Business Faculty Attend Meeting

Madison's business faculty including Dr. Turille, Mrs. Coffman, Mr. Sanders, Miss Anderson, and Miss Herr will be attending the annual meeting of the Virginia Business Education Association at the Hotel Roanoke, Roanoke, Virginia, tomorrow.

In addition, six business education juniors and seniors will be attending the V.B.E.A. Convention. They are Anna Belle Schuler, Nancy Turley, Shirley Newman, Rebecca Wilkes, Betty Huppman, and Joy Turner.

Appearing on the program will be two persons from the Madison College Department of Business. Miss Nancy Turley will speak on "The Values of Entering the Business Teaching Field." Dr. Turille, speaker on the morning session, will speak on "Teacher Recruitment and Needs of Business Education in Virginia."

A special luncheon program has been arranged for the business teachers of Virginia at the Hotel Roanoke. The sessions are concluded at 4:00 p.m.

Students Receive Intern Positions

Notification was made by Mrs. Bernice R. Varner, head of the Home Economics Department, Madison College, of the following appointments for Seniors in Curriculum IX who have applied for internships in approved American Dietetic Association training centers: Miss Betty Hairfield, Roanoke, Va., at the Indiana University Medical Center, Indianapolis, Ind.; Miss Betty Jean Lawson of Miami, Florida, at Florida State University, Tallahassee, Fla.; Miss Joan Luck of Bedford, Va., at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Joyce Watkins, Marion, Va., at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio; Miss Ruby Lee Wells of Bedford, Va., at the Medical College of Va., Richmond, Va.; Miss Jeanette Mills, of Roanoke, Va., at the Veteran's Administration, Memphis, Tenn.; and Miss Ramona Riley of Pittsburgh, Pa., at Shadyside Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Seniors who plan to go into the dietetic field will give a radio broadcast at 1:45 over station WWSA, Tuesday, April 28. They are taking part on the program, "Dietetic Career Week", which is being sponsored by the State Dietetics Association.

Notice

The Madison College Orchestra will be the feature attraction of assembly, April 29. The orchestra is under the direction of Mr. Clifford T. Marshall. The vocalist is Rosemary Reinhart, a junior.

Jimmie Swann Carries On

Madison's wearers of the red and white, the Freshmen Class, have to be different in every task they undertake. In Wednesday's assembly, the president of their sister class, Jackie King, introduced the freshmen officers, their advisor, mascot and Dean. And to top it off, the audience was entertained by two Jimmy Swann's—one in the form of Miss Mary Latimer.

Miss Latimer, pinch-hitting for the delayed Mr. Swann, read one of James M. Barrie's famous one-act plays, "The Twelve Pound Look", depicting the day everything went wrong. Then in walked the speaker for the day—Mr. Jimmy Swann.

Introduced by Mary Lou Carroll, Mr. Swann began his laugh-packed talk entitled, "My Experience", or "I Should Have Stood in Bed!" After being drafted into the Marines, he soon found himself in the garden spot of the south, Paris Island, where his experiences in basic training proved hilarious. Soon it was overseas for him. Mr. Swann described the boat as having four levels; the first three were for the thirty-six officers while the lower levels housed 4,999 marines. Mr. Swann found himself forty feet below sea level.

Complications arose when the marines had to take the beachhead and Mr. Swann, bent backwards in order to support his heavy, overloaded pack, could do little when ordered to run to shore. Putting together a shovel, Mr. Swann began to dig slowly, but when that first shell hit nearby he went into action and from then on gained the title of "Gopher" Swann.

Mr. Swann appropriately ended his delightful talk by urging us to realize the wonderment of our country with its principles of freedom and to hold before us always the meaningful words of our pledge of allegiance.

Classes in 17 fields, covering a wide range of academic and professional courses, will be offered at Madison College during the summer session of eight weeks, Percy H. Warren, Dean of the Summer Session, has announced. The session begins on June 15 and closes on August 7.

Classes will be offered this summer in the following fields: art, biology, business education, chemistry, English, health and physical education, home economics, library science, mathematics, music, philosophy, physics, physical science, psychology, social science, and history. Special emphasis will be given to the preparation of public school librarians.

Short Term Courses

Several short term courses will be given at the College this summer. Courses in science for the elementary school and in science for the junior high school will begin on June 15 and continue through July 17. Courses in resource materials for elementary teaching, the elementary school principal, language arts in the elementary school and problems in child study will be offered during the period June 15—July 10. Courses in individual counseling and guidance, problems in reading and problems in child study will be taught for a four-week period beginning July 13, and ending August 7. A two-week workshop in cancer education will be in session from July 20 to July 31.

Special courses and clinics will be offered in elementary education, speech, reading, safety education, driver education, and the teaching of driving.

Students who complete satisfactorily the course in the teaching of driving, will be certified to give instruction in driver education in the public schools of Virginia.

Driver Education Course

Students who take the course in driver education will be taught to drive, using a dual control automobile. Persons may take this without doing additional study at the College.

Beginning with the 1951 summer session, Madison College introduced a summer program of graduate study in cooperation with the University of Virginia. Credit earned in the Madison summer session graduate courses may count toward the Master of Education degree offered by the University of Virginia. Several graduate courses in education will be offered in the 1953 summer session.

Dormitory facilities will be available to students who wish to have their children with them during the summer session.

Look, A Party

Attention, card fiends! You are cordially invited to attend a bridge-canasta party Saturday, May 2 from 1:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Sponsored by the Canterbury Club, the party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward McCabe, 660 South Main Street.

Admission is 35¢. Numerous prizes will be given.

Sign Up For P. O. Box

Beginning Monday, April 27, all students expecting to return to Madison will please reserve their Post Office boxes at the P.O. window.

Rent for these boxes will be collected at the opening of the new term.

Delegates Attend Conference In Texas

Talent Mixed With Laughs Marked 'Baby' Triumph

by Ray Caplan

The freshmen class proved to an enthusiastic audience Wednesday night that they meant it when they sang: "Our class is great, we really rate, and we've got the spirit, too." Providing the audience with 90 minutes of high spirited comedy, song and dance, the freshmen class went all the way in bringing a new medium of entertainment to Madison College—Color Television on Channel 56.

Adding a realistic note to the tele-drama, "Repairmen" passed out programs to the audience which resembled company calling cards.

"Singing In The Rain"

Curtain opener for the Show of Smoes portion of the program was a "Singing in the Rain" review, featuring Mary Sue Messimer and Barbara Long supported by a chorus line consisting of Pat Lewis, Mavis Daniels, Frances Dinwiddie and Beth Goldberg.

Filling the bill superbly, MC Adair McConnell added continuity and that smooth touch as he introduced the Show of Smoes sponsors, Mouldy Golds. As Mary Sue Nelson and Carol Musslewhite, the dancing cigarette pack and wet match-box tapped across the stage, Jan Jarrelle offered a cigarette which would prove a "treatment instead of a treat".

In the spotlight as guest star, Mary Lou (Tex) Carroll, Class Prexy, graced the stage as she introduced Cid Grabther (Carolyn Pugh) and Ima Jerk Hot Chocolate (Emma Jean Grey), in a delightful pantomime entitled, "College Shop".

Snappy Dance Steps

Shirley Blackwell, Anna Bridgewater, and a peppy college group provided snappy dance steps, followed with "College Rhythm", which brought deserving applause.

Fast-moving Fran Umberger and Paige Fitchett's Charleston number started feet tapping and hands clapping which continued throughout the Shag number performed by Nan Callen and Barbara Dickie.

Baton Twirling

Everybody loves a parade and high-stepping Carole Shufflebarger proved to be a twirler who would be perfect to lead any parade.

With astounding muscular control, Joan Kafer and Helene Schelmer amazed the crowd with their expert tumbling act.

The smooth notes of "Bermuda" by Helen Diffie and Olga Kandis came next as they impersonated the Bell sisters to a "T".

Not to be outdone by upperclassmen the frosh has their own pantomime artist, Eleanor Barrett, with "It's A Man!"

With the cries of "More", "More", ringing in their ears, the Freshmen boys returned to dance (?), with a show-stealing number which almost equalled the Rockettes of world fame.

Taking the audience into the classroom, Jane Farrell, with the aid of Grace Matz, Johnnie Lou Thompson and Suzanne Roberts, along with 100 other representatives of Southern Women's Colleges, journeyed to Denton, Texas on April 22 to attend the S.I.A.S.G. Convention which is being held April 24-25.

Representing Madison at the annual meeting of the Southern Inter-Collegiate Association of Student Government, these girls are attending many different meetings and lectures which are of interest to them in promoting and stimulating individual student interest at Madison.

Matz To Lead Panel

While attending this convention Grace Matz will lead a panel group on "Encouraging individual participation in, and understanding of, the Student Government on your campus."

Grace was selected by the convention to lead the panel which consists of representatives of colleges with a student body of 700 or more.

At the convention, which this year is on the campus of the Texas State College for Women, Johnnie Lou Thompson will extend an invitation to the convention to meet at Madison next year. Along with this invitation will be invitations from other Southern Colleges which will compete for the honor of holding the convention at their college.

Favors, Pictures, Leaflets

Through the use of favors, pictures of Madison, leaflets on the Shenandoah Valley and telegrams from Madison, the present convention will be encouraged to hold their next annual conference at Madison.

Johnnie Lou Thompson had this to say concerning the possibilities of holding the convention here:

"Many colleges will be vying for the opportunity to entertain the annual conference of the S.I.A.S.G. next year. If Madison's invitation is accepted, it will be one of the greatest honors our college has ever received. With the honor will be a great deal of responsibility of maintaining our reputation as Virginia hostesses and in giving each delegate a taste of the old fashioned Southern hospitality and friendliness for which Madison is famous."

At the conclusion of the convention, officers and delegates will be elected for the following year's convention.

Susie Appears On TV, Wins Contest

Honor Council chairman, Suzanne Roberts has been selected a winner on the Civitan Talent Show, seen every Saturday on Roanoke television.

Contestants for the weekly show are selected by audition. The winner of the week is the contestant receiving the largest number of post card votes by the TV audience. After several weekly winners have been chosen, they are asked to return to the show to compete against each other.

Judges for the show selected Suzie as the winner over several other winners-of-the-week. Her prize, a piece of white samsonite luggage was awarded to her on the show.

Suzie has been asked to appear on the Civitan show as a guest in the future.

Answer The Call - - -

It's time to roll up your sleeve and give blood to the Red Cross. Blood is as much a weapon of defense as guns, tanks, planes. It is as vital to national strength as aluminum or steel. Unlike weapons, it cannot be manufactured, mined or fabricated. It must come as a free donation from the veins of men and women of good will.

Recognizing that human blood is a critical national resource essential to the country's health, strength, and security, the President of the United States has directed the establishment of a National Blood Program within the Office of Defense Mobilization. The National Blood Program is charged with the responsibility of mobilizing the nation's blood resources so that blood will be readily available to meet the total needs of the country—both military and civilian.

The total blood needs of the nation are great: blood is needed for current use by the Armed Forces; it is needed to fill the immediate requirements of civilians; and above and beyond these daily needs, there must be blood for a national plasma reserve ready for use in any emergency, civilian or military, which might arise. To fill all of these important and continuing needs, the National Blood Program needs your support by becoming a regular blood donor.

Anyone between the ages of 18 and 59, at least 110 pounds in weight, and in normally good health can give blood. Minors must receive the signed consent of parent or legal guardian. The nearest Red Cross chapter can give full information as to the most convenient point where a donor may give blood.

The National Blood Program is a total blood program, designed to benefit the entire population—therefore everybody must take part to make it a success.

Ours To Uphold And Trample

School spirit provides the bulwark on any college campus. It is boasted by friendliness, cooperation, and a cheerful outlook on work as well as play. It smiles on a compact group possessing characteristics which distinguish them as members of a certain college. But school spirit has many enemies. Prevalent among these are gossiping and gripping.

We, as Madisonites, must analyze ourselves both individually and as a whole as to whether we are friends or enemies of this all important school spirit. Sure, you say, we are known for our friendliness, but it takes so much more. Our class spirit, as essential element, shines once a year when members work and laugh together to stand out on their big day. Do we let that attitude die down? Our Student Government is continually striving to make our college life as we want it; there must be laws and standards under any living conditions. Do we accept these appreciation or must we find fault with the decisions which we ourselves have instigated? School spirit cannot prevail when gossip reigns. Are we guilty of that potent crime? Do we take the small tales we have picked up from the ever present "grapevine" and twist them into unsurmountable facts? Do we take an active part in our school activities or are we guilty of thinking the other person can do it all? Can outsiders glance our way and realize that we are Madison girls?

This is our school—we make it what it is. Our attitudes, our actions, our presence, all go into the building of this institution. School spirit is ours to uphold or ours to trample. Which shall it be? B.L.S.

Letter To The Editor

Somewhere in Korea

April 12, 1953

Dear Editor,

I find it rather difficult to start this letter, as I have never written a letter of this type before. However, my friend and I were discussing the mail situation at mail call the other day, and it came to us while sitting in our bunk—no mail!

A few days ago while reading the Stars and Stripes, our daily paper, we came across an article concerning some G. I.'s like ourselves, who had written to a college. Boy, what a stack of mail they received! So my buddy says to me, "Jerry, what say we try that?" So this is the result. After some discussion, your college was picked as one to write to.

Having gone this far, we feel it is about time we told you something about ourselves. First, a little about "Frisco", the other character writing this letter. Height—5'6"; weight—130 lbs; brown hair, blue eyes; age—22; favorite sports are football (left end) and track. His home town is Brooklyn, New York.

Now for the other character. I'm Jerry. Height—6'; weight—196 lbs.; brown hair, gray eyes; age—22; favorite sports are football and swimming. My home town is also Brooklyn, New York.

In closing this, we would appreciate any letters, and will certainly not hesitate to answer them.

Sincerely yours,
Jerry & Frisco

Flaming Flicks ---

"My Cousin Rachel", starring Olivia de Havilland and Richard Burton, a newcomer from the British stage, will play at the State Theatre next Thursday, Friday, April 30, and May 1.

The plot is based on Daphne DuMaurier's novel of the same name and is a thriller! Miss de Havilland returns to the screen as the provocative heroine, "Rachel", who is accused by Philip Ashley (Richard Burton) of poisoning his foster father. He vows vengeance on "Rachel", only to fall hopelessly in love with her. As the story develops, circumstantial evidence mounts pointing both to her innocence and guilt. Philip's search for the truth is thwarted when Rachel accidentally plunges to her death and the audience is also left to form its own conclusion. The picture is a must for anyone that loves a romantic mystery.

John Wayne and Donna Reed star in "Trouble Along the Way", coming to the Virginia theatre on Saturday, April 25.

The story is action-packed in the John Wayne "Quiet Man" manner and is a sentimental gem. As a rugged, two-fisted man whose wife has divorced him, John Wayne is set on the right road by welfare officer Donna Reed. Charles Coburn, 75 year old veteran actor, takes over and the ensuing action is plentiful and exciting, winding up in a heartening romance between the principals.

CHEERS FOR WILLIE!

"Who gave the bride away?"
"Her little brother, Willie. He stood right up in the middle of the ceremony and yelled, 'Hurray, Louise, you've got him at last!'"

Dr. Penick wishes to thank all who made the chest x-ray survey a success.

faculty facts - -

From May 10-25, Miss Aiken's beginning painting students will display their art at the Harrisonburg City Library. They will consist of tempera paints, opaque water colors and transparent water colors. Landscapes and various other subjects will be displayed.

Mr. Warren Rohrer, who is a graduate of Madison College and in charge of the Art Department at Montevideo High School, will have a one man show of his painting at the City Library during the early summer. Mr. Rohrer was an art student at Madison and spent last summer studying art at Pennsylvania State College. He is resigning his position at Montevideo and will study painting at the Philadelphia Art Academy next fall.

The April edition of School Science and Mathematics includes an article by Mr. Raus M. Hanson, Professor of Geography at Madison College. In this article, "Locating Places Is A Skill", he states that map skills should be listed among those skills taught in our schools. He also explains some of the intricacies of understanding maps.

Miss Aiken, head of the Art Department, attended an Art Symposium last month at Sweet Briar College. She heard several speakers including Miss Katherine Ann Porter who spoke on "The Novel as a Carrier of Ideas."

Dr. G. C. Smith of the College history and social science department was elected president of the Rockingham Historical Society at a meeting held Saturday, April 10. The Society, dedicated to the collection and preservation of county and city records for present and future generations, has a membership of nearly 500, and publishes a magazine entitled the ROCKINGHAM RECORDER. In 1940, while a graduate student in history at the University of Virginia, Dr. Smith served as the secretary of the Albemarle County Historical Society.

Mr. Oliver M. Davis was Instructor in Geography at Madison College during the year 1950-51. During the past two years, he has been doing research work for the Virginia Geographical Institute at the University of Virginia. He has been elected assistant professor of geography in the University of Kansas. While there he will give his summers to field surveys in geography in selected areas in Kansas. He also expects to complete his work for his Ph. D. in geography there. The Davis family will move to Lawrence, Kansas in June.

To Morning Fog And Trees

Angelic robes! You've come again.
To don the morning air.
Where are your lovely owners?
Ah, yes! The sunlight's in their hair.
'Tis April and they are again
Alive in misty splendor.
Their dress of fragile green deserves
A bow of Nature's soft surrender.
Sweet bird calls reach my eager ears;
A raptured still falls o'er the earth.
The dainty flowers, meek and tiny,
Strive to bless Spring at her birth.

I wonder with this new beginning
Whether we might turn with love
To He who with each season's bringing
Happiness from up above.

June's Jargon..

Another big weekend starts today at V.M.I. with Easters. Looks like it will be another fabulous time in store for all. From what I hear, U. Va., Tech., and W & L were really rockin' last weekend. Heard about one of the dates at Tech. Seems that she was 14 years old. What's the matter, boys, robbin' the cradle?

Bouquets to Anne Turner—she was chosen Queen of the Phi Kappa Sigma Skull Dance at Randolph-Macon this weekend. I'm sure she'll make a beautiful queen!

Note to all intellectuals—Mickey Spillane's new book, "Kiss Me, Deadly", is now at the news stands in the pocketbook edition. A must for everyone who enjoys a good murder mystery!

If anyone has the new "mad" comic, they are urgently requested to bring it to the Breeze room. If you haven't read one of these things—don't bother!

Since all the be-bop jokes are flying around, I thought maybe you would enjoy the one I heard the other day. Seems that two hepcats were standing on the Eiffel Tower watching the elevator go up and down when one turned to the other and said—"Man, dig that crazy yo-yo!"

Did you see the favors that Johnnie Lou Thompson, Suzie Roberts, and Grace Matz took to the SIASG Convention in Texas? Let's all keep our fingers crossed and hope that they bring the good news home that the convention will be here next year!

Orchids to Delta Kappa Fraternity for their wonderful variety show last weekend. The kids certainly did their part to help a Harrisonburg charity.

Aunt Jemina and her crew were here on campus last Friday. They were in Harrisonburg for the Spring Festival. Um-m-m, those pancakes were delicious!

'Nuff of the chatter for, this week. See ya' 'round the quad.'

Fraternity Celebrates With Formal Dinner

The Gables set the scene for the eighth annual banquet of Beta Nu Chapter of Pi Omega Pi on April 21. Before the dinner, formal initiation was held for those new members taken into Pi Omega Pi.

Members initiated into the fraternity were Gail Thacker, Jane Warren, Mary Fred Turner, Betty June Rakes, and Nan St. John. These members were chosen on the basis of their scholastic average. They are all business majors.

Eugene Crider presided as Toastmaster over the banquet. He introduced the guest at the banquet; members of the business department; the Pi Omega Pi Sophomore Award winner, June Bryant; and the guest speaker, Mr. George Aldhizer.

Joyce Gwaltney, accompanied by Sondra Myers, rendered three solos: "When I Have Sung My Song", "Spring Mood", and "Look For the Silver Lining."

New officers were elected for the 1953-54 term in Pi Omega Pi. They are: Shirley Walker, president; Mary Fred Turner, vice-president; Nan St. John, secretary; and Rebecca Wilkes, treasurer.

Following the election, Joyce Coiner reviewed the year's accomplishments of the club. This year Beta Nu Chapter of Pi Omega Pi was chosen the fourth most outstanding chapter out of the ninety chapters in this country.

Mr. George Aldhizer, local lawyer and nominee for the Virginia Senate, spoke to the group on "Success in Business." He relayed to the group in a most stimulating manner some of his experiences in business and recommended some "don'ts" to prospective business leaders.

At the close of the banquet, the guests and members rose and sang "Alma Mater."

FRESHMAN

ten "A" students and ten "F" students, illustrated what to wear to classes. This hit home for most of the audience who received this fashion show with appreciable applause.

Those masters of the 88—Adair McConnell and Bill Vance seemed to enjoy performing as much as the audience enjoyed them. Proof of the fact that the audience approved—Adair and Bill came back with more.

Ann Fosnight "the Chlorophyll Kid" was on the spot after each commercial to announce—"It contains chlorophyll".

Act 2, put on completely by the Freshmen Physical Education Majors was a take-off on the Western in the days of the Saga with its hero and villain. Enacted with perfect timing and that extra ounce of pull together, the Phys. Ed. majors provided interesting entertainment with a surprise ending—as Buddy Boskey got the gal, and "done away with the bad critter".

Grizzly Bayer Aspirins

Juanita Powell equipped with straw hat and uke ably sold her product Grizzly Bayer Aspirins sponsors of the Western.

Concluding the Freshman preview of color T. V. was a fast moving hit parade sponsored by Broccoli with the five top tunes at M. C. "This is a Very Special Day" by Sarah Skellie showed a superb singing style which was followed by a completely different style, that of Dot Burlorson and Harriett Poindexter who rang out with Chimie Bells. These two seemed to be having a wonderful time—along with the audience.

Rita Ritchie's smooth voice filled the audience with perfect rhythm as she sang "Glow Worm".

Freshman Class Song

What would be a better No. 2 song than the freshman class song? Led by Polly Moroni, the entire cast of the 3 acts combined to sing with appropriate pep and spirit, typical of the Class of '56.

Voted by the Freshmen as the outstanding song on our campus, the entire assemblage sang the Alma Mater.

With special "thanks" to Mr. Boskey, class sponsor for his help and guidance, the freshman class, full of that good 'ol stuff called freshman class spirit concluded the program, a little wiser, a little more experienced, and a little tired.

During the show a downhearted tramp wandered across the stage, and sang a song called "Nobody".

Rumors have it that the tramp's name was—Ray.

CALENDAR

Saturday, April 25

Freshman Dance (Freshman only)

7:30—Movie, "Les Miserables", starring Michael Rennie.

Tuesday, April 28

8:00—Delta Kappa Fraternity vs. Faculty Volleyball game.

Freshmen Sponsor First Class Dance

"April Showers" is the theme chosen by the Freshmen for their class dance which will be held in Reed Gym tomorrow night at 9:00 o'clock.

Paul Nobel and his orchestra will supply the music.

The president, Mary Lou Carroll, and her date will lead the figure with the class officers and representatives following.

The decorations will carry out the theme of the dance with a rainbow over the band and a blanket of raindrops overhead.

Cokes will be held throughout the dance, with Myra Smith in charge.

Madison Recognizes Collectors Week

A collection of figures which illustrate books is on display in the college library on the second floor in recognition of National Collector's Week. Among the displays are the policeman and the ducks for "Make Way For Ducklings." Miss Frances Grove of the Art Department constructed the policeman. The gingham dog and the calico cat are salt and pepper shakers for the poem of the same name. The radiators for "Radiator Lions" are also salt and paper shakers. "Miki" is the title of another book figure.

The books and figures are part of the collection of Miss Ruby Ethel Cundiff.

Crider To Preside Over Men's SGA

New officers of Men's Student Organization were elected at their monthly meeting. They are as follows: president, Eugene Crider; vice-president, Bill Parker; recording secretary, Keith Long; corresponding secretary, Charles Caricofe; and treasurer, Bill Kauffman.

Miller Accepts Position

Mr. Erve Miller, a chemistry major from Dayton, has accepted a Graduate Research Assistantship in Chemistry at Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical, Stillwater, Oklahoma. Erve will do graduate work during the school year 1953-54.

I have a yen for letter men—
Their skill impresses me;
But letters that impress me most
Are L.S./M.F.T.
Mary Ella Bovee
Columbia University

I have a friend named Polly Ann—
And Polly is a smart one;
She gets an "A" in every course—

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste

and LUCKIES
TASTE BETTER!

Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?
You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment.
And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother!
Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco.
L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

Be Happy-GO LUCKY!

The echo's heard the campus round,
So here's a tip from me:
It's Luckies for their mildness and
For extra quality!
Lee Johnson
University of Maryland

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.

Banquets seem to be the fashions these days. Last night the Porpoise Club went to the Green Lantern for their turn in the banquet cycle. They put away quantities of food. Miss Beyrer was given bookends and a cookbook in token of the club's appreciation for her help during the year. Unknown to Miss Beyrer she had carried the package around in her car for half the day. What a lack of curiosity.

Monday night the junior and senior physical education majors tied for first place in a swimming meet. The seniors were the victors by three points, 37-34. Bruce Staples won the 100 yard swimming; Grace Matz, the 20 yard free style and the 40 yard free style; Sue Gallimore, the 40 yard back crawl and the diving; and Dot Harris, the individual medley. Sue Gallimore and Grace Matz tied for high scorer with ten points each.

Six new water safety instructors have received certificates from the course just completed. They are Jane Wine, Dorothy Sheffield, Delight Stroll, Betty Sorenson, Joyce Herrin, and Maxine Abshire of the Bridgewater High School faculty. This thirty hour course was taught by Miss Savage and Dr. Sinclair.

Officiating trials in swimming will be held Monday night from eight to nine and Tuesday night from seven to ten. At the last of these trials, Dorothy Sheffield received her associate rating.

More news from the popular swimming front . . . senior life saving course begins Thursday, May 7, at 8:00 p.m. Following meetings of the course will be held on Monday and Thursday evenings from eight to ten throughout the month of May. The instructor will be Miss Ruth Tandy of the faculty of Bridgewater College and she will be assisted by Sue Gallimore. The course is open to both men and women.

Margaret Covey, Martha Cromer, Nancy Kiser, Blanche Mays, June Simmons, and Margaret Ann Smith will attend the college sports day at Mary Baldwin College, Saturday, April 25. This play day is an event sponsored each year by the Virginia Athletic Federation of College Women. Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. and the morning program will include synchronized swimming and archery. In the afternoon session the girls will play volleyball.

Here's a reminder to all you gals to decorate your dorms for May Day. Of course we can't all have the best but they can all be very good.

How about a game of tennis? The courts are open and the interest is high. The tennis interest group meets twice a week to give the more advanced players a chance to perfect their strokes. From this group Jo Guyton, Joyce Herrin, Mary Lebling, and Jo Ann Smith will attend a tennis sports day at Longwood College on April 25.

The Modern Dance Club has elected the following officers: Dottie Sheffield, president; Bruce Staples, vice-president; Jo Guyton, secretary; Connie Rawls, treasurer; Barbara Butler, alumnae secretary; Betty Smith, reporter.

Clubs Elect Officers For Coming Year

Sesame Club elected officers for next year. Nancy Garber is president; Sue Huffman, vice-president; Lois Suter, secretary; Sarah Ann Long, treasurer; Anna Marie Miller, reporter.

Madison College Chapter of the local Future Business Leaders of America elected new officers at its monthly meeting. They are: president, "Eddie" Frady; first vice-president, Keith Long; second vice-president, Martha Ann Colvin; recording secretary, Barbara Shafer; corresponding secretary, Eleanor Wood; treasurer, Francis Mason; reporter, Lola Jones.

Scribblers elected a new officer for next year at their last meeting. Aileen "Dickie" Dickerson, from Arlington, will take over as Chief Scribe.

Fraternity Play Faculty

Madison College faculty accepts the challenge of Delta Kappa Fraternity to play volley ball. The event will take place on Tuesday night, April 28, in Reed gym at 8:00 P.M. Spectators will be welcome.
