Dr. Louis Glenn Locke Introduces New Freshman English Text For Next Fall

Freshmen at Madison will be introduced next fall to the new edition of Toward Liberal Education, a freshman English text written by Dr. Louis Glenn Locke, professor of English here at Madison.

In answer to the need for an improved freshman English text, Dr. Locke in 1948 conceived the idea of a collection of readings that would fit into the pattern of general education for freshmen. Toward Liberal Education was the result of his labors and was compiled in collaboration with William Gibson, Professor of English at New York University, and George Armee, Professor of English at the University of New Mexico.

USED INTERNATIONALLY

So widely has this book been adopted, that it is used from Harvard and Wellesley in the University of Puerto Rico as well as Madison. Its third and expanded edition was released to the public by The Bobbs-Merrill Company Publishers. Its adoption goes into effect in all sixteen freshman English classes at Madison.

Dr. Locke, a native of Woodstock, Vermont, is a graduate of Swarthmore College, from Bridgewater College, and the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Minnesota. He has taught at the University of New Brunswick, Canada, and at the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis. He has been a visiting Professor of English at Madison since 1956 and will continue for the next semester. The Department of Liberal Education in the Division of Humanities at the college.

RESEARCH IN ENGLAND

While at Harvard, Dr. Locke was awarded the Senior Scholarship, a University scholarship, and was a member of the Travelling Fellowship. The travel fellowship enabled him to pursue research in the British Museum, the Cambridge University Library, and the Public Record Office at Canterbury at Cambridge, London, Paris, and elsewhere. All of these were in the field of seventeenth century English literature.

Dr. Locke is the author of several critical works, and editor of Tiltonian: A Scholarly Quarterly, founded and published at the University of Alberta. He is also a member of the Explorator articles on Blake, Donne, Houseman, Keats, Eliot, and others.

In 1953-54, Dr. Locke was on leave from Mary Baldwin College to study as a Ford Foundation Fellow at Harvard, Yale, and Princeton, making a study of the relation of the humanities to General Education. In 1954, he received the Bridgewater Alumni Award as the outstanding teacher, scholar, writer, and literary critic.

Dr. Locke is married, and has two children, Sarah Ann, 13, and Elizabeth Louise, 8.

Students To Leave On Bermuda Jaunt

This year fifteen Madison students and staff members have caught the Bermuda fever and have made plans to explode from New York April 18 for Bermuda's Elbow Beach Surf Club until April 23. College Week in Bermuda has become an annual event for that busy little island, a time when Eastern College campuses suddenly seem to overflow to the British possession en masse.

Special activities like ball games, beauty contests, sightseeing trips and college picnics are planned by the obliging innkeepers for their Packing Seabirds. At least 25 students instituted special charter flights to move the entire group to the island and then to Bermuda in time for the effort and time from New York to the blue mid-Atlantic.

The students are: Joe Jones, WSSU; Beth Louise, 14, for the Easter Sunrise service, sponsored by the YWCA. Others assisting in the production are: Judy Bair, Mi's Concept of the dancer; Sally Smith and Shirley Smith. Other faculty; Miss Ruth Miller, librarian at Harvard; Dr. Mary Latimer, Professor; and Mrs. Nan Sellers of Broadway. The setting for the play will be designed by Miss Serina Smith and Shirley Smith. Other faculty assistants included: Anise Laurier; Patricia Lambert, prop; Susan Simpson, Nancy and Beth Morris, costume; and Mae Daxson; Lee Tomlinson; Barnes, Ann; and Mary Lee Howorth with make-up.

Production staff

Others assisting in the production will be Sally McCrea and Joyce Harper with setting and props and Ellen Fastinger, Marilyn Thomas and, Edger, Mi's Concept of the other. Seniors, Bring Your Cars

On pages 43 and 44 of the Student Handbook under the heading, "Cars on Campus," provision is made that seniors who wish to do so may be permitted to bring automobiles to Madison and keep them in an approved parking area for approximately the last month before graduation. It is further stated that seniors who wish to avail themselves of this privilege must meet certain requirements which are set forth in paragraphs 2, a., b., and c. on page 44 of the Handbook.

Since the termination of the Easter Vacation this year is within a week of the last month before graduation, seniors graduating in June who desire to do so will be permitted to bring cars back to the campus when they return from the Easter Vacation on Tuesday, April 23, and keep them here for the remainder of the session. The several requirements set forth on page 44 of the Handbook must be followed.

The permit area is designated as the places where such cars should be parked and kept: Senior Hall parking lot, or Johnston Hall parking lot.

Permission is not granted to keep cars in the lots of those residences where sorority students are housed since parking there would interfere with heating laundry and trash, cleaning the ashes from the basements, and mowing the grass on these lots.

Students Of Alaska Speak

We, the students of the University of Alaska, have a very strong desire to be First Class Citizens of the United States. Alaska is only a territory, and without statehood, we do not have the privilege of self-government. We were stolen from our fathers in World War II and in the Korean War to preserve the rights of democracy; we pay heavy taxes to support democracy; but still, we are not allowed democracy. Our Student Council is requested to inform the Senate of these ENDORSE statehood for Alaska in your Students Government Organization and communicate this endorsement to your respective Senators.

This is a sincere and honest plea for assistance. We want your help and we do need it.

News Bulletin – Jerusalem

A astounding reports reached government oficials this morning that the strange young man crucified Friday has been seen again with his followers.

A witness, believed by some to be the long awaited Messiah, was released by Pontius Pilate to an angry, hysterical mob. His release came after a trial that lasted from 11 P.M., Thursday until dawn Friday. Stories of the witnesses at the trial have been covered by the press:

"The flag remained lowered—no one opposed the crucifixion of this man.盘活 many different aspects to the story.

The witness, often used as a means of identification, took for example the successful businessman. He can easily be identified by his neatly brushed hair, his clothes, and the way he carries himself. The case has been set for further investigation.

With the coming of spring, the fraternity brothers' fancy has turned to thoughts of love and their first "Sweetheart of Sigma Delta Chi." Sue Bowdle has been selected as the first of the domes—our sweetheart of 1957. This will be an annual selection from now on, but the fraternity will remember Sue as our first.

Officers of next year's Y.M.C.A. took their places at the formal initiation last Wednesday on the Board of Directors. Norman Miller made a short farewell speech to the ones who served.

The past two weeks, I have given considerable space to some recent mem- al testimonials. If you are a frequent listener of radio or television, the WJPA, you have probably heard Julian Bull's program, "Dancing." He is also doing some work on WSVA-TV. Julian graduated last year.

Tonight and tomorrow, Stratford Players are presenting three different one act plays. All of the plays are well supported by Madison men, so I'm sure you will enjoy them.

Diana Boyle Keeps Class Idea Secret

"We've got a secret" might well be appropriate for the freshmen at the time of year, when the first day of class is "in the air." Miss Diana Boyle, who will be the director of Freshman Class Night, 1957, states, "the freshmen won't tell a single thing about the plans for the night," we'll tell you something about their secret.

"DI" is a native of Richmond. By way of qualification for the job, she has had ten years of classical dancing and some music. She is credited in pre-nursing at Madison.

About the progress our little sisters are making on their project, Diana says, "We're having a lot of fun working on the show because the script lends itself to the building talent and enthusiasm of the Freshman Class."

With such an enthusiastic person to lead them, we are all looking forward to May 1 and "the secret."

Sport's Flash
With Ash

Where's all the Virginia sunshine I've heard so much about? This has been beautiful weather for ducks and colds, but not for softball, tennis, or archery. All this rain has caused the intramural sports program to come to almost a standstill.

In case anyone is wondering about the softball season, it is still trying to compete with the weather. We are hoping that the sun will soon shine through for more than an hour and we can get out on the diamonds every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday.

I've seen some girls standing ankle high in the mud playing Robin Hood. When I asked them why they had such devotion to archery, they explained that they were practicing toward the National Archery Tournament to be held in May. I understand that there are instructions held every Monday at 4:30 and practices on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3:30, so all you archery enthusiasts come out and try your hand.

There is one ray of sunshine through all the April rains, if the dance works and we have nice weather this weekend, any girls that would be interested in attending hockey camp, can get in touch with Miss Morrison or her home town Bassett Carolyn Wertz, and Frankie Landis. One of these centers. Those students having from three to four years of Latin are qualified to participate. Some winners from each classification, which is determined by the number of students of scholarship, will be selected. The winners will be crowned queen. This tournament has been sponsored by the Virginia Classical Association for twenty-seven years.

In case anyone is wondering about the softball season, it is now being initiated on Madison's campus.

Any girls that would be interested in attending hockey camp for a week this summer can go to New Market to enter for twenty-seven years.

If the dance works and we have nice weather this weekend, there will be a La Crosse game held at 2:00 P.M., on the hockey field between Virginia and Baltimore. Let's give our full support to this game, so we can get an idea of what La Crosse is like since it is now being initiated on Madison's campus. Any girls that would be interested in attending hockey camp for a week this summer can get in touch with Miss Morrison or the official Ashton for details. One of the requirements is the ownership of a large bottle of liniment.

Hope everyone has a very Happy Easter. See you in classes on the 26th.

Til then— Tennis anyone?
