Following the dinner, President Miller has scheduled an Alumni Board Meeting from 8 to 10 in the Conference Room. At 7 pm, the May Day Inn will host a special dinner for the Class of 1928.

Friday’s events will conclude with an informal get-together in Alumni from 7:30 to 9:30.

VMEA Elects Liddle-Weeks

Two Madison College students have been elected officers in the Student Chapter of the Virginia Music Education Association. William H. Liddle, Jr., was elected president and Mary Belle Weeks, secretary.

The SCMMEA is composed of chapters from 13 Virginia colleges. The organization offers students the opportunity to participate in the various activities of VMEA, the state division in music at the National Education Association.

The newly elected officers were installed at the state convention held April 27, at the University of Virginia.

Scholarship Application Deadline Set

Any student who plans to apply for scholarship assistance must file his application with the Office of Admissions and Student Aid by certain dates. This includes both the new and the renewal applicant, since all financial aids at Madison College are awarded only on a yearly basis.

April 1 was the deadline date for filing an application for the pro-rated summer term State Teachers’ Scholarship, May 1 and September 1 are the final dates for submitting Undergraduate, $150 regular term State Teachers’ Scholarship.

June 1 is the cut-off date for the filing of applications for all other financial aids available at Madison College. Poor of the financial aid program requires, in addition to a completed application, the Parent’s Confidential Statement from the College Scholarship Service in Princeton, New Jersey. The Parent’s Confidential Statement is required only on an every other year basis. Those aids which require the Parent’s Confidential Statement are: Unfunded, General Undergraduate Scholarship, Educational Opportunity Grant, and National Defense Student Loan.

New Buildings Are Dedicated

The two new academic buildings on campus and the two newest dormitory complexes were dedicated at Madison during exercises held on Saturday, March 30. The distinguished guests were J. Earl Moreland, President Emeritus at Randolph-Macon College, and was guest speaker for the ceremony.

The buildings dedicated are of contemporary design, the only exception being Duke Fine Arts Center which retains the traditional roof of bluestone. The Fine Arts Center was dedicated for Samuel Page Duke, who for 30 years served as the second president of the College. Limer-Shaeffer Theatre, located in the Fine Arts Center, was dedicated to Mary Ellen Limer, former director of the Stratford Players for 19 years, and to Edna Trout Shaeffer, who taught in the music department and directed the glee club for 41 years.

Gibbons Hall provides a transition from the traditional to the contemporary architecture of the campus. The dining hall was named for Howard Kemper Gibbons, treasurer and business manager of Madison College for 41 years.

Chappelle Hall and Hanson Hall are the third and fourth dormitories constructed in the contemporary design. George Warren Chappelle, for whom one of the new dormitories was named, taught biology at the College for 26 years. Rana McDill Hanson taught geography for 31 years.

Platters To Give Concert As Highlight of May Day

Since 1955 the Platters have dominated the “Top 40” and the National Ratings charts. Their popularity is not confined to the fifty states. Their yearly itinerary reads like a world atlas. They are known as far away as Japan and Australia, as well as throughout South America and Western Europe.

Entertainment is the big work to the Platters...pure entertainment! The world’s foremost vocal group will sing their collection of great songs from the past and present in Wilson. Come listen to the magic of the Platters.

“Sing-Out South” Featured in May 5 Concert

On Sunday, May 5, a group of Richmond high school and college students who call themselves “Sing-Out, South” will invade Wilson Auditorium.

“Sing-Out, South” is an offshoot of “Sing-Out, America” — the dynamic group whose enthusiastic message for a strong and free America is sweeping the country. This cause is expressed in such songs as “Don’t Stand Still”, “Can’t You Hear America Calling?”, “Keep Young at Heart”, “A New Tomorrow”, and “Up With People!”

The last song is the theme of “Sing-Out!”. As one member said, “Our ‘Up With People’ sing-outs are more than an explosion of music. They are a demonstration of a generation speaking and singing out with a creative new voice and a commitment to tackle the crucial issues of our day together.”

“Sing-Out!” now has three national tours touring the United States and most of the world. There are 165 Select “Sing-Outs” involving 50,000 singing youths. “Sing-Out South” was selected to sing at the White House for national “Up With People” Day, April 20.

The performance will be held at 3 pm. Watch for posters and listen to dinning hall announcements for ticket information.

The publication of Tuesday’s edition has been postponed until May 16. The spring registration period will be printed and copies will be available outside the Registrar’s Office.

The published date of the May 16 edition has been changed to Thursday, May 16. Class lists for the regular schedule on April 30. Special instructions for the April 9 and May 15 period will be printed and copies will be available outside the Registrar’s Office.

In addition, she has been awarded a $2,300 stipend, and all fees are paid. She will teach an elementary French course in the Department of Romance Languages while working toward her Master's degree in Romance Languages.
New Dorms Named for Professors

The third and fourth new dormitories on the Madison campus are named in honor of George W. Chapellear and Raus M. Hanson. Both men taught at Madison for over two decades. George Chapellear began his twenty-six-year career at Madison in 1918. At that time, he accepted the dual role of head of the Department of Biology and Agriculture, and Superintendent of Grounds. Mr. Chapellear was a larger-than-life character, known for his pipe-smoking and his own imitation of a frog. The man was an amateur fortune teller who quickly endeared himself to students and faculty alike. Under his watchful eye the quad slowly took shape leaving, however, a rather large conspicuous rock to one side. The primary landscaping of the campus was initiated by the professor. During the fall of 1922, Chapellear entertained the peoples of the U.S. and other countries through the exchange of persons, knowledge and skills. Candidates who wish to apply for an award must be U.S. citizens at the time of application, have a bachelor’s degree or its equivalent before and after the competition for 1969-70. United States Government grants, preference is given to applicants between the ages of 20 and 35.

IIE Competition Is May 1

The Institute of International Education will officially open its competition for 1969-70. United States Government foreign graduate scholarships provided under the Fulbright-Hays Act as part of the educational and cultural exchange program of the U.S. Department of State. More than 500 American graduate students will have an opportunity to study in any one of 30 countries. The purpose of the grants is to increase mutual understanding between the peoples of the U.S. and other countries through the exchange of persons, knowledge and skills.

MODERN BRIDE

THE EXPERT

THERE'S ONE IN EVERY FAMILY.

Everybody has an Uncle George. He's the one who knows which car is a piece of junk, and who you can get practically anything from. Uncle George is a real expert with other people's money.
