TRIP IS VERY REWARDING AND ENJOYABLE FOR TWO COLLEGE REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. John and Mrs. Johnson were among the committee to represent the department of the College at a conference of the Teachers College of the Atlantic States in New York last week. Having arrived Thursday night, the two arrived in New York during the day Thursday. "The temperature" explained, John and Mrs. Johnson were below the day we arrived but this was unusual for New York City.

Mr. John was a member of a number of committees and outlined a specific course for general science. This committee advocates one-half year's work as Education. It is the result of the efforts of the schools, irrespective of the work of the long. This is intended to be a foundation for all work in teacher training.

Mr. Logan was very gracious and called the plans when not busy. They were "Famous of Famous" and "Famous of Famous". It was an interesting show and sponsored by Wahnsee Asper. Mr. Logan is a member of the committee which is sponsoring Eva Le Gallienne. The Americans and Europeans are being shown. Mr. Logan and Mrs. Johnson were fortunate enough to be able to see "The Master Builders" of the company.

The two arrived in Elkton on their return trip at five o'clock Sunday morning and I am looking forward to find an immediate means of transport to the city.

COLORFUL COZY NOOK PLANNED BY W. W.

A wicker desk, a wicker table, wicker chairs, wicker planters, wicker furniture! Just the place to work and rest. This room is planned by W. W. to have the appearance of a wicker room. The furniture is being planned by Eva Le Gallienne. The Americans and Europeans are being shown. Mr. Logan and Mrs. Johnson were fortunate enough to be able to see "The Master Builders" of the company.

Are Castle Dreams Becoming Real

"The dream that came true" would be an appropriate title for the new student housing. It is a dream that has been in the thinking of the students for some time. The new dormitory is now under construction and is expected to be completed by next fall. The students are looking forward to the new facilities with great interest.

GREAT TIMES FOR THE RADFORD BAND

On February 18th, the Radford College band will take a trip to the Charleston, S.C. area to perform at the Charleston Music Festival. The band has been preparing for this trip for several weeks and is looking forward to it with great excitement.

KINDERGARTEN BAND PLAYS IN CHAPEL

It is quite unusual for the student body to have an orchestra at their disposal. The first concert of the year was held in the chapel of the school on February 15th. The band members wore their usual orange and black uniforms and played a variety of music for the students and guests in attendance.

HARDABRIDGE BOWS TO T. H. C.

Saturday Night with 25-1 Count

Said to be one of the best performances ever exhibited by the Radford band, the concert was held in the Radford High School auditorium. The program included a variety of songs and dances, and was enjoyed by all who attended.

LOCAL TEAM PLAYS EXCELLENT BASKETBALL SHOT FROM START TO FINISH

The basketball game was a thrilling experience for all who attended. The Radford team played with great skill and precision, and the Radford fans were delighted with the performance.

The game was played on the Radford High School and started at 8:00 p.m. The first half of the game was a close contest, but Radford gained the lead in the second half and held on to win.

HINSBURG BOWS TO T. H. C.

Saturday Night with 25-1 Count

FREDERICKSBURG BOWS TO T. H. C.

Saturday Night with 25-1 Count

The game was played on the Fredericksburg High School and started at 8:00 p.m. The first half of the game was a close contest, but Fredericksburg gained the lead in the second half and held on to win.

THREE OF POSTURE DAY

Why are these duck feet on the walk? Perfect Posture Prevents Pain. That amusing thing—Poor Posture. Eventually, why not me? Good Pos- ture. What does this all mean.

Well, on Friday, physical ed. class, number one after a visit to a Perfect Posture Day. The day started by footprints on the walls of the cam- pus. Cards adorned all the tables with such inscriptions as "Make your posture 99% pure."

Postures appeared a demonstrating postures and every one could be seeing up to and looking in the mir- ror to see just how she looked. There was a mirror at shoulder height to reflect the position of the shoulders. A full-length mirror gave a person a complete impression of how a foot mirror reflected the foot estra- tion.

Chapel program was in accord with the day. It started with a song in the class, "Halfa’s Song," sung in the time of "Halfa’s Room."

At Lor- raine Gentry read on the end of Perfect Posture, Virginia Willis recited it. The fol- lowing walls were displayed: lunch back, March Cockerill; easy back, Philip Vadon; after noon sitting, Laramie, Martin, Giling head, Corinna Car- rol, demonstrating shades, Edwin Lamb- ert, pivot too, Easy Loan; arbuls, stride, W. Doou, waging walk, Harri. Spencer, Wilmot Dano, Lorraine Ga- xen.

THE COTTAGE PLAN
By Ona Bart Avery

FIRST YEAR
When the course will not need to be cleared but six or a dozen, work for this group will be the housekeeping and serving, sewing, and home nursing. This group will require a great deal more help from the instructor.

The living room can be used for a lecture room, leaving the black-board room. (This to be stored in the future.) The living room will be a conference room. Each of the people should be able to give an account of what has been done by themselves and other members of the family.

THE HOME STORE

The Home Store is a highly successful venture. This store is to be self-supporting and to have in stock all the necessities of life. The stock is to be purchased at the lowest possible prices and sold at cost. The store is to be operated by the students under the supervision of the instructor. The store is to be located in the basement of the dormitory building. The store is to be open from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., Monday through Saturday.
