Majoring in Business Administration and Music, Joe has served for two years as Student Honor Council, and as president of the Stratford. Eddie claims his major activities as a member of Sigma Delta Rho fraternity.

Mrs. Hewitt, Dance Instructor Evaluates Jose Limon Program

A large and enthusiastic audience attended the Jose Limon Dance Concert on Wednesday, February 27. Those of us who dance feel that we can be proud of our responsive student audience, and the interest displayed background after the performance must have been rewarding to the Limon group.

"Symphony for Strings" was a beautiful display of dance virtuosity, and variety in group patterns. For those who were looking for a bit of门 entertainment, this dance takes its theme from the basic form of "Oblatto," which is told com- pletely by one dancer in the center of the circle, the dance. Danced in the trio of the circle's robe of a courtly era, the prin-
Dance Dilemma

To the members of the German and Cotillion Clubs:

We certainly enjoyed the dance week-end. And don't you think the music was good? But—after spending $10.00 for a bid is it appropriate to have a more extensive decorating scheme and chairs could have been provided. Also our having new refreshments was unacceptable.

We would also like to recommend a better receiving line procedure. Upon entering the door the receiving line was unintentionally overlooked by many, causing undue embarrassment. Couldn't this situation be avoided by the faculty standing in a more direct line, visible from the doorway, rather than receding toward the wall?

We would appreciate your consideration of these matters in future dance arrangements.

Tribute to "Pug"

Well, little "Pug" is gone. She was only a stray kitten with a bandaged tail, but many of us loved her, as she went about from dorm to dorm and house to house bringing happiness in her own tabby-cat way.

Lucille Sweeny's Twin Sister Majorie Relates Story Of Life, Theories, And Her Pursit Of Happiness

"Beautiful bunny, bunny humping" ber from all sides. The story you are about to read is true. In the相似ity to anyone living, or dead is purely coincidental.

When she asked her name she replied, "Lucille Sweeny's twin sister, Marjorie," and she claimed her home as "Virginia Valley." She is sweet sixteen and has never been stained and received her education "back on the range" and graduated from "Mr. & Mrs. Madison's wild home."

As a living she replied that she was a "producer of sweat and muscles" and for her hobby she "calls ping pong balls up the back hill." When asked what she did in her spare time she said she hadn't any since September.

Her greatest accomplishments in life was the day she won the strike against wages cut. "And I've always won," she would say. "I'm going to college."

While all of this was going on, Ellen Ashton's on the go, the rector of the house she was in, was always on hand to give the girls a lift: "No way!" she would say. "I'm going to college, too!"

Ellen Ashton's on the go, the rector of the house, and she's got the ball and hasn't rebounced and rebounced and rebounces and the story just kept going...

When someone asked her why the North won the Civil War, she replied, "They cheated!" and the interview came to a halt after the story of asking her questions were interviewed.

The basketball season will officially come to a close tomorrow when Madison plays their last game of the season. So far the team has no unrecorded record and they hope to make the season end that way when they meet Sweet Briar at 2:00 o'clock in Reed Gym. The program consists of table tennis, badminton, volleyball and others too numerous to mention. So come up to Reed Gym and relax each Wednesday night with your favorite activity.

The Fencing Club has been busily practicing for the last couple of weeks as they are preparing for their coming extramural matches. Coach Berkley is the way for the team and makes sure they are always on the beam. Roberts, with a two and zero record, is a producer of sweat and muscles. Johnny Appleseed, Plain Jane Lead
Production March 8 In Wilson Hall

A wandering Johnny Appleseed gives Plain Jane an invigorating plant on life in the modern American folk-play called "The Raimaker" which the Barter Theatre of Virginia will present as the Lyceum attraction on Friday, March 8 at 8 p.m. in Willson Auditorium.

Linda Carey is the prairie wildflower who is brought to realization of her own charm and the beauty of life by Bill Starbuck as one of the lower-twenties fakers in American rural tradition, the man who claims to be the raimaker.

This particular raimaker is nothing but a tramp with a gift for high-falutin talk and a talent for coming free for inducingShown for ranchers in a drought-ridden area. When a drought actually occurs snow after he has performed his mumbo-jumbo, he is overthrown with joyous surprise — it has really rained!

But even this flooding result doesn't extricate him from an imprisoning arrest when past misdemeanors are about to catch up with him. What saves him is the fact that he has also produced a gentle and enriching rain of another sort—an awakening to romance (with a solid citizen, not with himself) in the heart of the rancher's daughter.

As a kind of Fairy Godmother the relentless vagabond has shown her the beauty of everyday life and made it possible for her to find happiness in a result that the rancher and his two sons, who have been losing their sister's spinsterhood, find is as good a rain as any that could come from the clouds.

This hilarious comedy by Richard Nakagawa was directed by the singing-talkng "raimaker". He joined the Barter company for the 1956 summer season after having spent two years with the Rehebath Beach Showboat.

Maj. Clara McIlwraith Retires; Wife Of Mr. J. N. McIlwraith

Major Clara Beery McIlwraith, Adjunct of the Joint Intelligence Coordinating Staff, U. S. Army Element, will retire from the Women's Army Corps, it was announced here. Major McIlwraith is the wife of Madison's recently retired faculty member, Dr. John Nicol McIlwraith.

A native of Harrisonburg, Va., Major McIlwraith is a 1924 graduate of Harrisonburg High School. She attended Mary Baldwin College in Staunton where she obtained an AB degree in 1929, and Madison College, where she graduated with a degree of bachelor of science in 1929. She also did graduate work at American University, Washington, D.C., and at Duke University, Durham, N.C. Prior to entry into military service, she was a teacher at Handley High School, Winchester, Va., and at various Washington, D.C. public schools.

Nominating Convention Will Submit 38 Names For A.A.'s May Court

Athletic Association is trying a new method of nominating the court for May Day. The Council feels that the student body will have greater voice in the selection by the use of these proceedings.

The nominating convention of each class will draw up a list of thirty-eight girls from the senior class. This list, they hope, will be representative of the class opinions.

The list will then be submitted to the Athletic Association Council for a total computation and the thirty-eight girls receiving the greatest number of mentions will walk for the final vote of the class opinions.

Among her decorations are the Commendation Ribbon with Oak Leaf Cluster, WAAC Service Medal and World War II Victory Medal. She has been assigned to her present job since 1952.

Major McIlwraith entered the service in February, 1943, and received a commission as a second lieutenant following completion of the officers' candidate school course at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, later that year. She was stationed with the Army of Occupation in France and in Germany from August, 1945 to August, 1947.

She was assigned to the WAC training center at Fort Leavenworth from September, 1948 to June, 1950, during which time she was Director of Training and Assistant Commandant of the WAC Officers' Candidate School. Among her decorations are the Commendation Ribbon with Oak Leaf Cluster, WAAC Service Medal and World War II Victory Medal. She has been assigned to her present job since 1952.

Dr. and Major McIlwraith presently reside at 901 South Frederick Street, Arlington, Va.

Assembly Lecturer Delivers Humorous Informative Speech

Well-known humorist withered and famed lecturer, Mrs. Maxine Bertha Volmier, was our distinguished speaker in the Wednesday assembly on February 27.

Mrs. Volmier, who is the granddaughter of the famed Maximilian D. Bertha, founder of the Bertha School of Languages, chose her topic for lecture: "Why We Talk the Way We Do." In her discussion she popularized an educational subject without giving up any of its scholastic value.

Mrs. Volmier spoke on the history, use, etymology, semantics, and phonetics of speech all combined in a "Type of story concerning her various acquaintances with the subject. Because of her ploy, personality, and entertainment, she presented an excellent program for the instructors and students.

She summed up her idea in one interesting sentence: "We talk the way we do because everything in man's life comes about and came about through the use of speech."

- That the high school visitor has not been entertained by the college at any previous time.
- Students who are contemplating having high school visitors as their guests will be given more complete information concerning the visitation plans.

Recordings available to students

Permission to listen to the recordings just purchased by the English department can be gained by interested students. Supplementary to a collection of 78 rpm recordings, the new long-playing records cover English and American literature from Chaucer to Sean O'Casey.

Of rare interest is the reading of his own poems by the late Vachel Lindsey. On the re-cut of the old 78 rpm recording, Lindsey chants "The Congo" imitating the primitive religious chants of the jungle. This record shows how closely the poetic and musical forms of art are allied.
