Vacancy Left
At Radford College

Candidates for Presidency Are Consulted by the President, Dr. J. McConnell, Late Today.

The announcement of a new president and that two members of the board were unable to attend the meeting were given as reasons for the postponement, according to the Association Press, October 26.

Dr. Sidney B. Hall, State Supertendent, said that new names added to the list of those being considered for the presidency were: C. W. Kindsey, eminent political scientist, and
B. R. McCollum, former head of Radford State College. Dr. C. H. Eaves, Emerson Professor of Same-local Biology department, was postponed yesterday by the State Board of Education at its meeting in Richmond.

This Senior Day marks the official opening of the dance season. It was attended by a vast audience of students, faculty, and guests. The event began with a procession of students and faculty members, each wearing distinctive attire. The opening ceremony was followed by a series of performances, including dance, music, and poetry readings. The highlight of the event was the keynote speech by a prominent speaker, who delivered a powerful message on the importance of unity and diversity in our society.

The evening concluded with a reception, where attendees mingled and enjoyed refreshments. Overall, the event was a resounding success, showcasing the vibrant and engaging culture of our community, and setting the stage for an exciting year of activities and events.

Baby Party Friday

The V. M. I. Commanders of Lexington will make their second apparteat the homecoming weekend, and a night or two later when they will play for the first for-dam on this season's program of the football schedule. They plan to play for the first time at the Hallowe’en Dance this year.

A drop ceiling of black and orange crepe paper streamers, with windows bordered by grotesque pictures of witches, black cats, and goblins will help create a spooky atmosphere in Reed Gym.

The receiving line will be made up of: Helen Willis, chairman of the Social Committee, Virginia Blain, president of the Student Government Association; and Mrs. Ann B. Cook, the superintendent of drill. Also the Mrs. R. C. Dilgeldt, Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Drake, Mrs. Cook, Miss Mary Louise Seegar, and Mrs. Pearl Moody.

Goddion Baby Party

The Blountese Cotillion Club gave a dancing party Friday night at eight o'clock in Reed Gym for all the new girls and transfer students. All the guests came dressed as though they were still in college, and a prize for the most original was given to Ann Van Langhans, a member of Virginia West and Annabelle Tucker.

The guests were ushered in by a vocal selection by Virginia Virtue who sang, "I Must Be True." This was followed by a skit entitled "Little Nell." Those taking part in this were Leslie Parum as Pa, Mike Lyle as Aa, Mt. Youe, Little Nell; Ma Sampson, Virginia; Min Sene, the brother, Ruth S. Doolittle sang "Harbor Lights," after which refreshments were served.

The Athletic Association holds the third in a series of teas for the new girls, Tuesday at 4:00 in Alemany Hall, one of the most well-attended teas to date.

Those in the receiving line were: Mrs. Alkis Johnstone, Miss Derry Sargeant, Miss Helen Mount, Mildred Wise, and Peggy Byers. Billie Powell and Evelyn Patterson presided over the table.

The school color scheme of purple and gold was carried out.

Musicale: Dignity And Weeds Fly With Wind For Popsicles

By KITTY MOLY

What is it. T. C. comes to? More than one bewildered person pondered this query as he watched excited, mud-splattered students uprooting weeds and dignity, in the soccer and hockey fields, this week.

No, this first month of strenuous study hasn't rendered us loony (as you may have thought) but rather quite the contrary. The college field isn't in the pink of condition! So that's why, you bewildered people, you saw too timid girls contentedly lapping up popsicles and black goblins, while the ghosts are requested to wear their costumes.
