Purple Pride shines all day and night

The Marching Royal Dukes still bring the house down; the JMU Fight Song and the crunch of helmets seem louder. And the Purple Pride is evident – but all seem grander in the upgraded Bridgeforth Stadium. JMU Nation filled the stadium at Homecoming and cheered the football team on to a 31–7 victory over the Richmond Spiders. After the game, lights from the stadium twinkled on New-man Lake as alumni celebrated the JMU Alumni Association’s 100th birthday. Have you been to a game lately? If not, you’re missing the party.
