The infographic is a 2x2 grid of blue rounded squares, each containing a title and a bulleted list of three items. The top-left square is titled 'Repository' and lists support for student and faculty scholarship, open access & open education resources, and access to institutional & cultural heritage materials. The top-right square is titled 'Digital Preservation' and lists providing long-term preservation solutions, advocating for best practices, and community standards. The bottom-left square is titled 'Digitization' and lists protecting and preserving fragile materials, providing access to unique collections, and facilitating classroom use of materials. The bottom-right square is titled 'Consultation & Training' and lists developing digital curation literacy on campus, in the classroom, and in the community.
