And The Queen's Husband

As the second Lyceum number of the winter quarter, the American Repertory Theatre's evening program presents two plays, "The School for Scandal" on Monday, February 14, and "The Queen's Husband" on February 15. Certain time is scheduled for the former play, and the latter play is scheduled for a full house.

"The School for Scandal," is the title of the play that keeps the audience laughing from curtain to curtain. It has received favorable notices in Boston, and the major critics and promoters are very entertaining.

The cast includes Sara Stone, who recently received critical acclaim for her performance as the "Bail" in "The George Abbott hit, "Brother Rat." Richard Bauer, Richard Courtney and Francis J. Lanphier are also principal members of the cast.

Dr. S. P. Duke left for Nashville, Tenn., this week, where he represents the staff of Dr. B. C. Garrison as President of Peabody College. From there, he will go to Vanderbilt University, where he will be attended by the inauguration of Dr. A. C. Blanding as president and Chancellor of that institution. Duke is expected to return to Harrisburg the first of next week.

In Today's Mail

Dear Editor,

In your editorial of last week I found several points well taken. It is interesting to note that it is necessary for students to pay cut steep fees for representation, when the annual already gets its fair share of the income it generates.

I know that The Schoolmaal reduced its rate last fall, but it still have a small, steady charge, which is of primary interest to the college. The majority of students with whom I have been in contact believe that the time will come when even a college cannot be held up as a stepping stone to the professional nature of the college. We predict that the names will have a lure of local significance, if they have not already done so. In regard to changing the name of H. T. C., we strongly urge that it be changed. These names have a lure of local significance, they are not kept in that way, but need it be so expensive? The statement will increase cooperation and eliminate the cries of "unjust" which arise each year. We believe the name should be changed. It has been a burden to us who belong to clubs more forcibly when the treasurers cannot meet this sum and we have to pay the deficit, or when we must replenish some of our club supplies from lack of finances. Even in the ordinary course of events, we have learned of instances where the names of three typical organizations, the American Literary Society, Alpha Rho Delta and the Dramatic Club. Speaking in approximate terms, the names of Alden pay $30 in Annual fees, Alpha Rho Delta $35, and Stratford between $50 and $75. Pertinent to mention is that the list can be six clubs.

The yearbook, it must be remembered, has other sources of income, among them subscriptions and advertising. They are not an obligation to the campus fees and student club representations.

I believe it would clarify the situation considerably if the campus fees were assessed in some detail, as to the financial standing of The Schoolmaal. If the fees are excessive, as I believe, then why are they assessed at all? If they are merely adequate, then perhaps a more efficient management is in order. And if they are perfectly just, such a statement might bring about cooperation and eliminate the cries of "injust" which afflict each year. We have a good deal of work, we have a book, and we want to keep that thing, but need it be so expensive?

Congress Favors Vinson Bill Authorizing Millions For Improved Navy

By AGNES BARGH

— War today, declared and undeclared, is involving one-fourth of the world’s population. Accompanying this is the inevitable increase in armaments, which is now seen the world’s need. It has started its greatest armament race. In accordance with this trend, President Roosevelt recently asked Congress for more money for armaments. The annual Naval Bill, some time ago, was for nearly $150 million for armaments. Roscoe C. Hill and his staff probably a large increase in this huge sum.

Specifically, he asked for a 25 per cent increase in the existing bases for national replacements, and increases for money to lay down two battleships and two cruisers in 1937, and additional to the regular program, and for Etienne for experimental ships. The Vinson Bill, which was introduced immediately after the President’s request, would authorize a $30 million bill to carry on the President’s recommendation. Although there have been some critical comments, the majority of Congress seems favorable to an increased armment bill. It must be remembered that now more than ever the United States is in danger of another world war. One disinterested member remarked that the United States should be twice as strong as it is now. The whole Western Hemisphere. Certainly our attitude seems to be changing from the traditional isolation policy.

In the East, Japan has done nothing to alter her insular existence. It is now a matter of history that her attitude toward foreign nations, the United States, in particular, is that she has been insular. The Japanese, and the British and French, are not satisfied. They are attempting to stifle the amount of feeling in the United States. That other insular instinct has followed. It is to be hoped that Japan does not assume that the United States is not interested in it, to be involved in a war.

Sister Goat Leaves Trial A Marked Woman

By MIKE LYNNE

Courtroom sings: Old "Sister Goat," she ain’t what she used to be. Too bad she ain’t what she used to be, before the censors cut her off.

Judge: "Order in the court! The next case before the court is "Sister Goat" vs. Censors. Will "Sister Goat" please approach the bench?" * Sis: "I ask you, jury, if a mugging and a cursing scene can be given on the virgin stage?* Judge: "You tell me what I'm interested in."

Sister Goat: "Well, yes, I do. What? What do you think I’m interested in?"

Censors: Gives the lines written by Winsped and Clogstone in that scene, please. Sister Goat: "That's my little Sister Goat's mark, isn't it?"

Judge: "Did you intend to offend in any way?"

Cherub: "Heaven's no! I only picture the schoolma’am of tomorrow as she is today."

Sister Goat: "Oh, Sister Goat, drop that innocent pose and answer this: do you or don’t you portray a mugging scene in Alumnae?"

Censor: "Object... That question is irrelevant."

Judge: "I object. That question is irrelevant."

Sister Goat: "Now, Sister Goat, drop that innocent pose and answer this: do you or don’t you portray a mugging scene in Alumnae?"

Censor: "No, no, a thousand times no!"

Sister Goat: "Oh, pull-cutz aren’t my cut. How can you go cut them without them?"?

Judge: "Did you intend to offend in any way?"

Cherub: "I ask you, jury, if a mugging and a cursing scene can be given on the virgin stage?

Judge: "No, no, a thousand times no!"

Sister Goat: "Oh, pull-cutz aren’t my cut. How can you go cut them without them?"

Judge: "You tell me what I’m interested in."

Sister Goat: "Yes, we find the defendant guilty as charged and sentence her to remove the offensive lines.

Judge: "I only ask you to sentence her guilty as charged and sentence her to remove the offensive lines.

Sister Goat: "Will the lawyer for the defense please be present."

Judge: "I object. That question is irrelevant."

Sister Goat: "I ask you, jury, if a mugging and a cursing scene can be given on the virgin stage?"

Judge: "You tell me what I’m interested in."

Sister Goat: "I ask you, jury, if a mugging and a cursing scene can be given on the virgin stage?"

Judge: "That’s the spirit—court’s adjourned!"

Four hundred Drake University men will be needed as escorts for the women from Stephens College when they come to Drake for a dance March 17. And the student body will match the names and descriptions of the women with available Drake men. The women are guests of the Drake Men’s College and the National, and the program will affect the scholastic standing, according to Temple University officials. Part-time employment of students by the National Youth Administration has been investigated by the University and it was found that a group so engaged made a better showing than a similar group of students.

If there's a crease, there's not a word in Webster's to describe the daily post office rush. It seems to get worse on the days when there's no snow, but the fighting spirit has not relaxed, for the goal a few seconds before the whistle blew, making the final tally a couple of long shots, Stroudsburg's center Simmons and Hoffman, and wards, displayed excellent passwork in Stroudsburg's favor.

The meeting in Harrisonburg was one of the best fights on the floor. The fighting spirit does not seem to be off on shootwork on the part of the home team, but the fighting spirit had not relaxed. The game was played off, but no definite date has been set for another meeting.
