

THE OLD COMMONWEALTH

JOHN GATEWOOD, EDITOR.
KAN. D. CUSHEN, EDITOR.

HARRISONBURG, VA.

Wednesday, September 23, 1870

The Legislature assembled in Richmond on Saturday the 1st of October.

The Gazette claims that Alexandria is a better market for grain than Baltimore.

Senator Morton, one of the extremes of the radical party, has been appointed Minister to England by the President, and has accepted the position.

James Furr, charged with having robbed the store of Mr. J. R. Rust, was tried at the last quarterly term of the County Court of Warren, found guilty, and sentenced to the penitentiary for four years.

The Halifax (Va.) Record of last week says that a child was born on the land of Col. W. W. Wood, of that county, the week previous, which had three legs and three arms, all perfectly developed. The child died within half an hour after its birth.

Ben Turner, a gentleman of African proclivities, has been nominated for Congress by the radical convention which assembled at Selma, Alabama, on the 21st instant. Several carpet baggers were candidates, but the "man and brother" was one too many for them.

A telegram from San Francisco, dated Sept. 20, says that the Indians in Arizona are committing the most wanton and barbarous outrages on the whites. Tucson, the capital of the State, is said to be in a state of siege. Great excitement exists and extensive preparations are being made to punish the savages.

We learn from the Lexington Gazette that there are 320 students at Washington College, being an advance of 30 over the number in attendance last year at this time. Including the law class, and other students expected to be present by the 1st of October, there will be about 400 matriculates the present session.

Shenandoah County, according to the returns of Maj. Rinker, the census marshal, has a population of 15,041. The Tenth Legion Banner says this is an increase of 1,021 since 1860. The population of the towns in the county is as follows:—Woodstock, 870; Edinburg, 460; Mt. Jackson, 270; New Market, 602; Strasburg, 583.

The occupation of the city of Rome by Victor Emanuel's troops excites but little interest. The Pope ceases to be a temporal prince, and must hereafter content himself with the spiritual oversight of the church of which he is the head. A London dispatch of the 22d instant says that great preparations are being made at Florence for the transfer of the Italian capital to Rome.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—The Governor has appointed John E. Roller, Esq., of this place, a delegate to the Southern Commercial Convention, to be held in Cincinnati. One delegate was appointed in each congressional district. Mr. Roller is a member of the State Senate, and will ably and faithfully represent the interests of the great Valley of Virginia in the Commercial Convention.

Skinner & Co. of the New York Produce Exchange, speaking of swine, says: An official enumeration of the swine in the States of Missouri, Ohio and Iowa in 1870 makes the aggregate number of hogs in those States 4,694,844, against 4,125,907 in 1869, being an increase of 568,937 head. With a corresponding increase in the other Western States, the increase will be largely in excess of that of 1869.

The name of Dr. I. Hays Shields, of Winchester, is suggested as the Republican candidate for Congress in this (sixth) district, in a communication to the Richmond State Journal, signed by Enos Richmond and John W. Bremer, of Berryville, Clarke county.

A correspondent of the same paper, writing from Rockingham, nominates Judge Hargett for Congressional honors.

The radicals of South Carolina are repeating the policy of their brethren of North Carolina, by getting up and encouraging disturbances between the blacks and whites. In Laurens county they have succeeded admirably. Collisions have occurred in which several persons have been killed and wounded. The negroes, incited by their pretended white friends, are the aggressors, and they, of course, have suffered most.

The Conservatives of Warren county held a meeting on the 19th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Congressional Convention to be held in this place on the 5th of October, when the following gentlemen were appointed:—S. D. Boyd, R. D. Finkhouse, S. S. Turner, J. R. Jackson, T. R. Massie, J. E. McKay, Jas. R. Richards, R. L. Loveless, and Col. I. N. King; alternates J. W. Thomas, G. B. Samuels, R. B. Jolly and D. C. Hall.

The Congressional campaign promises to be a lively one.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

This body met in the city of Richmond on the 22d instant, and was organized by the appointment of John A. Harman, of Staunton, as chairman. How are the mighty fallen! Stonewall Jackson's old quartermaster president of a radical convention! Wm. F. Jordan, of Louisa, once Clerk of the Virginia House of Delegates, too, figured in this motley assemblage of "ring streaked and striped" spirits. Rockingham was represented by Senator Lewis and Rev. Isaac Brown, the latter of whom is pastor of the A. M. E. Church in this place. After a stormy session, during which there was some heavy firing between Pat Woods Porter and his opponents, the convention adopted a platform, of which the Whig gives the following abstract:

The platform approves that of April last; compliments Grant's administration for its economy in reducing the national debt and army and navy, and securing equality to all men; commends to the people the prudence and wisdom of Congress, distrusts the Legislature's loyalty in regard to the public schools, and declares they can only be prosperously established under Radical auspices; deprecates the facility with which the "True Republicans" have forgotten their pledges to Grant; declares the Conservative party a contrivance to evade national issues unworthy a frank and honorable foe; that no disguise or pretext can prevent its being merged into the Democratic party, and that in all national elections it means nothing less than the Democratic party. It next rifies at the spread of Republicanism in Europe; earnestly invokes mutual assistance and vigilance in the coming campaign; recommends the formation of county Radical tickets in a liberal spirit.

The following is a list of the State Central Committee:

H. H. Wells—Member at large and chairman.
1st district—Isaac Norton, Robert Norton and Rufus S. Jones.
2d district—P. G. Morgan, H. M. Bowden and R. G. Green.
3d district—J. M. Humphreys, L. Bond and W. C. Wickham.
4th district—J. T. Hamlet, Ross Hamilton and C. W. Finner.
5th district—A. Sander Reeves, D. F. Wilson and T. P. Maddox.
6th district—Thomas S. Hargett, John R. Popham and J. F. Lewis.
7th district—John M. Thatcher, J. B. Sener and W. B. Downey.
8th district—G. Goodell, J. W. Woltz and R. W. Hughes.

SLIGHT MISTAKE.—In an article on the "prospects" of the Republican party of Virginia at the November elections, in the several congressional districts, the Washington Chronicle of Monday says: "The 6th, represented by Hon. William Miles, Jr., is Republican by over six thousand majority." The relative numerical strength of the Conservative and Republican parties, in the counties composing this district, was shown in the election for Governor. In that election, according to the official returns, Walker received 17,002 votes, and Wells 4,504. The Conservative majority in the district, in round numbers, was 12,000. The Chronicle will see, from this statement, that the boot is considerably on t'other leg.

WINCHESTER. according to the returns of the census taker, has a population of 4,477; Newtown, 625; Middle-town, 386.

EUROPEAN WAR SUMMARY.

Dispatches from Tours confirm the report that fighting is going on in Paris between the Red Republicans and the troops of General Trochu. Ministers Gambetta and Ferry have sent a dispatch from Paris to Minister Cremerieux at Tours, giving a positive denial to the rumor that there is fighting in the streets. They say the people are united, that the city has supplies enough to last all winter, and will make a desperate resistance. The St. Petersburg official Journal asserts that Russia approves of the terms of peace proposed by Prussia. In the interview between Jules Favre and Bismarck on Monday and Tuesday last, an effort was made to arrange for a truce during the election of the Constituent Assembly. Bismarck asked the surrender of Strasburg, Toul, and Verdun so as to secure the Prussian communications. This demand was rejected by Favre. A method of communicating with the outside world by balloon has been arranged at Paris, and a messenger with mail left there in a balloon on Saturday. Seno Oureux is about to organize a battalion of volunteers at Madrid to aid the French. A dispatch from Beauvais says a great battle raged all day on Saturday, between Pontaise and Isle Adam.

A London telegram says that a local junta will govern Rome until the plebiscite is taken. General Marmora has assumed command of the Italian troops in Rome. The plebiscite will be taken on the 2d proximo. All the political prisoners have been released at Rome.

Southern Convention of Union Men

RICHMOND, Sept. 21.—The Hon. Leo W. Booker, Congressman from Virginia, and Mr. A. J. Hamilton, of Texas, call for a convention of the native and original Union men of the South, to be held at Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 1st. The subjects to be brought to its attention will be the acceptance of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments as the final status of the African race, universal amnesty, the restoration to every man of the civil and political rights enjoyed before the war, compensation to loyal men for property taken during the war, a fair distribution of the banking capital in the South and West, the abolition of the iron-clad oath, the giving the rights of citizenship to all persons from whom the duties of citizens are required, and the payment of the public debt according to contract. The call says the convention is not to be of a party character.

COMMONWEALTH.

HARRISONBURG, VA.

Wednesday Morning, Sept. 28, 1870.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE OF THIS PAPER FOR THE BENEFIT OF ADVERTISERS.

NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.—Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears due to the publisher, and continue to send the paper until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it is taken from the office or not. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncollected, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

POLITICAL NOTICES.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—A convention of the Conservative party of this Congressional District, to select a candidate for Congress, will be held in Harrisonburg on Wednesday, October 6, 1870, at 12 o'clock. Each county and city will be entitled to a delegate and a vote for every 100 registered voters therein, according to the last registration.

By authority of the Conservative State Committee.

JOHN R. BALDWIN,
JAS. H. WILLIAMS,
Members for 6th District.

TOWNSHIP MEETINGS.

The Democratic Conservative party, in each Township in the County of Rockingham, are earnestly requested to hold public meetings at their respective Township Towns, ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1870, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the Congressional District Convention, to be held in Harrisonburg on the 6th of October. It would greatly facilitate the proceedings of the Convention, if the Township meetings were to designate who shall cast the vote of each Township, and also the number of votes to which each Township is entitled.

S. A. COFFMAN,
Sept. 21. County Superintendent.

HARRISONBURG, September 27, 1870.

The meeting on Saturday next, of the several Townships, will be held at the Township town, at 2 o'clock, P. M. Each Township will send one delegate for each hundred registered voters, and one delegate for every fraction over a hundred.

S. A. COFFMAN, Superintendent.

REMARKS.—That Saturday next is the day designated by the County Superintendent, (Dr. S. A. Coffman), for the holding of meetings in the several Townships in this county, for the purpose of sending delegates to the 6th Congressional District Convention, to be held in Harrisonburg, October 6th. Each Township will be entitled to a delegate for every 100 registered voters, and one for each fractional part of a hundred. We hope these meetings will be well attended, as it is desirable to have a fair expression.

THE DUTY OF REGISTRARS.—The 7th section of the Registration Act requires that, "Fifteen days previous to any State, County or Township election, the Registrar shall sit two days, for the purpose of amending and correcting the list, at which time any qualified voter applying and not previously registered may be added. The registrars shall give notice of the time and place of all registrations for at least ten days before each sitting, by posting written or printed notices thereof at five or more public places in their townships, wards and election districts. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, within ten days after the expiration of any general registration of voters under this act, to have posted at three or more public places in their townships, wards and election districts, written or printed lists of all persons admitted by them to registration."

The meeting of the Conservative voters of Harrisonburg Township, will be held at the Court House on Saturday evening next, for the purpose indicated by the County Superintendent, published elsewhere.

APPOINTMENT OF REGISTRAR.—Judge Kenney has appointed Mr. Stephen J. Few Registrar for Dayton precinct in Central Township, in the place of R. D. Cushman, resigned.

AUGUSTA DELEGATES.—The Conservative County Convention for Augusta met in Stanton on Monday, and selected the following delegates to the Congressional Convention which meets here on the 5th proximo:

ELK RUN TOWNSHIP, ROCKINGHAM CO.
MA. EDITOR:—The voters of Elk Run Township have an interest in common with those in other parts of the county, in electing good and competent men to serve them in office. We want a sober, an honest and accommodating clerk in the County Court. We will not vote for one who is not a citizen, and who is not a resident of the county, and who is not a man of good habits, sober, industrious, steady, and of every way qualified to discharge the duties of said office. He has encouraged trade by paying liberal prices to the farmers of Rockingham for their produce, and were he still engaged in the mercantile business, we have no doubt but that he would pay as much or more for our produce as any other gentleman in the town of Harrisonburg. And, pledging his word, he is a man who, as the people of Rockingham have reason to know, will discharge his duties faithfully and ably.

The number for October of LIVINGSTON'S MAGAZINE is on our table. It is filled with choice reading, and we are always delighted with the elegancy and variety of its contents. $4 a year. Single number 50c. J. B. LIVINGSTON & CO., Philadelphia.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

THE NEW ECLECTIC MAGAZINE, for October, contains several original contributions from the pens of Southern writers, forming an assemblage of learning, wise counsel, brilliancy, wit and genius which cannot be surpassed if equaled by any other magazine in the country. It has been the object of the publishers of this great work to bring out the best literary talent of the South, and afford it a medium for speaking to the Southern people, that it may be made manifest that they can have, if they choose, a literature of their own of the highest excellence, and one essentially adapted to our wants in all its elements. The publishers have our most hearty endorsement and best wishes for the success of so noble and praiseworthy an enterprise. Let every Southern man, who can do so, contribute both his means and his influence to sustain the Eclectic. Published by Turnbull & Murdoch, Baltimore. It can be had at our book stores.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The October number of this very popular Lady's Book is before us, and we have no hesitation in saying, that this number is not inferior to the preceding ones. Godey is a great favorite at our house, and we recommend it to our Lady friends, as one of the best works of the kind published in this country.

BRADSHAW'S MUSICAL WORLD.—The September number of this popular monthly is at hand, and is unusually attractive. Besides the usual amount of interesting reading matter, the present number contains: "Godey's 'Lover' can't tell," a beautiful song by J. L. Hutton; "Happy Dreams," a charming new piano piece, which will find many admirers, and the Prussian National Song, "Guard on the Rhine," one of the finest patriotic songs ever written. The following are the words of this stirring song:

THE GUARD ON THE RHINE.
There comes a call like thunder's peal,
The Rhine the Rhine the glorious Rhine!
The Rhine the Rhine the glorious Rhine!
The Rhine the Rhine the glorious Rhine!
Chorus—Dear Fatherland, be comfort thee,
Dear Fatherland, thou need'st not pine,
Firm stands thy shield, the guard on the Rhine.
By hundred thousands forth they stream,
Their eyes like flashing lightning gleam;
The German hosts, strong and brave,
They will the sacred land save.
Chorus—Dear Fatherland, be comfort thee,
Dear Fatherland, thou need'st not pine,
Firm stands thy shield, the guard on the Rhine.

To Heaven they raise their glowing eyes,
The German hosts, strong and brave,
And swear, with yearning for the life,
To defend the Rhine to the last day.
Chorus—Dear Fatherland, be comfort thee,
Dear Fatherland, thou need'st not pine,
Firm stands thy shield, the guard on the Rhine.

Land rings the earth, the waters flow,
In the Rhine the banners blow,
The Rhine the Rhine the glorious Rhine!
The Rhine the Rhine the glorious Rhine!
Chorus—Dear Fatherland, be comfort thee,
Dear Fatherland, thou need'st not pine,
Firm stands thy shield, the guard on the Rhine.

This song alone is worth double the price of the Musical World. The publishers, Bradshaw & Sons, Publishers, Cleveland, O., and you will receive the Musical World regularly, from now until January 1872; for ten cents the publishers will send you a new copy, and full list of elegant premiums offered for clubs.

THE PHEASANT JOURNAL for October—Now ready—contains twenty leading articles, great numbers of illustrations, on Scientific, Social and Literary Subjects, and a large amount of rich Miscellaneous Matter, Personal Recollections, etc. Those worthy of special mention are Admiral Farragut, the leading General in the European War; the Man of the Year, General Grant; the late Supt. James P. Wickham, of Pa.; "Liberal Christianity," as viewed by a Congregationalist; Franco-Prussian War; Eccentricities of Gen. A. Remedy for Blue Monday, and the story "Answering to Correspondents." A List of Contributors is given, and a very enticing prospectus is offered. The person who invests $5 in a year's subscription to this Magazine, will not forget to renew with the year expires. Price per number 30 cents. New subscribers for 1871, who send in at once, will receive the Oct. No. and Dec. No. of this year free! Address SAMUEL R. WELLS, 389 Broadway, New York.

BURKE'S WEEKLY FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.—We are glad to have this excellent publication in our hands. It is a fine and interesting work, and a gem in the South ought to take it. The latest feature is a piece of music every month for young singers, and a series of illustrations of Southern scenery. It is cheap at $2 a year. The publishers offer a Rosewood Piano, worth $500, and other valuable premiums, for new subscribers. Send to them for a specimen number, which will be sent from Address J. W. Burke & Co., Mecon, Georgia.

THE HEARTH AND HOME, a finely illustrated family journal of a high character, hitherto issued by Messrs. Pentecost, Bates & Co., has been purchased by Messrs. Orange Judd & Co., of 245 Broadway, New York, the well-known publishers of the American Agriculturist. The new Publishers also announce a reduction of the terms to $3 per year. The change will not at all affect the American Agriculturist, which will continue on independently as heretofore.

THE DOLLAR FARMER is the name of a new Agricultural and Family Magazine, published at Louisville and Shelbyville, Ky. Each number is handsomely illustrated. Send 10 cents for a sample copy. Address, Editor of the Dollar Farmer, Shelbyville, Ky.

THE TECHNOLOGIST, for October, is an exceedingly interesting number. It is in the highest sense "an illustrated journal of the Industrial Revolution." Issued by the Industrial Publication Company, 170 Broadway, N. Y., monthly, at $2 a year.

THE LITTLE CONFESSIONAL, for October, is on our table. It is an excellent monthly for boys and girls, published at Chicago.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of the re-opening of the Oyster Saloon, kept by J. A. HULL, Agent, next door to the First National Bank, to take place on Wednesday evening, October 5th. Mr. H. has fitted up his saloon in handsome style, and has procured every new and all kinds of condiments necessary in his business, all made to order. The opening hour will be made known by the music of Prof. Zahman's Band and Orchestra.

FROM PORTUGAL.—We are indebted to our Minister at the Court of Lisbon for the following papers, viz: "Le Courier de Lisbonne, Journal International Franco-Portugais, politique et literaire," and "Diario do Noticias," both of the 1st of September, for which he will accept our thanks.

A large number of our merchants are now in the eastern cities, purchasing their Fall goods. Soon their advertisements will appear, informing the people where to get not only good but cheap goods of every description. Our business men are preparing for an active Fall and Winter trade, and we hope all their expectations and efforts in that direction may be fully realized. The columns of the COMMONWEALTH should be consulted by purchasers.

RAILROAD RECEIPTS.—The Agent at the depot in this place has furnished us a statement of the amount realized from the 1st to the 27th inst. inclusive, from which we learn that $1,780 were received for tickets, and $2,810 for freight—making the total receipts $4,590. In consequence of the busy season with the farmers, the shipments of produce from this point, for the same time, have been comparatively light.

The shipments of produce from this depot, for the same period, were as follows: Flour, 800 barrels; wheat, 3,000 bushels; oats, 500 bushels; rye, 22 bushels; seeds, 550 bushels; and a large quantity of butter, eggs, &c.

WINCHESTER AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—We received from the officers of the Shenandoah Valley Agricultural Society, a complimentary ticket to attend the Agricultural Fair, to be held at the grounds adjoining Winchester, on the 26th, 27th and 28th of October next. It would afford us great pleasure to be present, but we cannot say in September what we will do in October. We have no doubt that every preparation has been made by the managers to make this exhibition a success, and we hope they may receive the encouragement that such energy deserves.

The Ladies' Academy Association of New Market, we learn from the Valley, will hold a fair in the hall of the New Market Polytechnic Institute, commencing on the 12th of October, 1870, at 12 o'clock, on which day an address will be delivered. The fair will be continued for three days. A great variety of articles have been contributed by the merchants of Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other places, for the occasion. The proceeds of the fair will be devoted to the completion and furnishing of the New Market Polytechnic Institute.

Emmanuel Rhodes, Esq., who live near this place, on the Luvill road, informs us that he has not only one, but a large number of ears of corn, each containing 10 rows, and 64 grains to the row, making 1024 grains to the ear. We think this is good corn. Who can beat it?

FIFTY THOUSAND BOTS AND GIRLS wanted, one or more in every city, village and neighborhood in the United States, to work at leisure hours for good pay in cash. Pleasant, permanent, honorable employment. Write at once to JOHN B. ALDER & CO., Chicago, Ill. Please mention where you see this.

The Circuit Court of this county is still in session. The time is chiefly occupied with the consideration of cases of but little interest except to the parties immediately concerned. Judge Turner is dispatching the business with commendable alacrity.

There is a superabundant scarcity of wild pigeons in this portion of the Valley, this season. So the fowling say.

MR. G. M. EFFINGER is on hand again with a handsome assortment of FALL & WINTER GOODS. His stock will be open and ready for inspection by Saturday next, when he will be glad to see all of his friends.

He makes a specialty of LADIES' GOODS, and will take pleasure in showing them. For particulars, see printed bills.

A Question in Many Homes.—The fine times when we could all live on the fat of the land have gone by, perhaps never to return. Of late, the question how to obtain the largest amount of wholesome, palatable nourishment at the lowest possible price, has been earnestly discussed in thousands of American homes. The answer is found in the MRS. FARRIS as a national food staple, solves that problem. From no other article under the sun can the same amount of delicious food be obtained for so small a cost. The custards, Charlotte, jellies, puddings, &c., are "fit for Juno when she banquets." As a clarifier for refining cider and other fermented liquors, it has no equal. The Sea Farine Co., who own the patent, have a branch office in New York, at 23 Park place, New York, and within twelve miles they have established a business of immense magnitude and importance.

On Monday night last, the residence of Christian Shirley, about a half mile from New Market, on the road to the depot, was completely destroyed by fire, together with the greater part of its contents. The fire is supposed to have been communicated from ashes which were taken up during the day. Mr. S. slept in one end of the house, and when he was aroused the fire had made such progress in the other end that he was able to save but a small portion of his furniture, &c. —Shenandoah Valley.

COMMONWEALTH.

HARRISONBURG, VA.
Wednesday Morning, Sept. 28, 1870

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE OF THIS PAPER FOR THE BENEFIT OF ADVERTISERS.

NEWSPAPER DISCOUNTS.—Any person who uses a paper regularly from the Postoffice—either directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the pay.
If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send the paper until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it is taken from the office or not. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Postoffice, or removing and leaving them in the office, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

A STERN reality—The man at the wheel.

A HEN is not immortal, and yet
her son never sets

For an agreeable table sauce—
juvenile impudence.

Love's young dream often turns out to be the night mare.

FIREMEN use longer hose than any other class of citizens.

THERE'S one thing which can always be found, and that's fault.

EMBRACE as many opportunities
as you please, but only one woman.

The motto of the inebriate—To drink is human, to get drunk divine.

If you are to limit your equivalence to but one John, don't let it be a demijohn.

Poor pigs, they are doctored the wrong way round—killed first and cured afterwards.

PRACTICAL communism.—To be willing to divide with any one who has more than you have.

OUR West when a notorious lazy man is caught at work, they say he is "meddling with industry."

Wheels, and the Patent Sprocket, now unrivalled for superior to any other for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Southern people who have used them testify
as follows:

"I have three-fourths of the labor and cost,
and pay for them both in money and convenience. Let every young lady learn to use them, and every married one keep them in her house.—New Orleans Picayune.

"An excellent Washing Machine. We have tried it. The Clothes Wringer is very superior.
A good hand will wash a large number of pieces
in a few hours."—Baltimore (N. C.) Episcopist Theodist

"A child ten years old can do the washing just as well as a grown person. Every good housewife should secure one for her family."— Montgomery (W. Va.) Constitution.

"After over two years' experience with a Doy, we are assured that it is the greatest help and economizer of time, labor and money we have yet introduced into our household."— Williamson Smith, New Orleans.

"I have had one of Do-y's Clothes Washers for a year, and am perfectly satisfied with it.
My family have tried it faithfully and have never known it fail to accomplish all that it promises to.—Prof. J. P. Stevens, Concord Female College, Statesville, N. C.
