Open Letter from The Fixer:

As a dedication to the Freshmen especially, we would like to take the opportunity to welcome you to the expanding campus and explain some measures of communication. On the campus, we have two papers: Genesis II and The Fixer. On the one hand, Genesis II is a school supported paper which emphasizes the school's calendar of events. On the other hand, we have The Fixer. This paper, as you will hear, is the underground paper circulating at Madison. Most of you, at the mention of underground, express the illegality and unusual news of such. This is not the case. We have a P.O. box on campus, use the Student Center to pursue our interests and have available room facilities to hold our meetings. So!!! Let us briefly explain the purpose we hold. Our paper is underground in that it is self-supported (we exist by contributions alone!), it is uncensored and, indeed, will print any article or news that will be of some interest to the students. It is a paper for the students yet by the students. Your ideas make our paper. For this reason, we urge you to support it. Please help us in giving you what you want to know. Since space allows only a small resume of our traits, it is imperative to end. Any questions or ideas will be gladly accepted at The Fixer's address as stated on the back!!

On one of our weekly deliveries, a mature student, informed us as such: The school wanted to "get to know" her and thus, she risks her sanity to board in Hanson, yet the school doesn't know where she is for her mail is forwarded home to her P.O. address! This student also informs us that she will have to suffer through Comprehensives Saturday on an empty stomach for breakfast will not be extended to feed the hungry test takers.

HARRISBURG, PA. - The Justice Dept. considers the prosecution of the Rigan matter more important than the pursuit of the Mafia and organized crime. At a hearing on the Rigan matter this week, Deputy U.S. Attorney W. S. Lynch explained that organized crime became involved in violence "only to further its greed." But the people involved in the Rigan matter, he went on: "are those who reject society's definition of law and criminality, people who would overthrow the society under which we live."

KENT STATE SUITS DISMISSED:

Three wrongful death suits, filed by the parents of Allison Krause, Jeffrey G. Miller and Sandra L. Scheuer, three of the four students slain at Kent State May 4, 1970, were dismissed by a federal judge in Cleveland June 2 on the basis that the court had no jurisdiction because former Ohio governor James A. Rhodes had acted "in his capacity as a public official" in sending the National Guard to the Kent State campus.

--The Militant

"Not a grave of the murdered for freedom but grows seed for freedom, in its turn to bear seed which the winds carry afar and sow, and the rains and the snows nourish."

--Walt Whitman, from Leaves of Grass
COOL HEAD: On April 1, 1970, Peter Lemon, a GI stationed in a back-up position as part of a support group for a U.S. military action in Vietnam, had his position attacked by the liberation forces. In fighting off the attack, Lemon used grenades, rifle, machine gun and hand-to-hand combat. He dragged a wounded buddy to safety, and while wounded himself, refused treatment until more serious cases were cared for. This action won him the Medal of Honor. The June 22 New York Times quotes the former GI as saying of that action, "It was the only time I ever went into combat stoned." Lemon explained that in his unit, "All the guys were heads...We'd sit around smoking grass and getting stoned and talking about when we'd get to go home." The medal winner said of the war, "The war is ridiculous. How would we like it if we went to war with Canada, and the Russians or the Chinese came over here...?"

—Lee Smith, The Militant

The enemy is not people
Kill people, who shall we live with then?

The enemy's name is cruelty
The enemy's name is no conscience
It's name is hatred; It's name is bitterness
It's a group of phantoms

The enemy wears a coat of doctrine
The enemy wears the false front of freedom
It wears a deceiving appearance
It sifts our words

People, oh people have compassion for the weak
People, oh people have compassion for the innocent
Have compassion for the sellouts
Have compassion for the cheats
Have compassion for those who pity us

The enemy's name is unjust accusation
The enemy's name is ignorance
It's name is ambition
It's name is jealousy
It's name is jealous hatred

The enemy is no stranger
It lies here, inside each one

The enemy is desiring eyes
The enemy is an arrogant head
In a lonely head
In a narrow mind
In the dream of conquering

People, oh people love people more and more
People, oh people love people as people
Love people forever
Love people night and day
Love people as hand in hand

The enemy is not people
Kill people, who will we live with then?

The enemy is no stranger
It lies here inside each one of us

VIETNAMESE CHILDREN'S SONG

—Provincial Collective
Jack be nimble,
Jack, be quick;
Jack, jump over
The big oil slick.

Jack and Jill went up the hill
To fetch a pail of water;
Jack came down with hepatitis,
And Jill came down soon after.

Mistress Mary, quite contrary,
How does your garden grow?
With Ford Sedans and Miller cans
And coke bottles all in a row.

Little Bo Peep has lost her sheep
And doesn’t know where to find them;
They ate the grass
Flavored with gas
Which seriously undermined them.

Hush-a-bye, Birdy,
On the tree top,
Your breathing will stop,
When the wind blows,
Your feathers will fall,
And down will come Birdy,
Springtime and all.

The poverty of the country is such that all the power and sway has got into the hands of the rich, who by extortious advantages, having the common people in their debt, have always curbed and oppressed them in all manner of ways.

-- Nathaniel Bacon, 1676

NEW HAVEN - The longest trial in Connecticut history (six months) ended May 24 when the judge declared a hung jury in the Bobby Seale and Erica Huggins case.

At the next day's hearing, the judge denied the D. A.'s request for a retrial, agreeing with the defense's contention that prejudicial publicity prevented the selection of an unbiased jury.

The twelve jurors voted unanimously to acquit Bobby until their sixth day out when, after ten voted to acquit Erica of all charges, one of the jurors who voted against Erica changed her vote to guilty on all counts against Bobby. The juror explained that she deadlocked the Seale verdict out of fairness to the prosecution and the murder victim. To give the state a second chance.

Against previously honored government requests, bail has been set for Bobby pending his appeal of his four year contempt sentence from the Chicago Eight trial. After two years in jail each, BOBBY AND ERICA ARE FREE!!!

LOS ANGELES - The American Fish Industry is getting rid of more than six million tons of swordfish and tuna it can't sell in this country.

The mercury-contaminated fish is being sold to Italy, France, Spain and other countries that don't have a specific legal limit on mercury poisoning. Let the buyer beware.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (LNS) - Twenty-one South Vietnamese students are on trial for treason in Saigon.

The students, all members of the National Union of Students in South Vietnam, helped draft the People's Peace Treaty with North American visitors during the winter. The students, including Huynh Tan Ham, the president of the union, were picked up on May 24. If found guilty the 21 will be killed within 24 hours after the verdict.

Immediately after news of the arrests leaked out, a small group of men and women began a hunger fast on the steps of the US State Dept.

In a telegram sent to the South Vietnamese students, the Washington protestors pledged themselves to a hunger strike that will "end only when Huynh Tan Ham, and all 21 brothers and sisters are freed."

The demonstrators are calling on supporters to come and join the fast at the State Department or to take "appropriate nationwide action in the spirit of the People's Peace Treaty to free our South Vietnamese brothers and sisters."
"You can be up to your boobies in satin and still be down on the plantation."

KENTUCKY HIGH SCHOOL ORDERS SPANKING FOR WOMEN IN SLACKS
PAINSTVILLE, KY (LNS)—Fifteen women in Painsville have been suspended from high school until they submit to paddlings according to the High School Independent Press Service (CHIPS). The spankings were ordered by the school after the women showed up for classes in pantsuits during near-zero weather at the end of January. The school has repeatedly denied requests to allow women to wear pants on cold days. The high school principal, pronouncing that the women were to go home and not to return until they were willing to be spanked, ordered by the school after the women showed up for classes in pantsuits during near-zero weather at the end of January. The school has repeatedly denied requests to allow women to wear pants on cold days. The high school principal, pronouncing that the women were to go home and not to return until they were willing to be spanked. "One of the major reasons to defeat male supremacy and chauvinism is because unless we do, women are forced into separatism."
—Huey P. Newton in a recent speech at Merritt College in Oakland, California

STATISTICS ON WOMEN’S “PROGRESS”
(LNS)
The proportion of women among college students in the U.S. increased from 21% in 1870 to 47% in 1920; it declined to 39.2% in 1938. In 1920, one out of 6 doctorates were granted to women, compared to one out of 8 in 1940 and less than one in 10 in 1956. In 1956, 3 out of 5 women in the co-educational colleges were taking secretarial, nursing, home economics, or education courses.

A QUESTION OF DEGREE
(LNS)
"Nowhere is woman treated according to the merit of her work, nor rather as a sex. It is therefore almost inevitable that she should pay for her right to exist, to keep a position in whatever line, with sex favors. Thus it is merely a question of degree whether she sells herself to one man, in or out of marriage, or to many men."
—Emma Goldman, The Traffic in Women, 1917

ATROCITY QUOTATION FOR TODAY
I never knew a tolerable woman to be fond of her own sex.
—Jonathan Swift

"Do, not trust a good woman, and keep away from a bad one."
—Portuguese atrocity proverb
