Virginia Graduate Student Describes Russian Tour

A rare glimpse behind the Iron Curtain will be in the Madison student body when Dr. Craig E. Lovitt, graduate student in foreign languages at the University of Virginia, comes to the College to describe his amazing three-week tour of the Soviet Union.

Dr. Lovitt, former student journalist at Knox College in Galesburg, Illinois, was one of seven college newspaper editors who took a three-week tour of the Soviet Union in late 1953 and early 1954. The editors sought to gain "an insight into how Russian students view America and current world problems and how the ordinary Russian citizen conducts his daily life."

Lovitt was accompanied by six other members of the American college newspaper editors who took the trip and were members of the Galesburg, Illinois Daily Furniture and the noodle-making trip. Articles and photographs by the group appeared not only in metropolitan dailies and papers on the news-making trip.

Dr. John Thomas Hearn Joins Madison College Medical Staff

Dr. John T. Hearn, Madison physician

Dr. John Thomas Hearn Joins Madison College Medical Staff

Madison's infirmary has added a new member to the medical staff, Dr. John Thomas Hearn from Fredericksburg, Virginia. Dr. Hearn is replacing Dr. R. Q. Pritch, who is now doing private practice in Harrisonburg.

Dr. Hearn received his degree at the University of Virginia and interned at Madigan Army Hospital in Tacoma, Washington.

Besides being the new doctor serving Madison College, he has a private practice in Penn Laird, which is eight miles east of Harrisonburg at Monroeville Clinic. He has had this practice for a year and a half.

Dr. Hearn is a member of the following medical associations: Alpha Omega Alpha honorary medical society; Rockingham County Medical Society; Valley of Virginia Medical Society; American Medical Association; and the medical staff of Rockingham Memorial Hospital. He also is a member of Phi Beta Pi medical fraternity.

President of Zeta Tau Alpha, Alpha social sorority, a member of Kappa Delta Pi honorary fraternity, Sigma Phi Lambda, A.C.E., "Y," Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and co-director of the Presbyterian Junior Chorale. She also participates in the Unions Club. As underclass achievement, she was librarian of the glee club in her sophomore year and treasurer of the junior class.

Among her recreational interests, tennis and camping are her activities. Basketball, baseball, and football are the sports she enjoys most. Reading and anything connected with music also is added to her leisure time activities.

Pet Peeve—Hypocrisy

"Hypocrisy is my pet peeve. She replied, "I like sincerity. Be what you are and let the world take it for what it's worth." Her personal motto is: "Low aim, and, not failure is a crime."

The annual "Miss Madison" contest is sponsored by the Art Club, who nominated eleven candidates. For the first time in years there was a tie between the three candidates, Marcia Miller, Ruth Kinch, and Nettie Turner. The other nominees were Eloise Goudin, Margaret Hart, Catharine Miller, Marcia Miller, Charlene Myers, Mary Sue Misimer, Bettie Warren, and Marilyn Zirk.

Ritchie Wins Miss Madison Title

by CONNIE FAULDER

"Who me?" were the only words uttered by Rita Ritchie, our vice president of Student Government, when she was informed she had been elected "Miss Madison."

"I'm very surprised, flattered and everything else because I never thought of myself as being that; in fact, I can hardly believe it because I have completed it the highest honor attainable at Madison."

Our "Miss Madison" is an elementary education major with a concentration in music who expects to teach a year and then do graduate work in music education. In connection with her work, she is a very active member in the Glee Club and considers it one of the highlights of her college career.

Dr. Hearn is married and the father of three children.

Students at Western Maryland College are no longer subject to fines or suspension from college for irregular campus conduct. A new system of recognition, and penalties based on campus citizenship, is the essence of this machinery which has recently been set into motion. It is under the supervision of the Student Body. A new system of recognition and penalties based on campus citizenship, is issued an administrative warning. Three warnings in any year or a total of seven in a college career result in expulsion. The stated purpose of the warning is "to work the disorganized offenses against the well-being of the campus community into organized patterns of a cumulative nature without tangible penalty for a chance misstep, but with serious consequences for persistent and flagrant bad citizenship."

With the ideal the Dean's List of Campus Citizens, students practice good campus citizenship with the expected result of a better college community. Those who make outstanding contributions to the campus community will be placed on the above-named list. Good work in the classrooms and in campus or dormitory life is necessary, but excellence in only one is required. An outstanding number is expected to be placed on the honor rostrum.

There are definite advantages to being on the recognition list: No administrative warnings are received for pre-post hol, since for convenient travel arrangements, job requirements, etc. Persons who are absent from chapel and assembly beyond the number allowed are exempted from penalties. As long as "such students maintain satisfactory standards of work and the design of the course permits" they, too, are exempt from regulations of class attendance. Finally, there are additional late leave privileges for women students.

The progress of Western Maryland College toward the welfare of the student body is to be commended. Such responsibility and by the administration.

"Your paper is obviously worth an 'A' but that would suggest no room for improvement. So I feel you have a 'B'—Follow me?"

Flaming Flicks --

In Universal International's current smash hit, "All That Heaven Allows," the title role starred this popular screen combination. Beginning Sunday, January 15, it may be seen at the State Theater.

The parking problem at Madison has become quite foolish and much discussion is heard from both sides. After the meeting with President Millet and Mr. Gibbons, I feel that the best thing we men can do is to follow this policy close up. We will make this as well as a star. For his leading lady Kirk chose an Italian girl, Elsa Martinelli, who makes her motion picture debut in this film.

With graduation quickly approaching, perhaps this definition of diploma will be appreciated by the seniors: A sheperd that a graduate may use to pull the wool over some employer's eyes.

In closing, we wish to express our appreciation and farewell to Dr. Pembick, our friend and physician, who served the student body above and beyond the call of duty.

Ringed And Pinned

Still singing thanks to Santa Claus are many Madisonites who are flashbacks of shows they have seen to Harrisonburg by the local Quota Club.

Janet Byrd was pinned to David Miller of Bluefield College, West Virginia, and Madeline Gillespie is proudly wearing Harold Dovey's pin of the University of Virginia. Adorning the left hand of Nita Probs is the diamond given her by Eddie Long of Bridgewater. Bob Osman, graduate of the University of Richmond, made Frances Dinh's pin for the 1952 Christmas complete by giving her a ring. Receiving a ring also was Betty Powell, from Richard Blanton who is attending the University of Virginia.

Pinned by their "O. A. O." were Betty Johnson to David Boone, Jeanne Foster to Buckey Lack, Jane Payne to Tom Scatter, and Arvis Mabry to Larry Antry, of the University of Maryland.

Peggy Brown is displaying her ring from Bob Bair of the University of Virginia, as is Betty Prince now engaged to Dick O'Donnell of Lee, Virginia. Diamonds are also being worn by Doris Polk, engaged to Don Bedell of Woodstock, Virginia, Andrey White, engaged to Leonard Wilson of Bristol, Tennessee, and Francis Cooks, who received her "sparkler" from Buddy Eakin of the University of Richmond.

Bathing with pride over their future wedding plans are Thelma Jones, who is engaged to Morris Davis of Apprentice School in Newport News, Virginia, Lucille Crowder, now wearing a ring from Kenneth Richardson, of the University of Utah, and Joan Stumell, who became engaged during the holiday to Warren-Thorns of New Jersey.

Remnants of the holiday good times are seen as diamonds on the hands of Suzanne Baldwin, bethrothed to Tom Scales, and Avis Mackey to Richard Foster, of the University of Utah, and Joan Dinwiddie's Christmas complete by giving her a ring. Receiving a ring also was Betty Powell, from Richard Blanton who is attending the University of Virginia.

University Librarian Speaks On Reading

Beauty and the inspiration of good literature supply the spiritual needs of people to a great extent. Mr. Jack Dalton, librarians at the University of Virginia was speaking on the importance of reading at Wednesday assembly. He stated further that reading was a means of improving the mind through the learning of politics, economics, languages, commerce and industry. Authors suggested for study in these fields were Tolstoy, Job, Mark Twain, and Shakespeare, and Plato.

Mr. Dalton, a recipient of the Lipscott Award for librarianship in 1954, likened man to an artist painting a picture. The artist must get a vision in his mind of the perfect product and constantly strive toward that goal.

Entries must be postmarked no later than midnight March 15, 1956.
