CABE'S COMMENTS

The hastily composed election bill which Governor Tuck proposed (and other Byrd stilt pigeons presented) over a week ago must have been contested by a party who had not thought it all out at all. He presupposed that Truman would be a Democratic candidate for President. That is possible, but not too probably in view of his definite unpromising campaign.

However, should Truman be the Democratic candidate, Byrd has no heretical schemes all ready to operate. First, he should fix it so that Virginia's electoral votes (the 12 which are in 1) should be cast for a Southern Democratic candidate—he was sure they would follow suit in favor of the third party. This is a definite no in the national election so that the Federal could receive the 26 votes—and the election would fall in the lap of the House of Representatives. That body is, by the way, strongly Republican. How our illustrious Democrat, Senator Byrd, hoped to possibly win the votes there is a good question! He has a plan and this is a great deal of influence, but not much.

Now, back to the bill itself. It was first to eliminate all names of the presi- dential and vice presidential—this has been amended—names will now appear. The first draft (which passed through the Senate Finance Committee with not a vestige of a public hearing) was to absolutely eliminate Truman and Wallace. But the Byrd bill will be instructed not to vote for Truman—we would most as well that we don't have a President from Virginia. There is not a number of other Southern States. This will serve only to develop the Democratic ticket—at least they'll have a name, and at all—and the final result will be a Republican President. So it is hoped that the Byrd bill, most as well, will be defeated overwhelmingly and then for- ever.

When this harridan Bremner roomed starred our new major officers at the national intercollegiate press, she called the First Words*" learning of their election, she—on the—about the same next day in the form of a letter. But, here, you can see for yourself:

My First Impression was to call home, but the feeling I had was something like: "Oh, no!..."

Betty Lou Henshall: We—ill, I was naturally very exciting, and I'm sorry I couldn't have been possible for both of us to have our way. Mary Edward was I very thrilled and happy. I'd try my very best. Of course I was excited. The first day I was, but I'm trying to think of anything! I was speechless!

Rebecca Rogers: I was T. N. (truly). When I heard I had won, I felt too wonderful to think of anything! I was speechless!

Becky Berome: I was real thrilled and went to tell everyone. I logged this in my last calling home and down to N. C. State College.

This'n That

By Frances Comack

After Fancy Dress at W. and L. and with Madam, V. Kirkus, the three preceding week-ends, our social butterfly spent this past one recapping her teen on campus, it seems.

If you see Junior Hall literally blowing its top, it's because Martha Lewis Lambert, Jr., weighed in at 7 pounds, February 18. She is Mrs. Stevens' first granddaughter.

Stirred Helen and Nancy Rainey entertained in honor of Jackie Carter. Madison alumna, with a cabin party in Danielle last week-end. At noon Faculty Hall, Jo Garber, Carey Lee Luck, Peggy Rester, Penny Love, and Shirley Sims visited Nancy Ballard.

The Breeze staff seems to be becoming quite socially minded these days. Besides the great Breeze-Schoolam's basketball game, the staff is now planning a bridge party for the night of March 22.

KDP Delegates Relate Experience

By Frances Wilkins

"Oh! I had so much fun. It was so interesting and exciting! We have loads of ideas for K. D. P." These remarks came from Rose Marie Pace and Jennie Snowden who represented Alpha Chi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi at the recent K. D. P. convention held February 26-27 in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Numerous discussions and forums were held during the convention. Dr. George S. Counts who spoke on the Soviet Foreign Policy stated that understanding the Russian situation is quite different since the "first curtain" presents us from learning the ideas and objectives of Russia. The UNESCO was presented by Howard E. Wilson who stressed the significance of social and cultural development of the world. Dr. Walter J. Gifford, who was attending the meetings of the American Association of School Administrators, also held in Atlantic City, took the girls' display of school materials which ranged from menus to busines cards and emery boards.

Junior attended the concert given by Fred Waring and his orchestra, while both delegates heard a concert presented by 1200 school children, conducted by Peter W. Dykema, Professor Emeritus of Columbia University.
