Paul Wenger New '56-57 President Of Men's Student Body Organization

Newly elected Paul Wenger will serve as president of men's student government organization for the '56-57 session.

Since his transfer from Syracuse University in his freshman year, Paul has served on men's student government organization and was corresponding secretary last year. Further activities include PHLA, Sigma Delta Phi fraternity, and YMCA cabinet.

With his business administration major he has a social science minor. Vice president elect is Eldon Padgett; recording secretary, Eddie Brannon; corresponding secretary, Roland Wise and treasurer is Norman Miller.

Further details are found in this week's issue of Breeze.

Choral Group Leaves On Tour, Traveling To Iceland, Bermuda

Thirty members of the Madison College Glee Club have been selected and left Thursday morning, to fly to Bermuda, Iceland, and the Azores in an Easter Concert Tour with the Military Air Transport Service Division of the United States Air Force.

Members were selected on a seniority basis from the larger, sixty-voice Glee Club.

The Madison Choral group will be flown first to Iceland for personal appearances at air bases, civic centers, and for several television shows. They will return to the United States for a change of luggage and will then be flown to the warmer climates of Bermuda and the Azores.

Their music will represent a wide range of styles, and will include many religious selections appropriate to the Easter season.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Edna Y. Shaeffer since its founding in 1916, is the oldest student group in continuous existence on the Madison Campus. The Glee Club represented Virginia last year at the Biennial Convention of the National Federation of Music Clubs in Miami, Florida. The group has sung with the National Symphony Orchestra and the Norfolk Symphony. On two occasions it has sung with the Harvard Glee Club, and has sung at the National Gallery of Art and Washington National Cathedral.

PRAYE FROM MIAMI DAILY

Edward Ireland, commenting in the Miami Daily News last year on the Glee Club's appearance before the National Federation of Music Clubs, said the group was "magnificent in tone, quality, intonation, and impressions of delivery."

A recording of the Miami appearance was heard by a member of Special Services for the Air Force who then invited the Glee Club, through its president, Marcia Mason, to make the Eastern Tour.

First reaction of the Glee Club members were surprise mixed with concern as to how they would pack clothes for Iceland and Bermuda. A brief return trip to the United States between appearances in Iceland and Bermuda was worked out to solve the wardrobe and luggage problem.

Recently the chorus made appearances in Harrisonburg with the National Symphony.

PRAISE FROM MIAMI DAILY

Behind The Scenes--

Did you know that coffee hours after dances, late permission for seniors, present riding privileges for freshmen, the three hour sign-in leeway for freshmen on Sundays, and the Student-Faculty Relations Committee? This committee, though small in membership, is large in its efforts to maintain satisfactory relations in all areas here at Madison, and to correct those problems which are the object of many of your "gripes." The problems encountered here at Madison are of a personal, campus, social, and class activities are considered, investigated, and discussed by this committee to be passed on to President Miller for his approval.

The members on this committee, three from each class, are elected by you each spring to begin work the following September with faculty members appointed by the president of the college. Perhaps you forget that you chose—perhaps you have even forgotten that the committee existed. That is a decided oversight on your part.

The committee is investigating the possibilities of having the tea room open on Saturday mornings, starting a campus souvenir shop, later movie permission granted by the dean of women for twice a week for upperclassmen with dates, the desirability of students attending Massanutten Country Club, and opening Johnston dormitory as a dating center. These are just a few.

How can you submit a pet peeve or worthy suggestion to this committee? Simply by contacting Dr. Raymond Dingledine, chairman of the committee?

Beauvoir and Afton have even forgotten that the committee existed. That is a decided oversight on your part.

These Breeze workers are trying to help you. They are performing a public service; not a pleasurable job. How much easier it would be if they had one-hundred per cent support and understanding from the student body.

You, the student body, have just elected Nancy Gardner as the new editor of this paper. New views will be kept out of your room. Do you care whether you have school paper? If you don't, how about telling the editors so as to save them from the hours of reading and re-reading this little four-page issue.

It seems only fitting that in the last column of this letter I write about past experiences. The Breeze is soon to turn over to a new life.

The group is being sponsored by the Wesley Foundation; tickets may be obtained in the following rooms: Logan 117, Senior 207, Ashley 65, Jackson I, Shidler 44, Sprowerd 25, Johnston 7, Junior 201, and Spring 4.

Student tickets are fifty cents each and will be on sale at the door also.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT
Marguerite Crumley, state sponsor of the F. B. L. A. and assistant supervisor of business in Virginia, was guest speaker. Miss Crumley brought out the fact that more and more women are filling executive positions in the business world today. She mentioned hardly several outstanding women executives and outlined the qualifications necessary to successfully fill executive position in this day and age.

Special entertainment for the banquet was provided by a business student, Shirley Fairfield, who sang several Irish numbers which further carried out the St. Patrick's Day theme of the banquet. Miss Brady, sponsor of the Madison chapter of F. B. L. A., was presented a corsage by Jane Thompson, president of the chapter, in recognition of her contributions to the organization.

Eleven honor business students at Madison College were initiated into Beta Nu chapter of Pi Omega Pi on Wednesday, March 21, at the banquet at Belle Meade. These thus recognized for their scholastic attainments were: Gloria Cropper, Mrs. Jane Crute Hickok, Carol McCormick, Kevin T. Miller, Mark Manterough, Shirley Newman, Sarah Newton, Jo Ann Riggleson, Bessie Smalta, and Ann Townes.

In addition, three seniors who were pledged at the end of the first semester were initiated. They are John Hoesteter of Harrisonburg, a business teacher at Eastern Mennonite College; Jeannette Ralph, and Berryman Morris. Eleven senior business majors from the department attended the Virginia Industrial Management Conference at V. M. I. today, March 23. They were accompanied by Dr. Twite.

A college student panel on business management problems was one of the features of the two-day conference. Miss Jeannette Ralph represented Madison on the panel. Senior business majors from fifteen colleges and universities participated in the panel discussions. Madison students attending the conference included: George Leffel, Colonel Levi Erman, Elwood Roche, Myrl Duke, Jeannette Ralph, Doris Cram, William Garrett, Robert Bowman, Kevin Miller, and Clarence Souder.

Leading manufacturers, distributors, and personnel executives in the Commonwealth of Virginia were in attendance as speakers.
