Fresenius Class Representatives Prepare To Serve On Councils

Fresenius class representatives were elected Tuesday, October 29, in Wilson auditorium.

The meeting on the dealer council will be Jane Ragdale and Lynn Randall. Standards representatives are Margaret Buchanan, Susan Moyar, and Margo Haynes. Mickey Knight will serve as her class representative to the Atlantic Association. James K. Hawke, student council representative, has been elected to Public Exercise and Entertainment.

Abbey Jo Adler will serve on the School of Fine Arts committee and Web Hedglin, Audrey McClanahan, and Nancy Darby on the Student-Faculty Relations Committee. Those on the Social committee, are Patricia Smith, Whitter Temple, and Vernon Jones.

Serving as the Student Government representatives are: Belita Ainsley, Kaye Marshall, and Tinka Phillips. On the Nominating committee, are Patsy Pitt, Mirrie Green, and Carolyn Matthews.

The W.C.A. representatives are Kay Kuglay and Martha Jones.

Stratford Players Dramatize Queens

For their opening play of the year, the Stratford players are taking on MARY STUART by John Drinkwater and Act III of MARY OF SCOTLAND by Maxwell Anderson. The presentation is November 22 and 23 at 8:30 P.M. in the English Hall.

The one-act play, written and directed by Stuart Fairbanks, will be presented for the first time this year. Brownell. He will be succeeded by Dr. Mary E. Latimer, Professor of Nutrition in the dietetic internship. The award, which is made under the auspices of The American Dietetic Association, was presented to Miss Harvey Thursday evening, October 28, at a banquet in Miami Beach, Florida, during the Association's 40th Annual Meeting, held October 21-25.

Joan Harvey is taking the dietetic internship at Ohio State University Hospital in Columbus. She will study for her master's degree while taking her internship.

The Madison, N.J., Johnson Awards were presented for the first time this year, Mad Johnson & Co.

Many Students Suecumb To Invasion Of Influenza

"While influenza has not reached epidemic proportions here at Madison," said Dr. Miller, "it is anticipated by the authorities, based on experience at other educational institutions and the current cases at Madison Hospital, that there may be an influenza epidemic in the near future."

Dr. J. T. Hearn said that the number of cases in the last four or five days has risen to at least sixty and the number is rapidly increasing. By the time it has reached its peak there will be some three hundred or four hundred students ill at one time.

"In my personal opinion that it is Asian flu," said Dr. Hearn. However, Dr. Hearn stated that the preliminary tests there is no way to determine if the flu here is the Asian type.

If the present flu is Asian flu, it must be noted that this type is as severe as some other types of influenza.

The infirmary is full and beds to accommodate 38 patients have already been set up in Logan Hall recreation room. Logan Hall T.V. room is also being used for flu patients.

There has been an urgent plea for pre-registered nurses, practical nurses, and extra aids.

Students, from Madison College, College with a little experience in nursing have been offering their help and have been put to work. These students work in three shifts a day and they are all college students in each shift.

It is emphasized that students remain calm and do not get excited over the flu. Medical care will be given you, if you are sick and yet well enough to travel.

If any student feels ill, he is requested to report to the infirmary immediately.

Glee Club, Chorus Aid In Singspiration

"Do-re-mi-fa-so..." Do Wednesday night is a one of the most important days of the week. At 8:30, there will be the glee club and chorus of the Madison College, who will meet in the chorus room and then present the Y.W.C.A. the fall program. The chorus and glee club will be directed by Dr. Mary E. Latimer, Professor of Nutrition in the dietetic internship. The award, which is made under the auspices of The American Dietetic Association, was presented to Miss Harvey Thursday evening, October 28, at a banquet in Miami Beach, Florida, during the Association's 40th Annual Meeting, held October 21-25.

Joan Harvey is taking the dietetic internship at Ohio State University Hospital in Columbus. She will study for her master's degree while taking her internship.

The Madison, N.J., Johnson Awards were presented for the first time this year, Mad Johnson & Co.

Junior YMCA Elections Provide For Officers Who Will Give Spiritual Guidance And Leadership

On Monday night, October 21, at their second meeting, the Junior Y.W.C.A., which is the freshman branch of the local chapter, named their officers for the 1957-58 session.

In the capacity of president is Carol Philip Brown, a sophomore, and the Junior Y.W.C.A. the president of the Junior Y.W.C.A. was Barbara Gould-thorpe. Nancy Harmon will hold the office of secretary, while the position of treasurer will be filled by Linda Harman. Two girls were elected as representatives to the uppers, W.C.T.U., who are Kay Kuglay and Martha Jones.

Leslie Edwards, who is a bright and profitable year, the officers and mem- bers of this year's Y. W. C. A. is Kay Kuglay and Martha Jones.

Leslie Edwards, who is a bright and profitable year, the officers and mem- members of this year's Y. W. C. A. is Kay Kuglay and Martha Jones.

Juniors, who are Kay Kuglay and Martha Jones.

Leslie Edwards, who is a bright and profitable year, the officers and mem- members of this year's Y. W. C. A. is Kay Kuglay and Martha Jones.

Juniors, who are Kay Kuglay and Martha Jones.
Modern Florence Nightingales

The main problem that has everyone in a turmoil on campus nowadays is the flu. The greeting everywhere you go is, “How do you feel?” This is not just part of a friendly greeting that is usually stated to be polite, but rather one that really expects an honest answer, such as, “I don’t have the flu yet,” or “I feel sick.”

It is true that Madison has been stricken by the flu germ, but it must be kept in mind that it is not yet an epidemic! There should be precaution taken by everyone here on campus to avoid an epidemic, however.

A positive attitude towards the disease might help. Along with this, it is suggested that each student get plenty of rest and plenty of nourishing food. Every effort is being made by the infirmary staff and administration to keep this disease under control, but only through the students’ cooperation can anything actually be accomplished.

A special tribute is extended to all those students who have so generously offered their services in the infirmary and Logan Hall. These girls came to the rescue when enough outside help could not be obtained. They have been working both day and night in the infirmary and Logan Hall.

More students are still needed to serve food and help with the patients. Those who would like to contribute their services can contact Dean Williams.

Old Glory Takes Assembly Cut

“I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America...” resounded throughout Wilson Auditorium during Wednesday’s Old Student-New Student Ceremony. Also heard reverberating was the whispered question — “Where is the flag?”

—to neglect placing the United States flag on the stage was a serious oversight on the part of someone. When the students and faculty members are required, as a part of a planned assembly program, to pledge allegiance to the flag AND sing the National Anthem, it seems that someone should have the foresight to provide the stars and stripes for the occasion.

Not only should Old Glory maintain a position on the stage for programs in which we pledge allegiance to it, but it is felt that the American flag should be placed on the right side of the stage with the Virginia state flag on the opposite side for ALL assemblies.

—It is hoped that in the future the flag will be in evidence when ever we make this pledge, at least.

Mainly Men

by Larry Huntz

Because of late registrations, the figures quoted two weeks ago as the total enrollment of men student has gone up to 121.

Basketball coach, Ward Long, is receiving a man’s team for the ST session. A practice and game schedule will be worked on this week. While on the subject of sports it might add that Madison cheerleaders will be on hand for the men’s games. I think these girls were a real ad in school spirit and morale. Keep yel ling!

Sigma Delta Rho frat men are busily planning for a rush-party. This will be the first social get-together on their calendar. The future sweetheart will be chosen at the next meeting.

The co-sponsored S.G.A.-S.G.O. formal dance is only two weeks off. Officers of the men’s S.G.O. will be in the dance as the dance sponsor. At the close of the evening, all students are invited to stay.

Sigma Delta Rho frat men are busily planning for a rush-party. This will be the first social get-together on their calendar. The future sweetheart will be chosen at the next meeting.

The co-sponsored S.G.A.-S.G.O. formal dance is only two weeks off. Officers of the men’s S.G.O. will be in the dance as the dance sponsor. At the close of the evening, all students are invited to stay.

Library Place To Find All Types Of Miscellaneous Information

by Susan Ritchie

So many times during the school year it is necessary for us to use the Madison library—for research papers, for outside reading, for special reports and term papers, or maybe we have some spare time. (Do those words sound foreign right now?) to spend in the library reading for pleasure.

To help us use the library more effectively, there is a step-by-step guide to help librarians and approximately 24 student assistants.

Mrs. W. W. Kraus, Miss Fears Hoover, Miss Lette Showalter, and Miss Anna Sue Brown are the full-time librarians.

Among the jobs of the assistants are “sleeping” books, shelving and checking in and checking out, and other odd jobs.

The funny little experiences of the librarians are amusing. Miss Show alter recalls a student who entered the library at 11 a.m. to do research on the “History of the Safety Pin” for a report to be given at 2 p.m. Recently the name of a book was slightly confused by a student—it was “Research Guide” instead of “Skeggs.”

A young feminine student, who was seeking knowledge of how to cut up a chicken, raced to—you guessed it—the library. She found out how to cut up her chicken! The student, surprisingly, marked that the only amusing aspect of her job is, ‘when a student requests an article that is beyond my ability to find.”

The varied tasks that students undertake astound us while they are studying in the Library. A book is taken out of the window, the reader on one side the edge of his chair as sometimes comical to the observer who doesn’t know the reason behind it.

The library holds a wealth of knowledge for us. It is an amazing thing to realize that no matter what subject for which we seek knowledge, we can find the answers to our questions by using the Library.

Today’s Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, We ask that you give us peace and faith within our hearts. Although at times we may not see the reason for many things, help us to accept them with faith.

Guide those who will be making the important decision of whether or not to join a sorority and which one to choose.

For those who are ill, and if we are the way, may they soon regain their health.

The time is almost here, readers! This is your week-end, to make it a good one. The silence will soon be ended and the shouting will soon begin. Good luck!

It’s in the air— the Asiatic bug, that is! Beware and keep under cover. Be sure to get plenty of rest and keep good balance—you this helps, believe it or not.

Boo! Halloween is around the corner. Decorate your table in the dining room and go flying over to Harrison Hall on your broomstick on Thursday. I sure would like to be there.

From the Breeze staff to all infirmary patients goes a hearty Get Well! Hope to see you around campus soon. Stay healthy. Only 23 more days to Thanksgiving.

Hey There!

by Connie Lou

There’s an epidemic loose

And spreading—it is true

No matter what your trouble

It’s leading for a flu

Now some are willing to go

In spite of this Waterloo

But I’m going to take it easy

So I won’t have the flu

In history class I took no notes

In French, and English, too

There’s the whole sick world

‘Cause Asiatic flu

My psychology readings

Will soon be done

If only we would postpone it

You know—there’s that flu

It’s known that sleeping and eating

Are so good for you

Oh, there goes my diet

But I don’t want the flu

Only one thing

Can I say makes me blue;

The chance of meeting

Because of the flu

(Oh, if only Asia knew

The symptoms and sufferings we blare on flu)

Library Place To Find All Types Of Miscellaneous Information

So many times during the school year it is necessary for us to use the Madison library—for research papers, for outside reading, for special reports and term papers, or maybe we have some spare time. (Do those words sound foreign right now?) to spend in the library reading for pleasure.

To help us use the library more effectively, there is a step-by-step guide to help librarians and approximately 24 student assistants.

Mrs. W. W. Kraus, Miss Fears Hoover, Miss Lette Showalter, and Miss Anna Sue Brown are the full-time librarians.

Among the jobs of the assistants are “sleeping” books, shelving and checking in and checking out, and other odd jobs.

The funny little experiences of the librarians are amusing. Miss Showalter recalls a student who entered the library at 11 a.m. to do research on the “History of the Safety Pin” for a report to be given at 2 p.m. Recently the name of a book was slightly confused by a student—it was “Research Guide” instead of “Skeggs.”

A young feminine student, who was seeking knowledge of how to cut up a chicken, raced to—you guessed it—the library. She found out how to cut up her chicken! The student, surprisingly, marked that the only amusing aspect of her job is, “when a student requests an article that is beyond my ability to find.”

The varied tasks that students undertake astound us while they are studying in the Library. A book is taken out of the window, the reader on one side the edge of his chair as sometimes comical to the observer who doesn’t know the reason behind it.

The library holds a wealth of knowledge for us. It is an amazing thing to realize that no matter what subject for which we seek knowledge, we can find the answers to our questions by using the Library.

Today’s Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, We ask that you give us peace and faith within our hearts. Although at times we may not see the reason for many things, help us to accept them with faith.

Guide those who will be making the important decision of whether or not to join a sorority and which one to choose.

For those who are ill, and if we are the way, may they soon regain their health.

In Christ’s name we pray.

Capping Ceremony New But Nostalgic

"Infirmary Blues"

Motif Of Patients

by Jessica Beatty

Here is this blasted infirmary; it’s so dark in here we can hardly see.

We all wish that we could go home.

In this place all of us have slowly gone bad.

Nurses run to and fro carrying jugs—

The flowers are like, too, and they have rice.

And the ballroom is wavy down the hall.

We are imprisoned here forever more.

Cardiff—never to walk out of that door

We all jangle regularly—three times or more

Our temperature rose every hour.

We get our food on a clean paper plate.

And drinks from a clean paper cup.

We are too little to be allowed more weight.

And our drinks are no more than one cup.

Oh, never go to the infirmary—

Not even if you have the flu.

You will be locked inside just as we,

Oh, never go to the infirmary—

Not even if you have the flu.

And our drinks are no more than one cup.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And our drinks are no more than one cup.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.

Late to bed, early to arise I say

And you will from then on be blue.
Madison Girls Plan For Tournament

On Sunday, October 26, a meeting of the Blue Ridge Hockey Association was held at Sweet Briar College. Some of Madison’s squad traveled down to play in preparation for the Blue Ridge Tournament to be held on November 1 and 2 at Sweet Briar College.

The girls who will be representing Madison at the tournament are Mary La Royall, Joan Flora, Pat Schleg, Betty Roberts, Betty Stallings, Kay Merrill, Jackie Fox, Shirlie Stuart, Pam Smith, Nancy Elkins, Frances Schottrofe, Sara Watch, and Ellen Ashton. These girls will leave Friday for two days of books.

Walch Team.

The weekend will be climaxed by a match between the Walch Touring Team and the Blue Ridge Team which will be composed of players from the schools and club teams at the tournament.

Anyone who is interested in attending the tournament should contact Miss Berley. She is planning to take the school bus down on Saturday morning and return that afternoon after the exhibition match.

Cost will be $5.00 for tickets, plus the cost of transportation.

---

J. W. Taliaferro Sons Jewelers

WATCHE REPAIRING

Nationally Known Patterns in Fascine

---

VISIT DOC’S TEAROOM

FOUNTAIN SERVICE

MEALS, SANDWICHES

72 SHRIMP IN A BASKET

SOFT DRINKS, PENNANTS AND STATIONERY

Opposite the College

---

JARRELLE’S SHOE STORE

92 So. Main Street

HARRISONBURG, VIRGINIA

* * *

We now have a complete stock of flats. In Velvet Step and Happy Hikers. All colors and sizes.

Priced From $4.95 to $7.95

* * *

“We Give S&H Green Stamps”

---

MADISON COLLEGE

SPORTS FLASH

With Ash

Well, kids, I am sorry to report that our first team lost its game with Bridgewater by a score of 3–2. The second team did better, winning their game with a score of 1–0, Madison’s favor.

Tomorrow will be Madison’s first and only home game of the season. This contest with Longwood will close out our regularly scheduled games for the season. Preceding the varsity contest will be a game between the Madison alumni team and the Shenandoah team. This should be a most interesting game and I would advise your coming out early to see it and then the scheduled match with Longwood.

Speaking of Shenandoah team, they downed the combined efforts of both extramural squads by winning their game last Friday with a score of 2–1. A new activity is being offered now in the intramural sports line. The table tennis intramurals start on October 28. The sign-up sheets are posted in the dorms.

All you basketball enthusiasts, keep an eye open for the sign-up sheets soon to be posted in the dorms concerning intramural basketball. Make sure your dorm has a team—Who knows, you may end up with the championship!

All you freshmen take heed! This Saturday night at 9:30 P.M., the Athletic Association is sponsoring a Freshman Recreation Night. Both Reed gym and the pool will be open, so come on out and enjoy yourself.

“Till then—

Let’s go kids! You can beat Longwood!”

---

Free State Passes

Free passes to the State Theatre go this week to: Judy Bair, Betty Beville, Nancy Brown, Veronica Armington, Carol Campbell, Carol Faust, Gene Roberts, Robert Buchman, Kay Ruffner, and Charlotte Gish.

Free Virginia Passes

Those students receiving free passes to the Virginia Theatre are: Beulah Beville, Nancy Brown, Veronica Armington, Carol Campbell, Carol Faust, Gene Roberts, Robert Buchman, Kay Ruffner, and Charlotte Gish.

---

RADIO TELEVISION RECORD PLAYERS PHONOGRAPH NEEDLES SERVICE

CHEW BROTHERS

24 E. WATER ST.

---

Test your personality power

(A Freud in the hand is worth two in the bush!)

1. Do you chase butterflies in preference to other creatures of Nature—?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

2. Do you believe that making money is evil?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

3. Do you think Italian movie actresses are over-rated?

(Women not expected to answer this question.)

4. Do you buy only the things you can afford?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

5. Do you think there’s anything as important as taste in a cigarette?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

6. Do you feel that security is more desirable than challenge?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

7. Do you refer to a half-full glass as “half-empty”?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

8. Do you think fads and fancy stuff can ever take the place of modesty and flavor in a cigarette?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

---

WIN $25 CASH!

Dress up your own colleagues for future "Personality Power" stories. We’ll pay $25 for each question used in this college of costume. Send costumes with name, address, college and class to: "Personality Power", Curie Science Club, Madison College, Harrisonburg, Virginia.

---

DO YOU SMOKES CAMELS?

But if you want a real smoke, make it Camel. Only Camel’s exclusive blend of costly tobaccos tastes so rich, smokes so good and mild. No wonder more people today smoke Camel than any other cigarette. How about you?
Dean Wilkins Plans Marsh Tours Guided European Trip Next Year

Dean Wilkins is organizing for the summer of '58 a group to join the Mixed Science Trip to Europe. The tour is open to anyone interested, but Dean Wilkins hopes that it will be a tour of Madison people—faculty, staff, and students.

Tour costs will be $195.00 Traveler Class, $1935.50 Cabin Class and $1990.00 First Class. This will include all meals and sightseeing as outlined in a pamphlet, which Dean Wilkins will be glad to give to anyone interested. Good hotels are used throughout, and wherever available, twin-bedded rooms are used.

Marsh Tours customers have a wealth of travel experience which makes a trip with them a rich experience. Two Madison faculty members have recently been on a Marsh Tour to Europe. In addition the tour in May to Malmaison and Ver-}

Please note that the text has been extracted and formatted into a coherent paragraph. The original document contains additional content, such as advertising and other sections, which have been omitted here for clarity. The focus is on the guidance trip to Europe organized by Dean Wilkins for the summer of '58. The tour costs, availability, and details are provided, along with the hope that it will be a tour of Madison people—faculty, staff, and students. The text also mentions the wealth of travel experience of Marsh Tours customers and the recent experiences of two Madison faculty members on a previous tour. The tour costs are detailed, with Traveler Class at $195.00, Cabin Class at $1935.50, and First Class at $1990.00.