Students Elect Edwards
Miss Madison Of 1949

Mary Edwards, of Mattaca, Virginia, was elected Miss Madison of 1949 by the student body on November 22, when they voted for one of the ten candidates for the award. Mary will be presented with the silver cup by Miss Laura Furland, president of the Art Club which sponsored the contest.

Mary first became known as an outstanding student in the Madison High School in her freshman year when she played the lead in Stratford Dramatic club's first play of the year. Since then she has been voted the most dramatic in her class every year she has been on campus. Her sophomore year was spent in Stratford.

Her talents are not limited to dramatics; however, for this year she has served as president of the Y.W.C.A. of which she has been a cabinet member ever since entering Madison. With all her outside activities, she still made grades high enough to be voted into Kappa Delta Pi, the campus honor society for education majors. She was also "recently selected" to represent Madison in the Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

Miss Madison has also been a representative to the Student Government Association, the Alpha Sigma Tau sorority, and is a member of Theta Sigma Upsilon sorority.

Seniors Elect Delegates
Jenee Coats was selected by the senior class as their representative to the Student Government Council at a meeting held last night. Jane, who was formerly a member of the Business staff at Shenandoah College, replaced Alice Hunter, who resigned recently. At the same meeting Louise Alton was elected to the Business staff and Ten Slaight was elected to serve on the Student-Faculty Committee for this year.

Annual Activities Progress Well

Work on the 1949 Schoolma'am is well under way. Most of the pictures for this year's book have been taken, and the hallway for the feature section was completed in Monday chapel this week. The liner text, staff is supposed to be reinstalled in the annual room recently.

The students' choir elected to the staff by their choir are Jean Wood and Sarah Wells. Pat Edwards and Frances Johnson were delegates from the Schoolma'am to the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association at V.P.I. the weekend of November 17, and brought back many valuable pointers to the staff.

Jean Collins will call for the reports from the various groups next week, as they finish up their pages in the annual, and Marianne Howard will request the senior sections.

The deadline for orders will be held, Wednesday, December 15. All down payments must be made on or before that date; only orders placed on a payday will be filled this time. Students must make a payment of either $2.00 or $4.00 now, if they expect to get a 1949 Schoolma'am.

Financial Aid

Revenue work chosen by the National Student Finance Association, Roy's poem, "Portrait," and Mary's poem, "Be Wise," were selected as the basis of the annual's poems submitted. The poems will be published in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry this year.

The Anthology is a compilation of the first poetry written by the college students, which were selected, representing every state in the country. Joyce A. Shipman came from Woorcester, Massachusetts. She is majoring in French and is a member of the Foreign Language Honor Society. The foreign language which underlines to encourage creative writing and to foster literary interest in this, the foreign language major.

Mary Clare, also a member of the Foreign Language Honor Society, was the only daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. James U. Edwards.

Wanting the student body to know how happy she was, Mary said that all sincerely, "I actually don't think I've ever been as happy as when I heard that you had voted for Miss Madison. I think it is a wonderful honor and I hope I'll always live up to the expectations of you students. To Mary we say, "We know you will."

Your Miss Madison contends that she has done few exciting things in her life. Probably more enjoyed than anything else, was her mother who took Union Theological Seminary this summer. Mary was next to the President of the Student body there for the Madison Y.W.C.A.

Among the many interesting things the group did was to visit the United Nations in session. As a result of the summer work, Mary now can say that she has talked to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and even heard her pictures taken with the Roosevelt dog, Fala. Incidentally, "The Breeze" tried to publish that picture, but Mary wouldn't cooperate.

Congratulations

Congratulations are in order. Thirteen girls in our student body have been chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. This is an honor to represent our school and one which you will be quite

An internationally famous lady has arrived in the U. S. for a dramatic visit. She has come to our country to help the people of her hand and save her country. This would be an everlasting tale, if it were not true or tragic.

Madame Chiang Kai-Shek arrived in Washington yesterday after a three-day flight from Shanghai. She came to our country to campaign for stronger American backing of the Chinese Nationalists in their struggle against the Communist forces.

The situation in China is grave, 230,000 government troops are trapped in the Pacific. A recent move by American soldiers make up the line defending Nanking, the shaken capital of China. If the Communists win out in China, Russia will hold many people at bay. Much land in the East in our power. China will need a great deal of help immediately to escape a victory.

And Madame Chiang Kai-Shek has come here to the United States that her people may see the one to come. With the Generalissimo of the Nationalist forces, she is clever and charming. What is more, she always was China's closes to the U. S.

But it is doubtful if the First Lady of China will accomplish her mission. Americans have become cold to China's plea for aid.

And even if aid were to be given, it is probably too late for it to be effective now.

Dear Editor:

Recently the faculty and student body of this college have been much interested in the new/common book that each student must have. It is called the "Student's Hymnal." We have come to understand that this is not the first hymnal that has been published. It is probably too late for it to be effective now.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Smith

Each league will have a round robin tournament, beginning January 4, and the winners of each league will take part in the championship tournament at the end of the season.

The schedule of practices and the lists of teams have been posted in each dormitory and all students are urged to check as to time of practice. Each team member must practice twice before Christmas in order to be eligible for league play.

There is still a need for more coaches, referees, and umpires. All girls interested in coaching a team should contact Miss Reynolds or Nancy Birch. The schedule for referees and umpires is posted in Reade gym and may be signed at any time.

Comments "after the dance was over"—

Madison was privileged Wednesday night to see a modern dance program presented by Charles Weidman and Company. Mr. Weidman is recognized as one of the foremost choreographer-dancers in the U. S.

In addition to this, he is a very nice person!

None of the 24 girls who stretched and bent in Mr. Weidman's master class will ever forget him! In fact, they will have stiff muscles for several days to come, as pertinent reminders.

Mr. Weidman keeps his dancers in good humor by making faces at them on the stage during the performance. The rehearsals are always spiced with his witty sayings and facial expressions.

The mocking laughter heard in "Silent Snow, Secret Snow" did come backstage, and not from any hysterical members of the audience.

The P. E. majors and "especially the Physical Education Staff, took great delight in the frenzied activity of the Purple Finch Patrol!

Charles Weidman is particularly interested in theater dance—his themes are American and he brings in acting as well as dancing.

Performers of modern dance do it for sheer love of the dance and what it can mean. Modern-dance is truly an American art and if it could be presented officer in every section of the country, we would all understand and appreciate modern dance more.
