

Acknowledgments

As the May 2023 semester closes, we would like to thank our tireless volunteer copy editor, Kate Frey, and the Design Lab team led by James Woodard. These Longwood University students have supported VJPH for the past two editions, and we are grateful for their skill and professionalism. Continued thanks to Dr. Heather-Lettner Rust, who facilitates this collaboration.

We express our gratitude to Becca Kruse, Digital Collections Specialist at James Madison University, who makes the journal possible.
