ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

Registration of Students

Freshmen report first to the office of the Dean of Freshmen for assignment of rooms. There they will be advised where to go in Wilson Hall for matriculation. Other new students report to the office of the Dean of Women.

All students must have their program of classes approved by some member of the Schedule Committee. No changes may then be made except by permission of the Dean of the College, or some designated committee.

Grading System

Details may be found on pages 42-43 in the College Catalog.

Attendance and Absences

Students are expected to be present at their classes and other scheduled appointments. Absence from class is obviously detrimental to the student's progress in academic work.

All students except waitresses and student teachers whose teaching conflicts with assemblies are required to attend assemblies. See also page 11 regarding Assemblies.

Absences for professional purposes, field trips, conventions, athletic and music groups, etc., are handled by the Dean of the College.

The college physician takes care of excuses for absences due to illness of a student, or in case of illness in the family, providing a doctor's statement is presented.

In order to be valid, excuses must be presented to the instructor within one week after the student returns to school.

Students are expected to use class leaves sparingly and to save them for emergencies. The Committee on Attendance reserves the right to deny additional absences to students who have used their class cuts. For every occasion that a student takes a cut beyond the number allowed, he shall be reported by his instructor to the Attendance Committee. He will lose his cuts for the following semester and if excessive cuts continue, the student may be recommended for probation or suspension.

Cuts may be taken as follows:

Students whose scholastic indices in the previous semester are 3.25, or better, may take as many class cuts as in their judgment it is wise to take.

First semester freshmen will have no cuts.

All other students may have as many cuts per course per semester as class meetings per week, except that in no case will more than three cuts be allowed in any course.

Cuts on the first or last meeting of a class in a given semester or for a class period immediately before or after a holiday are considered double cuts. (See also page 34, No. 7 in Catalog for details).

Teachers are not responsible for giving make-up tests to absentees when these tests have been announced. No shifting of students from section to section in order to extend a class cut is allowed.

All students missing classes or failing to report to residence halls on time immediately before or immediately after any college vacation except those taking double cuts previously approved or when excuses have been approved by the college physician must appear in person before the Administrative Council of the Faculty and furnish reasons for their absences.

The class leave plan is not applicable to the summer term.

Attendance Regulations for Wednesday Assemblies

1. Assemblies will be held on Wednesday of every week at twelve o'clock noon.

2. Men and women will be seated together by classes.

3. All students are allowed two cuts (i.e. absences for which excuses are not presented) for each semester from attendance at Wednesday assemblies, but cuts are not allowed at convocations.

4. The Attendance Committee may allow unlimited cuts to students (men or women) who hold part-time jobs of such a nature that attendance at Wednesday assemblies conflicts with the performance of their other duties.

5. Penalties for students who take more than the two allowed cuts each semester are:
   a. Resident Students: For the first offense, one week's strict campus to be administered by the Student Government Association; for the second offense, three weeks' strict campus, to be administered by the Student Government Association; for the third offense, two months' strict campus, to be administered by the Student Government Association; for the fourth offense, the student must come before the Administrative Council and may be placed on probation, suspended for a definite period, or given indefinite suspension.
   b. Day Students: For the first offense, a written warning given by the Attendance Committee; for the second offense, called before Attendance Committee and may be placed on strict probation; for the third offense, called before the Administrative Council and may be suspended for a definite period of time; for the fourth offense, indefinite suspension may be given by the Administrative Council.

6. The monitors who check attendance at assemblies shall report to the Vice-President of the Student Government Association who in turn shall report violations by boarding students to the Student Council and by day students to the Attendance Committee.

Regarding Monday Assemblies:

The same plan as above will be followed except
   a. A student is allowed as many as 3 cuts.
   b. In case of a fourth offense, the student must come before the Student Council.
   c. The men students are required to attend their own meetings.
Withdrawal from College

The President of the college must be notified in writing of a student's intention to withdraw. In the case of a minor, the parents of the student must submit such notification to the President.

Further Regulations

Students in registering must use their proper, legal names, and students who are married while in college must immediately register under their married names.

A change of legal name or home address is to be made known promptly to the Registrar, the Dean of Freshmen or Dean of Women, and the Business Manager.

The College is not authorized to extend credit to students. Each student must therefore pay all fees for the preceding term before registering for a subsequent term. For other regulations governing collection of fees see the current college catalog.

The college does not permit hazing in any form.

Solicitations (See p. 46, No. 14, College Catalog).

Students are not allowed to sell commodities of any kind in the dormitories or on campus. No outside agent is allowed to sell any form of merchandise without permission from the President.
Every student who matriculates at Madison becomes a member of a community which enjoys a considerable degree of self-government. Truth and honesty are the basis of such community life. Only where there is a deep sense of personal integrity can there be the mutual trust and self-respect upon which any system of self-government must rest.

Every member of the student association shares its obligations as well as its privileges. She must be willing to place the standards of the community above her own. She must accept responsibility not only for herself, but for her fellow-citizens as well. It is presumed that every student who enrolls at Madison is a person of honor and that she will act honorably in all of her relations.

The Honor System is established for the purpose of fostering and preserving these cherished ideals. Lying, cheating, stealing and failure to report one of these breaches of honor are considered violations of the Honor System, whose effective operation is entirely dependent upon each individual student. Each student is equally responsible and should conduct herself so as to be free of reproach or suspicion, and should also be prompt to prosecute dishonorable acts of others. Failure to subscribe to these practices injures the integrity of the group and reflects upon the entire college body.

SOCIAL PROCEDURES

Student activities develop the poise, self-confidence, and graciousness that are essential to a young woman's success in a home-making, professional, or business career. The Dean of Women, Dean of Freshmen, chaperons, hostesses, the Social Committee, and the Standards Committee exercise general supervision over all the social activities of the students and encourage every means for wholesome enjoyment.

Certain privileges enjoyed by the respective classes are granted by the college with the understanding that these regulations will govern the classes of succeeding years unless in the meantime the college deems it advisable to modify these privileges, the classes having the right to petition the Administrative Council for a modification of privileges whenever special conditions may warrant such action.

These privileges are subject to the following conditions:

1. That the class organizations and the members of the classes individually obligate themselves to observe strictly these regulations and to report to the Student Government all violations of the same by any members of the classes.

2. That members of the respective classes promise to conduct themselves with refinement, and in no way that would reflect discredit upon themselves or upon the college.

3. That whenever a student violates or abuses one of these privileges, or violates any obligation assumed in receiving these privileges, the regulations shall be automatically suspended for such student and such action taken as the Student Council shall see fit to take.

4. That all students who wish to sign out or in must do so in their respective social centers during the regular office hours.
In granting these privileges, the college reserves the right to suspend at any time any or all of them from any or all of the members of their respective classes, or to modify said privileges as in its judgment may be advisable at the time.

Students receive their social privileges in accordance with their academic rating and cumulative average. See also p. 41, College Catalog.

Campus Calendar

In order to prevent conflicts of time and place, all social events, activities of student organizations, and other special programs are placed on the calendar in the office of Dean of Women, by a member or adviser of any student organization, or a faculty member.

Rehearsals in Wilson Auditorium, social events in Reed or Ashby Gym or Alumnae Hall, picnics, hikes, recitals, plays, dinners, pay-days, movies, class meetings, athletic events, and other special events are to be listed on the calendar. Everyone on campus has immediate access to this information.

Resident students (except mature students, Group M-2) may not have or use private cars on the campus except when riding with parents, other adult members of their immediate families, adult friends, or approved dates.

Such students may not keep private cars on the campus, but, with the approval of the President, private cars may be stored off-campus, by juniors and seniors, for use on approved (week-end) trips only. This regulation does not apply to day students or resident mature students (Group M-2). See Riding, page 45, item 5 (a) (2). DORMITORY LIFE

In the dormitories women live as cooperative and reliable members of a large group. Their behavior is governed by good taste and intelligence. By living up to the best standards, students are oriented to the traditions and regulations of college life, lasting friendships are established, health is protected, effective study is promoted, wholesome personalities develop, and college proves to be a successful experience.

The Madison College way of living and working as presented in this HANDBOOK assumes intelligence, good college spirit, and refined taste, and makes the college a wholesome place for keen intellectual growth and valuable personal development. The Madison atmosphere is that of intelligent behavior and disciplined self-control.

2. All students who do not reside at home or with a near relative are required to live in a college residence hall until such accommodations are exhausted. Students may room in private homes in town only when there is no room for them in dormitories and only when their quarters are selected and approved by the Dean of Women or the Dean of Freshmen.

Rooms are subject to inspection at any time by the dormitory hostess, Director of Dormitories, Dean of Freshmen, Dean of Women, other members of the faculty and any visitors.

Sub-standard housekeeping brings a call-down from the House Council or Director of Dormitories.

Marring of walls in any way or the misuse of equipment provided by the college is not permitted. Fines are collected for damages.

Students may not use in their rooms inflammable substances or any electrical appliances except radios and hand hair dryers. See also catalogue p. 53 no. 12.

Saturday) except when “Over-night slip,” (see “Over-night Absences,” p. 42) or “Late Permission” slip allows later return. “Late Permission” slips are granted by the office of the Dean of Women in advance of the late return and must be returned the following morning to that office by the House President. Freshmen secure late permissions from the Dean of Freshmen. A student having permission to be out of her dormitory later than the above hours must notify the House President and hostess prior to her absence.

On nights of formal dances, lights may burn until 12:45 A.M.

Lost and Found

Lost and found articles are turned in to the Office of the Dean of Women.

Every student is to be reasonably quiet during all other hours, especially in the dormitory lobbies, in the dining halls, and on the streets.

Official “Busy Signs” are respected at any hour of the day for the benefit of those who wish quiet or who wish to work without interference.

Radio and Victrola Regulations

Please remember to use the telephone sharingly, space calls fairly, hang up receiver carefully and keep calls brief.

Telegraph messages may be sent at any time from a pay-telephone; there is one on each floor of each dormitory, as well as in the post office lobby, Harrison Hall.

Violations

"Liberty is not the right to do as you choose; it is the responsibility of choosing what is right."

Violations of good standards for group-living are handled promptly by the House Council by authority granted them through Student Government. A problem may be referred to the Student Council, the Dean of Freshmen, the Dean of Women, or the President of the College.

Any student will forfeit her privilege of living in a dormitory if she creates disturbance so that others cannot work effectively or sleep.

Violations of the standards, practices, and procedures at Madison College are handled promptly by the Student Council of Student Government.

What does HONOR mean on the Madison College Campus?

The Honor System was created by Madison College students to foster high ideals of integrity and straightforwardness in conduct, thought, and speech. Since it is the work of students, they believe that every person who enrolls at Madison will be proud to belong to an organization which will not tolerate lying, cheating, and stealing. Each new student comes into possession of a coveted heritage—something that grows stronger with the years. In order to strengthen it, and to leave to those that follow a mighty tradition of honest dealing with one another, each student must give his full cooperation to those elected representatives of the student body who have the responsibility of enforcing the Honor Code. To do otherwise would violate one’s personal integrity.

VII. SORORITIES

Panhellenic Council

This association, composed of three representatives from each sorority on campus, has as its main purpose to maintain on a high plane sorority life and inter-sorority relationship, to co-operate with college authorities in their effort to maintain high social and scholarship standards throughout the whole college, and to be a forum for the discussion of questions of interest to the college and sorority world.

The Panhellenic Council established a policy to become effective in the fall of 1945 that a student has to be on campus for two regular semesters before she may be rushed by a sorority, except in the case of a transfer who may be rushed after one semester, provided she meets the standards. All students must have a scholastic cumulative "C" average as well as a "C" for the preceding semester before being rushed by a sorority.

Panhellenic Code of Ethics

Membership in a sorority obligates each initiate thereof:

1. To co-operate with college authorities and to foster closer relationship with faculty and student body.
2. To respect both the letter and the spirit of any agreement made by the college and the Council.
3. To refrain from speaking disparagingly of any non-sorority girl or a member of another sorority.
4. To refrain from discussion of sorority affairs with non-members.
5. To regulate conduct so that it shall at all times conform in spirit and appearance with accepted standards of good breeding.
6. To conduct all rushing as inconspicuously as possible, to keep all rush rules in the "spirit" and the "letter of the law."
7. To remember that of those to whom much is given, much is required and that a sorority badge is not a mark of superiority but a pledge to high endeavor.

8. To remember that the unity of sororities means mutual improvement and protection.

9. To so honor the badge worn that nothing will be done to reflect discredit upon it.

CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

Old scrap-books, old songs, old lace, old streets—old things are dearest; and the nicest, most individual, most compelling aspect of Madison is its traditions—some almost as old as the College itself. Of all the memories taken away by girls who have attended Madison, the longest remembered are those of the events that have been going on, year after year, until they have become traditional. It would be impossible to determine just which of the following customs and traditions means the most.

Alumnae Day

Alumnae Day, which is held on the nearest week-end after Founders' Day, March 14, is the time for all former students of Madison College, in both summer and regular sessions, are invited to visit the college and enjoy the program provided for the occasion.

May Day

The all college May Day is sponsored by the Athletic Association. Participants include members from all classes.

The Athletic Association Council nominates the court. Nominations are made on the bases of beauty, poise and grace. Candidates are nominated and each member of the council votes for thirty-eight girls by secret ballot.

The final decision for the Queen, her Maid-of-honor and the twelve Maids is made by the student body. Balloting is done at one of the assembly periods. Those persons elected by the student body to serve in the May Court are tapped by members of the Athletic Association Council during a Monday assembly.
Oldgirl—Newgirl Ceremony

Symbolical of the union between new students and old, the Oldgirl-Newgirl ceremony is solemnized each fall under the auspices of the Student Government Association.

Candlelight Service

In the fall, soon after the arrival of the students, each girl is given the opportunity of becoming a member of Y. W. C. A. A very impressive candlelight service is held as a public recognition of its new members. This is a most impressive service, as each receives the light symbolical of the Christian life.

Christmas Pageant

Each year, just before the Christmas holidays begin, a simple but impressive Christmas Pageant is given by the Y. W. C. A. The Madonna is chosen by popular election from the student body.

Worship Program

Worship services are held every Sunday afternoon at 1:50 p. m. The "Y" also sponsors the Friday chapel services. The entire student body is invited to attend.

Big and Little Sisters

During the summer each upper classman receives the name of her "little sister," to whom she writes and gives an early welcome to the campus and makes her feel as if she were a part of the college before she gets here. The big sister helps her little sister to become adjusted and acts as her adviser all through the year. The Big Sister-Little Sister party is given on the first Wednesday evening of each school year. Each big sister escorts her little sister and delights in introducing her to the old girls.
Sports, Games and Dance

All year-round interest in sports is left high by the Intramural Program.

The fall sports are field hockey, archery and tennis. Tournaments are arranged and instruction is given to those who desire it.

The winter sports are bowling, basketball, volleyball and badminton. Bowling competition and instruction is arranged. The girls use the alleys in town. Basketball, volleyball and badminton arouse interest with the intradormitory tournament held in each sport.

The spring sports are softball, archery and tennis. Intramural swimming runs through the year.

There is all year participation in modern, square and social dance.

Each student is given an opportunity to engage in her favorite sport and dance. She is encouraged to participate in the Intramural Program and to learn new activities. Students at Madison find these athletics a valuable way to use their leisure time and become acquainted with their fellow classmates.

Sports leaders are elected by the Athletic Association Council for each of the various activities. These leaders are responsible for scheduling intradormitory competition during the respective season. Each activity has a sponsor who is a member of the Physical Education Staff.
Alma Mater

MARY FUNK SLAUGHTER

Oh, Alma Mater, to thy name
We'll ever faithful be,
Lift learning's torch to brighter flame,
Shed Honor's light on thee.

Where mountain blue meets sunset glow,
Our college stands serene,
With passing years its friendships grow
In memory ever green.

Oh, Madison, may wisdom clear
Guide us and prosper thee.
We give thee, Alma Mater dear,
Our love and loyalty,
Our love and loyalty.

(Tune, Old Refrain)

As shines the light divine on seekers near,
So gleams thy power, O Alma Mater dear.
For finer truth in love and strength to live
We come, accepting all, that we may give.

CHORUS:
The daughters of thy pride we long to be,
Inspired to nobleness and loyalty;
Afford us wisdom from thy wid'ning store;
Sight us with visions fading never more.

2.
We love thy hills uprising to the blue,
Thy soft grays blending with the sunset hue.
Show us the beauty of our friendships rare;
Teach us the worthiness of such to share.

Written by Garnet L. Hamrick

Blue-Stone Hill
(Tune, Juanita.)

Dedicated to the Harrisonburg State Normal School.

Fair on yon mountain,
Gleams the light of morning skies;
Firm on yon hill crest
Blue stone towers rise.
Proudly waves Old Glory,
White and red and blue above,
Writ with freedom's story,
Sign of truth and love.
CHORUS:

Mater, Alma Mater,
Though afar we bless thee still;
And may Love forever
Smile on Blue-Stone Hill.

Far o'er the Valley,
When at eve the world is still,
Shine through the gloaming
Lights from Blue-Stone Hill.
Thus afar out-streaming,
O'er the land and o'er the sea,
Like the stars e'er gleaming,
May thy glory be.—(Chorus.)

Queen of the Valley,
Alma Mater, thou shalt be;
Round thee shall rally
Those who honor thee;
All thy daughters loyal,
One in heart and one in will,
Many gifts and royal
Bring to Blue-Stone Hill.—(Chorus.)

Noon, night, and morning
We attend thy signal bell,
True to its warning
Till we say farewell.
Through the years, swift winging,
Oft will come a quickening thrill—
In the soul still ringing,
Bells of Blue-Stone Hill!—(Chorus.)

—JOHN W. WAYLAND
Presented by the Standards Committee of the Student Government Association

The STANDARDS COMMITTEE aims to promote high standards of conduct and appearance. The conduct of a Madison student embraces all of her activities. This information has been compiled by the STANDARDS COMMITTEE to supplement the Student Handbook. Students are urged to acquaint themselves with these standards of conduct, and to comply with them.

And After Classes

The recreation rooms in Ashby, Logan, and Spotswood are a favorite meeting place between classes, after lunch, in mid afternoon, evening—well, 'most any time. The doors are always open to women students. They grab a coke and gather to discuss a weekend or play one of the games offered; bridge is quite popular. Dancing is enjoyed anytime except Sunday. (Oh yes, be sure to return your coke bottles to the holders.) You may bring your cigarettes along; smoking is permitted so long as proper care is taken of the furniture and ventilation proves satisfactory.

Freshman "dates" are welcome in Ashby at certain times; upper classmen in Logan. Check your handbook for the hours and don't forget, you meet your "date" in your social center. On dance weekends "dates" are permitted also in Spotswood Recreation Room.

Be careful about your personal appearance. Neatness and appropriate attire are required.

Outside doors are the entrances and exits only. These rooms are not to be used as traffic ways. So if you have to be some place at a certain time start a little earlier. No cutting through. For more information see handbook page 44.
We’re Off

A few spare minutes and we’re on our way downtown. College students are expected to be very careful about their personal appearance, voices, and conduct on the street, in the movies and in public eating places.

Students are expected to use discrimination in the choice of restaurants, theaters, and other public eating places. After the movies we usually stop to satisfy the pangs of hunger. Check the time and allow ample time to get back to school. Students are allowed to attend Sunday afternoon movies if they wear Sunday dress. Smoking is permitted in downtown restaurants.

For all church functions be sure you wear appropriate costume and headdress.

Let’s Dance

What about dances? After the movies on Saturday night join the crowd and come over to the gym. These dances are informal and quite enjoyable. Yes, we have big dances too....in the fall the Opening dance, sponsored by your Student Government starts the ball rolling. Then there is the Panhellenic dance before Christmas, the May dance, German and Cotillion dances, Alumnae dance, and Commencement dance. All of our dances are “girl break”....be sure and introduce your “date” to your friends and in return meet their “dates”. Don’t just wonder who the people sitting on the sidelines are; introduce yourself and your “date” to the chaperones for they like to know you outside of the classroom, too.

Be on your best behavior....here are a few reminders.

1. Girls meet and sign out for “dates” or other callers in their respective social centers.

2. Formal dances begin at 8:30 p. m. and end at 11:59 p. m. Girls return directly to their dormitories and are in by 12:30 a. m. Lights are out at 12:45 a. m.
3. Girls with "dates" are expected to go down the receiving line.

4. While on the dance floor students and "dates" will refrain from chewing gum, speaking loudly, running across the dance floor, smoking and dancing in exaggerated forms.

5. You may smoke in the halls of Reed during intermission.

6. NO DRINKING IS ALLOWED.

7. Girls break only on "dates" to whom they are introduced. This includes informal as well as formal dances.

8. At all formal dances girls wear formal dresses and "dates" wear "tux," tails, or military uniforms.

9. Dances are for all Madison students and their "dates." Men stags are not allowed unless they are Madison students.

The Dinner Bell

Dining Halls and Tea Room

1. Students observe high standards of etiquette in the dining halls and in the tea room at all times.

2. Reverence during grace is the proper attitude. Learn the songs which are used for grace at dinner. Students do not sing at any other time in the dining hall.

3. Head scarves may be worn turban style to breakfast only, and are not to be worn in any fashion to other meals.

4. Students dress to make their best appearance for Sunday dinner and other specified occasions. It is well to "freshen up" for dinner every evening.

5. The small bulletin board to the left in Harrison Hall lobby is for dining hall and tea room notices only.

6. Students are requested not to take food or dining hall property from the dining halls. One piece of fruit may be taken at breakfast. Food and medicine should not be brought to the table.

7. Courtesy to the waitress is the standard at all times.

8. At meal times, books and wraps are put in the rooms provided for them in the lobbies of the respective dining halls. Freshman cloakrooms are on the right and left sides of Harrison lobby; upperclassmen eating in Junior, hang their wraps on the hooks in the lobby and seniors hang their wraps in Senior lobby.

9. For greater safety, crowding on stairs at the entrance of dining halls should be avoided. Thoughtful behavior is in good taste.

10. Students push their chairs back to the table and leave their respective tables as a group and do not stop at other tables to talk on the way out of the dining hall.

11. Family service is used in the dining halls. Each table is to elect a hostess for a semester.

12. Refrain from handling glassware, china, and silver until you are seated at the table.

Around Campus

1. Students do not sit on the walls in front of campus.
2. STUDENTS DO NOT CUT CAMPUS.
3. Students meet their “dates” in Senior, Junior, Logan, or Alumnae Halls as designated by the Office of the Dean of Women.
4. Students and their “dates” do not walk or sit on porches of any dormitories except dating centers (Junior, Logan, Senior, or Alumnae). Benches are provided for your convenience.
5. Students lower shades after dark.
6. Students do not talk out of windows or from upper story porches to passersby.
7. Pajamas are worn only in the dorms. Girls may wear slacks and jeans for picnics, hikes, and active sports. For other occasions after dark, slacks and jeans are worn with a full length coat. A full length coat is always worn over gym suits and other active sport attire. The above mentioned attire is not worn to the social centers and recreation rooms.

Mind Your Manners

"Good taste or bad is involved in everything we are, do, or have. Our speech, manners, dress, and household goods—and even our friends are evidence of the quality of our taste."

—Emily Post

Manners are not things to be read and talked about only; they must be practiced EVERYWHERE. Volumes have been written on the subject—it is very important. Here are a few general reminders.

When you receive an invitation be sure to answer it. If you must decline, do so, but when you accept be sure to go. Don't let it slip by.

Be polite and take time to help guests on campus. Spend a few minutes giving them instructions.

Introduce yourself and make introductions whenever there is an opportunity.

Your behavior should never be conspicuous—showing affection in public is bad taste.

Get to know your faculty members; they are interested in you not only as students but as individuals.

"Good taste is a matter of the heart and understanding, not inherited but acquired."

—Vogue’s Book of Etiquette

Attention Please

On Monday and Wednesday at noon we have assemblies which you are required to attend. It is necessary that you give your strict attention to what is going on....not only for politeness sake but for your own good. On Monday your Student Government has charge and many important announcements are made which you should catch. If you can knit and listen at the same time, go ahead....but no talking and whispering. In our Wednesday assemblies one organization usually takes charge and we have either a speaker or a program. No knitting in Wednesday assemblies, so finish that sock for him some other time. No writing, studying, or talking, please.

Attendance at Friday assemblies sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., is optional but very worth while.

Time Out

"No classes until after lunch—let's go sunbathing." That's a familiar phrase around campus when the sun shines bright and spring comes and the weather turns warm. The most popular place, when the sun shines bright and spring fever has taken the campus by storm, is the area beside the outdoor swimming pool or behind the lower tennis court. Take your choice, for these are the only places sunbathing is permitted. (And remember, sunbathe only when the sun is out and the ground is dry.) So grab your blanket and come on out; YOUR blanket that is, college blankets do not go sunbathing; keep them in your room. Radios, magazines, or a bridge game all add to the atmosphere. As a matter of courtesy, pick up your paper, kleenex, and other trash. Help keep our campus clean.

Bathing suits or shorts and halter are quite appropriate and these can be easily concealed by a raincoat or other long coat on the hike over and back. Save the trip to the tea room until after you have changed your clothes. Sunday seems to be the ideal day to acquire a suntan, so come on out AFTER vespers are over—2:30 p. m. No sunbathing during Monday and Wednesday assemblies.

Saturday Night

Wilson Auditorium is the popular place on Saturday night. Yes, maybe you have heard that we have movies on campus every Saturday night. All of you Madison co-eds are welcome and bring your out-of-town guests. By the way, be sure to get your lyceum ticket and have it with you, and if you have a “date” or other guests from out-of-town, you may secure guest tickets from you social center free of charge. Members of the Ushers Committee collect guest tickets and check student lyceum tickets at the door.

Before the movie we usually have a “singspiration” program....one of the campus organizations leads us in songs, or gives some other type of short program. The movie itself begins at 7:30 p. m.....only one showing so try to make it on time. Late comers enter the auditorium by the side doors and use the side aisles. Unnecessary laughter and noise are not in good taste.

Weekends

Here it is, a weekend just past and now you have an invitation from your cute lil' man for a fraternity party and informal dance this weekend.

We're all representatives of Madison and we should behave as such. We are expected to conduct ourselves as ladies while on the campus, in the community, and at other schools. Our conduct brings credit or discredit, not only to ourselves, our families, and our college, but to the girls who have gone to our college, are going, and to those who will attend in the future.

If there is any question as to the appropriateness and good taste of a girl's conduct anywhere the Student Council is justified in contacting this student.

What to Wear

“What should I wear? That is the number one question among new students and almost as frequently asked by upper-classmen. The first rule is “dress appropriately” and the second is “use good taste”. For classes cottons until it turns cool and then these are replaced by skirts and sweaters or blouses. Semi-formal dress replaces the classroom clothes on Sunday, and by semi-formal we mean hose, heels or dressy flats, and dresses or suits. For lyceum programs, teas, or other social events, we dress up—semi-formal dress.

Hats are worn to afternoon teas and parties and to church. For formal affairs we wear long dresses... formal dances call for evening dresses and formal dinners call for dinner dresses (evening dress not strapless for dinner).

By the way, when planning any social event, teas, class days, banquets, luncheons, receptions, open house, etc., contact the Social Committee. Mary Beth Knox is chairman. The Committee can give you a lot of suggestions and will be glad to help you.

Helpful Suggestions

1. Be considerate of your roommates, your neighbors, your hostess.

3. Remember that the faculty members are interested in your personal welfare. Make it a point to get to know them.

4. IF YOU DON'T KNOW THE ANSWER, ASK
