and refined taste, and makes the college a wholesome place for keen intellectual growth and valuable personal development. The Madison atmosphere is that of intelligent behavior and disciplined self-control.

Assignment of Rooms

1. Room assignments are made for freshmen in the office of Dean of Freshmen and for all other students in the office of Dean of Women. Room changes are made after consulting with the Dean of Freshmen or Dean of Women.

2. All students who do not reside at home or with a near relative are required to live in a college residence hall until such accommodations are exhausted. Students may room in private homes in town only when there is no room for them in dormitories and only when their quarters are selected and approved by the Dean of Women or the Dean of Freshmen.

Closing Hour

Each woman shall be in her dormitory every night by 10:35 P. M. except on Saturday night when the time is 11:05 P. M.
Dormitory Personnel

1. The Dormitory Council is a self-contained unit consisting of a hostess provided by the college administration, a president, an assistant president, and from two to six proctors, in charge of all regulations affecting the living of the resident group. This group meets every two weeks to discuss group living.

2. Each member of the dormitory is responsible for the observance of all regulations of the house. A monthly meeting of the dormitory members is called by the dormitory president at a time and place agreed upon by the members.

3. The dormitory hostess is a counselor working in cooperation with the Dormitory Council, Dean of Freshmen, Dean of Women, and the President of the College to promote the wholesome welfare of all women in the dormitory.

4. There will be no appeal to authority outside the house except in case of needed advice or a major difficulty. See p. 50.

Fire Drills

The Fire Department officers and duties are set forth in the Student Government Constitution.

Fire drill instructions are posted in each dormitory. In dormitory meetings fire drill instructions are discussed for clear understanding and correct performance.

Fire drills are held in each dormitory at irregular times.

When the alarm is sounded, each student shall:
1. Close windows, turn on the light, put on coat and shoes, leave door open.
2. Go quickly, using proper exit.—Do not stand in halls.
4. Refrain from laughing or talking during fire drill.
5. Return to room at proper signal.
No one may be excused from a fire drill under any condition. Only the appointed fireman shall sound the alarm, except in case of fire.

Housekeeping Standards

High standards of care and management in dormitory rooms protect health, make efficient study possible, encourage good friendships, and create a desirable atmosphere for self-respecting members of a group.

Rooms are subject to inspection at any time by the dormitory hostess, Director of Dormitories, Dean of Freshmen, Dean of Women, other members of the faculty and any visitors.

Sub-standard housekeeping brings a call-down from the House Council or Director of Dormitories.

Marring of walls in any way or the misuse of equipment provided by the college is not permitted. Fines are collected for damages.

Students may not use in their rooms inflammable substances or any electrical appliances except radios and hand hair dryers. See also catalogue p. 53 no. 12.

On leaving school a student leaves her room clear of clothing, furnishings, and trash.

Late Permissions

Each woman shall be in her dormitory by 10:35 P. M. (11:05 P. M. Saturday) except when “Over-night slip,” (see “Over-night Absences,” p. 38) or “Late Permission” slip allows later return. “Late Permission” slips are granted by the office of the Dean of Women in advance of the late return and must be returned the following morning to that office by the House President. Freshmen secure late permissions from the Dean of Freshmen. A student having permission to be out of her dormitory later than the above hours must notify the House President and hostess prior to her absence.

Laundry and Pressing

Students send articles to the college laundry in accordance with the laundry rules as posted in each dormitory.

Pressing facilities are provided by the college. Information may be obtained from the dormitory hostess. Students may not use electric irons in their dormitory rooms.

Lights

Radios and conversations must terminate on Saturday night by 12:00 p.m., and on other nights at 11:00 p.m. There will be unrestricted light privileges for study until 12:00 o'clock midnight and, for upper classmen, an additional hour for study may be allowed for those who register with the hostess for this privilege. This privilege is dependent upon absolute quiet prevailing after 11:00 p.m. during the week and after 12:00 p.m. on Saturday night. If it is found that the situation is not satisfactory, as a result of this liberalization of the light privilege, or if abuses should occur, the right is reserved to revise or modify this policy with respect to late lights.

On nights of formal dances, lights may burn until 12:45 a.m.

Lost and Found

Lost and found articles are turned in to the Office of the Dean of Women.

Lounge-Rooms

These rooms in the dormitories may be used to receive parents and other approved guests, for conversation and radio, for house-meetings, for group-devotions, and for reading.

"Dates" and men-callers are received in the college reception-rooms where full-time hostesses are provided.

Money

Students deposit personal money at the Office of the Business Manager for safe-keeping and quick accessibility.

Over-Night Guests in Dormitories

1. Over-night guests of students are registered by the student-hostess in the Office of the Dean of Women before 4:00 p.m. They observe the same procedures as students.

2. Women may meet their friends on in-coming buses and see them off if they get permission from the office of the Dean of Women or Dean of Freshmen and go in class groupings.

3. When a student wishes to stay over-night on Friday or Saturday as a guest in a dormitory not her own, she:
   (a) signs in the Dormitory Guest Book, office of Dean of Women, before 4 p.m.
   (b) notifies her Hostess or House-President of her plan.

4. When a student is to be an over-night guest in another room in her own dormitory, she notifies her Hostess of her plan.

Quiet Hours

Hours for study and personal work in the dormitories are observed from 7:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. daily except Saturday and Sunday evenings.

There is to be no conversation and no use of radio or victrola from 11:00 p.m. to 6:45 a.m.
Every student is to be reasonably quiet during all other hours, especially in the dormitory lobbies, in the dining halls, and on the streets.

Official “Busy Signs” are respected at any hour of the day for the benefit of those who wish quiet or who wish to work without interference.

Radio and Victrola Regulations

A radio or a victrola may be used in a dormitory room on the following plan:

1. Not more than one radio may be used in a room.
2. Each radio must be installed with the approval of the college electrician.
3. No radio may be used until a fee for electric current of seventy-five cents per semester has been paid at the office of the Business Manager.
4. Radios may be turned on low, (dormitory door and transom closed) without restriction as to time between 6:45 A. M. and 11:00 P. M.
5. The volume of the sound of the radio must be controlled so as not to disturb students in other rooms.
6. If these regulations are not observed, the radio will be removed from the room by the Hostess or Director of Dormitories and a call-down is given each member of the room.
7. On the nights of formal dances on the campus, radios may be used till midnight.
8. Victrolas: Regulations 4, 5, 6, 7 shall apply to victrolas as well as radios.

Sewing Rooms

There are sewing machines on the first floor of Junior and Senior Halls for students to use. Please furnish your own needle and bobbin.
Smoking

The college does not encourage smoking. It is permitted only in the students' dormitory rooms, reception centers, recreation rooms, campus rest rooms, halls of Reed during intermission at formal dances, and in downtown restaurants.

Telephone and Telegraph Service

All students will find it desirable to notify their friends of their telephone numbers, since calls between the city switchboard and dormitories are made over pay telephones. Only emergency calls may be made or received by students after 11:00 p.m. There is a telephone on first floor Alumnae Hall for students to use for college business only.

Please remember to use the telephone sharingly, space calls fairly, hang up receiver carefully and keep calls brief.

Telegraph messages may be sent at any time from a pay-telephone; there is one on each floor of each dormitory, as well as in the post office lobby, Harrison Hall.

Students are notified at once of Western Union messages, which are delivered at Alumnae Hall.

Transportation Down Town

When necessary a student may call a taxi to go downtown. There is also a bus through campus every hour.

Out-of-town transportation facilities must be approved by the college. (See also p. 38.)

Vacation Periods

During short vacation periods, such as Thanksgiving or Easter, students may leave the campus on approved trips or remain on campus in whatever dormitory is open. All dormitories are closed during the Christmas vacation.
Violations

“Liberty is not the right to do as you choose; it is the responsibility of choosing what is right.”

Violations of good standards for group-living are handled promptly by the House Council by authority granted them through Student Government. A problem may be referred to the Student Council, the Dean of Freshmen, the Dean of Women, or the President of the College.

Any student will forfeit her privilege of living in a dormitory if she creates disturbance so that others cannot work effectively or sleep.

Violations of the standards, practices, and procedures at Madison College are handled promptly by the Student Council of Student Government.

Violations of administrative regulations are handled by the Administrative Council.

Penalties which may be given for failure to cooperate with the college government may be “plain campus,” “strict campus,” “call downs,” probation, suspension, or dismissal. If a student receives as many as 3 call-downs, she is immediately restricted.

A woman with adjustment difficulties is welcome to talk with the dormitory hostess, Dean of Freshmen, Dean of Women, or any other faculty member who may be able to help her.

What does HONOR mean on the Madison College Campus?

The Honor System was created by Madison College students to foster high ideals of integrity and straight forwardness in conduct, thought, and speech. Since it is the work of students, they believe that every person who enrolls at Madison will be proud to belong to an organization which will not tolerate lying, cheating, and stealing. Each new student comes into possession of a coveted heritage—something that grows stronger with the years. In order to strengthen it, and to leave to those that follow a mighty tradition of honest dealing with one another, each student must give his full cooperation to those elected representatives of the student body who have the responsibility of enforcing the Honor Code. To do otherwise would violate one's personal integrity.
The purpose of this organization, founded in March, 1910, is to encourage and stimulate the students' interests as participants in athletic games and sports, to promote good sportsmanship, and to cultivate a spirit of cooperation and fellowship.

The members of the council are: officers of A. A.; presidents of Mercury, Modern Dance, Tennis, and Archery Clubs; the school sports leaders of hockey, basketball, swimming, volleyball, badminton, and softball; and one representative from each class.

There are intramural and extramural sports programs which afford each girl an opportunity to take part in the various athletic activities on campus. These programs include hockey, basketball, volleyball, archery, badminton, tennis, swimming, softball, table tennis, horse shoes, golf, stunts, and tumbling.

The Y. W. C. A. has as its aims: to lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ; to lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church; to promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible; to influence them to devote themselves in efforts with all Christians to making the will of Christ effective.

The Y. W. C. A. undertakes certain projects each year. A yearly project is the Freshmen Commission, which is organized to promote Christian fellowship and training for future "Y" work among its members, through weekly devotional and discussion meetings. It also sponsors numerous recreational activities on campus.

Friday chapel and Sunday vespers are looked forward to by both students and faculty.

These college girls have various contacts and conferences where other college "Y" people get together. These conferences occur throughout the state. Officers are given the opportunity for special training at the national school of training.

VII. SORORITIES

Panhellenic Council

This association, composed of three representatives from each sorority on campus, has as its main purpose to maintain on a high plane sorority life and inter-sorority relationship, to cooperate with college authorities in their effort to maintain high social and scholarship standards throughout the whole college, and to be a forum for the discussion of questions of interest to the college and sorority world.

The Panhellenic Council established a policy to become effective in the fall of 1945 that a student has to be on campus for two regular semesters before she may be rushed by a sorority, except in the case of a transfer who may be rushed after one semester, provided she meets the standards. All students must have a scholastic cumulative “C” average as well as a “C” for the preceding semester before being rushed by a sorority.

Panhellenic Code of Ethics

Membership in a sorority obligates each initiate thereof:
1. To co-operate with college authorities and to foster closer relationship with faculty and student body.
2. To respect both the letter and the spirit of any agreement made by the college and the Council.
3. To refrain from speaking disparagingly of any nonsorority girl or a member of another sorority.
4. To refrain from discussion of sorority affairs with non-members.
5. To regulate conduct so that it shall at all times conform in spirit and appearance with accepted standards of good breeding.
6. To conduct all rushing as inconspicuously as possible, to keep all rush rules in the “spirit” and the “letter of the law.”
7. To remember that of those to whom much is given, much is required and that a sorority badge is not a mark of superiority but a pledge to high endeavor.

8. To remember that the unity of sororities means mutual improvement and protection.

9. To so honor the badge worn that nothing will be done to reflect discredit upon it.

CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

Old scrap-books, old songs, old lace, old streets—old things are dearest; and the nicest, most individual, most compelling aspect of Madison is its traditions—some almost as old as the College itself. Of all the memories taken away by girls who have attended Madison, the longest remembered are those of the events that have been going on, year after year, until they have become traditional. It would be impossible to determine just which of the following customs and traditions means the most.

Alumnae Day

Alumnae Day, which is held on the nearest week-end after Founders' Day, March 14, is the time all former students of Madison College, in both summer and regular sessions, are invited to visit the college and enjoy the program provided for the occasion.

May Day

The all college May Day is sponsored by the Athletic Association. Participants include members from all classes.

The Athletic Association Council nominates the court. Nominations are made on the bases of beauty, poise and grace. Candidates are nominated and each member of the council votes for thirty-eight girls by secret ballot.

The final decision for the Queen, her Maid-of-honor and the twelve Maids is made by the student body. Balloting is done at one of the assembly periods. Those persons elected by the student body to serve in the May Court are tapped by members of the Athletic Association Council during a Monday assembly.

Oldgirl—Newgirl Ceremony

Symbolical of the union between new students and old, the Oldgirl-Newgirl ceremony is solemnized each fall under the auspices of the Student Government Association.

Candlelight Service

In the fall, soon after the arrival of the students, each girl is given the opportunity of becoming a member of Y. W. C. A. A very impressive candlelight service is held as a public recognition of its new members. This is a most impressive service, as each receives the light symbolical of the Christian life.

Christmas Pageant

Each year, just before the Christmas holidays begin, a simple but impressive Christmas Pageant is given. The Madonna is chosen by popular election from the student body.

Worship Program

Worship services are held every Sunday afternoon at 1:50 p.m. The “Y” also sponsors the Friday chapel services. The entire student body is invited to attend.

Big and Little Sisters

During the summer each upper classman receives the name of her “little sister,” to whom she writes and gives an early welcome to the campus and makes her feel as if she were a part of the college before she gets here. The big sister helps her little sister to become adjusted and acts as her adviser all through the year. The Big Sister-Little Sister party is given on the first Wednesday evening of each school year. Each big sister escorts her little sister and delights in introducing her to the old girls.
Sports, Games and Dance

All year-round interest in sports is left high by the Intramural Program.

The fall sports are field hockey, archery and tennis. Tournaments are arranged and instruction is given to those who desire it.

The winter sports are bowling, basketball, volleyball and badminton. Bowling competition and instruction is arranged. The girls use the alleys in town. Basketball, volleyball and badminton arouse interest with the intradormitory tournament held in each sport.

The spring sports are softball, archery and tennis. Intramural swimming runs through the year.

There is all year participation in modern, square and social dance.

Each student is given an opportunity to engage in her favorite sport and dance. She is encouraged to participate in the Intramural Program and to learn new activities. Students at Madison find these athletics a valuable way to use their leisure time and become acquainted with their fellow-class mates.

Sports leaders are elected by the Athletic Association Council for each of the various activities. These leaders are responsible for scheduling intradormitory competition during the respective season. Each activity has a sponsor who is a member of the Physical Education Staff.
Alma Mater

M A R Y  F U N K  S L A U G H T E R

Oh, Alma Mater, to thy name
We'll ever faithful be,
Lift learning's torch to brighter flame,
Shed Honor's light on thee.

Where mountain blue meets sunset glow,
Our college stands serene,
With passing years its friendships grow
In memory ever green.

Oh, Madison, may wisdom clear
Guide us and prosper thee.
We give thee, Alma Mater dear,
Our love and loyalty,
Our love and loyalty.
Dear Diary,
Dear Diary,

Ah! the end of a perfect day;—well, almost perfect. I was beginning to think that I never would get those dinner dishes finished. Indeed, life would be so heavenly if one didn’t have to bother about trying to throw together three meals a day and then have to settle down long enough to wash the dishes. You know, I remember how nice it was back in the good old days at Madison when we didn’t have to worry about such horrid things. Our three meals were planned to take care of our nutritional needs for a busy day. All we had to do was go to the dining hall and eat, but we had to be on time because the doors closed promptly when the last bell rang.
However, as I think back, it seems to me as though we did have a few rules to follow. Naturally, high standards of etiquette were observed in the dining halls and in the tea room at all times. One of the first things we learned was to refrain from handling glassware, china, and silver until we were seated at the table. We knew how important it was that we push our chairs back and leave as a group. We did not think of stopping at other tables to talk. And oh! how we looked forward to Sunday dinner and other specified occasions when Sunday dress was required. During the week at meal times, all books and wraps were put in the rooms provided for them in the lobbies adjoining the respective dining halls. For greater safety crowding on the stairs at the entrance of the dining halls was avoided. Then, too, we were always reverent during the grace, and we had to learn the songs which were used for grace at dinner and were not allowed to sing at any other time in the dining halls. We were as courteous as possible to our waitress who did such a grand job of serving us. Speaking of serving, family style service was used in the dining halls, and each table had to elect a hostess to serve for a semester. Students were requested not to take food or dining hall property from the dining halls. One serving of fresh fruit could be taken at meal time. Then, too, food and medicine were not to be brought to the table at all. Head scarves could be worn turban style to breakfast, and not to be worn in any fashion to other meals.

My, I didn't realize just how much we did enjoy our meals at Madison. Oh, yes, I just remembered how we used to wait for the tea room menu to be put up on the small bulletin board to the left in Harrison lobby that was for dining hall and tea room notices only. Of course, our budget rarely allowed for such an extravagance as a meal in the tea room.

That was the life, but now I just must say goodnight. I'll need plenty of rest if I have to worry about planning three meals for tomorrow.

Dear Diary,

Say, I just heard about some of the new rules, including new dating privileges, at Madison, and are they ever super! Now I know I went to Madison too soon.

Of course, I'm sure the fundamental rules for conduct on the campus have remained just about the same. For instance, students weren't allowed to sit on the walls in front of campus, and above all, students did not "cut" campus. They met their dates in Senior, Junior, Logan and Alumnae Halls as designated by the office of the Dean of Women, and students and their dates did not walk or sit on porches of any dormitory except dating centers (Junior, Senior, Logan, and Alumnae). Benches were provided there for our convenience.

Then, too, students naturally lowered their shades after dark, and certainly did not talk out of windows or from upper story porches to passersby. We knew too, that pajamas were to be worn only in the dorms. Girls could wear slacks and jeans for appropriate occasions such as picnics, hikes, and for active sports. For other occasions, slacks and jeans were worn with a full length coat and only after dark. A full length coat was always worn over gym suits and shorts. I remember that it was necessary that we always introduce ourselves.

Hm, I can't seem to recall anything else, but I know this is certainly going to be one grand and glorious year at Madison.

Dear Diary,

You know, I was just looking up information in Emily Post's book of etiquette and found this paragraph, "Good taste or bad is involved in everything we are, do, or have. Our speech, manners, dress, and household goods—and even our friends are evidences of the quality of our taste."

It really made me stop and think. It even brings back some of the standards we followed when I was in college. The first one, which incidentally played a very great part in our social life, concerned invitations. Under all circumstances they were to be answered, whether we declined or accepted. We then learned how important it was that we be polite and take time to help guests on campus. Naturally, we had to know how to introduce ourselves and make introductions whenever there was an opportunity. We always got to know our faculty members, because they were interested in us not only as students, but as individuals.

Of course, by that time, we knew only too well that our behavior was never to be conspicuous, and that showing affection in public was very bad taste.

Well, those are just a few of the good ideas that I happened to remember. Oh my goodness, one rule we learned was never to be late for an appointment, and if I don't dash this very minute, that's exactly what's going to happen.

Dear Diary,

. . . and say, do I remember Monday and Wednesday assemblies, held at noon in Wilson, which we all were required to attend—you bet I do! It was really necessary to give strict attention to what was going on, not only for politeness sake, but for our own good. A lot of knowledge was gained through attentiveness at such gatherings. On Monday the Student Government had charge and at this time many important announcements were made and occasionally elections took place. Gosh! We could never afford to miss this day. For all who could knit and listen at the same time it was fine—but no talking and whispering. In Wednesday assembly a campus organization usually took charge and we either had a speaker or a program. There was definitely no knitting in Wednesday assembly, but the sock for him would have to be finished at a later date. The law was laid down for sure 'cause there was no writing, studying, or talking.

Friday assemblies were always sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. Our attendance was optional but it proved to be very worthwhile.

Dear Diary,

"What, no classes until after lunch—well, let's go sun-bathing." That was a familiar phrase around campus when spring came popping in and the weather turned warm. The most popular place, when the sun was shining and spring fever had taken the campus by storm, was the sunbathing area beside the outdoor swimming pool or behind the lower tennis court. It was take your choice, 'cause these were the only places sunbathing was permitted. (And only when the sun was out and the ground was dry, was sunbathing permitted.) We just grabbed out blankets and went on out; OUR blankets that is. College blankets did not go along; we kept them in our room. Radios, magazines, or a bridge game were always on hand to add to the atmosphere. Bathing suits or shorts and halters were quite the "thing", and these could be easily concealed by a raincoat or other long coat on the hike over and back. We always saved the trip to the tea room until after we had changed our clothes. Sunday was always the ideal day to acquire a suntan, so we went out AFTER Vespers were over at 2:30 P. M. There was definitely no sunbathing during Monday and Wednesday assemblies.

As a matter of courtesy, we always picked up our paper, kleenex, and other trash. We helped keep our campus clean!

Dear Diary,

Gracious, Wilson Auditorium was the popular place on Saturday night. Yes, you've probably heard that we had movies on campus every Saturday night. All of our Madison co-eds were welcome and we could bring our out-of-town guests. By the way, we had to be sure to get our lyceum tickets and had to have them with us, and if we had a "date" or other guests from out of town, we could secure guest tickets from the hostess at the social center, free of charge! Members of the Lyceum Ushers were on hand to collect guest tickets and check student lyceum tickets at the door.

Oh, and those jolly "singspiration" programs we usually had—one of the organizations led us in songs or gave some other type of short program. The movie itself began at 7:30 p. m. on the dot. Only one showing so-o-o-o we had to make it on time. Late comers were to enter the auditorium by the side doors and use the side aisles. It was wise for us to keep in mind that unnecessary laughter and noise were not in good taste.
What fun and relaxation those movies were!

Dear Diary,

Most of all I miss the dances. After the movies on Saturday night I followed the crowd to the gym. I really enjoyed those informal dances! The formal affairs which were started off with a bang by Student Governments Opening Dance, continue throughout the year with the Panhellenic dance, German and Cotillion dances, Alumnae dance, Commencement dance, and May Day dance. At first the idea of “girl break” (which is followed at all dances) didn’t appeal to me, but I soon got into the spirit and thoroughly enjoyed it. Getting to know the chaperones (teachers in disguise) on a more informal basis was fun, and I always introduced my date to them.

I recall my first dance at Madison. What a flurry I was in remembering to sign out at the dating center where I met my date, John. We entered the beautifully decorated gym at 8:30, just as the dance was starting. After going down the receiving line, we joined the throng of dancers. Looking at the gay and sophisticated couples, I felt none would have to be reminded not to chew gum, shreak loudly, run across the floor, or dance in exaggerated forms.

As John walked across the floor, I thought how handsome he looked in his ‘tux,’ and was very glad that dates were required to wear them or tails or military uniforms. Then I saw my roommate standing nearby. After she introduced me to her date, I was overjoyed because I knew I could “break” on them now, because, of course, girls break only on dates to whom they had been introduced. The stags available are the men students at Madison because the dances are closed affairs.

At intermission delicious punch and cookies were served. Incidentally any type of alcoholic beverage was and still is strictly taboo. All too soon “the clock was striking 12 midnight”, and we went directly to our dormitories where a bell sounded at 12:25 A. M. By 12:45 A. M., when all lights are supposed to be out, I was dreaming of dancing in the brightly decorated gymnasium at the very next dance.

That’s enough reminiscing for tonight, dear diary.

Goodnight

Dear Diary,

When will I learn to appreciate what I have when I have it! Those wonderful recreation rooms in Ashby and Spottwood where we could play bridge, dance, ('cept on Sundays, of course), grab a coke, and just plain loaf, were open all day and night (at least 'til 10:30 on week nights and 11 on Saturday nights) I can remember strolling over to Ashby after lunch for a relaxing half hour; that was one place I could always manage to bum a cigarette! Naturally proper care of the furniture was a “must”, so we watched our falling ashes.

After meeting our dates at the proper dating center, we always answered the proverbial question, “What shall we do?” with “Let’s go to Ashby rec room”. Before our dates we had checked our handbooks to determine what hours “dates” were allowed to use the recreation room.

Another item I recall is the neat appearance of the girls at all times.

If I could only have the use of those rooms again, I’d even promise to return my coke bottles to the holders (as we were supposed to) and refrain from using the outside doors and entrances as shortcuts—the “rec” rooms really weren’t meant to be traffic ways! Oh, for the life of a college girl once more!

Dear Diary,

A few spare moments last year meant a trip down town! What fun we had, although we kept in mind our appearance, voices, and conduct on the street, in the movies, and in public eating places. We didn’t smoke on the way to town, but it was permitted in the restaurants. By the way, it was in college that I first learned to use discrimination in my choice of eating places and theatres. Allotting sufficient time to cover that after movie snack and the trip back to school was another valuable lesson.
Since students are permitted to attend Sunday movies, it always made me feel proud to see all the Madison girls so attractively and appropriately dressed.

Dear Diary,

“What should I wear?” That was the number one question among new students and almost as frequently asked by upperclassmen. The first and foremost rule was “dress appropriately” and the second was “use good taste.” For classes everyday cottons were the fad until it turned cool and then these were replaced by skirts and sweaters or blouses. Shorts or slacks and shirts were worn for active sports. Semi-formal dress replaced the street clothes on Sunday and by semi-formal they meant hose, heels, or dressy flats, and dresses or suits. For lyceum programs, teas, or other social events, we dressed up—semi-formal dress.

Hats were worn to afternoon teas and parties and to church. For formal affairs we wore long dresses—formal dances called for evening dresses and formal dinners called for dinner dresses (if we had one or evening dresses, preferably not strapless for dinner).

By the way, when we planned any social event, teas, class days, banquets, luncheons, receptions, open house, etc., we contacted the Social Committee. There were many capable chairmen and as I understand it Beverly Owens is now chairman. The Committee gave us lots of suggestions and were always glad to help us when it came to invitations, line-ups, wraps, table plans, etc.

Formally yours ... nite diary,

Dear Diary,

Weekends! !—events we used to look forward to and save our cuts for. “Now don’t forget to send my letter to the office and, I guess that’s all. Yes, I’ll see you Friday, I’ll be on the 3:15 bus. Thanks again, bye now.”

It went like that. There it was, a weekend just past and then
I had an invitation from my cute lil’ man for a fraternity party and informal dance the next weekend.

It was great to be excited and have something nice to look forward to. The weekends away at nearby schools were oh, so nice. They were even nicer over us. We were free women! Truly that was a fine feeling, but, we did get peeved when we saw other girls taking advantage of that freedom.

We were all representatives of Madison and we behaved as such. We were expected to conduct ourselves as ladies while on the campus, in the community and at other schools. Our conduct brought credit or discredit, not only to ourselves, our families, and our college, but to the girls who had gone to our college, were still going, and to those who would attend in the future.

If there was any question as to the appropriateness and good taste of a girl’s conduct anywhere the Student Council was justified in contacting that student.

Dear Diary,

No, I never realized how much I’d miss those little things, but most of all I remember those friendly smiles and the desire of each individual to be proud of her contribution to the wholesome spirit and campus life at Madison.
