He had found it already, in a certain sense-in so far as man may find treasure trove in the rich abundance of a woman's love; for Lillias loved him, and Lillias' heart was a gold mine in itself.

She turned and went back into the house, with the glistening dew of tears upon her cheek and a mournful quiver upon her lip.

"How silly I am !" she murmured to herself. "It will be a year or two at the furthest, and he has much more to endure than L And Lillias repined at the fate assigned to her in the great play-bill of the world. It was hard to realize the truth of the blind poet's words, that life. Monday, April 22nd, 1872. So Henry Dalmayne went to London, and Lillias stayed behind to bear the separation as best she might "Engaged, eh?" growled old Mr. Peckham, Henry's maternal uncle, whose skin had turned yellow with the reflection of much gold, and whose heart was harder than the marble of which his mansion was built. "Nephew, you're a fool! Engaged at two and twenty !"

But, Uncle Ralph, she is the sweetest girl you ever saw !"

"Sweetest girl! Sweetest fiddlesticks !" roared out the irate old gentleman. "There, there, don't talk sentiment to me. I've no patience with it.' Henry was silent. The glitter of the rescoed ceilings-the flash of silver and cut glass-the exquisite aroma of the rare red wine, and the velvet flush haved very ill. "Except that Lilly Rayof hothouse peaches, became distasteful to him all at once. Uncle Peckham had promised to make his fortune for him -but Henry was not at all sure that he wanted his fortune much on these terms: One glance, one smile from Lillias-were they not worth all these hollow pageantries?"

"Here," said Uncle Ralph, slinging a eard across the table. "I've got you an invitation to Lady Bruce's party tonight. You'll meet some people there, that are worth the knowing !" Henry Dalmayne hesitated; it was

Few men who handle horses give proper attention to the feet and legs. Especially is this the case on farms.---Much time is spent of a morning in rubbing, brushing and smoothing the hair on the sides and hips, but at no time are the feet examined and properly cared for training to liew Now, be it known that the feet of a horse require more care than the body. They need ten times as much, for in one respect, they are almost the entire horse. All the grooming that can be done won't avail anything if the horse is forced to stand where his feet become disordered, and the legs will get badly out of fix; and with bad less and bad feet, there is not much else of the horse worth anything. Stable prisons are generally terribly severe on the feet and legs of horses; and unless these buildings, can afford a dry room. where a horse can walk around, lie down, or roll over, they are not half so healthy and comfortable to the horse as the pasture, and should be avoided by all good hostlers in the country.

In addition to the feed from the family; pail, the man purchased and fed the hog over eleven dollars worth of corn, paid three dollars to rescue him from the pound, and killed him the other day, to find that he had a hundred and eighty pounds of pork for twenty-three dollars. As dressed hogs sell for five cents per pound on the street, and this cost over twelve, the citizen wants Greeley to tell him where the profit comes in. The philosopher would probably say that the pleasure taken in supplying the porker's wants and watching his growth was sufficient, compensation for the additional expense.

THE RESULT IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The first fight has resulted in an administration victory. Leading Repub lican papers professedly regard it as an evidence of the power and hold of the administration upon popular feeling and sympathy. They say that the great name of Grant has all its old influence, and that this result presages distinctly and certainly their success next 'e m. We are much inclined to esteem their utterances disingenuous, and to believe that their rejoicing is but assumed to hide the dread apprehension with which the Cincinnati Convention inspires, them.

This Convention, as the days go by, is becoming more and more of grand and imposing proportions. It attracts the earnest and attentive eyes of all in the land, who have left in their bosoms but a spark of that feeling of pure patriotism which elevates country above party; and who dare to believe that the personal good of even Gen. Grant must stand aside, when great momentous interests are involved. When personal and official purity in the administration of this great government is even questioned-and when its great head is openly charged with guilty knowledge of corrupt practices and dishonoring jobbery, one of two things is inevitably certain: either the body of the people will pause and seriously dent. ponder, or else the nation is doomed to a speedy destruction.

Partizan papers may choose to attribute the bitter unfriendliness of such tried Republicans as Trumbull, Schurz and Summer, to mere personal embitterment; they may question their motives, and in the end defend from the grave charges they prefer, through the questionable instrumentality of a friendly Senate or House committed; but the people, unwedded now from the wild infatuation they once felt for him they termed "the Saviour of their country," will not believe that personal antagonism alone could induce hostility. so bold and so relentless as the last few months have exhibited.

They know how the scourge of war bred wide-spread demoralization, and how its mighty impress lingers yet to deform in its every ramification our national and individual life. In fact, the sorest evil with which this great ca-

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

In the County Court of Rockingham County, March Term, 1872.

The following memorial appertain-ing to the life and death of WM. McK. WARTMANN, was reported by Wm. B. Compton, A. M. Newman, Wm. H. Effinger and J. N. Liggett Committee appointed by the Court at the February irm:

"That WM. McK. WARTMANN, Clerk of the County Court of Rockingham County, and Commissioner in Chancery, was a capable, efficient and courteous officer, and the Court and Bar recog-nize most sensibly, the great loss which they sustain in the death of one so competent to fulfill the important duties connected with the various offices of which the deceased was an incumbent. That in his death, society has been deprived of a member who had expend-ed much of his life in labor to advance the public weal. A valuable citizen and capable public servant, his death is mourned as an irreparable calamity: In view of this dispensation, the Court and the Bar of Rockingham County, express their deepest sympa-thy with the family of the deceased, and have entered the foregoing testimonial of the worth of WM. McK. WARTMANN, on the rolls of the Court. Ordered further, That this memorial be published in the news papers of the Town of Harrisonburg, and a copy be furnished the family of the deceased. A copy from the minutes. Teste: ele diade to J. T. LOGAN, Clerk.

ARTHUR ST. CLATR SPRINKEL Was & Master Mason in high standing in this Lodge; earnestly attached to the fra-ternity and zealous in the promotion of its success and promerity. As a citizen, from his early youth to the day when he was stricken down with a fatal disease, he was emphati-cally a "toiler" in the world, though of feeble body and delicate constitution. In firm will and invincible energy he triumphed over both; and in the workshop, on the farm, and in the resonsible official position of Clerk of the Circuit and County Courts of Rockingham he was alike distinguished for his tireless industry and sagacious man-agement. His example in this regard is commended to all as worthy of emu-Intion. -TOTAL

Standing within the sombre shadows of the grave and surrounded by the draped symbols of mourning, we in-voke each member of the Order to re-fleet what a transient, fleeting existence is that of earth; how certain is the vis tation of death, and how indispensible it is that, he should keep his shield burnished and his record fair, as a worker in the Temple to the end that, when his summons too comes "to join the innumerable caravan" moving on through the realms of eternity, his soul may feal no fear, but inspired by the teachings of the Masonic creed, and illuminated by, the rays of Christian hope, be lifted though faith as high as Heaven: molt I.

Further, Resolved, That a copy this memorial be presented to the fam-ily of the deceased, with an expression of the profoundest sympathy of the members of this Lodge in their bereavement.

That the usual badge of mourning be worn for the usual length of time by the brethren of the Lodge, in respect to the memory of the deceased.

Teste: MARRIED.

And so among the great Republican, family, embracing of necessity many true and honest men, there has been generated decided dissatisfaction .---Hence, this Cincinnati Convention has grown in importance until now it is looked to as possibly able to wrest victory from the trained legions that have been so long a wall of protection to their imperial chief. Each houradds to its strength. As we understand this defeat in New Hampshire, it is a positive blessing, and has made impotent the gravest peril to which the Convention in Cincinnati was exposed. A democratic success would, to the almost famished Democratic party, have seemed a certain token that they, single-handed, could win in the great No vember struggle. The clarion voice vember struggle. The clarion voice ed on the passage of the bill as it came of the unterrified Voorhees and men from the Senate; it was passed by 86 of like stamp, would have called the masses to a certain defeat in Noverber; and the great party that only sleeps now would have been bidden to a fruitless and fatal encounter. In its own strength it is powerless; and so, as the New Hampshire result breeds no pear at the bar of the House, when refalse hopes with the democracy and masses them with the Cincinnati noniinees and party, we can but believe it

LEGISLATIVE .- The House has passed a bill incorporating the Shenandoah River Boom and Dam Improvement company.

A bill has been placed in the calandar to reorganize the militia of the State, and to repeal existing laws concerning the same, with an amendment.

The following special orders were fixed for Tuesday, at 1 o'clock: Senate bill appropriating the public revenue for the fiscal year 1871; for Wednes day at the same hour, Senate bill to provide for the equitable adjustment of debts contracted prior to the 10th day of April, 1865.

On Monday, at 1 o'clock, the Senate in conjunction with the House of Delegates, proceeded to execute the joint order of the day, being the election of a judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of the Hon. W. T. Joynes.

Mr. Hundley nominated Wood Bouldin, Esq., of Charlotte.

Mr. Stevens (Republican) nominated J. B. Sener, of Fredericksburg, and proceeded to eulogize him in glowing terms.

Mr. Massey (also Republican) advised Mr. Stevens to stick to Mr. Sener, and said that he intended to support him, as he (Massey) was in doub where Mr. Thomas stood. He had heard that that gentleman was opposed to Grant, and he could not therefore hold him to be a good Republican. On joint ballot Bouldin received 99 votes; Thomas, 17; and Sener 3. The acting President declared Mr. Bouldin duly elected.

Mr. Neale offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five to investigate the circumstances of the difficulty hetween Messis. Deneale and Riddlebarger, and report to the House. The Land Scrip bill being resumed, Mr. P. J. Carter's amendment was rejected.

R. H. Wilson.

Mr. Fitzgerald offered a substitute in favor of Richmond College, Roanoke College, Hampden Sidney College and Hampton Normal Institute, Mr. Taliaferro moved to strike out Hampden Sidney, which was agreed

Mr. Hill withdrew the University of Virginia from the contest, and said he would surrender in behali of the Preston Olin Institute. Mr. Poage did the same for the M.Iitary Institute. Mr. Fitzgerald then withdrew his substitute. The pending question being orderayes to 19 noes.

RELEASED ON BAIL Mr. Daniel, from the special com-Mr. Daniel, from the special com-mittee, offered a resolution authoriz-ing the Sergeant-at-Arms to release Messrs. Deneale and Riddlebarger on bail in the sum of $5,000 each to apquired, to answer the action of the House, in the matter. Adopted.

On Friday, Mr. Deneale presented the report of the committee appointed to investigate the breach of privilege by Messrs. Deneale and Riddlebarger: The committee report that, while they believe no disrespect to the House was meant by either of the members named, the effect was to cause a breach of good order and decorum. They therefore recommend that the members be brought to the bar of the House and required to apologize; in default of which they shall be reprimanded by the Speaker.

Mr. Matthew moved as a substitute that as, in the judgment of the committee, no disrespect to the House was intended, the offending members, should be released from custody and restored to their rights and privileges. er.

The substitute was adopted, and the report as amended agreed to.

RICHMOND, VA., March 18 .- The bill recently passed by the General Assembly providing for resumption of the payment of interest on the public debt became a law to-day without the approval of the Governor. Under this act holders of Virginia bonds will be entitled to receive four per cent. interest annually on consols and four per cent. on two-thirds of the unfounded bonds. Those presenting coupons for the collection of interest will be held as acquiescing in the repeal of the provision of the funding bill making coupons receivable for taxes and other de mands due the State. Virginia has paid no interest on her debt since January, 1870, when only one per cent." was paid.

PARIS, March 18 .-- It is rumored Gen. Bourbaki has sent a challenge to Marshal Baraguay D'Hilliers. The republican left in the Assembly will not oppose the war estimates as agreed upon by President Thiers and the budget committee. A deputy made a speech in the Assembly yesterday in which he argued that France needed an army of 1,200,000 men to keed peace with the neighboring powers. SPECIAL COURT OF APPEALS .- The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, in accordance with the provisions of an act recently passed by the General Assembly, creating a special Court of Appeals, has appointed Judge G. A. Wingheld, of this Circuit, Judge Wm. McLaughini, of the Lexington Circuit and Judge W. S. Barton, of the Fredericksburg Circuit, to constitute the Court Lynch. News.

Sensible change, Dead men tell no tales : if they did anathe WATCHES, CLOCKS & JEWELRY,

Dead men tell no tales : if they did another mas against the depleting lancet, the drastic purge, and the terrible salivants of the masteria medica, would arise from every graveyard. The matto of modern medical science is 'Persever and Regulate, and Detroy' and no remedy in our days is so in harmony with this philanthropic logic as DR. WAIRER'S VINEGAN BIT-TERS. In this powerful yot harmless restorative, dis-pepsis, billious.complaints, and all the diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and newsels are unter su jurgis-table antidote. REPAIRED AND WARRANTED.
