Muted Colors

Hamlet Motif

The Barter Theater will present Hamlet in Wilson Auditorium, Saturday, March 19 at 8 p.m. Clashing of King of Denmark, will be played by Frederic Warriner, who is in his third year with Robert Porterfield's company. Gertrude, Queen of Denmark, and mother of Hamlet, will be portrayed by Josephine Parker already famous to radio audiences. Helen Crewe, known for her charm, has the title role of Hamlet, Prince of Denmark and nephew of the present king.

Ophelia will be portrayed by Gerry Jeld, who has been in subsequent productions of the Barter Theater. Some of the other parts to be played by students are: Polonius, Leo Chisil; Laertes, James Andrews; Horatio, Ray Boyle; Rosencrantz, Meridian Miles; and Guildenstern, Kresc. Borgnine.

This is the Barter Theater's 20th production of Hamlet. The costumes for the play were designed by Fred Mead, of Dallas, nationally acclaimed costume designer and costume director for the Dallas Theater. He has employed the muted colors of the Renaissance for this lusty drama.

Shakespearean masterpiece, Macbeth, artfully used the colors of each character: Hamlet appears in sullen colors of blue, Claudius and Gertrude in a mellow gold, Laertes, and Ophelia in purple.

All students who will return to the college next fall will enjoy, for their classes during the period April 4 to April 30. Students not enrolling in summer school will make up their schedule sheets at the same time.

Details and instructions for the registration will be given in next week's Breeze.

Study The Candidates!

Don't forget to cast your vote at the minor elections on Tuesday!

Each one of these important posts should be filled by the girl who is best qualified for the job. Select the two candidates for each job.

Which is the more capable worker the one on whom the other depends? We at Madison realize that although it is interesting to wonder whether Octobers, a woman, resembles her late Uncle Willie, her "hallucination" so fascinates a generation of American air force load up some bomb. Yes, another Russian picture.' With John Foster Dulles speaking in Wash. But whether we are interested or not, we should at least be courteous enough not to rob others of the opportunity to learn. We shall enjoy the program and, had been attended to be as good as their respective, in the past as we have been good. In the future, we hope that we shall be good.
Fire Drills To Become Glamorized
As Girls Discard Curlers And Packs

by Irene Munson

We’re not going to be caught ‘napping’ again in our curlers and cold cream (a passing phase, due to the fourteen day beauty plan out in the current Good Housekeeping, which we just could not resist as it promised to make us a new woman) come 11:30 and another fire drill… We appreciate them, but their domineering embarrassment of having to play in pij’s to a gallery of state inspectors, doctors, policemen, and other assorted officials, who’ve been hanging around behind the shrubbery to watch… There should be a law against it—someone’s going to lose his faith in American girlhood one of these evenings, about 11:30, when our Madison gals troop out resplendent in their night habiliments. The next night, when we put on our jumbo curlers, mud-pack our face, and jump into bed for a good ten-hour sleep—Gong! Gong! Gong! You can’t win. Anyhow, from now on, we’re going to try to look our gloriously best before retiring—No more poorly groomed fire drills for us!

This’n That

With all apologies to Mr. Lamb, (and I don’t mean Charles), I’m going to try to avoid any kind of fire drill type thing that it takes a super-sleuth to keep up with them. So I couldn’t resist letting you know about ’em all. Here goes.

A new invasion force is on the move last week when Madison girls completely överwhelmed W. and L. In the front lines were Ann Durren, Janita Williams, Barbara Strouding, Ann Adams, Martha Moore, Sally Goodman, Kat Hamilton, Marilyn Lee, Sarah Stay, Paige Potter, Betta Shirley, Carter Harrisson, Elizabeth Peters, Polly Walter, etc, etc, ad infinitum. Needless to say—the house parties were conquered!

Back to the old town of Charlottesville we went Comie George to spend some time at home.

We never lost the fact that V. M. I. has three visitors in the form of Gill Temple, Milky Albright and Nancy Fahnemiek last weekend. Fine for all.

The Junior Sisterhood was invited last weekend to attend a filled affair given by V. P. L. and Randolph College. Irene Seidman, Maxine Nor Stine Munsche, Myra Kranner, and Claire Aborns all had a grand time.

Big dances in Washington claimed Jackie Gilbert and “Stick” Rosenboum last weekend when Madison girls completely overmatched W. and L. In the front lines were Ann Durren, Janita Williams, Barbara Strouding, Ann Adams, Martha Moore, Sally Goodman, Kat Hamilton, Marilyn Lee, Sarah Stay, Paige Potter, Betta Shirley, Carter Harrisson, Elizabeth Peters, Polly Walter, etc, etc, ad infinitum. Needless to say—the house parties were conquered!

Basketball will play a major part in the activities of the day. Madison will be represented by night—girls chosen from the intramural program. These girls are Nancy Birch, Claudenia Cates, Barbara Fair, Virginia Hardley, Mary Ruth Porst, Judith Rammy, Elizabeth Wilson and Margaret Chapman.

In the afternoon Madison and William and Mary will present a swimming demonstration.

THE BREEZE
Safety Courses Are Held Here
Mr. Frank W. Nell, Field Representative in Safety Services for the American Red Cross, will be at Mason March 26 through April 8 to give the Instructor's course in Life Saving and Water Safety and in First Aid. The courses are open to any student's who have completed the Advanced course in First Aid.
Eighth graders are taking preliminary training for the Water Safety class. The schedule for their final regular classes is; Lesson 9, March 22 at 4:30 and Lesson 10, March 29 at 4 p.m. (practical and written exam).
Any students who are 10 years of age and older and have their Instructor's rating may join the Water Safety course for review purposes. The class will meet with Mr. Nell, March 26, 30, April 3 and 5 from 7 o'clock to 10 o'clock.
Eight girls are taking work in Advanced First Aid at this time. If any of these are any students in college who have had the Advanced First Aid course, they may join the Instructor's class, if 20 years of age. The first class will be held Wednesday, March 30 from 7 o'clock to 10 o'clock, beginning a 15 hour course. The other dates for First Aid are April 1, 4, 6, and 8.

Dancers Attend Forum In N. C.
Once again Madison is well-represented at the Fine Arts Forum in Greensboro, North Carolina. Our Modern Dance Concert Group, accompanied by Mrs. Hewitt, left yesterday and is participating in the Dance division of the actual Arts Forum held at Greensboro College. The group is composed of Frances Armstrong, Lois Early, Frances Garfield, Mary Hedgins, Janet Keyser, Betty Johnson, Gladys Jones, Marie Marotta, Patricia Ammitson who is the Club accompanist and Jean Shaffer, who will read the "Dilegge" from W. H. Auden's "Age of Anxiety" to which the group will dance.
The Fine Arts Forum is a venture whose aim is to bring together the various phases of fine arts taught and studied in Virginia colleges and to have them judged according to their standing when compared with like arts from other colleges. Those shown represented are Music, Art, Dance, Letters, and Theatre.
Registration was held Thursday, with the Dance Forum being conducted today. Our Madison Dance Club will compete with such familiar col-eges as Farmville, Florida State, Greensboro College, Randolph-Marvin Women's College, Wofford, and Women's Col-eges of Duke University. Each performs its own selection starting at 11:30 p.m., and tonight the Woman's College will give a recital in Modern Dance.
With the Literary Phase being covered on Thursday and the Dance on Friday, it remains for the Music Forum to be presented on Saturday. Master Classes in composition of the Modern Dance will be conducted by Lois Horst.
