Don't Miss

THE BREEZE

the Marionettes

VOL. X

HARRISONBURG, VA., JANUARY 16, 1932

NUMBER 13

Miss Davis Finds Ballads In County

LOCAL COLLECTOR RELATES EXPERIENCES

Miss Martha Davis of Harrisonburg, in an address before the student body Wednesday, January 13, at one time a teacher in the schools of Winston-Salem and Harrisonburg, spoke of her work in collecting ballads of Virginia. According to Miss Davis, Rockingham County is a very good source for material of this nature, due to a lack of foreign element. The farmers of this section especially are on land owned by their grandfathers and great-grandfathers.

After a brief definition and explanation of the ballad, Miss Davis told of her first experience in collecting ballads. "I was visiting a girl once on the edge of Harrisonburg. She lived in a doub'e log house that had a big open fireplace, comfortable furnishings, and a spinning wheel. The father played the flute, and the whole family was musical. They sang a ballad for me. Some time later, in a New York paper, I read an account of the (Continued to Page 3)

Hockey Season Closes With Annual Banquet

HAGA IS NEW CAPTAIN TO SUC-CEED BOWEN

The Varsity Hockey team officially closed a most successful reason at a banquet in the Blue Stone Dining Ha'l with the announcement of the captain for next year and the award of emblems to members of the squad.

Mary Haga succeeds Kitty Bowen as captain of the 1932-33 varsity hockey team. Mary has been a member of the squad for the past two years and was one of the outstanding players this season.

blem award. The Seniors who received sticks were: Anna Lyons Sullivan, E'ementary Teaching and Supervision Frances Rolston, Julia Duke and Mary Farinholt.

Team Victory Based On Goals Lost Or Won

RELATIVE PERCENTAGE MADE

Interest in the contemporary intramural basketball games naturally centers around the question, "Who Will Be the Winner?" To fairly determine the winning team, the number of goals scored by a team or against a team must be considered as well as who wins the game.

This method has been incorporated in a system that has proven satisfactory to the officials and to players. Briefly, the system consists of dividing the total number of points scored against a team by the total number of points scored by a team; this gives the re'ative percentage.

percent; Juniors, 9.1 percent; Sopho-37.4 percent.

Ted Shawn Presents Colorful Program Here

DANCES WELL RECEIVED

Ted Shawn, and his dancers, with Miss Mary Campbell at the piano, presented a program of interpretative dances, in Wilson Hall, January 6.

The program, which consisted of two parts, subdivided into six dances, was under the supervision of Mr. Shawn, who presented several solo dances, and the choreography of the entire program was also planned by

Some of the dances were based on American Fo'k Music: The Negro Spiritual-Nobody Knows de Trouble I've Seen; Revival Hymns, Give Me the Old Time Religion; and Patriotic Song-Battle Hymn of the Republic. The Geometric dance was one in which the acting was carried out in figures, consisting of both his male and female dancers, while "O Brother Sun and Sisten Moon, presented by Ted Shawn himself, displayed his rhythmic body movement and the softened co'ors changing the scene from day to night.

Rhapsody (Brahms) was given by the male members of the cast led by Shawn showed force of movement as the music increased.

(Continued to page 3)

Six Students Receive Degrees First Quarter

FOUR OTHERS GRADUATE

At the end of the fall quarter which closed December 18, ten students were Special recognition was given to graduated, six receiving their B. S. several members of the squad. Each degree and four their two-year certi-Senior who has been a member of the ficates. Two of the girls receiving varsity team for three years received certificates, Rhoda Price and Myrt'e her favorite hockey stick as a special Manby, are back this quarter to conaward in addition to the varsity em- tinue their studies. Those who were graduated are:

> Dorothy Louise Cornell, Harrisonburg; Florence Watkins Dickerson, South Boston.

> High School Teaching and Administration

> Edith Palmer McGuire, Wolf Trap;

Ch'oe Peck Oakes, Roanoke.

Home Economics Hazel Burnette, Leesville; Lillian Beatrice Hedgecock, Martinsville.

Primary-Kindergarten, 2-year Mrs. Josephine Stipe Hinkle, Berryville; Myrtle Louise Manby, Norfolk; Rhoda Taylor Price, Wirtz.

Beginners' Classes Hold Swimming Meet

CLASSES TAUGHT BY P. ED. MAJORS

Members of classes in Beginner's Swimming participated in a swimming meet at the end of the fall quar-The relative rating for the Classes ter. This meet was beld at the comin 1930, last year, was: Seniors, 67.1 pletion of a quarter's working prac- the Order of Pius IX, which was also tice of beginner's strokes and techni- given to Ambassador Cesare Maria mores, 80.9 percent; and Freshmen, que under the direction of a c'ass in de Vecchi, Italian Envoy to the Holy (Continued To Page 3)

WELCOME NEW GIRLS

Among the students entering the halls of H. T. C. on January 4 were sixteen new students, some of which are old students welcomed anew after absence from the co.lege while others are new. These students are Marion Barnes, Amelia; Mary Burnett, Staunton; Elsie Comer, Shenandoah; Elizabeth DeMaine, Alexandria; Virginia Eubank, Richmond; Evelyn Garnett, Buckingham; Mildred Heath, Lovingston; Jenny Lind Hockman, Winchester; Virginia Jones, Gordonsville; Frances Kagey, New Market; Edna Lowance, Covington; Evelyn McKinzie, Buffalo Ridge; Janet Norman, Middleburg; Eliza Smith, Suffo.k; and Lorene Suphin, Flint Hill.

The Breeze extends a most cordial welcome to all of these

WORLD NEWS

Basel, Jan. 12-France has threatened to block renewal of short-term German credit advanced jointly with the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, the Bank of Eng.and, and the Bank of International Settlements it was learned today.

The New York Federal Reserve Bank was expected in leading New ing the nobility of character of the they stamped across the stage display- York banking quarters to renew its ing their strength as the volume of $25,000,000 share of the loan. Amer- of this material will enable the studthe extension, as that action would equipped scho ar and minister. force Germany off the gold standard, with consequent unfavorable repercu: sions in France.

> At yesterday's meeting of the World Bank directors it was decided to renew that institution's one-fourth slare. This decision, however, as the former extensions is contingent upon simi ar decisions by other participants.

> Washington, D. C.,-Justice Oliver Wendell Ho'mes, one of the greatest figures in the judiciary today surrendered to time, by abandoning his place on the Supreme Court bench.

> President Hoover with regret and expressions of great esteem for the services rendered by the beloved justice accepted the resignation.

MUSSOLINI HONORED BY VATI-CAN

Rome, (AP) - Premier Benito Mussolini has received his first Papal decoration, the Order of the Go'den Spur of Egypt, possessed by only nine other persons, including King Fuad and former King Amanullah of Afganistan. The decoration was presented at the Pa'azzo Venezia this morning by the Papal Nuncio, Mgr. Borgongini Duca.

It was the second exchange of decorations in consequence of the settlement of the State and church controversy. The Supreme Order of Christ was bestowed upon King Victor Emanuel earlier this week. Premier Mussolini's decoration is just a shade less important than the King's.

The Nuncio afterward cal'ed Foreign Minister Dino Grandi and presented to him the Grand Cross of

Tony Sarg To Bring His Marionettes Here

Dr. Wilson Selected Instructor In Bible

FORMER HEAD OF CONVERSE TO TEACH CLASS HERE

erature, Dr. B. F. Wilson, former president of Converse College in North Carolina, has accepted a position on the teaching staff of the college. Biblical literature was formerly taught in this institution by Mr. W. B. Varner three years ago, and has not been offered since that time to the students.

Dr. Wilson, in spite of his work since his retirement from the pastorate of the Presbyterian church here in Harrisonburg, of which he has been pastor for 18 years, has accepted the post to renew once more this feature in the curriculum .

According to Dr. Wilson, in an address before the student body on January 6 at the convocation exercises, the course is designed to make the Bible seem a living book, and to further this purpose, the first work will be in tracing the background of the Bib'e. The viewpoint of the class is to be high and theoretical, with an aim toward interpreting the Bible in terms of every day life and increasaverage girl. The final presentation ican bankers said that they doubted ent to know the Bible from the viewthat the Bank of France would block point and with the aid of a well-

Basketball Varsity Faces Hard Season

PETERSON ANNOUNCES SCHED-ULE FOR WINTER

Featuring an extended tour in Pennsylvania, with the prospects of are: Pre-ident, Margaret Eure, Lynfour home games, the Harrisonburg chburg; Vice President, Grace Wilbasketball varsity is beginning prep- l'ams, Roanoke; Secretary, Dorothy aration for a brilliant season under Gresham. Peter burg; Treasurer, the leadership of "Wally" Farinholt, captain, Petersburg.

who have been keeping track of H. T. C.'s record have recalled that the Hobson, Roanoke. varsity has sustained only one defeat in three years and that its reputation dent, Mary Cloe. Charleston, W. Va.; for brilliant plays is unparalleled by any other Virginia college.

Seven veteran p'ayers have returned and will form the nuceus around which Mrs. J. C. Johnston, coach, will build her squad. It has been report ed that freshman material is quite promising and that much help may be expected from that quarter.

The schedule as announced by Emilyn Peterson, Business Manager (Continued to Page 3)

New Family Moves Into Practice House

GIRLS HAVE MANY TASKS

(With Apo'ogies to "That's What You Get Folks For Making Who-

you get girls

For taking 'home ec.'." (Continued To Page 3) TO APPEAR JAN, 18

Tony Sarg's Marionettes will appear in Alice In Wonderland and The Rose and the Ring at 3:30 P. M. and 8:30 P. M., respectively on January 18, as part of the entertainment course. Tony Sarg, well known not Organizing a class in Biblical lit- only as an illustrator, but as a marionette operator, conceived the marionette idea from a miniature guillotine and some dolls which were family possessions.

> Upon coming to this country Mr. Sarg secured the backing of Winthrop Ames and began research for details of how to operate a marionette show. Finding none he proceeded to drill himself in this performance which requires such keen artistic and dramatic consciousness as well as dexterity of hand and brain.

> Since the puppets are mere wood, it remains to the actors who manipulate them by means of a complicated array of strings to read their lines for them. It is this which ca'ls for (Continued to Page 3)

Literary Societies Elect New Officers

WORK PLANNED FOR NEW QUARTER

In elections held recently the Lee, Lanier, and Page Literary Societies selected their officers for this quar-

For the Lees the new officers are: President, Dorothy Wi'liams, Norfok; Vice President, Mary Hyde, Winchester: Secretary, Delma Spener, Covel, W. Va.; Treasurer, Mildred Simpson, Norfolk; Chairman of the Program Committee, Evelyn Watkins, Norfolk; Critic, Lucille Keeton, Lawrenceville; Sergeant at Arms, Cornelia Gi'mer, Lebannon,

In the Page Literary Society they Virginia Ruby, Lynchburg; Chairman of the Program Committee, Kathryn Local basketba'l devotees or fans Butts, Norfolk; Critic, Chris Childs, Orange; Sergeant at Arms, Louise

> The Laniers have chosen as Presi-Vice President, Virginia Orange, Ex-(Continued To Page 3)

Shepherdstown To Play Here Jan. 23

FIRST GAME OF SEASON

The Harrisonburg varsity basketball team officially opens the 1932 season on January 23 against a team from Shepherdstown College.

From the abundance of material brought to light by the inter-cass basketball games, Mrs. J. C. Johnston coach, and Mary Farinholt, captain, expect to choose a team capable of living up to the record of past teams.

Season tickets for the 1932 season will go on sale the last part of the week in Harrison Hall. The price of "We're washing dishes, and window one do lar will permit the holder of a season ticket to see six games We're so ambitious, we hope it rains scheduled to be played here. Every Now don't forget girls, that's what girl is urged to buy a ticket as soon as possible to aid the team in carrying on a successful season both financially as well as victoriously.

THE BREEZE

Published weekly by the students of the State Teachers Colege, Harrisonburg, Virginia

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR

TEN CENTS A COPY

Member of Columbia Scholastic Press Association

10 The 10
Editor-in-Chief		. CATHERINE HOWELL '3
	Assistant Editor	CHRISTOBEL CHILDS '33
	Assistant Editor	LELIA KEARNEY '32
	Feature Editor	VIRGINIA STRAILMAN '32
	Alumnae News	NEGEBIE ELLIS '32
1,3	Poetry Column	GEORGIA HUDGINS '32
	Literary Editor	SARAH LEMMON '34
	Campus Editor	VIRGINIA RUBY '34

REPORTERS

BETTY BUSH '33
MARTHA BOAZ '32
Lois Hines '32
FRANCES LA NEAVE	'34
RUTH BEHRENS '34

LOUISE SWEENEY '35 HELEN KITCHEN '35 HELEN MEYER '35 ELOISE THOMPSON '33 OLIVE ROBERSON '32

ARLENE LAUCK '33 TYPISTS

Virginia Dorset '34 Catherine Bauserman '35 Ethel Lovett '34

Louise Allred '35 Mildred Foskey '34 Evelyn Gibson '35

Eleanor Davis '35

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Business Manager	JANET LOW	RIE '3
Assistant	Business Manager MARGARET CAMPBELL	'33
Assistant	Business Manager MILDRED SIMPSON	'34
Assistant	Business Manager BERNICE BOWDEN	33

WELCOME, DR. WILSON!

With the new school term has come a new member to the faculty of H T. C. whose presence here is considered a delight and an honor by all who are absociated with or in anyway interested in the college.

Dr. B. F. Wilson, former pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Harrisonburg, has come to satisfy a long felt need of the college, a lack of religious training and education.

The large number who have enrolled in the Biblical Literature class at test to the widespread interest and welcome with which it has been received by the students. There have been shame-faced admissions, on the part of some, as to the lack of knowledge on the subject, but this weakness has only proved a greater incentive to learning now.

A similiar course has been taught at the college in previous wears and we are sure that posterity will in no way suffer by the revival.

We hope that this enlargement in the curriculum is another proof of the un imited possibilities of growth lying dormant behind the walls of Bluestone

We welcome you, Dr. Wilson, most heartily!

CONSIDERATION

Now that a new quarter is beginning it seems that everyone would be es pecially anxious to get in as much concentrated study as possible but, due to the general air of disturbance during "quiet hours," it becomes quite a feat to accomp ish even an ordinary amount of studying. May we remind the student body that the proper ob ervance of those specified hours is as import- N. McIlwraith, Dr. C. H. Huffman, ret. I am the youngest of a family You asked me what I thought of love ant a part of the college regulations as any phase of the honor system. Indeed it is a pity that there is even need for such a regulation, that we must have laws specifying quiet during times when it would be on'y common courtesy to be quiet. But having this rule and not abiding by it is deplorable.

We find not on'y that students play Victrolas, talk in loud tones in their rooms and in the halls and in other more ingenious ways add to the genera commotion, but also that very little attention is paid to busy signs which have been hopefully put out by optimistic students. Remember your own agony when garrulous visitors have descended upon you as you sat in your sanctuary up to your neck in work. Let us try to diminish the number and length of our calls.

After a'l the golden rule is not merely a Christian doctrine; it is a social practice that can well be exercised more frequently on our campus

-Exchange

NEW YEAR'S THOUGHT

You know, don't you how many times you've been told, "But there are so many things that you have advantage of in college-seize them, all of them; it will never again be quite the same." You grow tired of it; you're not so sure of the advantages; you are sure of some minute regulations which momentari y curb a whim. The advantages, if you look at them that way, often condemn as coming at the wrong time. If you're to seize them, they'll have to be more convenient. Remember all the jokes you've read about opportunity? Well, it rarely breaks down the door. Be sure that you don't want to make use of it before you ignore its summons. Seizing your opportunities for culture isn't a passive thing. You can't hope that you'll abrorb quantities merely by being in a cultural institution.

You have the privileges-now don't sigh and skip over this-you might as well hear it-(repetition is emphatic,) of a browsing room that holds unusual books, books that perhaps you will never again be able to handle closely for your personal appreciation. A committee of intelligent, cultured faculty have selected for your entertainment and education, lectures, concerts, and personalities whose presence here is in itself a tribute to your intellectual

Please look at all those things which daily lie at your command in the light of being invaluable and unequalled advantages. Otherwise you cannot established two separate libraries in him of the joys of married life, of Sweeping from castles in the air help yourself from becoming one of those pitiful figures who come back sadly the woman's college and in the law your ideal man as you discovered it Fall to earth scattered everywhere. with, "If I'd only realized."-Exchange.

WITH THE

The faculty of H. T. C., according to themselves, enjoyed de ightful Christmas for the most part. There were but one or two exceptions to this as far as could be learned but owing it's Leap Year, and I'm sure you all to the elusiveness of certain members know what that means to the poor, of the faculty, the "ins and outs" of lonely females of the world. all their vacations could not be found up to Cape Cod. While I was there I spent some time in Provincetown at the art colony.

Miss Florence E. Boehmer went to her home in Chicago.

questioned, that she and her son, Bill, never swerve from your purpose. took a course in Practice House work also took a short trip to Richmond.

Miss E'izabeth Cleve and went to her home in Fluvanna County.

Dr. Ruth Phillips and Dr. Dorisse Howe both journeyed home, the former to Massachusetts and the latter to Syracuse, N. Y. Dr. Phillips was snowbound the latter part of her stay and this delayed her in getting back.

Miss Myrtle Wilson went to Richmond, whi e Miss Mary Waples spent he ho idays at her home on Eastern

Miss Clara Turner, getting the farthest away, went for her vacation to Canada.

Miss Grace Palmer, while staying here in Harrisonburg, unfortunately spent a good part of her Christmas in the hospital.

Miss Ruth Hudson went to Luray. Mrs. J. C. Johnston spent part of her holiday in Washington and the rest here in Harrisonburg.

Mrs. Annie B. Cooke was entertained for a part of the Christmas vacation by Mrs. Joseph Ruebush at her home in Dayton. The rest of the time she was at the college.

Dr. S. P. Duke, Dr. W. J. Gifford, Raus M. Hanson, Miss Katherine Anthony, Mr. Clyde P. Shorts, Mr. J. Dr. John Sawhil, Miss Julia Robert- of seven children, a'l girls. My poor son, and Miss Edna Schaeffer all stayed in Harrisonburg.

EXCHANGES

In a closely contested field hockey game at Poughkeepsie, Vassar's Junior University's team defeated an aggregation of Yale Athletes 3-2. The Yale men were mainly members of the ice bockey squad. Although not particu'ar y rough, the contest was marked by a number of hard falls.

Barnard College students have voted to pay a one-cent meal tax, the results of which will be turned over to New York poor relief.

· -Swarthmore Phoenix.

No famous visitor ever received the reception New Orleans accorded Tuantic parade, in which each player had a special car was part of the reception.

-Tulane Hullabaloo.

sity library in the Southeast, having he proposed to me. increased the number of volumes in the past six years to nearly three get a husband, you can. Be just your To meet-happiness or grief. hundred thousand. Besides adding a sweet, natural selves all the time, and large number of volumes, Duke has every once in a while, coyly speak to Dust of dreams -The Bull Dog.

"AUNT ABIGAIL" DIS-CUSSES LEAP YEAR

Why, my dear girls, I simply had to take a few minutes off to remind you, one and all, of the wonderful things you can do this year. Remember-

The parson came to pay a pastora call the other day, and as we sat in Miss Helen Marbut, the first to be the parlor, we accidentally began to interviewed, asserted that she hadn't discuss Leap Year, and he said (you done much. "I just went to my home know what an intelligent, educated in Washington and after that went man our new preacher is) that no satisfactory explanation has ever been offered concerning the custom of women wooing during Leap Year.

But don't let that frighten you. Always keep your mind firmly fastened Mrs. Adele Blackwe'l said, when upon the object of your ambition, and I think it's a sin and a shame that with Mrs. Pearl Moody. Mrs. Moody's we don't have laws in America today son, Jim Moody, was home from the like the one they had in Scotland once. University of Pennsylvania and stay- Oh, it was ages ago, I'll admit, and ed at the Practice House, too. Mrs., modern civilization is above such com- Am I just one of those Blackwell, Mrs. Moody, Bill, and Jim mon practices, I guess you're saying, but listen, if we had a law like that, our old maids and bachelors would be reduced to a wonderful minimum.

Incidentally, do you know what law I am referring to? I thought not! Well, just a minute while I go fetch the family Bib'e-we have it written in there. Now, here's the law: "It is statute and ordained, that during the reign of her most blessed Majesty, for any year known as Leap Year, any maiden lady of both high and low estate shall have liberty to be peak the Her daughters-the trees. take her to be his lawful wife, he In the renewed dawn of spring shall be fined the sum of one pound or They pose so naively in less, as his estate may be, except and Dresses of grey rosettes of velvet. if he can make it appear that he is In the fervor of summer bethrothed to another woman, he shall There are newly made gowns then be free."

Girls, I ask you, isn't that a grand aw? Even if you were refused, you would get a pound of English money, band these days, anyway.

Once a girl has reached the very mature age of sixteen, she considers herself in the matrimonial market, and begins to cast her eyes about for a handsome, rich young buyer. As a rule, she must wait until someone Those wand-like limbs makes an offer, but during Leap Year Draped of crystal spangles Dr. H. G. Pickett, Dr. Normand, Mr. the young woman has a tremendous advantage.

> fa'her and mother scrimped and saved all they could so that we would al' be attractive when we once reached a marriageable age, and so that we would finally be ab'e to change our

> You can imagine how they felt when they saw that we were all pigeon-toed, and had warts on our noses. All was lost, and they would be forced to earn a living for us all their lives, they felt.

But heaven sent us aid! Griselda, my oldest sister, chanced upon that very law I quoted for you a litt'e while ago. Hope filled our hearts, and we waited patiently for Leap Year to roll around. It did finally, and Griselda actually managed to secure a husband in January, and in June the twins, Lucretia and Letitta, even hooked men and had a grand lane's Green Wave football team on double wedding. That only left four its return from the Rose Bowl. A gig- of us, and believe it or not, the next time Leap Year came, we all had swell weddings. We were so thankful that Griselda had discovered the idea that we inscribed it in the family Bible. To be sure, I never told Augustus all Duke now holds the largest univer- that, and he thinks to this day that

So, girls, you know that if I could Just as a wind tossed leaf (Continued to page 3)

POETRY

Poetry is a shadow Asking a fairy for the next dance.

IRONY

You opened my eyes to see the beauty all around

You taught my heart to worship all loveliness I found;

You taught me to love the universe: the night, the stars, the sea,-Then left me to forget you in the world you had given me.

You who have so many friends What can you think of me? You whose list of friends ne'er ends, What can your thoughts of me be?

W. W. W.

You who have so very much Of riches, pleasure, and of fame, Know to many notables and such, Pray, what to you is my name?

Amongst your group of friends Who every moment surely knows Such friendships have their ends?

Or am I one who may someday Be not like the others on the list, But I might, instead, hear you say, "You are the first I've ever kissed" Bus Krouse

ELITE OF NATURE

Mother Nature is foolishly fond of man she likes; albeit he refuses to Oh! but she gowns them beautifully! In rarest patterns of verdure. Autumn finds them bowing so proud-

Spun go'd frocks and money is more useful than a hus- Interwoven of tiny threads of gayer In the whipping winter winds

> Their arms are bare. We believe she has forgotten. Then in the blueness of the night We see the perfect gown, Gather the silver of the moon.

> > -Frances Bowman

And I, so fully fed. Leaned back my head and smiled a bit.

"I've not had time to think," I said. Angerona Adeyette

THINKING—DISCONNECTED THOUGHTS

I paused and stopped one day As I wandered along the way.

Cay walls confined my restless mind Which was no longer kin to human kind.

My mind strained and lifted a wing-The puny helpless thing!

Thank God, the wall was made of clay Which a vaulted shadow could trample in a day.

New thoughts arose which were to Beyond all things we see and know.

Age old truths were found anew And visions the future will never view.

Thought goes on

M. "T". B.

CAMPUS

a few strings!!

Janet: "No."

Clerk: "How long?"

a minute."

TOM SAYS:

Don't forget to come Monday

Mother-"Willie, the canary has

Willie-But, mummy, it was there

ust now when I was trying to clean its cage with the vacuum cleaner."

Estelle: "Has your pain gone?"

The Date: "But he's leaving in just Frosh: "How long? I don't want to

"Ah! the pause that refreshes!"

exclaimed Mr. Logan when he saw a

Oh, Doctor.

of rheumatism a couple of years ago,

Doc?" asked the patient, "and you told me that I should avoid damp-

"Yes, that's right," replied the doc-

"Well, I've come to ask you if I

"Why don't you study pharmacy

"I believe I will! You know, I was

(Continued from page 2)

pare yourself to pop the question.

CUSSES LEAP YEAR

raised on a farm!"

"AUNT ABIGAIL" DIS-

can take a bath."

oung man?"

"You remember when you cured me rent them, I want to buy them!"

comma in the freshman theme.

night 'n' watch Tony Sarg pull supper party last Sunday night. A is a vastly valuable part of the world. de'ectable salad course was served. But it remained for Dr. J. E. Lawson. ins, Kay Carpenter, Dot Lipscomb, and cruel chemical analysis of man Kay Butts, Becky Comer, Mary rates him worth the uncomplimentary Shankle, Lib Tudor, Lillie Tucker and sum of one dollar. At present mar-Cootie Melchor.

SOCIETY

Mildred Dressler entertained at two tables of bridge Friday night. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out even to the most minute detail. Those playing were Hilda Hisey, Helen Rush, Rebecca Sanford, Alice Swink, Mary Swartz, Lucy Copenhaver, Martha Funk, and Mildred Wressler.

Mary Swartz received high score which was a beautiful hand embroidered handkerchief. A second prize was given to the person, who after taking her total score, mu tiplied by her room number, divided by her postoffice box number, added to the number of her brothers and sisters and subtracted from her street address. should have the lowest score. Helen Rush received this prize which was a Japanese letter opener.

Mary Swartz assisted Mildred in serving refreshments which consisted of sandwiches, coco-cola, candy, and mints.

The Social Committee sponsored a birthday dinner Wednesday evening in honor of members of the faculty and student body having birthdays in the month of January. A birthday table was in each dining room with a huge cake on each table. There were fifty-six guests present.

Helen Whithead is attending business college in Norfo'k. Joe Hedin- TED SHAWN PRESENTS ger is spending the remaining part of the winter at home.

WORLD NEWS

MENT TO LEGUIA

Finance Committee, recently moved to made the scene very effective as the investigate the payment of $415,000 | interest focused upon Ted Shawn, and to the son of a Peruvian President for the wor'd of color and rhythm creatarranging loans of $100,000,000 with ed by him. that government.

to have a representative of the F. J. Lisman Company appear before it Monday. That company, according to testimony, arranged the loans with Juan Leguia, son of the former President of Peru.

Frederick Strauss, of J. & W. Seligman Company, told the committee yesterday his firm had paid the money to Leguia after taking the bond deal over from the Lisman company.

The committee also summoned Lawrence Dennis of New York, a former government official, in connection with the testimony that the State Department in considering foreign loans equal to it," stated Emilyn. ignored financial reports from the countries concerned to the Commerce Department.

WOMEN DEMOCRATS CHOOSE SLOGAN

Washington, Jan. 9-Asked to express her view on Democratic Presidential candidates today, Miss Elizabeth Marbury, New York member of the party's National Committee, said:

"I will answer by telling you a story. I had a maid once who never was quarrelsome and always was for harmony. She pronounced it 'hominy.' My friend Mrs. Charles J. Sharp member from Alabama, tells me that she had a maid who always was for peace. Her maid pronounced it 'peas.'

"So I believe-and Mrs. Sharp agrees with me-that the Democratic women's watchword at this moment should be 'hominy and peas'."

EXCHANGES

Here's an article that was read with interest. "Man has had the habit for Polly Perryman entertained at a centuries of believing that he really Among those present were Pam Park- of London, to point out that the cold ket prices, that's the prices that would be brought by the sa'e of man's constituents, which are: A quanity of magnesium for one dose of salts, phosphorus enough to make 2200 match heads, sufficient sulphur to rid one dog of fleas, a supply of lime which would just about whitewash a chicken coop, iron enough for one medium sized nail, ten gallons of water, sufficient carbon to make 9,000 lead penci's, and enough fat for seven cakes of soap.

-Sun Dial.

A nation-wide straw vote on disarmament announced today by the Inter-collegiate Disarmament Council from their offices in New York City, reveals 95 percent of the 24,345 students voting in seventy different coleges in favor of reducing armaments and 63 percent for the United States etting an example by beginning to disarm without waiting for other na--The Sun Dlai.

Haverford College recently sent out questionaires to about a thousand of its alumni asking them various questions about their undergraduate experiences. The results were interesting for it was discovered that "the things that will occupy a warm spot in one's college memory in years to come are not a ways easily recognized when they happen."

-Tulane Hullabaloo.

COLORFUL PROGRAM HERE (Continued from Page 1)

The last feature was "waltzes' given by Mr. Shawn and his entire cast. The slow even wa'tzing of the MOVES TO INVESTIGATE PAY- dancers, the beautiful blending of roft shades carried out in the vari-Washington, (AP)-The Senate colored pleated dresses of the dancers

The committee wired to New York BASKETBALL VARSITY

(Continued from page 1) Athletic Association, Lake City, Florida, follows:

Jan. 23-Shepherdstown, West Va.

Feb. 13-Westhampton (here)

Feb. 22-Savage (here)

Feb. 26-East Strandsburg, Penn.

Feb. 27-Lebanon Valley, Penn. (there)

March 4-Farmville (here)

"The girls face a hard schedule, but I'm sure that they will be more than

Dot Lipscomb is so dumb she thinks the Pied Piper is a drunken plumber!

Mon.-Tues.

Jas. Dunne-Sally Eilers in "Dance Team"

Wed .- Thurs.

Greta Garbo-Ramon Novarro in "Mata Hari"

Leon Janney "Penrod and Sam"

"Freighters of Destiny"

MISS DAVIS FINDS

BALLADS IN COUNTY

(Continued from page 1) work of Dr. Alfonzo Smith of the University of Virginia in collecting ballads. I sent the one I had heard to bim. He was very interested and urged me to continue my work."

Miss Davis has always encountered courtesy and a willingness to give information about family and neighborhood history lives as well as ballads. On one occasion she found a woman who knew so many ballads that she was forced to write on the back of an old ca'endar to record them. One woman who was a source of information could neither read nor write, so the authenticity of her ballads was unquestioned.

Miss Davis sang the False Knight and a bal'ad of Shrove Tuesday, Say the Bells. She read the Wassail Cup, and spoke of its interesting background of customs. The Eng ish version and American version were very similar.

"If any of you know any balads, wish you would write them down," concluded Miss Davis . "And if you possibly can, secure the tunes also. Their place is being more and more definitely recognized and they may some day be used as the themes of great musical compositions."

NEW FAMILY MOVES INTO PRACTICE HOUSE

(Continued from page 1) "Turn over a new leaf at the beginning of this new year" is not merely a saying, but an actual fact at the practice house. With the beginning of this new quarter and two new groups of girls at the practice house, not only leaves have been turned over but everything else in the house as well. (If they haven't been, they soon will be). They have not only been turned over, but they have miraculously become bright and shining as new pennies. For the benefit of the "old timers" at the practice house we'll say that the radiators have not yet been moved and the Waffles still have a campus-wide re-

The new "inmates" on the north side for this quarter are Margaret Beck, Kitty Bowen, Pauline Carmines, Catherine Crim, and Maxine

The south side is he'd down by E izabeth Gatewood, Esther Glick, and a study of its constitution. FACES HARD SEASON Lois Hines, Evelyn McKenzie, and Eliza Smith.

> The administration of Oregon State College and the University of Southern California have banned the publishing of cigarette advertisements in their publications.

BEGINNERS CLASSES HOLD

advanced swimming.

follows:

Coglander.

Ba'oon race: Ziegler, Morrisette,

Diving from side: Calvert, Stratemeyer, and Webb (tied for second). Side Stroke for Form: Riley, Orn-

Side Stroke: Pigg, Steiner, McLane. Diving from Board: Wampler, Hel-

Sculling for Form: Benedict, Mc-Lane, Hupes (tied for second).

Diving for Pennies: Haie, Potts. Bryant, Giles (tied for third).

Orndoff, Tinsman.

TONY SARG TO BRING

(Continued from page 1) the necessity of each actor behind the

LITERARY SOCIETIES

This quarter the Pages plan to study the modern short story. They wil begin by making a study of its development and the place it holds in in him, and of how well you would literature today, continuing with the get along together. If he has not promodern short story writers and their posed to you by Christmas time, pre-object this quarter finding out more refuse! about their society and its beginning, has not yet been decided on.

If you need Stationery, Cards, Victor Machines and Records. Radios, Novelties and Gifts, come to-

THE VALLEY GIFT

AND BOOK SHOP 120 South Main St.

HARRISONBURG, VA.

Had lunch with Jack He said more nece the

about my new flernoon dress. to a soft shade my very nicest

Jos. Ney & Sons

SWIMMING MEET

(Continued from Page 1)

The events and winners in order

Free style: Hockman, Burkert,

Ward.

Scull race: Cox, Rice.

doff, Fitzgerald.

sabeck, Hilt.

Free Style (with dive:) Helsabeck,

Relay: Hitt, Benedict, Lea (winning team).

Frosh: "I want a pair of corduroy HIS MARIONETTES HERE pants."

scene to live the experiences of these

The two shows to be given here conrist first of the well known Ali e in Wonderland, which is a tale full of fantasy and queer adventures for chi'dren, and a deep philosophy for adults. The second show is Thackeray's delightful fairy story The Rose and the Ring which has all the magic of fairies and princesses, and which ends happily as all good fairy stories

ELECT NEW OFFICERS

(Continued from Page 1) more; Secretary, Louise Thweat, Petersburg; Treasurer, Virginia Strailman, Raleigh, N. C.; Chairman of the Program Committee, Jean Gills, Petersburg; Critic, Virginia Hal-'et, Cheriton; Sergeant at Arms, Linda Sanders, White Stone.

The Lees intend to take as their After all, the worst he can do is to

The course of study for the Laniers

The Dean Studio

44 So. Main

fotos frames finishing

of the Better kind

TOILET GOODS

of nationally

Known Quality

Toothpastes Cold Creams

Bath Salts

Manicure Aids

Buy Them At

W. T. Grant Co.

Changing Tides

by GEORGIE HUDGINS

Capt'n Al West sat on the edge of the od dilapidated dock, casually watching the approaching storm. Now and then a small ring of smoke from his stump of a pipe floated down day?" on the water. The grey-green waves swept slowly against the shore with shore and the passengers were getslow weary motion. Noon-day sun was ting out. Capt'n Al was watching reaching the western horizon, and a them. Finally he arose and walked dark blue-black bank of clouds was slowly towards them. "'Twant like stealing closer and closer, slowly him to be hostible to strangers." shuttin out its ye'low rays. The sultriness of the air seemed to say that a storm was near.

traveling listlessly along the broken learned. grey line of the sea and meeting in the distance a greyer form, a moving shadowy form, perhaps some craft seeking refuge from the aproaching storm.

"Mighty thin piece of bark to be here kind of weather," he said, and odic voice. leisurely spat into the water.

The storm crouched lower in the rumbling heavens and the distant grey phantom drew nearer, now within the old man's vision, its outline forming the graceful bulk of a ship. Even in the gathering dimness its patrician lines were unmistakable. It was a bow of a yacht pointing its course to safety across the uncertain depths.

"Peer's to me, like she's a-headin' this way," he said a'oud. Then glancing about him for a minute, then back it. Captain Hull's slim, reassuring to sea again.

had asked to tie up for the night. He tain Al's heavy booted hee's. remembered how queer he thought the tall lean man, who said he was sit down, but he, himself leaned in the captain, had acted. And he remember- door way, and peered into the storm, away in the night, leaving behind a of rain and sand through the door thing that had become a part of his past them. He appeared not to notice very life, a baby, a baby girl wrap- it. ped in a man's coat. He had not known what to do with the baby then; but now, the thought of being without her maddened him. Every ship that tured. "Hadn't you better step back neared the dock filled him with freezy fear. Anything that would ever take Hilde from him would kill him, body and soul. He had not known what to ing about babies, but he had done his as the rain itself. best. He had taken her to his cabin. Gradually the thunder ceased its fed and warmed her thin body, and tried to make her live; and she had lived. She had grown from the pink of baby-bood to beautiful girl-hood. Maybe he had not been giving her the things she should have, but she was happy, and happiness was the greatest gift in the world-not many people were ever happy.

The rapid speeding of the boat ceased, and it came nearer the shore only by the slow rise and fall of the waves as they came in. Capt'n Al saw a grey iron anchor slide from the stern. The boat rolled with the tide.

A small speed boat was launched, oc- old captain. cupied by two persons—a man in a "Dad burn you, Hilde, where in in white.

Capt'n Al had not moved. For some reason he felt sick-"Blamed foolish," he thought, "lettin' this thing upset him. Didn't boats tie up here every

The little boat had reached the

"Hello," he ca'led out to them familiary. Capt'n Al made use of only things he knew about, and formal cor-Capt'n Al set motionless, his eyes rec'ness was something he had never

The captain answered him.

"Good evening, Sir," he said pleasant'y. "My name is Edwin Hull, and an apologetic look to the woman.

"Good evening Sir." A loud peal of a-floatin' around on these waters this thunder almost drowned her low mel-

> The old man looked around half alarmed, as if he were looking for

> "Reckon we'd better go inside; mighty apt to get wet out here," he said, looking about him again in the same anxious maner.

As if in fulfillment to the old man's prediction, large rain drops began to spatter the grey bulky dock. Their eyes turned towards the little pine shanty at the end of the dock, and without a word they started toward hand reached out to the arm of the He was thinking this evening of woman. Her steps quickened in reanother evening, and another storm sponse, as she carefully picked her eight years ago; yes, eight years ago way over the wide cracks in the this very day, when another yacht wharf, along the path of barrels of had come in just before the storm and smelly fuel oil, keeping close to Cap-

Capt'n Al motioned his visitors to Captain Hull glanced uncomfortably at the woman-

"Sir, you're getting wet," he ven-

"No call to bother about me, Mate, No call to bother about me," he said. Leaning there in the door-way, he do with her then, he had known noth- seemed as much a part of the storm ranting above the little roof.

"The storm's gone down to the bay, I believe. Most stopped rainin' now. Yes, I think 'tis most over now," and turned towards his visitors.

"Uncle Buddie-e-e-e-e!", the clear sweet treb'e of a childish voice broke in above the low heavy tones of the

Jewelers On the Square Since 1900

D. C. DEVIER & SONS

captain's uniform and a tall woman thunderation have you been off to?" "Un'neath the wharf, an' I ain't ev'n wet-Uncle Buddie, Don's got puppies-in the back shed."

> "Blow your puppies! -'me a-worried you, Hi.de-wipe that nose, we've got

For the first time Hilde noticed the visitors. For a minute she stood still and looked at them; then flushed a dull red with timid embarassment.

"Hilde"-He stopped suddenly. The woman in white was staring at Hilde as if-"Good God not-not-" Slowly the color drained from his face. The woman in white was looking at Hilde. Her face was lighted with a strange smile. Suddenly she burst into a sob and leaned towards Hilde-his Hilde. this is Mrs. Teese," he added, flashing The child moved closer to Uncle Buddie. She was plainly frightened. "Why like thin silver wire. He lit the pipe, did Uncle Buddie look like that? What puffed smoke into the air, and, nodwas the matter?"

> The movement of the child seemed to make the woman conscious of her on this beach, Sir?" she asked. strange actions, for slowly she leaned back in her chair, as quickly as if she had never stirred. She raised one hand to the back of her head as if to adjust a misplaced hair-pin, and laughed nervously.

Hilde shuddered, caught the top of Unc'e Buddie's boot, and held it tight. No one spoke. Captain Hull glanced through the small square window.

"I think the storm is about over, But, oh, the tragic bitterness! Shall we go?" he said, turning to the To know that this poor body's wail

"Yes, you go back to the yacht, I would like to speak to-to-Uncle Buddie-e a'one," she said, smiling at the child whom she had heard call him that. "Send the speed boat back for me in about an hour."

"I shall come myself," he said, with a polite bow. "Thanks for shelter from the rain, Sir," he said, extended how the yacht had silently slipped Now and then the wind waved a mist ing his hand to the old man,-"and good evening, Sir."

The woman opened her mouth as if to speak; then stopped and looked about the room, her eyes resting on Hi'de. The old man glanced at Hilde, and remembered that she had said, "rpeak to him alone."

JOHN W. TALIAFERRO AND SONS JEWELERS Expert Watch and Jewelry Repairing

Get your sliced bread for sandwiches at

Harlin Bros. and Piggly Wiggly

wood, Hilde," he said tenderly. The child looked at him for a moment, questionly, as if she doubted the purpose of his going, but said nothing as she went.

Captain Al looked at her for a moto death thinking maybe you got in ment as she went out of the door; the quick sand- or somethin.' Here then sat down opposite the woman, dug his hand down into the pocket of his blue coat and brought forth his black stub of a pipe.

> "Hope you don't mind the smoke, Madam," he said, beginning to fi'l it from a dirty little bag of shaved to-

"Always like to smoke when I got anything special to talk about."

"Certainly not, Sir," the woman said, answering his first question.

A pipe seemed just in keeping with the rough pine house, and with the little old man in blue jean overall suit, whose hair curled about the cap ded toward the woman to begin.

"How long have you been living "Twenty-odd years now."

"Then you were here eight years ago-eight years ago," she repeated. To Be Continued Next Week

TRAGEDY

When dust sinks back to dust, And life goes blind with night, The soul will find eternity In answer to its ageless.cry. Must die unheard against The howling dark of death, And lose its glow with things That pass into earth's nothingness.

-Garnet Hamrick

DELICIOUS

VARSITY CHOCOLATES

Made by New Pack

GOBELIN One Pound Price $1.00 Plus Two Ounces

Williamson's Drug Co.

> VISIT GEORGE'S CANDY KITCHEN On Your Way Downtown

NOW-

Ask for

Gaymode

full-fashioned

Sheer

SILK HOSE

79°-89°

lovely and serviceable

HARRISONBURG, VA.

The

Shenandoah Press

Job and Commercial

PRINTERS

Phone 89 DAYTON, VA.

YOU CAN LEARN ABOUT VALUES FROM

The Fashion Shop 56 S. Main St.

When in need of Ladies Ready-to-Wear

Visit

RALPH'S

Harrisonburg's only Exclusive Ladies Shoppe

Come to see us for Drugs, Toilet Articles Kodaks

Reilly Drug Co.

Kavanasigh Hotel Annex

FREE

A Delicious Toasted Relish Sandwich Given With

ANITARY ANDWICH HOPPE

This Ad. One To A Student

Void After January 26. Make Good Resolutions By Making This Your First And Last Stop. Where You Get "Service With A Smile"

LILLIAN GOCHENOUR Exclusive Millinery Blue Moon Hose Vanity Fair Underwear 124 E. Market St.

Compliments of

TROY STEAM LAUNDRY

Phone 92

There's a bit of health in every bite at

CANDYLAND

Candies are made in our modern, sanitary kitchen each day, only ingredients of purest quality used. Syrups and ice cream made daily in our own plant. All equipment including soda fountain inspected daily.

Cuisine the best the market affords. Travelers look upon CANDYLAND as the

Rendezvous of Connoisseurs and why,—The tempting taste tells the tale. FETZERS'

Harrisonburg's One Price Cash Store The best things for College Girls may be found here Pumps, Oxfords, One straps—Hosiery, Gloves, Undies See our $1.00 and $1.35 Silk Stockings

US!

FETZERS'

We Invite You To Shop At Our

Store

OPPOSITE POST OFFICE

FASHION CENTER OF THE VALLEY

Exclusive Ladies Ready-To-Wear And Shoes At Lowest Prices