Five Foreign Countries Represented On Campus

This year on Madison's campus there are five students from foreign countries. They are Nahid Bejati and Pouneh Moghadam from Iran, Jangtis Majer from Hungary, Sonja Weidemann from Denmark, and Alicia Carboni from Argentina.

Nahid Bejati, known to her friends as Nini, has undertaken a double major in art and home economics. She is a member of the junior class and belongs to Orchesis and German Club. Being an art major, Nini industriously designs and makes all her own slacks. She studied tennis for four years and has been a very proficient dancer.- She enjoys basketball, swimming, and horseback riding.

Jangtis Majer, a sophomore, is in the two year business course. Jangtis was a representative in track and field during her junior and senior years in high school. Students who are majoring in languages are counted among the students who are studying languages.

Value Of Time

Time changes everything. How often have we heard the expression, "This is just not the time nor place to discuss that..." When is the time? How are you using your time?

To value is to cherish or to hold dear. Truly, we do this with the dust in the nearby trash can.

The word "vesper" has many significant meanings and connotations. It is often associated with evening or sunset, and is a time for reflection and worship. Vespers is a practice observed by many religions, where prayers and reflections are offered as a way of connecting with a higher power.

Cupid Scores

Followed in a line of three Madison girls that have become either engaged, married, or married recently. Three of their classmates, Susan Doane, Elizabeth Winters, and Jane Chisholm, have been engaged.

The cat was let out of the bag one day, we presume that the young lady lost.

Letter To Editor

I was tempted to ignore last week's letter concerning men students after noting its being in bad taste. It would seem that college students would not have to depend on numbers for correctness.

Vesper

Vespertime—when God and man commune as friend with friend.

Stratford Players Present First Play

Many talented newcomers as well as old members of the Stratford Players will present the first play of this season on November 20 and 21. The play selected is "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder, and it is nationally known as a brilliant piece of art composed of a large cast.

Stratford members are working diligently on this first opening under the direction of Dr. Mary E. Latimer, adviser.

Although many plans have been set up, the casting by Dr. Latimer and officers of the club has not yet been completed. As usual, the play will be free of admission to the students and faculty.

Ballet Film Slated For State Theatre

American audiences will be offered for the first time an opportunity to witness a complete evening of ballet and film performance by the Bolshoi Ballet group of Moscow when the Rank Organization displays "The Bolshoi Ballet." With prima ballets Galina Ulanova, will have its first public performance on October 21 and 22 at the State Theatre.

Recognized by critics throughout the world as a hallmark by which all other ballet groups must be judged, "The Bolshoi Ballet" will be shown at 8:00 P. M. only on Wednesday and Thursday, October 21 and 22 at the State Theater, Harrisonburg, Va.

Omar Khayyám writes a new jingle

Old Omar has come up with another corker of a couplet. Freely translated from the Persian:

"It's what's up front that counts
If it hasn't got it there it hasn't got it"

True, the lines don't scan. But what do you expect from a tent-maker—the perfect rhyme of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should?"

We'll admit that something may have been lost in the translation. But when it comes to Winston, nothing is lost in the translation of rich, good tobacco taste. That's because up front of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should!"

Winston is designed to taste good. Or, as Omar puts it:

"Anything but a substandard cigarette"

Having lit, flicks off. Then you draw on it, and having lit again, draws on it, and having lit so forth. That's because up front of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should!"

With Filter-Blend up front, Winston's got what counts!

October 10 the Purpoe, Fencing and Orchesis clubs put on demonstrations for the benefit of the new students and anyone else interested in attending. These demonstrations are put on with the hope that they will spur some interest in the club's activities. For those of you who are interested in becoming a member of one of these clubs, listen for the announcement of try-out dates.

In the practice game for the hockey team this past Saturday Miss Soares was somewhat disappointed in the team's ability to score. The team carries the ball down field with success but once the goal is in range they find themselves unable to get around the opposing team's defense to score. It is hoped that this situation can soon be changed as practice this week will be devoted mainly towards correcting this.

Saturday, October 17, the extramural team will have its first actual game of the season. The first team will take on the "Campus Characters", a team from Roanoke. (Don't let the name fool you—these women play a highly skilled brand of hockey.) The "Maines" (yes, you read that correctly) will be playing against the "Leg"s. The "Leg"s are one of the top teams in the state and are expected to be a formidable challenge for the "Maines". The game time is at 3:00 for the first game and 4:00 for the second.

The tennis tournament was held this week and results of the tournament will be in the next edition of the BREEZE. Also an archery tournament is to be held next week. If you are interested get in touch with Peggy Dar or watch for sign-up sheets in the dorm.

To all Dodger fans I extend my heartfelt congratulations. To all White Sox fans I extend my deepest sympathies and say better dorm.

Archery tournament is to be held next week. If you are interested contact the Shenandoah Club. Game time is at 3:00 for the first game and 4:00 for the second.

The Honors Council, headed by Bert Britts, has 522 new members. All new students signed their pledge cards in the chapel on Monday.
