Cotillion German Clubs Elect Officers For '54-'55

SYLVIA PAYNE

JUANITA WOOD

Election of officers was held last week by the members of both the Bluestone Cotillion and German Dance Clubs.

Sylvia Payne, a representative to the Student-Faculty Committee and Panhellenic, was elected president of the Bluestone Cotillion Club. "Sib" is a Curriculum II English major from Norfolk. She holds membership in the French Club and Pi Kappa Sigma Sorority.

Other officers include vice-president, Joan Holst; secretary, Jean Mitchell; treasurer, Ginny Wiltshire; sergeant-at-arms, Lola Jones; business-manager, Carol Lynn Russell; and reporter, Amy Young.

The German Dance Club voted for president Juanita Wood, a business major in Curriculum V. From Piney River, "Nete" is the former treasurer of the Junior Class, and a member of the Modern Dance Club and Pi Kappa Sigma Sorority.

Mary Fred Turner was elected vice-president; Ann Harris, secretary; Jane Wine, treasurer; Frances Brickley, sergeant-at-arms; June Holt, business-manager; and Babs Smith, reporter.

May Day To Feature Past, Present, Future

by Ann Fosnight

"May Day Through the Years", the theme for this year's May Day festivities, holds in store quite a treat for those who behold the pageantry on May 8. Featured in this annual event will be the bringing back of Madison's queens from 1925, 1926, and so on through the years to 1953. Thus far, eleven former queens are expected back.

Each queen will step forth to announce the various phases of the program and, accordingly, entertainment from that particular year will be reviewed.

Madison's use of May Day, as well as a brief history of May Day, will comprise the first unit of the entertainment and other units will feature the Glee Club and the Modern Dance Club. The latter will portray an extremely modern version of May Days to come.

Finally, the inevitable May Pole Dance will be executed by the Freshman Class.

Vent for new interest by the students in the May Day celebration is provided by the opportunity for each class to have and decorate their own float for the parade which will precede the formerly described activities. Likewise, it is hoped that the inhabitants of the dorms and sorority houses will do as splendidly in decorating their "homes away from home" as they did last year. Freshmen! This means you, too!

Prizes will be awarded for the best decorated sorority house and dormitory and a cash award of twenty-five dollars will be awarded to the class having the best float. A similar prize will be awarded the best band in the parade.

Mildred Gunn Presents Senior Recital Sunday

At four o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 25th, Mildred Gunn will give a violin recital assisted by Edgar Anderson, violist, and Betty Landers, accompanist and pianist. Miss Gunn's solo numbers will be Pietro Nardini's Concerto in E minor; Franz Ries' Adagio from his No. 3 suite; Fritz Kreisler's Rondino; Ernst Bacon's Buncombe County, N. C.; Lili Boulanger's Nocturne; and Kochanski's arrangement of De Falla's Jota.

The Duo No. 2 in B flat for Violin and Viola by Mozart will be played by Miss Gunn and Mr. Anderson, and with the assistance of Miss Landers the violinist will add Beethoven's Sonata No. 5 in F, opus 24.

Both young women are seniors in Music Education. Mr. Anderson is Associate Professor in the Music Department.

Miss Gunn, who is concert-mistress of the college orchestra, served as vice-president of the Y.W.C.A. She is a member of the German Club, Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority, and is in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

MC Library Displays Water Color Paintings

On display in the Madison College Library is an exhibition of twenty water color paintings sponsored by the art department. It is loaned by the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and is the mark of the California Water Color Society. The exhibition includes such paintings as Lake Arrowhead, Blue Lagoon, and Driftwood.

Students To Receive Registration Notices

Every student will receive a notice from his adviser about his registration conference. It is important that the student report to his adviser at the time designated. Resident students must present the receipt for $10 to the adviser.

The student will report to his adviser as follows:

1. Every Sophomore and Junior in Curricula II, III, VII, and VIII who has selected his major field will report to the appropriate Department Head for his conference.

2. Every Sophomore and Junior in the above curricula who has not yet notified his Curriculum Chairman of his choice of major field will report first to his Curriculum Chairman, then proceed to the appropriate Department Head for his conference.

Every Sophomore and Junior in other curricula will report to his adviser for a conference.

3. Every Freshman will report first to his adviser.

Every student should call at the Registrar's Office on or after April 21 for

1. Registration instructions.
 2. Class Schedules for 1954-1955.

Freshmen To Bring Ernestine G. Carey

Under the auspices of the Freshman Class, Mrs. Ernestine Gilbreth Carey is to speak here on April 28 at 12 noon.

Mrs. Carey, author of a new novel, Jumping Jupiter and co-author of Cheaper By the Dozen and Belles on Their Toes is one of the dozen children in the fabulous Gilbreth family, a family typically American in every way. Her new book, the story of a young woman toy buyer in a giant department store, again places stress on human relations and their importance in building world peace.

Mrs. Carey is a graduate of Smith College where she specialized in English and economics, also editing the Smith College Monthly, the college humorous magazine, and the humor division of the yearbook. For over fifteen years she was a buyer for a number of large New York department stores. Recently she retired from active business to devote herself to family life, lecturing, and writing.

Mrs. Carey has often been described as a tall, slender, red-haired housewife. She insists that her mother's example stays a continuous, ever-driving force in her life. "Some writers say that they must have complete quiet and no interruptions in their work," Mrs. Carey admits. "But with two young children and a mischievous puppy who follows me everywhere, our household in Manhasset, Long Island, seems to be in constant turmoil. If it wasn't I probably would be homesick for the old Gilbreth days. I keep telling myself that if Mother and Dad could work in spite of the confusion of a dozen boys and girls, noise and distraction should agree with me, too. Besides, when you live in the midst of activity and good, strenuous human companionship, the fun is wonderfully stimulating."

Madison Glee Club To Give Assembly

On Wednesday, April 14 the assembly will be given by the Madison College Glee Club under the direction of Miss Edna Shaeffer.

Officers of the Glee Club are: president, Dolly Rutherford; vice president, Sara Thompson; secretary, Joyce Gwaltney; business manager, Judy Freeman; and librarian, Rita Ritchie.

Attention

The Easter Sunrise Service will be held Sunday, April 11, at 6:00 a.m. back campus. The theme this year will be a symbolic walk — visiting these five tableaux: Nativity, Baptism, Ministry, Passover Supper, and Crucifixion. In case of rain, the same program will begin in Alumni Reception Room at 7:00 a.m.

What Is A College Boy?

Between the senility of second childhood and the lighthearted leachery of the teens, we find a loathsome creature called the college boy. College boys come in assorted sizes, weights, and states of sobriety, but all college boys have the same creed: To do nothing every second of every minute of every day and to protest with whining noises (their great weapon) when their last minute of inertia is finished and the adult male takes them off to the Employment Office or the Draft Board.

College boys are found everywhere—breaking train windows, tearing down goal posts, inciting riots or jumping bail. Mothers love them, little girls love them, big girls love them, middle-sized girls love them, and Satan protects them. A college boy is Laziness, with peach-fuzz on its face, Idiocy, with lanolin in its hair, and the Hope of Failure, with an over-drawn bankbook in its pocket.

A college boy is composite — he has the energy of Rip Van Winkle, the shyness of a Mr. Micawber, the practicality of a Don Quixote, the kindness of a Marquis de Sade, the imagination of a Bill Sykes, the appetite of a Gargantua, the aspiration of a Casanova, and when he wants something it's usually money.

He likes good liquor, bad liquor, cancelled classes, double features, Playtex ads, girls on football week-ends. He is not much for hopeful mothers, irate fathers, sharp-eyed ushers, AMS constables, alarm clocks, or letters from the Dean.

Nobody is so late to rise or so early to supper. Nobody gets so much fun out of girls, snooker, Bright's Catawber. Nobody else can cram into one pocket a slide-rule, a Marilyn Monroe calendar, Kant's "Critique of Pure Reason," a collapsible pool cue, a Mugsy Spaniel record, and a Y.M.C.A. towel.

A college boy is a magical creature — you can lock him out of your heart but you can't lock him out of your liquor cabinet. You can get him off your mind but you can't get him off your expense account. Might as well give up; he is your jailer, your boss, and your albatross — a bleary-eyed, no-account, girl-chasing bundle of worry. But when you come home at night with only the shattered pieces of hope and dreams, he can make them mightily insignificant with four magic words: "I flunked out, Dad."

When Things Go Wrong . . .

Editing a publication is not an easy task. When things go right and the student body likes the paper, the staff is rewarded. When mistakes have been made we want to know about them so that they may be rectified.

There are many things that can go wrong in the journalism world. Mistakes may be made in typing, which can usually be caught in time if the information handed in by the reporter is correct. Galley proofs may have whole lines or paragraphs left out in such a way that it is difficult for the proofreader to catch the error. Things may go wrong when the printer moves the type around to make up the pages. In spite of all kinds of efforts, there are occasional errors of which the staff members are not aware.

News has its "ups and downs". Sometimes in making up the paper, we tear our hair out to find something to fill up the columns. Other times, there are so many items for publication that we must use our discretion in picking those which are essential in informing the student body and administration. As the old saying goes, "You can please some of the people all of the time, all of the people some of the time, but never all of the people all of the time".

The Butler Did It - - -

What is more horrible than a cold, hard-boiled egg? Every year at Easter completely rational human beings take good expensive eggs, boil them until they would bounce off a wall, then work until the wee hours of the morning to paint them for the kiddies. After all this effort they hide them in various spots. By hiding them in out of the way spots they run the risk of losing them or having these masterpieces stepped on.

Easter morning the kiddies arise and hunt frantically for the poor bewildered eggs which know not what is happening to them. The children throw their whole hearts into this adventure but you and I well know that cold boiled eggs, regardless of their nutritional value, are not considered edible by most happy youngsters. The truth of the matter is that they would hunt for most anything that was recognizable, green rocks, rusty jackknives, or old milk bottle caps, all of which can be picked up at your local pawnshop for a much more reasonable sum than a dozen eggs.

After the kiddies have found all the eggs they can do one of two things with them:

1. Eat them in their baskets.

Flaming Flicks--

Thrilling science fiction and underwater adventure appear at the State Theater from April 11-14 in "Creature from the Black Lagoon". Starring in this terrifying movie are Richard Carlson and Julia Adams, a new team.

"Creature from the Black Lagoon" features the return from the forbidden depths of the Amazon of a prehistoric half-man, half-fish. It encounters and endangers the lives of a scientific expedition which is searching for fossils.

Phenomenal underwater photography catches the details of the attacks of the monster and the struggles under the water's surface. One hundred fifty-two scenes were filmed in the depths of the Amazon, a record in underwater photography.

Carlson stands out as the expedition leader and has a romantic lead for a change. Julia Adams also displays her celebrated legs in no less than thirty-four scenes. The monster captures Julia and makes a triangle out of this romance.

For a terrifying and different movie that keeps you on the edge of your seat, don't miss "Creature from the Black Lagoon" at the State from Sunday through Wednesday.

Opening Sunday at the Virginia Theater and running for five days is a real thriller, "Phantom of the Rue Morgue". A movie adapted from Edgar Allan Poe's classic, "Murders in the Rue Morgue", it promises to be full of screams and horrifying plots.

Karl Malden, Claude Dauphin, Patricia Medina, and Steve Forrest head the cast for this mystery-murder story. Awesome murders keep the police busy with some scientific sleuthing. For a thrilling evening and a good scare, be sure to see "Phantom of the Rue Morgue" at the Virginia.

The Little Woman

The modern woman is the only one that dresses fit to kill, and cooks the same way.

The modern woman is the only one that has nothing to wear with five closets to store it in.

Notice

There will be no assembly on Wednesday, April 21.

2. Have a good ole, sloppy, egg battle. I could also list eat them but this is highly improbable. If they put them in their baskets the eggs will sit until they rot, for little ones don't like to throw away such treasures. Of course, you could force them to eat these beautiful bullets but that would create some sort of complex against the Easter bunny for creating these dry tasteless things. This would be bad because to date psychiatrists have not found anyway of dealing with the Easter bunny complex although there has been much research in this field. All that needs to be said about the second choice which is an egg battle is that it has all the potentials of being messy.

If you insist that colored eggs go along with the season why not scramble up some nice warm eggs and dump ink over them. Ink comes in very many lovely shades and a recent survey proved that nine out of ten people preferred ink to cold, hard-boiled eggs.

There is an old proverb that says, "An Easter egg is only welcome at Easter," and if you are a realist you can readily see that even then there is room for improvement.

Skip's Scoop

Hi— This is "Skip" back with a few more scoops of interest and some things to think about. Hope you had a nice week and didn't get hit by too many snowballs. Mercy!!

This was a week of major elections for the men students. Elections were held for Student Government and Y. M. C. A. The following were elected to hold office in the Men's Student Government: President, Hollis Showalter; Vice-President, Doug Soyars; Treasurer, Dale Long; Recording Secretary, Eldon Padgett; Corresponding Secretary, Thomas Byrd.

The following were elected to hold office in the Y. M. C. A. for the coming year. President, Roger Padgett; Vice-President, Doug Soyars; Secretary, Eldon Padgett; Treasurer, Thomas Byrd; Chaplain, George D. Leffel, Jr. Sponsors, Dr. Shorts and Mr. Hanson.

Congratulations go to all the new officers and may the coming year be one of success for you and all the men students. Of course, I speak for all the men when I say a big "thanks" goes to Eugene Crider (Student Government President) and Francis Mason (Y. M. C. A. President) for the great jobs they have done this year in leading the Men Students. Thanks also go to all other officers and to the sponsors. You have all done great work.

Father: "Don't you think our son gets his intelligence from me?"

Mother: "He must—I've still got mine!"

The men students and faculty really had a swell time playing volleyball on Monday night. Did you get up to see them? I hear Dr. Penick really used his head.

Last week, four of our men students journeyed to Washington to see about joining the United States Naval Cadets. They were Keith "Teak" Long, Charles Caricofe, Bill Baker and Sam Dovel. "Teak" and Charley will go back on April 24th and be sworn into the Naval Cadets. After graduation, they will go to Pensacola, Florida to receive their pre-flight training. We know that they will make good ones.

This week free movie passes go to Woodson Tutwiler and Donald Salt at the Virginia and Lloyd Gossler and Jack Leffel at the State. Just show this column and your name at the ticket office and you get a free show. Have fun.

by 'Smitty'

6-5-4-3-2-1- Whee! Just take a pencil and after each day (beginning tomorrow) mark through one of these numbers. By the time you get to "Whee" you'll be home for Easter. My word—isn't that a consoling thought?

Seems as though no one can get much out of the student body this week. Twenty-two of them are thinking of nothing but their parts in Stratford's "I Remember Mama" — coming this weekend; others are dreaming only of the vacation ahead; and the majority of the campus seem to be going wild over spring dances at V. P. I. this weekend. Many are playing that little spring game entitled, "Cut class to sun-bathe".

As one professor at University of Toledo, Ohio, puts it, "College students are the only people in the world who pay for something and then do their best to cheat themselves out of it."

I read a tasty morsel in the "Ag-grievator" (put out by Oklahoma A and M) last week, I think you'll enjoy. Six reasons why I didn't join a Sorority: 1) I had never danced with a man in my life, and I didn't want to; 2) I didn't fill out a sweater, and I didn't look very attractive in a sleeveless low-cut gown; 3) I wanted to do as I wished and think for myself instead of being led around by a bunch of sorority sisters; 4) I had never gone into women's clubs and organizations before I came to college, and I didn't want to start; 5) I didn't like the idea of having a room with the same girl all quarter; and 6) I am a male!

Apologies are in order for several items in last week's "Breeze". Janet Dybvad, from Arlington, is the new senior representative to the social committee; Agnes Stephenson, student-faculty representative, is from Wakefield, not Chesapeake, and Barbara Holland received a pin from Ray Piland. Sorry, gals, but mistakes will creep up on one, especially in the journalism world. We of the Breeze staff sincerely appreciate being notified when something goes wrong. Keep it up!

We have two others on campus who are wearing a shine on the third left finger. Wanda McDuffy received an engagement ring from Owen Jones in the U. S. Navy. Margaret Boyer is engaged to Dan Dickinson from W. & L.

I'd like to request that all you lucky gals, pinned, ringed, or otherwise, drop a note to "Smitty", Box 28, giving the necessary "info". That way we won't miss anyone. Thanks.

Next Sunday night over W.S.V.A. (that's Harrisonburg) a theatre play house is giving "Death of a Salesman" starring Frederic March and his wife. It comes on from 9 p.m. until 10 p.m. Sunday night, so try and catch it sometime.

Have you heard the definition of Easter? It's the time when the bunny comes out and takes all the credit for what the chickens have been working at all year. Have fun.

P.S. There won't be another Breeze until April 30. Now isn't that a shame?

ture for today until this room settles down."

Voice from rear: "Go home and sleep it off, old man!"

Hope to see you all at the play. There are some big surprises in store and after it is over I believe "You Will Remember Mama." Until next week, think about this one. "Marriage is somewhat like a cafeteria — You look the possibilities over very carefully, select what you like best and pay later!!! Be Good!

"Y" News

The Y.W.C.A. held its installation of officers on Friday, April 2. Those installed were:

President, Joyce Herrin
Vice-Pres., Roxanne Rogers
Secretary, Bethel Bradley
Treasurer, June Holt.

The past president, Iris McGhee explained the duties of each office and the incoming officers pledged themselves to carry these duties out to the best of their ability. The Girls' Chorus under the direction of Miss Edna T. Shaeffer then rendered special music. A luncheon followed the services.

The sponsors of the Y.W.C.A. are Mr. Shorts, Mrs. Dingledine, and Mr. and Mrs. Partlow.

AUCTION:

"Going, going, gone!", echoed throughout Wilson Hall on Tuesday, March 30, as the Y.W.C.A. held its auction for the benefit of the World University Service. Dr. Smith, auctioned everything from candy to blind dates and Madison students will be enjoying meals at Howard Johnson's and maid service for weeks to come. Professional entertainment, including a hilarious hat styles show, was provided by many of our versatile faculty members.

Joyce Herrin, Y.W.C.A. president, reports that between $160 and $175 were made in proceeds toward the fund. The Y.W.C.A. wishes to thank Roxanne Rogers for all of the effort she put into making the auction a success. Appreciation and thanks are extended to the faculty for their splendid cooperation.

Department To Give Therapeutic Classes

For the past four years majors and minors in physical education have been given a body mechanics examination. In September of 1954 this plan will be extended to include all persons entering college. This spring the therapeutic exercise class under Dr. Sinclair is offering opportunities for examination, advice, and corrective exercise in an effort to give special help to students in improving their posture, body mechanics, and walking.

Business Department Holds Testing Center

On May 1, the Business Education Department will sponsor a testing center for the National Business Entrance Tests. At this time, these tests will be administered to students from neighboring high schools and colleges.

During the first two weeks of May, a number of students from the Business Education Department will participate in these same tests.

National Business Entrance Tests are given annually throughout the country to business students. They are sponsored by the National Office Management Association and the United Business Education Association. The subjects covered by the tests are: typewriting, stenography, bookkeeping, clerical practice, and machine calculation. A certificate is awarded in each of these fields for the successful completion of these tests.

The tests at Madison are being given under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Margaret Brady.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

A man who smokes a Lucky Strike is really on the ball.
So round, so firm, so fully packed—
The cigarette for all!

Bob Vickery, Jr.
University of Missouri

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason... enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco... light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better... always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

What brand is grand throughout the land
From Maine to old Kentucky—
With smoothness, mildness, better taste?
Why, yes, you're right, it's Lucky!

I puffed and puffed the whole day through,
Just trying every brand,
Until I smoked some Lucky Strikes
And found they tasted grand!

Reggie Pearson has been chosen to lead the Porpoise Club as president for the coming year. Wednesday night, the club also elected Peggy Waring, vice-president; Janet Bolen, secretary; Shirley Reynolds, treasurer; and Emma Gene Gray, recreation council representative.

The lists for those playing softball have been taken down and the intramural games will begin as soon as we return from Easter vacation.

Congrats to the new fencing club officers. Vernelle Stinnette will be the new president, while Martha Cromer will be the secretary-treasurer. The club will wind up their activities for the season with a co-educational match today. Mr. Bocksey will sponsor the men students fencing group.

Spotswood, Lincoln, and Johnston are leading in the volleyball tournament with three wins apiece. The last games before Easter will be played on April 13 and the finals will be scheduled for after the Easter vacation.

This Saturday Miss Dickens will attend the International Youth Conference on Health and Physical Education. The conference will meet with the Connecticut Valley Colleges.

Several community groups are using the college swimming pool this spring. The Boy Scouts under the leadership of Mr. Donald Kyger will use the pool from 2 to 3 p.m. Saturday afternoons, a Brownie troop led by Mrs. Russell Wampler and taught by Betty Meyers will swim from 3 to 4 p.m. Wednesdays, and the alumnae sponsored Girls Club will swim on alternate Friday afternoons with Eleanor Christopher as life guard. In addition Sue Gallimore is teaching a swimming class for some of the college secretaries on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3:30 p.m.
