Wilson Fourth Floor To Be Completed

The contract has been let for the furnishing of three rooms on the fourth floor of Wilson Building, according to President E. P. Dickey this week.

One of the rooms will be for the use of the Student Government Association. The present Student Government executives and the new officers of Wilson will house the new recording equipment. Plans for the use of the other two rooms on the fourth floor have not yet been announced.

Heath, President, Slaughters, Faculty Sponsor; Sanders' Daughter, Mascot

With the election of Hannah Heath as president, the Freshman class has taken over and will hold Friday last in Wilson Auditorium. June Peace, president of the Junior class, was elected at the presid-ent.

Other officers elected were: vice-Presi-dent, Frances Agnew; secre-tary, Sally Holmes; treasurer, Dor-othy L. Brown; clerk, Michael Turner; business manager, Frances Thackston; and reporter, Barbara Dick. The Freshman Class is under the guidance of the Class Council, and the pro-ceeds from the Freshman dance will be donated to the Student Council.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Slaughter were the first to arrive in "the Big Sig-tor" of the Freshman class while the cheerleader was the small daughter of Mr. Landers Sanders.

Moonstruck

Tonight at midnight there will erupt a supermoon, the closest in 17 years. The moon will be full, and the earth will pass directly between the sun and the moon as the moon completes its elliptical orbit around the sun, the moon and the earth. The moon will be the closest to the earth it will be for the next couple of years.

MAYBE IT'S JUST THAT HE'S BASHFUL, or perhaps he needs a lesson in the gentle art of winning friends and influencing people, but Hollywood composer and silent star Manly Hall is a quiet man who was on board a liner on which they were traveling several celebrities. He happened along while some reporters were there, and they asked him to please introduce to them a certain young lady. "All through this trip," he said, "I've tried to get up courage to say 'Hello,' but I haven't been able to." The reporter looked, and saw that the girl was Mere Oberon; they looked back, and saw that Manly, no noisy youth he, it was ——Dale Carnegie!

Lewisly Speaking

By Emily Lewis

"We're here because the fellows want to be, and oh what a place it is. The last tearful goodbye and wave of the hand seems ages ago now, and yet it was only two days ago. But we probably doubt a world all its own and has both its ups and downs as every other world has.

"There are always two downs for every one up, or as the saying goes, if you're not standing on the summit, you're falling down the slope. For instance, no feeling on earth can be quite so empty as an empty mailbox or finding your dog has gone to the dogs.

"So another thing becomes clear when you're caught in the act. Ask six certain seniors how they felt last Sunday when they were caught in one of their many noisy moments in a freshman dormitory.

"At first you wonder if your head is your own, that includes a vulnerability for mutual assistance signed in some small way. The old worry seems ages upon ages ago and yet only the other day. The voice of experience is gone, it is believed the French will cooperate with these officers, and make this the best year round. The aimless rambling of a third of the six seniors' Madisons was believed to have ready when the war began or been destroyed.

"Early last week the long-awaited German counterattack was made on the Western Front. As had been planned, the French fell back on a prepared line of resistance to advance the Marne Line. Now that Poland has been invaded, it is believed the French will allow the German army to take the "Mission" — the more costly and move the time more extensively, because the Marne is supposed to be the strongest defensive line in the world. The aimless rambling of a third of the six seniors' Madisons was believed to have ready when the war began or been destroyed.

V. M. I. Commanders To Play At Senior - Soph Opens

Halloween in the Time of Great Decorations, Chaperones Listed

Beck grin, disguised in Halloween decorations, will be the area of the senior-sophomore classes at the V. M. I. tomorrow evening. The dances, which will be attended by Seniors and Sophomores, will be from 8:30 to 12:00, with the V. M. I. Commanders furnishing the music. Refreshments will be supplied by the Standard Committee during the intermission.

In the resolving line will be Ian Craig, chairman of the social committee, with Ann Batson, Polly Manley, Marion Crumley, Evelyn Jeffries and Marguerite Bell.

Chaperones will include W. R. P. B. Duke, Mrs. Anne B. Cook, Dr. and Mrs. Henry A. Converse, Miss Edythe Schneider, Madame Madeline Carroll, Miss Madison, Now for a word from Miss Schneider.

"The girls are such friendly and affable that I just love it here," began Miss Schneider very enthusiastically. "Yet, she coyly added, "I'm North Carolina and still my favorite state."

Miss Schneider is originally from Madison, Kentucky, where she has been traveling and studying. Miss Schneider was a student at the Chicago Conservatory. At Columbus, during last summer Miss Schneider worked with the known artist, Frank L. Powers, and each morning broadcast with Jesse Crawford over WWJ, Miss Schneider did extra work for N.B.C.

In Miss Schneider's dissolution of Madison, she assumed more than pleased with the responses obtained when she leads the singing in chapel. "I never realized that the girls enjoyed singing so much. It thrills me to hear this," happily responded Miss Schneider.

While in New York this summer, Miss Schneider spent several times in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, and just this past Sunday afternoon Miss Schneider who heads the Madeline Carroll's organization had this very same pleasure.

"My favorite in opera is Kirsten Flagstad; she is perfect and, according to the critics, she has never been surpassed for several minutes. Miss Schneider continued to praise her favorite opera star."

At Woman's College, University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, Miss Schneider did extra work with the oral and choral societies. However, Miss Schneider well-versed in a sweep of aeronautics; however, she admits that she would rather not hear the Blue Danube and similar songs set to jazz.

"I am happy to find out that Madison has so many students eager to learn more music," volunteered Miss Schneider as she was locking her office door and ridding it a call. "Already Miss Schneider has been selected as one of the sponsors of a madrigal society, this year."

Varsity Hockey Squad Plays in State Tournament

35 Girls Begin Training to Help Be at William and Mary

With 35 girls in the line-up for daily practice, the varsity hockey squad entered into rigid training this week, adopting rules and standards to which each member pledged herself. Out of these 35 approximately 13 first string players and four substitutes will be selected to attend the Virginia State Hockey Tournament at William and Mary College, William Town, page third and fourth. The purple and gold eleven will leave the college on November first, however, in order to play off a schedule match with the William and Mary hockey team before the tournament proper begins on Friday, the third.

The Williamsburg girls expect to be hostesses to several colleges, including, besides Madison, Mary Washington, Holland, Sweet Briar, Palarks Hall Junior College, Mary Baldwin, Westhampton, W. and M. Extension schools, and several alumni squads. From among these groups, the local team will probably be selected an eleven for Saturday and one other team. Games will be played on Friday morning and afternoon, and on Saturday morning, among the different colleges, while on Saturday afternoon the entire college and A and B will play their customary exhibition game. These teams are composed of the best state hockey players, selected by various coaches and officials, from observant minds forming the first day of and a half of the tournament.
