JOHN GATEWOOD, RAN. D. CUSHEN, } EDITORS. HARRISONBURG. VA. Wednesday, - - - - July 14, 1869. THE GRAND RESULT.

Whilst we are not among those who regard the result of the election on Tuesday as the triumph of principle over error, yet we cannot ignore the fact that a great victory has been achieved over an unscrupulous and dangerous enemy-an enemy to our civil liberties and social exis. tance. He bar bedates com

The achievement of this grand result has been accomplished only by a great sacrifice on the part of the great body of the white men of Virginia, who were educated in the doctrines taught by the ile lustrious founders of our republican system of government. To have followed the naked convictions of duty in their devotion to principle, as the issue was presented, might have resulted in the entire subversion of the principle itself. Thus threatened with a disaster more to be dreaded than the desolations of war or the calamities of pestilence and famine, nobly, heroically, patriotically, they rose above the influence of passion, the power of prejudice, and even the bias of honest conviction, and in the true spirit of compromise, accepted the terms offered by President Grant for the restoration of Virginia to the Union. The moral effect of this overwhelming defeat of the monstrous proposition to place the government of Virginia in the hands of the negroes and their allies. by disfranchising the white men of the State, cannot be estimated now. It in. augorates a new feature in the programme of reconstruction. Having conformed to the conditions submitted by the President, it only remains for the Legislature to ratify the 15th amendment to the Constitution, and the responsibility of delaying the consummation of the tedious process will have been thrown upon Con gress.

Radical rule in Virginia is ended .-The much-dreaded conflict of races is averted, at least for the present. Carpetbaggers and incompetent native whites will be retired to their proper position in the community after the next election of county officers. The former amicable relations between the white and colored races will be restored, and each will be mutually benefitted.

But we forbear further remarks upon this subject for the present.

JUDGE HARRIS. The result of the election for Congressman in this district has disappointed a great many people. Our own calculations were far from being realized, view. ing the contest from the standpoint we did. But we need not discuss the matter. In justice to Judge Harris, however, we will briefly refer to some of the reports circulated against him, on the eve of efection, and which no doubt contributed to defeat him. For example, it was reported here, on election day, that on Saturday previous to the election Judge Harris was at Staupton, in conclave with the leaders of the radical party, seeking to secure the support of that party; and that on Sunday night he took the train for Winchester, for the alleged purpose of making an arrangement with the League for their support. Judge Harris says that these reports are utterly false and without foundation. At the time Judge Harris was represented at some points as being in Winchester, manipupating with the League, we know that he was in Rockbridge county addressing the people. Whatever may have been our preferences in the late election, we certainly could have had no motive in doing Judge Harris any personal injustice; and we take pleasure in giving him the benefit of the denying the reports referred to.

For daring to act with the great body of the white men of Virginia, in defence of her dearest interests, Robert A. Gray has been ostracised by the radical party. So be it. He has the satisfaction to know that his fellow-citizens endorse his Enthusiastic Reception of Governor Elect Walker in Richmond.

RICHNOND, Va., June 8 .- Gilbert C. Walker arrived at 11 o'clock this mornng from Norfolk. The day was made a holiday for his reception, and when the cars arrived, about 5,000 people had congregated at the depot.

A committee, composed about equally of the most prominent white and colored citizens, was at the cars to receive him ; but the populace rushed in, and, seizing Walker, bore him on their shoulders to a oach ornamented with national and State

The procession, which was nearly a mile long, marched through the streets. Many of the coaches, of which there were a hundred in line, were covered with national flags, and on a band wagon here was a transparency with a painting of a white and a colored man shaking pands.

The streets were blocked with people ollowing the procession, and st least 20,-000 persons were out. On reaching the nouse of Col. J. R. Branch, the conservtive candidate killed by the calamity on ast Friday, the procession passed in sience and with uncovered heads. Upon reaching the hotel Governor Walker appeared between national and State flags, held by representatives of the two races, and after a few minutes of deafening cheers, made a brief speech. they have already disc vered—that their After congratulating the audience on the truest and best friends are their late masters; complete victory, he went on to say that and, unless the saturnalia in which they in this moment of triumph they must not forget charity for the defeated; they must remember that the votes cast against the ticket were given by deuded and ignorant men, of a race that had not yet had time to be educated sufficiently to know the wrong of disfranchising oth-ers. He said : "We must remember that we have succeeded on the platform of universal suffrage and equal rights; and we must see that those who opposed us. as well as those who supported us, have go backward. all their rights, and are protected fully by the law, and with the law, and under the law. [Loud cheers ] They must be educated, and taught the value of the great boon of franchise that has been conferred upon them, and the true value of being a citizen. "We must not forget that the opportunity of winning this victory was given us through rhe liberality of President Grant. [Loud and continued cheers.]-And we must see that its fruits are for the benefit of all." After a jocular allusion to the grief of the present State office-holders of the Wells persuasion, the speaker concluded by giving a cheerful picture of the future prosperity of the State. At the close three cheers were given for President Grant.

THE NORTHERN PRESS ON THE IRGINIA ELECTIONS We compile the following extracts from leading Northern exchanges, showing how the news of the Walker election has been received : [From the N. Y. Tribnne, July 8 ]

The Walker party have carried Virginia, electing their entire State ticket by an average majority of 30,000 to 40,000. Lewis, Lieutenant Governor, will have more, Segar, Representative in Congress, considerably less, as many of the Wells ballots had no name thereon for Congressman at large. The vote is very full, with little complaint of violence or intimidation. The election, though warmly contested, was quiet. The Walker party have chosen a majority of the Representatives in Congress. The Legisla-ture contains a large Walker majority. The constitution is carried by an overwhelming vote. The clauses which extensively disfranchised tho e who were prominent rebels and excluded them from office, having been by President Grant submitted separately, are voted down overwhelmingly. Most of the blacks voted the Wells ticket, though thousands of them supported Walker. All who were rebels, or sympathiz d with the rebellion, with very few exceptions, went for Walker, with about half the whites who stood by the Union. Gilbert C. Walker, the Governor elect, is a native of Binghamton in this State, though we believe he has since resided in Chicago. He has been for some years in business at Norfolk, Va., where he is much respected.— He is called a Republican, but we know nothing of his political antecedents, except that he was always for the Union.

John F. Lewis, chosen Lieutenant Gover. nor, is an old time Whig, though a life-long resident of Rockingham county, which al. the convention of 1861, and voted to the last against secession. He is an able and wor-thy mao, and gave great strength to the ticket.

Joseph Segar, chosen at large to Congress, is a native Virginian, an Eastern Shore Whig, now advanced in life, and a Unionist throughout. He was a delegate to the State Legislature nearly thirty years ago, and repeatedly re elected. Of the members of Congress elected on the Walker ticket, we recognize Lewis McKenzie as a Whig of other days, a Republican since 1860, and a Unionist always. We believe they all or nearly all, profess friendship to General Grant's administration.

This result will prove good or ill, as the victors shall decide. There are too many among them who have experienced much yet learned little since 1860. If these should gain control of the State administration, they will soon run it ashore. Much will depend on the wisdom and tact of Governor Walker, who is a new man in politics. We hope he may evince discretion, and may be able to impart it to his allies. His position is one of great difficulty, and will thoroughly tax and test his ability and his patience. From the New York Journal of Commerce

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION -The decisive triumph of the conservative Republican, or the Walker party in Virginia is in itsself a great event. It is greater still in its bearings on the 'nture. It is a victory of moderation and justice over fanaticism, blind prejudice, and the unchivalrous treatment of a conquered people. It is the substitution of order for chaos, of energy for lethary, of life for death. No political occurrence since the war has been more significant than this.

From this day forward we look for a new era for Virginia. The whites now have the power, and will administer the affairs of state with white man's foresight and vigor. The blacks will see how miserably they have been fooled and misled by a few tricky politicians graduated in the worst schools of the North. They will see that the hope held out to them ct a political supremacy over the whites was a cheating delusion. They will discover-deal is all but ended, and the title of Virginia to take its place among the reconstructed States as a member of the Union is practi. cally established. The details of Tuesday's election, which remain to be furnished, will not affect the general result. By faithful comwill pliance with the law the State has emancia pated itself from military rule. It has estabished its right to self government by fulfilling literally the conditions devised by Congress in a manner. prescribed by the President. A Constitution which, with many faults, bring the Government of the State into harmony with Federal policy, has been ratified. The provisions by which sel. fish adventurers south to control local af-fairs by imposing disabilities upon the worthiest citizens have been voted down. Negro enfranchisement is complete, and the only disability borne by white men is that which operates under the fourtrenth amendment. A State ticket has been elected which represents the character, the intelligence, the wealth and enterprise of the people, as dis_ tinguished from organized ignorance and viciousoess. And a Legislature has been chosen whose members, eligible under the law. are prepared to finish the allotted task by ratifying the pending constitutional amend-ment A result in all respects satisfactory is thus assured, From the Philadelphia Age, (Democrat.) The result in Virginia has more of promise in it of peace to the country than any polit-ical event that has happened for some years. It shows the fruitlessness of the Radical ef-fort to govern the South by means of the negro-an effort which has postponed recon. struction, has begot new proscriptions, has continued military intervention, and cost an incalculable sum to the people, both in actu-al expanditure and in the depression of pro-dective industry. All the villainous appliances by which radicalism has tried to make a black minority the masters of the white ma-jority have failed. The infinite oppression and injustice practiced to this end would fill a volume. We cannot rehearse them now. From the Washington Republican, (Radical.)

The work of reconstruction in Virginia is substantially consummated. Whether the result of Tuesday's contest is for good or ill is a matter the future alone can determine; Lut whether viewed with favor or disfavor it must be admitted that the victory is decisive and overwhelming.

majority, or to the character of those who composed the Conservative element of the victorious party, the questions submitted to the people were fairly met and successfully won. From the New-York Express, (Democrat.) This must not be looked upon as a Demo cratic victory, because it is nothing of the kind. It is merely the triumph of moderation over fanaticism. It brings the State back into the Union without giving it over, tied neck and heels, to the tender mercies of the carpet, baggers, and such of the leading negroes as have been anxious to have pickled the white men for breakfast, dinner and supper. And it clears the way for a fair and equitable reorganization of the political forces, and gives a bet er chance than would otherwise have presented for the resumption of the cares and duties of citizenship by the white Democratic element of which the poplation of Virginia is so largely composed. From Forney's Washington Chronicle. The despatch from Richmond giving the speech of Gol. Walker, the succesful candidate for Governor of Virginia, and the proceedings during his reception, and the ex-tracts from the Walker papers, are very interesting reading

Col. Walker begins well. He has a future that he can make glorious or infamous. Let us wait and see how he appreciates his destiny. Col. Walker's declaration in favor of "universal suffrage and equal rights," will be unwelcome news to the Northern copper-beads; but taking them as the words of honest men, and not as the language of rebel tricksters, they are hopeful indications for the Old Dominion.

This gentleman was in Harrisonburg on Tuesday, on business, and in the evening, about eight o'clock, he was serena. ded by Eshman's Cornet Band. A large number of his friends called upon him at the American Hotel, where he was stopping, to congratulate him upon his election to Congress. In response to these congratulations he made a brief address, in which he referred to some of the reports put in circulation by his opponents, on the eve of the election, to injure him among the conservatives of the district, by whom he expected to be elected, and whose candidate he professed to be. The most mischieyous of these reports was, he said, to the effect that. shortly after his arrival in the Valley, and while stopping at Col. O'Ferrel's hotel, he gave utterance to sentiments relative to the Southern people, so objec. tionable, that some of the guesis threatened to leave if Milnes remained longer in the house. He was even represented as having justified the destruction of our property by Sheridan and others during the war, as a just punishment for engaging in the rebellion. These, and many other charges, he denounced as utterly false, come from what quarter they might. In conclusion, he congratulated his hearers upon the glorious victory achieved by the Conservative men of Virginia by the triumphant election of Walker to the gubernatorial chair. He said if we only came up to our duty manfully, a glorious future awaited us. We had resources boundless ir extent within our borders, and all we needed was the capital and the energy to develope them, and Virginia would soon, become the great empire State of the South. He exhorted the young men to pull off their coats, roll up their sleeves, and go to work in earnest. 'The old men of to-day would soon pass off the stuge of action, and the young men must supply their places. The future destinies of the State were therefore in their hands. If they did their duty, he said, Virginia would make more progress in the grand march of improvement within the next decade than she had done in the past seventy five years. His remarks were received with applause.

JUDGE HARGEST.

As our readers have already been in. formed, the gentleman whose name heads this article has been appointed Judge of the 12th Judicial Circuit, including the counties of Rockingham, Shenandoah, &c. His appointment was severely criticised by the conservative press of Winchester. stone to elevate themselves to office. They will learn that their true friends are those with whom they have been raised, and from whom they get their means of support. They will learn that the white people of Virginia do not wish to take away from them any of their rights and that they will enjoy them with as much, if not more, safety and security than if the party they have been falsely led to believe was their friends had been successful.

IT WILL NOT DO.-It is is given out that, according to the interpre-tation of General Canby of the re-COUNTIES. Augusta, construction test-oath of Congress, Accomac Albemarle, less than a quorum of the members just elected to the Virginia Legislature will be qualified to take their Bland seats; and that if Attorney General Bath, Hoar shall give an opinion sustaining General Canby there will probably have to be a new election. This dodge will not do; for we have no doubt that General Grant will consider the late Virginia election sufficiently conclusive to let it stand, Legislature and all .- New York Hanover, Herald. The Richmond Whig says-that Wells being beaten, there can be no doubt that his aim will be to set aside the election. He will doubtless charge that our success is a 'Rebel success," or Democratic success, and he will do all that can be done to induce Congress and the President to refuse our work and reject those we have elected; but if we are only prudent he will fail there, as he has failed here.

The only oath required of the members of the North Carolina Legislature was the oath of office required by the constitution of the State, which is merely an oath of allegiance to the constitution of the State and United States. Members were required to state that they were not banned by the fourteenth amendment. The same was the case in South Carolina. The Captain General of Cuba has issued an important proclamation. He states that the insurrection has been reduced in extent, and is now carried on by parties of guerillas, and says that parties arrested for robbery, arson, or murder shall be tried by court martial.

How TO KEEP COOL .- The following simple hints, from the Scientific American, are useful to remember during the warm weather of the present season :

'Be sparing in your diet, which should consist principally of fruits, berries and vegetables. Avoid everything of a greasy nature ; also spices, condiments and sweets. Drink nothing but water. Chew nothing but food; chew that well, but do not chew too much of it. Excess in eating is one of the principal causes of" that lazy, listless, relaxing feeling experienced by so many persons in hot weather. Dress lightly, and change often. Wear nothing at pight which is worn during the day. Bathe the body every morning with cool or cold water. Keep a clean conscience as well as clean body and clean clothes, and don't get excited. If uncomfortably warm at any time, immerse the hands, or feet, or both, in cold water for a short time, or let a stream of cold water run upon the wrists and ankles. This will cool the whole body in a short time.

have been so long reveling have unfitted them for work, they will fall iste their proper subordinate place and assist in redeeming the old State from the weeds. If they do not choose to do this, their labor will be disponsed with and the void made good by the in flux of hosts of Northern immigrats who have only been waiting for the reconstruction of Virginia to go down there and buy and till farms, and build and run mills and factories. Whether the negroes accept the new situation or not, the regeneration of Virginia has been begun at last, and it will not

The Philadelphia Press (Forney's paper) has an ill natured article in which it grinly says :- "But all is not lost in Virginia. Congress holds the key of the citadel." It thus coucludes:

We had Col. Walker proclaimed a Repub. lican from tidewater to the mountains, all through the canvass, and it remains for him to say whether he will be true to his' known convictions during and since the war, or will help the rebels to overthrow the new free constitution, and so drive out the loyal element of the State.

From the New York Herald. The late Virginia election and its returns are something new under the sun. The gen-eral result is a defeat, a great defeat of the Southern ultra radicals; but it is not a Democratic victory, nor a victory of Democratic principles. The contest was not (ought be-tween the Republicans and the Democrats, but between the Radicals and Conservatives. Wells, the Radical caudidate for Governor, is a Reputlican and a carpet-bagger; Walk. er, the Conservative candidate, is a Republis can and a carpet-bagger. But there was a broad line of division between the supporters of Wells and the supporters of Walker on the new State Constitution, and in the settlement by the popular vote in the ratifi-cation of the Constitution of the questions involved the victory of the Conservatives is

This, we say, is a great and very import. ant victory. In order to gain it the Con-servatives had to make some important con cessions, such as the recognition of the negro's civil and political equality in the State Constitution, and an acquiescence in the con-dition precedent of Congress of the ratification of the fifteenth amendment of the Federal Constitution, establishing universal negro (manhood) suffrage, with the power to Congress to enforce it.

Virginia election is, first, that by pursting a similar course to that of sensible Virginia Conservatives the responsible whites of ev-ery Southern State, from Virginia to Texas, may secure the negro balance of power for future operations. Thus, within the short space of a single year, we may have an end in the South of Northern Radical carpetpremacy. Secondly, the Democracy of Vir-ginia, ex-rebels mostly, if you please, lament-ing the 'lost cause,' have made an exampl3, in the way of a forward movement, which would if adopted in the North, be rewarded with similar results. They have abandoned their old party notions and have fought and beaten the Radicals with their own weapons. They have recognized several fixed facts, and they have accepted the negro as a welcomeally and turned him to a good account. In a word, the Conservatives of Virginia have developed a new party organization, which, if followed up by the anti-Radical elements throughout the Union, may soon give us the dominant national party of the future.

THE RESULT IN VIRGINIA .- Virginia has vindicated the wisdom of the policy propos. ed by General Grant and sanctioned by Con-gress for perfecting reconstruction. The cr-expressed in his address, as the true basis of thorough reconstruction.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The Old Commonwealth of fice has been sremoved to the second story of Masonic Hall, opposite Hill's Hotel, Main Street.

WE WANT MONEY, and must have it. We have a very large amount due us. This is all wrong. We therefore respectfully request all indebted to come forward and settle.

The canvass has closed, All who were candidates have not been elected, but that is not our fault. However, we placed their names before the people in the paper and upon the tickets, and having discharged the part of the work assigned us, we must demand our pay. We hope this notice will receive proper attention.

OUR DELEGATES TO THE LEGISLATURE -Whilst we have nothing to say against those who were defeated at the late election-we refer to the candidates for the Senate and House of Delegates- there can be no impropriety in referring briefly to those elected to represent the interests and sentiments of the county. John E, Roller, Esq , the success. ful candidate for the State Senate, is a young gentleman of clever talent, and is a practicing lawyer at the bar here. Though rather modest and unassuming in his general deportment, and will probably be one of the youngest members of the Senate, he will no doubt command the respect of that body and make an efficient representative. That he should have been elected over two such deservedly popular men as Messrs. Liggett and Walker, is a sufficient evidence of the high estimation in which he is held by the people, not only of his native county, but of the other two counties composing the dis-

Henry B. Harnsberger, Esq., one of the delegates elect to the House of delegates, is an extensive farmer, a gentleman of practical business habits, sound judgment, and will make an efficient and safe representative .---He had previously been honored by the voters of his native county with a seat in the House of Delegates, and his re-election was but a just tribute to his worth and ability as a representative.

Philo Bradley, Esq., having resided here but a few years, is not so extensively known among the people as are some of his competitors. His extensive operations, however, as principal proprietor of the iron foundry in this place, has brought him in business relations with hundreds of the citizens ot his adopted county, and his general straight- Wheat, &c , on the same liberal terms. TEMPERANCE DEMONSTRATION .- As our eaders have already been informed, the Council of the Friends of Temperance at Timberville, in this county, will have a pub. lic demonstration on Saturday afternoon next. The State Lecturer, Rev. Mr. Young, will deliver the address on the occasion .--Upon this great question of temperance. Mr. Young is one of the most efficient speakers ve have listened to for some time. There will be no dinner prepared for the occasion, in consequence of the fact that the farmers are so busily engaged in securing their wheat crops.

THE SEASON .- Until recently, we believe, the season, throughout this and the adjoining counties, has been remarkably favorable to every description of crops. In some sec. tions of this county and Shenandoah, we understand, the corn and vegetable gardens are suffering for the want of rain. This is to be expected at this season, and while the sum mer crops may suffer to some extent, it is very favorable to the securement of the bountiful crops of wheat with which our people have been blessed. ARTHUR'S PUBLICATIONS-Reach us regularly and ever find us eagerly watching their appearance. We regard "Arthur's Home Magazine," as a No. 1 family companion ; "Once a Month," as supplying a peculiar style of periodical literature, long needed; and the "Children's Hour" has just the things as the favorite of all the little people. All are good and meritomus, and we feel assured Mr. Arthur must receive large romuneration for his labors from an appreciative people .--The Home Magazine is $2 a year ; Once a Month $2, and the Children's Hour, $1,25. All cheap and all good. T. S. Arthur & Sons, 811 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

NOT TO BE CHANGED .- We understand that, at the meeting of the Directors of the O., A. & M. G. Railroad Company, on Friday last, it was not deemed advisable to change the present schedule for running the passenger trains between this place and Alexandria.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

LONDON, July 8 .- The action of the Bouse of Lords on the Irish Church bill has created intense excitement. Messrs. Bright and Gladstone are daily in receipt of letters offering a recommencement of the Reform League agitation, but they discountenance the movement at present and express a behalf that the Lords will recede at the last moment from offering any marked opposition to be expressed will of the people, though a compromise is effected in the postponement of the date of disestablishment to January, 1872, by paying a lump sum of half a milpounds sterling in lieu of the private donations, and by allowing the life interest to be computed at fourteen years' purchase. The following letter has been circulatated privately among well-known pro-gressives, in view of the probable failure of the passage of the Irish Church bill, through the opposition of the House of Lords: "Sir:" In view of the probable failure of the Irish Church bill, through the opposition of the House of Lords to the government, the Commons and the country, you are requested to inform the sec.

retary of the Reform League whether you are willing that your name shall be used, in the event of a defeat of that measure, to a public call for mass meetr ings to consider the best constitutional method of getting rid of this obstruction to legislation based upon the expressed will of the people."

ALABAMA CLAIMS. London, July 8, midnight .- In the House of Commons to night Mr. Gladstone, after acknowledging the courtesy with which Sir Henry Bulwer had so of ten postponed his motion in regard to the Alabama claims, said in again aps pearing to put it off he felt it his duty to allege some reasons for his action, as it would amount to a definite postponement of the question for this year. He assured the House it was the opinion of the government that it would best promote the interests involved in this great question by abstaining from asking the House to discuss it at the present moment. It had always been the custom of Parliament to abstain from discussing ques. tions while under negotiation. Although it could hardly be said that the claims were under negotiation, and it might be considered that the rejection of the treaty by the Senate of the United States brought them to a definite point, still he had reason to believe that the government of the United States did not regard the question as definitely dropped on that account. On the contrary, they considered it was better that an interval should occur on account of the state of public opinion in America before negotiations are resumed. Under these circumstances her Majesty's government were inclined to concur in the views of the American government. He pointed out that the question had not been discussed in either branch of the American Legislature. Having regard to these circumstances, the government was anxious that nothing should occur to impede a resumption of .negoti! ations. He, therefore, requested a postponement of the motion. Sir Henry bulwer replied He felt it his duty to accede to Mr. Gladstone's request, but he did so with great reluc. tance. He thought discussion would do Possessed of excellent judgment and general information relative to the great questions now before the country, it was natural that he should have inspired all who knew him with the utmost confidence and esteem. Hence the flattering testimonial to his moral worth paid him at the ballot.box.

Without saying or intending anything derogatory to the qualifications of the gentlemen who failed of an election, we think the voters of Rockingham have reason to be proud of those who have been chosen to represent their great interests in the Ceneral Assembly of Virginia.

WALKER DEMONSTRATIONS IN SHENAN. DOAH .- Business matters and the necessary arrangements for changing our residence from Woodstock to Harrisonburg, required our presence at the former place for several daws since the election. Oa Friday night last, after the arrival of the train from Alexandria, when it was certainly ascertained that our noble Sandard-bearer, Gilbert C. Walker, had been triumpthelly chosen Gov. eruor over his opponent, Wells, there was an appropriate and stirring demonstration on the part of the conservative young men, by the ringing of the bells, the firing of guns, &c., These rejoicings were kept up until a late hour. The people of the renowned old "L'enth Legion' are as true to-day to the great principles of their ancestors as they were when the great battle between the Federal and Democratic hosts were fought.

Ou Saturday night, between ten and eleven o'clock; as the train passed the thriving, go-ahead town of Edingburg, we were much gratified to see, that the citizons generally were having a lively time of it manifesting their joy at the success of our Gubernatorial ticket. The whole town seemed to be in a blaze. In fact, it was a grand illumination. They went ahead of their Woodstock neighbors. The fact is, the citizens of this splendid little town never do things by halves ; they go the whole figure, when they undertake any praise-worthy enterprise. It gives us sincere pleasure to refer to these demonstrations on the part of the citizens of cur native county. Coronalis still

We pronounce his ice-cold cream Soda Water as good as we ever saw or tasted. Mr. A. has been in business here but a short tire, but his capacity as a Druggist, his business tact and cleverness are winning for him a splendid trade. 1869. NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS

SIBERT, LONG & CO. A BE just receiving direct from New York city their Spring supply of seasonable Goods, to which they would call public attention, inas much as they will sell at New York city retail prices. Their stock is large and complete, and embraces everything wanted in this section.-They have every description of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hats, Bcots, Shoes, &c., &c., and call the especial attention of the ladies to their superb variety of DRESS GOODS and TRIMMINGS.

We Sell Best a licoes at 12½ cents per yard, and give your own choice from the best quality of prints. We are justified in sell-ing Goods at such low figures because of the re-cent decline in dry goods in New York, where we arrived just in time to get the advantage. A call solicited from the public, to whom we tender our thanks for past favors. Country Produce taken as usual. ma5 SIBERT, LONG & CO.

NEW SPRING STOCK OF

GEO. S. CHRISTIE,

BEGS leave to inform his customers and the public general y, that he has just received from Baltimore his Spring purchase of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c.

WE have received our second stock of En-glish Waldron Grain and Grass Scythes. Don't fail to call and look at them when you come to town. LUDWIG & CO.

them. ap7 tf (Register copy.) CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, &C. Main street, Harrisonburg, Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c. His stock of Black Cloths and Doeskin Cassi-meres is greatly superior to any he has heretofore brought to Harrisonburg. He has a variety of the finest Spring Cassi-meres. His entire stock has been selected with great care and with special reference to the wants of this portion of the Valley. He in-vites all who may need an thing in his line the prices at which they are offered. He respectfully returns his thanks for the geu-erous patronage heretofore accorded to him. ap21 FRUIT JARS, &C.
