Senior Class Sets Stage For Final Big Production

Graduation weekend is being eagerly anticipated by Madison's 205 seniors and graduating sophomores. The weekend will be highlighted by a varied program of events of which the delivery of orations by President G. Tyler Miller will be the climax, not only to the activities but to each senior's life here at Madison.

A garden party at Hillcrest on Friday, May 29th at 5:30 p.m. will begin the program of events for the class of '59. This party will be given by the faculty and dressy dress is in order.

Under the direction of Dr. Lester Buecher, the Concert Choir will present a program in Wilson Hall at 7:30 p.m. Their selections will include "Concert Domicile" by Hans Leo Hassler, "The Lamb" by Ernst Toch, and Four Clove songs by Brahms. At 8:30 p.m. the YWCA veper service will be held in Wilson. The Reverend H. D. Anderson, father of Miss Sadia Anderson, a senior, will be guest speaker. Concluding veper will be a seniority service during which Wilco will suddenly be illuminated out of the darkness by the mystic lights of Japanese lanterns carried by the seniors as they give the clamped building to form the letter "M"

Completing the events for Friday, the coffee hour at 9:30 p.m. will be busy keeping accurate records for the gala fall weekend.

Three Members Of Faculty Retire After Many Years Of Service

Mrs. Bernice Varner, Dr. Clyde P. Shorts, and Mr. Rass Hansen, members of the Madison College faculty, are retiring this year with the 1958-59 session.

Bernice Reaney Varner, bair of the home economics department is retiring, with 30 years of service to Madison College. First in her plans for the future is a nation-wide visit to friends and relatives all over the U.S.

Mrs. Varner has lived at 30 Maple Avenue in Madison for 27 years. She was born in Lexington, Ill., but spent most of her life in Nashville, Tenn.

She earned her home economics diploma at Illinois Wesleyan University, and received her B. S. and M. A. degrees from George Peabody College. She has held various positions at White County High School in Sparta, Tenn., Ward-Belmont Junior College, New Jersey State Teachers College, George Peabody College, and the University of Tennessee.

Sandra Hepp from Fairfax. Sandra is a member of the sophomore class as she fills the office of reporter. Enrolled in Curriculum I, she is concentrating in social science. She is in Sigma Gamma Delta and is a member of the Baptist Student Union Council.

Carole Wolfe Elected As Harvest Festival Princess

Carole Wolfe was elected Harvest Festival Princess on Thursday, May 18. This party will be given by the faculty and dressy dress is in order.

Since arriving on campus, Carole has been a creditable member of the student body. An elementary major, she has been a creditable member of the student affairs. Among her many activities were cheerleading and membership in the Beta Club.

Theatricals With Alpha Gamma Delta

The Grand Council of Alpha Gamma Delta for women and the National Council of Theta Sigma Upsilon will be combined in an installation of Theta Sigma Upsilon with Alpha Gamma Delta at Madison on Friday, May 26.

The installation will be effective June 29, 1939, at the 23rd International Convention of Alpha Gamma Delta at Chicago, Ill. Staffed by a fulltime executive secretary and assistants appointed by Grand Council, Alpha Gamma Delta was founded May 30, 1894, at Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y., and admitted to National Panhellenic Conference in 1909. From the date of its founding Alpha Gamma Delta's growth has been steady and well placed, and the fact that it has been in scope and membership it has interpreted the life of two different countries at the university level. It is one of the 14 of the 21 NPC fraternities which is international.

Theta Sigma Upsilon, one of the former "education" sororities, is known as the youngest of the National Panhellenic Conference groups, having been founded at Los Angeles State Teachers College, Emporia, Kansas on March 24, 1917.

Alpha Gamma Delta was one of the first NPC fraternities to establish an altruistic project, beginning with summer camps for underprivileged children in 1919.

Alpha Gamma Delta adopted a new altruistic program in 1947, that with the rehabilitation of the cerebral palsey as part of the program of the society. There is a great need today for education and Adults. In addition to this international altruistic program, Alpha Gamma Delta maintains intercollegiate philanthropy of Theta Sigma Upsilon which in the rehabilitation of cerebral palsey children.

The Charter of Theta Sigma Upsilon was installed on the Madison College campus in 1942. The newly elected president of the local chapter is Marilyn Thomas, and the chapter activities is Miss Joan Cooper and Miss Mildred Jones.

Reach Your Goal

As exams draw near many of us feel that we are not ready to face them. However time does not stop and soon the moment will come to begin our last set of exams for this year.

It is vitally important that each of us keep calm at this time and prevent any actions which may cause regret in the future. As we face this task let us keep in mind that preparation, hard work and faith will enable us to reach our goal.

Miss Warlow Returns To Her Native Wales

Miss Nancy Warlow, exchange student who will begin her teaching at Madison for the 1958-1959 session, is now preparing to return to her native Wales. Miss Warlow's main concern as she prepares to leave is, "I'm not looking forward to leaving. The hardest thing I've had to do is go back to see my friends back home."

Scholarships Available

Two hundred fellowships for graduate study in 35 foreign countries will be offered by Madison for the 1961-62 academic year through the Institute of International Education for the academic year 1960-61.

The announcements today that applications for undergraduate fellowships will be available on May 1 and will be accepted until October 15, 1959.

The scholarships cover tuition and varying amounts of maintenance in universities in Austria, Denmark, France, Germany, Iran, Israel, Italy, the Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland, Canada, Brazil and Mexico. Students applying for Italian university awards or Austrian, Danish, French, German or Netherlands Government awards may apply for a Fulbright travel grant to supplement their scholarships. Two additional awards, offered by an American foundation, are for study in the Far East, South or Southeast Asia and Africa.

General eligibility requirements are United States citizenship, a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent before departure, good character, and preference is given to applicants under 35 years of age who have not had extensive foreign experience.

For further information and application forms persons who wish to go should get in touch with Dr. Woelfel, in Room 1.

MADISON MEN SPEAK

Ralph Grabill

The Madison men will play the faculty members in a softball game on Thursday, May 21st. The game should be a very interesting contest.

The Young Men's Christian Association sponsors the game, which is scheduled to begin at 1:15.

The men have received new ping pong equipment from the Athletic Association, which is expected to bring a lot of appreciation by taking care of it.

The men's Student Government Organization is responsible for all arrangements. The faculty will not have a complete team, as some of the players are away this week.

As a scene in the N. Y. Yankee dagn: One Yankee reading a newspaper says to another Yankee, "One year it's the Braves, the next year it's some- body else. I don't know why they can't get things settled in the National League." (From Sport Magazine)

"Well, goodbye for the summer months, and we all hope that you will have an enjoyable summer."

Campus Closeups

As a follow-up to a preceding column we would like to inform the readers that the Sheldon girls are looking for mothers, fathers, or godparents or something to make them feel at home. Miss Warlow will go back to Wales to her relatives, and prefers them to older students, as she has gained benefits from the experience of teaching.

Her visit here has been valuable in helping her understand the American way of life. She has stated an interest in major difference which she finds is in the credit grading system here. Miss Warlow says that the approach to art is universal in contrast to other conditions of the world, the attributes of a successful person, and the idiiosyncrasies of the male of the species; it's to have stayed up all night working and worry; "All right, gals, let's get to work," and knows she can depend on you. After all, as someone once said, "to know what to do is wisdom; to know how to do it is skill, to know to do it is service."

Miss Nancy Warlow

This is the ninth of Miss Warlow's articles and the last one. There will be very little difference between American art students and those of her country. She has been here long enough to get to know Americans as they are and prefers them to older students, as she has gained benefits from the experience of teaching.

Mrs. Varner came to Madison in 1923 as dean of women and associate professor of home economics. After serving as the head of the home economics department at the State Teachers College in Murfreesboro, Tenn. for two years, she returned to Madison. She is a charter member of the Virginia Dietetics Association, the Delta Kappa Delta, the Alpha Xi Delta, and the A.A.U.W., NEA, the American Dietetic Association, the American Home Economics Association and the National Committee on Child Welfare.

Mr. Hebdon, professor of psychology, has taught for 40 years at Madison. His interest and service have been devoted to recognition of the potential of an individual. He has been a member of many psychology organizations.

When Mr. Shor's return and reception, the sophomore class surpassed them all.

Sport's Flash

Once again we find ourselves at the end of another academic year. This time of the year, although greatly anticipated, is often met with some reluctance. Free from school activities, we have fulfilled the necessary requirements and are ready to take their place in the so-called "outside world." To each of you, we say not good-bye, but so-long. May you have all the success you deserve.

It hardly seems possible that a whole year has passed, and then on the other hand, it seems like years since September, when we first entered this school. Madison saw its largest freshman class this year. Also, the two new dormitories were welcome additions to the campus.

With the end of sports—the hockey team has seen better seasons, but regardless of the scores, it was fun. Next year the squad will miss the services of Martha Talman, Nancy Blunt, Betty Stone, Betty Snellings, Martha Talman, Frances Kibler, and Bert Amundson.

The Porpoise and Orchesa clubs both put on excellent shows this year. Both of these groups are losing the services of a number of seniors. Unfortunately there were no school-closing epidemics this season. The Asian flu bug decided to hold off until the new influenza is in full swing.

Four seniors have now fulfilled the necessary requirements and are ready to take their degrees at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver. He then spent three years at the California Institute of Technology where he obtained his Ph.D. in engineering. Currently employed at General Electric, he is head of the Electrical Engineering Department.

On Saturday, May 30th at 8:30 a.m. in the Bluestone dining hall, the class of '59 will be presented.

The motion picture, "Merry Andrews," will be shown at 1:00 p.m. Taking charge of this activity in charge of mikes, and lights will be Beverly McGinnie, Sharon Keith, and Ann Sillman, Betty Ann Hazel and Ann Huffman.

which will be given by the alumni association in Alumni Hall.

On Tuesday, May 30th at 8:30 a.m. the seniors and graduating sophomores will be honored with a breakfast in Alumni Hall. The program will be planned by Beverly McGinnie, Winnie Brown, and Ann Bland Pat- son. At twelve o'clock noon, Wilson will be the site of the day's exercise in which a review of all the past four wonderful class nights participated in by the class of '59 will be presented. Chairman for this presentation will be Betty Snellings and Sharon Keith with Betty Hamblet and Sally McG- Neel as co-chairmen. Betty Stone will be in charge of lights, and miles will be handled by Charlie Quayle.

Following this occurrence, the sen- ior picnic will be held back campus at 1:00 p.m. Taking charge of this are Ann Sillman, Betty Ann Hazel and Nita Anderson.

The notice picture, "Merry Andrews," will be shown in Wilson auditorium at 2:15 p.m. Following the movie, at 9:00 p.m., the senior dance will be held in Bluestone dining hall. The "star" dancers for the Madison College's "Teahouse and the Back- yard Moon" is "SOME ACTRESS."
