Sincerity

Intensions are those acts we contemplate doing and then disregard. There are good intentions and bad intentions, however, regardless of their nature, man seldom accomplishes to the fullest extent that which he sets out to do. How often we honestly intend to get a thing done without delay, but with meticulous care to find that somewhere, sometime, our initiative, incentive and sincerity have disappeared.

Sincerity is nothing more than honesty of mind and intentions; but what happens to our sincerity when our intentions lag behind? Is sincerity forgotten too? Are we accomplishing anything to speak of, if we lack sincerity in our individual responsibility to keep it neat and clean. This should be done by us for our convenience and pleasure. It is, therefore, our individual responsibility. Where do you stand? Are you in the multitude who always 'intend' yet never do, or are you one of the few who measure up to man's standards of civilized living in a socialized world. Sincerity—honesty of mind and intentions.

Responsibility

The Tea Room, located in Harrison Hall, is a place for all Madison students to buy snacks and relax for a minute or two. This privilege is one which all students, freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors, should consider and uphold to the best of their ability.

The Tea Room, under the direction of Miss Routbault, is a place for some of us, such as us, to take refuge. It is, if we lack sincerity in our individual responsibility to keep it neat and clean. This should be done by removing all trays and dishes from the tables, and returning them to the counter. We have no people here who do this, I am quite certain. The Tea Room is a place for us to refresh ourselves, as it were, to serve our convenience, and for those in charge to serve our needs.

In accordance with this procedure a call down will be issued for all those who fail to do their part. This is a new rule which was started last year by the Standards' Committee under the Student Council. If everyone does his or her share of returning used dishes and trays, the appropriate counter, the Tea Room will be a more enjoyable and pleasant place to visit.

Sincerely,

Eternal Optimist

I think that I shall never see a thing as lovely as a knee. A kind of a guppie. The attempt was unkind. A kind of a mosquito can bite if a knee which a mosquito can bite if it's sticking out just right. A knee which can get marked with a scorch from hitting table legs and bars. A knee which is fun to write with fluorescent ink that glows at night.

Letters to Editor

Dear Editor,

Many students on Madison's campus raise the cry that we "want to belong" and "to take part." In this wish is the hope which we wish to raise a few questions.

If Madison men wish to belong and to take part, why do they, FOR EXAMPLE:

1. Have to be forced into activities that are not their own peculiar choice?
2. Have to be begged into taking part in class night productions, against all connections with the freshman capping ceremony and refuse to be clapped with the other freshmen?
3. Would along with their classes in Wednesday assembly program.

There are questions to which the answers must be found. If any student knows them, let's have them!!!

Sincerely,

Helen Woolfolk, Sandra Day, Nancy Brown, Kim Kimmel, and Dutey Dutemple.

Campus Closups

It seems that a few rather odd things have happened on campus lately.

We understand that a senior biology major performed a Caesarian-section on a guinea. The attempt was unsuccessful, though, and both foal and family died.

What wife of a prominent Madison official was so, so, so unfortunate. She was having a hard time. She was not on her best form. She had just had a great many children, and she was not feeling well. She was not feeling well. She was not feeling well.

The Y.W.C.A. will sponsor a fund raising program this year on campus.

An organization composed of the United States and forty-one other countries, the W.U.S. helps meet the basic needs of universities and other institutions of higher learning and their students.

This organization endeavors to promote the sharing of knowledge and experience with solving outstanding practical university problems; it also fosters the development of international understanding and cooperation between the university communities of all nations.

The fight against poverty, hunger, and despair at colleges has today achieved a higher status than ever before. For the needs of every student, W.U.S. offered aid to refuges, provided scholarships, medicines, and funds; an attempt to set up a system for the operation of an international center offering rest cures. It is in Asia where the world is most disruped and weakened the physical and mental fiber of almost every student, W.U.S. offered aid to refugees, provided scholarships, medicines, and funds; an attempt to set up a system for the operation of an international center offering rest cures.

In the interest of mutual understanding and cooperation between the university communities of all nations, W.U.S. has established dormitories, and provided scholarships and loan funds.

The students who depend on World University Service for help depend on you. It is through the generosity of American colleges and universities that most of the projects in the World University Service program are realized.

Because these foreign students make sacrifices to attend institutions of higher learning, many colleges in the United States have raised funds to help these students.

Sara Webb is heading a committee which will plan the fund raising program for W.U.S. here at Madison.

Graduate Fellowships Available For Men

Danforth Graduate Fellowships program is one of the most outstanding of its kind, higher education a larger number of young men, thoroughly trained according to highest scholarly standards, who are aware of the place of their responsibilities in teaching and counseling.

Appointment is given annually to men preparing for college teaching who, at the time of applying, have had no graduate study. Every accredited college in the U.S.A. is invited to nominate one candidate, through the Liaison Officer, for the appointment as Danforth Fellow, not to exceed the number less than the number of years of age.

Selection is made on the basis of outstanding academic ability, personality congenial to the classroom, and liberal character, including special inquiry within the Christian tradition, interest in and ability to teach in any academic discipline common to the undergraduate college. Men in the natural and biological sciences and in the social sciences are particularly encouraged to apply.

The appointment is for one year, with expectation of annual renewal through the years of graduate study, if the candidate remains in distinguished and the relationship proves mutually agreeable.

The Danforth Foundation offers financial assistance to its Fellows according to individual need, limiting the annual maximum grant to $1,500 plus tuition and fees required of all graduate students, for the single man; and $2,000 plus tuition and fees required of all graduate students, for the married man, with an additional stipend of $500 for each child.

For further information, see the notice posted in the bulletin board outside of Dr. Tolbert's office. The Liaison Officer is Dr. Tolbert.
October 3 found the junior and freshmen physical education majors and minors going out to College Camp for a few hours of fun and laughter which included touch football, eating, singing and playing "who-done-it" games. The "majors" were accompanied by the physical education staff who took part in the wild 45 minute game of football. Official for the event were Cindy, Nicky and Jeri. The game didn't exactly go to the dogs, but perhaps I should add that they seemed to be the only ones who knew what they were doing.

The cutting was sponsored by the Mercury Club, a professional club composed of physical education majors and minors. The club has several events coming up that will prove to be of interest to the entire student body. However, definite arrangements have not been made concerning the events.

The extramural hockey team seems to be shaping up just fine. Miss Soares plans to have the team practice against some other Madison students Saturday, October 10. There should be plenty of interesting on the board for players so why not come out and take a look view of what the team will look like. Game time is 2:00 behind Johnston — so see you there.

An unusual amount of interest is being shown in archery, as Peggy Dale and Brenda Curry had 22 girls show up for the sport. Also the tennis courts have been quite crowded as Linda Hamsra is giving instructions for beginners and allowing the more experienced players to brush up on their skills. Ann Clark would like to see more girls participating in intramural hockey. It's not too late to participate in these intramural activities. These sports, along with archery, are open to all students willing to take advantage of this opportunity by going out for the sport of your choice.

Until the next time remember — "No force is so strong as that of an idea whose time has come." — Hugo.

Mademoiselle Contest

Mademoiselle magazine is now accepting applications from undergraduate women for membership in its 1959-60 College Board.

A girl who is accepted on the College Board will do one assignment during the college year designed to prepare her for a career in the fashion field. The assignment will involve research affecting beauty and fashion, individual judgment, and technical and creative talents. For her assignment a College Board member will write a feature about life on her campus, or submit art work, fashion features or promotion ideas for possible use in Mademoiselle.

College Board members, who count on among the top ten on the assignment, will attend a Madison's Contest Orientation, and will be brought to New York next June to help with editorial projects in the August college issue. They will be paid a regular salary for their month's work, plus round-trip transportation to New York City.

In New York each guest editor interviews a celebrity in her chosen field, visits fashion workrooms and some of the larger advertising agencies, besides working daily with the editor to whom she is assigned.

November 20 is the deadline for applying for College Board membership. Successful candidates will be notified by the College Board before New Year's.

Pardon Our Mistake — You Student Teachers

A luncheon is extended to those seniors who were unavailably omitted from last week's article on student teaching.

Eight seniors are presently doing their practice teaching in the Antelope Seger campus school. Dorothy Johns is in teaching in the first grade and Kath society is in teaching in the second grade. Practicing teaching in the senior grades are Kaye Francois Johnson and Alice T. Thomas.

Mrs. Geraldine Smith and Mrs. McPherson are conducting the third grade children. Teaching the fourth grade are Mrs. Nancy Vork and Martha Robert. Jackie Peurry and Carol Shimpshire will be practicing teaching in the fifth grade.

"Doing his student teaching at Oldham County High School is Edward Turner. Student teaching is performed for an entire semester. This is because one can corner it. It is for sale in the market place of life for anyone who is willing to pay the price. He gives it to others who dote this same measure of tolerance for himself."

"I guess we 'just want to be happy," was Diane Wirth's explanation for her selection of a vocation. Diane, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Paul Wirth of Falls Church, was a sophomore at Madison last year. For years she had dreamed of being an editor-lucious, and she properly selected courses in high school and college such as psychology, sociology, speech, home economics, and French which would enable her to understand and serve people.

During her sophomore year at Madison, she sent in an application to Mademoiselle's College Board. After a discerning interview in Washington (selection is one in 50) she was flown to Kansas City for final selection. Accepted by the club, she ran a 5 week accelerated training course held at Kansas City where grades had to average in the 90's. Having passed the final test she was assigned regular flight duty.

She is presently stationed in Kansas City, Missouri, flying back and forth to Washington, D. C. By Christmas she hopes to be flying in jets. Diane's dreams did truly reach the sky.
