

SafeRides F A C T S :

- SafeRides rents its cars from Enterprise. They usually rent four cars per weekend and purchase insurance through Enterprise, which is why it costs $700 to operate each weekend.
- SafeRides is a safe ride home, meaning you can use it to get home from the library or from a friend's house, even if you haven't been drinking. All you need is your JAC card.
- SafeRides members are nonjudgmental. Their main goal is get students home safely on the weekends.
- SafeRides is not funded by JMU. The nonprofit gets funds through donations and sponsors.

presented on member relations, and JMU was voted to host the 2012 national SRPU conference.

At JMU, SafeRides members educate the campus community about the dangers of drunk driving. During fall semester, SafeRides presents the program "One Night, One Ride, One Life," and members invite a guest speaker to discuss how drunk driving affected their lives.

"[I love] being able to work with such a passionate group of students," said Kristin Gardner ('04M), the organization's staff adviser. "The group is amazing and so dedicated to serving the JMU community and volunteer their own time to educate and ensure their peers are safe." ❧

[In Memoriam]

Remembering Rinehart Kyler and H. Kent Moore

Professor emeritus of German Rinehart E. Kyler of Harrisonburg died on Feb. 14. He earned his master's and doctorate degrees at Yale University. He taught German at JMU in the department of foreign languages from 1970 until his retirement in 2008. He was an accomplished chess player and earned a rank of more than 2,000 with the United States Chess Federation.

Former physics department head H. Kent Moore of North Port, Fla., died on Nov. 21, 2009. He taught physics and education at JMU from 1959 to 1994. Many faculty members and students from the 1960s and '70s recall Moore's prowess on the basketball court during pickup games between students and professors. ❧
