Mr. Logan Goes To Chicago

Mr. Logan, attended the annual meeting of the National Council of English Teachers held in Chicago from November 24 to 26.

Two of the most significant discussions were those centering upon "Objection to Texts in Literature" and upon "Special Qualifications and Requirements of a Teacher of English." In these and in other sessions, the report of the committee may be found.

"Only a few of the older English teachers may remember," Mr. Logan said, "the thrill of the first class of students graduating from the English department at the University of Wisconsin." The 1910 class was mentioned, and the new English curriculum presented to that class.

The sympathy of the student body was extended to Kathleen Perry, who has been called to her home

Mr. Logan had the pleasure of being chosen as one of the members of the 1910 class who was present at the meeting.

"While I was there," he said, "I had the pleasure of meeting some of the members of the class who were present at the meeting, and of hearing them speak of their experiences in the class."

And if I suggested their being referees and you attacked me, wouldn't I feel rather guilty? So I shall most certainly not do such a thing. On the other hand, if I were to suggest your inviting them up as speakers, and they were hit by such an idea, I am sure I would feel absolutely guilty. And if I suggested their being referees and you attacked me, I am sure I would feel rather guilty. So I shall most certainly not do such a thing.
SENIOR SONG WRITTEN

Senior songs written will be used by future classes at H. O. S. of the class of 1928. It is the fourth year? Here is another: We who have learned about the art of instructing and will have to begin again, to it the vision gained by loftiness.

The God whom we adore,
Answering the sheep skin's call.

Margaret Knes, Lucy Davis, "Smiley" and "W" have had a secret wonder, then, that they should per,
