Boatwright Points Out Faults
In Virginia's Present County Governments

Dr. F. W. Boatwright, President of Madison College, Harrisburg, delivered the quarterly Convocation ad-address Wednesday morning in assembly at which time LaFayette Carr, Galax, was installed as President of the Student Government Association, representing the counties of Blair, Forge.

In his address, he declared "the weakest spot in Virginia's governmental organization is the government of our 100 Virginia counties. With rare exceptions, Virginia's county government is unduly expansive and inefficient."

He proposed consolidating, reorganizing, and modernizing the rural courts in order to provide better Christian values.

He went on to say that we must continually strengthen our schools from the primary grades through the university. We must provide our citizens with leadership and teachers who can teach our pupils that the most important thing is to set to teach, but also "to inculsat in them a love of the state, country, and a social mindedness that will continually bear fruit in community serv-service."

Following his address, Virginia
Blair administered the oath of office to the new officers, who were :
Peggy Rye, Macon; Mary Ellen Koenig, and Dorothy Sears, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, of the association.

Mrs. A. C. Cook, dean of women, Mr. Raymond Kingsdron, professor of history, and Miss Mary Louise Bowers, professor of education, anterupted the sesquicentennial of the Association of Student Mothers, members of the Social Committee, Standards Committee, house presidents, and editors of the editors, the presidents of the publications, and the head of the publications, he and, the adentors of The Breeze, in the campus newspaper, Monday, May 7th.

Mildy Millie

A couple (7) of upperclasswomen of the class of 1939, are enthusiastic that this "Alumna" is being flooded to the ratio of a favor. They were introduced to the group by the Miss Helen Willis, chairman of the Alumna Association, and Dr. Archer, professor of the University of Virginia, V. M. I., and H. T. C.

The group from this college, Billie Powell, Mildy Millie, Arnold Gore, Dot Day and Betty Lee McManus made a quad of the group in the hospitality suite of the V. M. I. campus. The meeting was a friendly one in which the group of students were welcomed with refreshments and pleasant conversation. The group of students were interested in the campus and the surrounding area.

After Jokes so the English won't see

During the evening, a banquet was held in the V. M. I. mess hall, and immediately following this, a dance was given. The dance was a friendly one, and all those attending enjoyed themselves.

The next high light in Mildy Millie's work is the Local's Men's Glee Club. Her executives tell her that she can really shine in her work because she has been a member of the Men's Glee Club for the past two years. Mildy Millie was furnished by representatives of the Glee Club with a suit of powder blue with a round fur collar. The suit is twisted, and best of all—it stretches to fit even her room-mate!

10 A.M. to 12 noon. Under the direction of Miss Ada N. Shaffer, head of the department of the college, the club will sing, "The Lord Is My Shepherd" by Parker, "From the Crumhorn" by Peabody, "Hark! Hark! My Soul" by Shelley. The time is Friday and Millie Willis, chairman of the Alumna Association, will assist with the latter number. Rather than just one of the courses, Mr. Duke stressed the point that James Madison was an early advocate of higher education for women.

Receiving a superior rating in a contest of all the districts of the Virginia Federation of Music Clubs held in Lexington last Saturday, March 19, Geraldine Douglas, Georgia's, is now eligible for the state contest to be held April 2 in Charlotteville.

Douglas represented Class A of the 2nd Division District and played two piano selections. The first, C. P. E. Bach's Allegro di Molto, was rendered with ease, Class B's Fantasie Intermezzo Op. 39 Smoor, her own choice. The contest was held in the home of Miss Mary Monroe Proctor, and twelve contestants competed.

Marriage is an ancient institution, but it has its advantages. A king is the son of the wife, while the President isn't. Who was sorry when the prodigal son returned home? The factored slot misses a woman who hasn't married. A swimmer is a man who makes faces and hours. A succession is that which you give a person when they are leaving. When you cross a city street you must have all your faculties about you. The offices of the patriotic jude is in the stomach.

In India a man in one cask cannot marry a woman in another cask. The punishment for bigamy is severe years and two mothers-in-law. The liver is an infernal organ. An epistle is the wife of an apostle.
