MARCH OF DIMES DRIVE

Madison College was not idle over the Christmas holidays. Mr. Gibbons reports that the following projects were undertaken:

1. Miss Schneiders' studio, as an experimental proposition, has been rented to three girls who will take residence in the recital room by building two partitions, one on each side of the present partition, at a cost of $5.00.

2. Installation of rock wool in 13 buildings was completed at a cost of $1,129.00.

3. Waterstopping on four buildings was completed at a cost of $1,129.00.

4. Finished acoustical drop ceiling at a cost of $3,380.00.

5. Let contract for $1,582.00 for the purchase of rock wool to provide six needed practice rooms in the basement of Wilson Hall.

6. Completed cleaning of the college at a cost of $256.56.

7. Repaired carpet to main entry to auditorium at a cost of $127.10.

8. Installed electric distribution from new vault in basement of Massey and laid lines for connecting up about sixteen electric units in home economics department. The electric lines from vault to fixtures will cost approximately $2,296.

10. Installed stoves and refrigerators in rooms in Spottsylvania and Ashby halls.

11. Title in entrance way to Alhambra hall and corridor between offices of Deans of Women and Freshman has been contracted for and will be completed this week. Cost, $355.00.

MADISON COLLEGE
In Memorium

Some people can never be forgotten by those who knew them, and those same people so often deserve to be remembered. Such a person was the late Professor Conrad T. Logan, beloved by all who knew him well. Although benefit of life, his deeds live on at Madison.

Mr. Logan died one year ago last Sunday, and for this reason, we think it fitting that we should stop a few moments now to remember this man, who did so much for Madison College. To remember him in large part because of his scholarship, and graduation exercises, was evidently enough. We should always remember his deeds and pass word of them to Madison teachers of the future.

Especially do those of us who have classes for the students, the teachers, the faculty, and the Student Government Council, bow in reverence to the man who did so much to help them and was yet always a friend. May he rest in peace forever; the peace that he so rightly deserves.

Gracious Living

Perhaps you feel that gracious living applies only to the drawing room and has no place on the college campus. May we, then, point out that it is gracious means to be kind, to be courteous, to show grace, and that one of the definitions of grace is politeness.

Thus, living graciously means using politeness and courtesy in our everyday living. And that way of life can be led as easily on this campus as in a drawing room.

Don't get so busy that you forget to be kind. Even though you seem to have an awful lot to accomplish these next few days, don't forget to be considerate of others. It isn't necessary to be in a mood for politeness; you can always be polite no matter what mood you are in. It is up to you. You can express graciousness wherever you wish.

"A gracious woman retained honour:"—Proverbs 11:16.

New Biology Teacher Pleased At Madison

One of the new additions to the biology faculty this fall is Mr. Shawver. Mr. Shawver completed his undergraduate work at the State Teachers College, St. Louis County, Missouri, and obtained his Master of Arts from the University of Missouri. He is working on his Doctorate at Columbia University, New York. Mr. Shawver has had a great deal of experience in the secondary schools of Missouri and New York, for three years being spent as high school principal in St. Louis County, Missouri.

"I think this is a beautiful section of the country," Mr. Shawver stated. "And find Madison a fine place in which to work. I like especially the sincerity of the college students."--The Breeze.

Mrs. Shawver is teaching in New Jersey at the time. She will come to Virginia to make her home in June.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I feel that some reply should be given to the letter which appeared in the December 17 issue of the Breeze. Some of the misunderstandings that letter revealed should be corrected.

First of all, no definite action has been taken or will be taken on any important Y. W. C. A. business by your local cabinet without the knowledge and advice of all of you members on this campus. There was not two, three, or any particular persons appointed to represent Madison in Washington to present a report. Mr. Shawver's statement was the truth.

And when the subject of U. M. T. became an important one, the action of the Y. W. C. A. that action will be taken by the entire members. It was the aim of the cabinet and officers before the former letter was written, so will be in the interest of the Madison College students.

We opposed U. M. T. not only because of the millions of dollars it requires which along with our other million dollar government programs could run our country into a state of bankruptcy (that would tickle the Mr. Shawver), but also we seem to be placing our faith and entire reliance on machinery of war—that killed other countries—look at your history. Let our action in the Y. W. C. A. be just as important and more money in our country. There are other reasons, but I cannot take up too much of your time. If you would be interested I have a good deal of information about this subject.

Neither was the decision by your cabinet concerning U. M. T. held without the knowledge and advice of your cabinet. No important matters have been brought before the cabinet.

You should be a little proud that so many of your programs are successfully carried out by us students.

Now to clear further misunderstandings, your cabinet members, Mrs. C. E. W. A. C. members a standing invitation to our cabinet meetings held every Wednesday at 6:45 p.m. in Alumnae.

Madison For The Student

We believe that this college which we attend should be organized for Madison College should be for the student. The idea shouldn't be Madison for the President, nor should it be Madison for the students, but most of us agree that the situation at our college is "Madison for the student?" By Madison we imply faculty, equipment, time, money, and effort. Do you feel that this college is built around your desires, your interests? Or do you think otherwise?

Some students are heard complaints, the nature of which imply that they, the students, are at the service of the institution, not the institution and facilities at the service of the students. To me this is a college function? To dictate for sake of its desires and convenience? It shouldn't. To do all within its power to plan, serve, and administer in the interest of the student. In theory; yes; in practice, it's debatable.

Two Pi Omega Psi Officers Attend National Conv on During Christmas

Marilyn Lee and Hazel Smith; president, and vice-president, respectively of Pi Omega Psi attended the national convention of honor business students during their Christmas vacation.

Leaving on December 27th, Marilyn and Hazel pulled through the Detroit station on Tuesday morning, December 28, at 7:45 a.m.

The first day consisted of meetings at the Book-Cadillac hotel where the convention was held.

Wednesday the entire group attending this convention visited the large and fine hotel, using Ford plane in Detroit. Here they saw new cars rolling off the assembly lines. A visit to the Ford-Linby-Owen giant plant was also made by the tourist group.

Wednesday night saw the convention banquet, at time the new offers of the national convention of honor students were named. This great speaker for this affair was the principal of one of the Detroit high schools.

Thursday morning, which was cold and rainy, took the group all the way to Windsor, Ontario, for a sight seeing tour. In the afternoon the conventions went shopping and sight seeing in Detroit.

Ending a lovely three days at the convention, Marilyn and Hazel returned home by train on Thursday night, December 30.

Dr. Triffle, head of the business department at Madison, attended this convention and also the National Business Teachers Association Convention which was held at the Book-Cadillac hotel.

Marilyn Lee, president of Pi Omega Psi, is planning an evening social to return to the club their traveling trip.

Kenny's Comments

A bill was introduced to the 81st Congress last week which is of special interest to our student body and faculty. $346 sees forth the plan for federal aid to education.

The Senate so strongly supported the same bill last year that it is likely to pass in session this year. The House likewise failed to pass this bill last year and this year federal aid to education is keeping with the platform of the Democratic party. In the campaign promises of the President, and his recommendations to Congress in the State of the Union Message, these increases its chances, of course.

This bill should do a great deal to re-educate educational opinion to the effect that boys and girls throughout the U.S. Money for this task will be made available to the state in return for funds provided from its own funds a percentage of its people's income in excess of the general average throughout the United States. This will be a great help to poorer states which have made a greater comparative financial effort than the wealthier states, but have still not been able to reach the national average.

In such states as mentioned above there have been fewer schools, with inferior teachers in the average, and hence less of opportunity for students compared with those of wealthier states.

Than an important bill of this kind pre- mieres federal aid for education in the educational program. The policies shall remain the hands of the states in which all schools shall be equally provided for.

For schools of the colored race will receive aid too. Federal funds will be issued in proportion to the ratio of the colored population to the total population of the state.

If this legislation is exactly enacted by the Senate and House its provisions for the equalization of educational opportunity may go into effect when the school opens next fall.

"Y" Notes

All Y. W. members please keep the first week of February open as Religious Emphasis Week. Work will be held at this time. In order that all members may meet the speaker personally, there will be a call and name list put on a notice posted in Harrison Hall for all people to sign that are interested.

A MASS MEETING of our Y.W.C.A. was held last week in Friday Chapel. This was a regular business meeting discussing the education of themes in which our Y. W. participates.

Here is the "Grand Total" of the W.S.S.P. drive. $464.28. This is somewhat less than what we expected. Thank you for all your contributions.

IRC Sponsors Levering As Assembly Speaker

"Which choice shall we, and civilization, make? This is not a question of individual fear, or individual death but one of the destruction of society and civilization. Which shall it be, peace or suicide? Life or death?"

These queries appear in an article entitled World Government. The Path of Peace by Samuel R. Levering, who will be the speaker during the regular Assembly period on Wednesday, January 19. Sponsored by the International Peace Relations Club, of which June Lyon is president, this member of the National Executive Council of the United World Federalists, Inc., will present the aims and purposes behind the organization he represents to students and teachers of Madison College.

Mr. Levering, nationally known economist, lecturer and leader in the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers), whose unceasing efforts on behalf of world federal government have qualified him as one of the country's foremost experts on the subject, became convinced that peace was only natural that the federalists' individual appeal to him when college days were over.

Professor Levering plans to hold an open discussion meeting on world government on Tuesday evening, January 18, at 7:00 o'clock, in Wilson 24.

Warren To Lecture

Mr. Percy Warren will speak to the teachers of the Beverly Manor school in Staunton on January 18. His subject will be "Human Growth and Development."

Team Releases 1949 Schedule

The schedule for the 1949 intramural basketball season has been released. The Purple and Gold backcourt has been practicing throughout the week in preparation for their opening game with Richmond College on February 4 in Reed gymnasium.

The Washupaz girls will encounter Madison in Richmond on February 12, and then the next game will be with Sweet Briar in Ashby on March 2. Due to schedule difficulties, the home game with Farmville had to be canceled. It is hoped that a game can be arranged to round out the season.

Squad Members

The members of the squad are: Guards—Carter, Colwell, Cook, Johnson, Woodyard, Reynolds, and Johnson; forwards—Long, Ramsey, Blatt, Blakemore, Early, Laster, Grant, Shelby and Pickrell; and forwards—Wills, Riddlesberger, O'Leary, Wilson and Reddout.

Intramural Teams

League play in the intramural basketball tournament got under way last week with eight games either played or forfeited. On Tuesday, January 10, Messick won a forfeit from Farmville; and Johnson I beat Jackson I by a score of 20-10. On January 12, Farmville I and Spottswood II fought it out to a score of 11-11. The reserve strengths of Spottswood proved too much for the Dukes, who played to a packed house, and the "Rambling Reds" were ahead at the final whistle 79-44.

Waldo Miller led the Dukes in scoring with 14 points. Bill Nash was second with 10, and Captain Warren Denton next with 8 to his credit. The Madison team showed good form and were fairly accurate on their shots. Those boys who journeyed to Bluefield were Buddy Showalter, Richard Wootton, Chick Robock, W. G. Miller, Walter Lavine, Bob Leake, Warren Denton, Harry Woolf, Bill Nash, Harry Kurman and D. J. Driver Esq., managers.

The Madison five met the strong, well-coached W. and L. Freshman team Saturday night on their Dukes home court playing to a near capacity audience. The W. and L. five proved too strong for the home team and the Dukes were embarrassed 67-15.

In the opening game of the Dukes in January 6, in Reed Gym, they played the Bluefield Horizons from Shenandoah College.

The Dukes were behind 28-31 at the end of the first quarter and 33-39 at the end of the half. The Horizons scored from Madison came back in the third quarter and held the Horizons 45-41.

The Dukes fought hard in the fourth quarter and cut the lead 50-53, but could not overcome the more powerful five from Shenandoah.

Duke Meet RPI Tomorrow

The Dukes entertain the boys from the Richmond Professional Institute Saturday night on their home court at 7:30 p.m. The Madison students will be admitted at their lyceum tickets, or outsiders will be charged.

The schedule for the remainder of the season is as follows: Saturday, January 15 R.P.I. here; Saturday, January 22 W. and L. there; Saturday, February 5, R.P.I. there; Thursday, February 10, Bridgewater there; Thursday, February 17, Bridgewater here; March 4, Bluefield here. Bluefield College Proves To Rugged To Dukes

The Dukes journeyed to Bluefield College Wednesday night to meet the Bluefield "Rambling Reds" on their home court. The "Rambling Reds" were trailing 12-11 at the end of the first quarter of this hard fought contest. The Dukes dropped back in the second quarter and at half-time the score was 52 to 44 in favor of the "Reds".

Squad Holds Banquet

The annual hockey banquet was held on December 15 in the tea room. All members of the extramural hockey team were invited, and Miss Janette Shaffer, coach of the team, was on hand. Miss Shaffer was presented with a gift by the squad, in appreciation of her work. The team then entertained the group by telling amusing stories about the Seniors on the team. Each of the Seniors and a few words and the banquet closed with the singing of "Alack, Aalase, Yee."
