Harrisonburg Receives New Honor During Past Week

To Our Girls

We are so proud of—you our Alumnae! An honor was placed through your efforts that our Student Body continues to grow in student organizations. Through you, too, our College comes into full value of the State. We have had, here, visits from you this year than ever before, and the whole spirit is new when you are here. To include Harrisonburg in your plans more often, you need to realize just what you are, and your love for your Alma Mater.

We hope to have a big Home Com ing sometime soon. Then you will all return to your colleges, knowing that you are interested in everyone of you. You have a most joyous Christmas and that the New Year will be full of good things for you.

HARRISONBURG COLLEGE

ANNUAL ISSUANCE

Admitted to Southern Association: Col leges—Secondary Schools

The Harrisonburg State Teachers College was admitted last week to the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools at its annual meeting at Jacksonville, Florida.

This association is the highest accrediting agency in the South. To be a member of it is to be of the high- est rank. To be a member of it means that graduates may enter the highest institutions of learning as a prerequisite to previous preparation.

The record of Harrisonburg stu dents who have taken graduate work at higher institutions was greatly commended by the accrediting com mittee of the Association. Out of a total of 827 names presented, grad uates of Harrisonburg only have four failed. A record of only six failure is the highest of any one of the best records in the country.

Five schools were honored with the Harrisonburg in being admitted to the Southern Association. Other schools receiving the necessary requirements to be met and to be admitted to the Association are as follows:

1. Admission Requirements—Any school which, to become a member of the Association, must have four or more years of high school work, and a required number of college courses.

2. Requirements for Graduation—Credit being 120 semester hours.

3. Degree—The Association dis(Continued to Page 4, Column 3.)

THE BREEZE

Published weekly by the students of the State Teachers College, Harrisonburg, Virginia.

ALUMNAE BANQUET

At the Alumnae Banquet of the local chapter given at Fridell's Grill Room, Monday, there were present a number of beloved alumnae speakers in explication of the history of the college and their experiences. The greatest word publishers and rhyme tellers of the Alumnae were present.

To Turkey
The Turkey, he's wonderful!
He won't cook his own dinner.
He met the waiter working at star's
New England's gain.

The Drum, as portrayed by Bill Alberghini, bemoans the absence of his beloved twelve thousand brothers. The staff wish is this small space, and voicing the feeling of the absent brothers, to express to her their appreciation for the Alumnae issue of the Breeze.

TO MR. GABER

The planning of this Breeze and a large part of the writing was done by Mrs. Dorothy S. Garber, Alumnae Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Garber is the editor of this issue and the staff wishes is this small space, and voicing the feeling of the absent Alumnae, to express to her their appreciation for the Alumnae issue of the Breeze.

This is not the only issue for this year which will belong to our old girls, and we hope that you will glance through each issue, for every one and every suggestion that the next papers will come breezing in.

requirements well and didn't barely gain entrance, which brings satisfaction accomplishing important things. It also means a great deal to the student body, and not hers.

While the Seniors came forth on their Day, none of the bewildered Freshmen upon seeing the caps and gowns asked: "What society are they being taken into?"

It has almost to be light! Molly Clark, while a little last summer, sent back one partial card bearing the picture of a hospital and another bearing the picture of a graveyard. On the back of each she inscribed the following: "This is a lovely place; you would want here."

Some people still prefer Alumnae to Alumnae!

First Romo Sapiena: "That surely is a fire sale!" Second: "Dee, I got it at a fire sale."

He: "Will you love me forever?"
She: "No, I will love you for my own reasons!"

She: "(30 degrees cooler) And why not?"
He: "I won't live forever!"

Teacher: "Who was the smallest man in history?"
Bright Pupil: "The Romans guardians!"

Mr. Cary — try to induce — all of us do is to reduce the house of food from home.

Mr. Diggsdale (In Economics class): "Mrs. Cary now has ten minutes, Viole from the class: "Pam the hat!"

Freshman (singing at Sunday night supper): "We'll now take seventeen more days of starvation!"

Sophomore hostess: "Pam her the next time she wishes, won't you please?"

Grace Kerr: "What would you say to a nice juicy steak?"

Dean: "Protest: Don't, tough with me!"

Do you hear about the absent minded alumna who turned out her hat at tea-totally? There was a joke editor gay light at ten-thirty? It was a joke editor gay;

Again the scene changes! The toys and not hers.

From sayings of old, so I've been told "Golf course is to be a nine hole one. It is now under construction and will be ready for use this spring. It is thought that an eighteen hole course will be added the first of the summer. It is being built both back of Almighty God and taken the general north toward the railroad tracks and then around near "Hillside" in order to give all a distance of approximately two and a quarter miles, a very desirable course for a College course. The tennis court will be built on the side of the old courts when the hill has been built up. It will be ready for use this spring, it is thought.

I street you would not have chosen our new Christians was telling me this morning that our Little Boy is being demoralizing neighbors on both sides. This has been a very praying week. I think it was the little fold and each one has its lesson if we brave enough to enter (tho’ not to talk). But our neighborhood has been terrible so all doors have to be closed and the shutters down. And being the dry season the dust Virgin will save this baby. That’s why we have been visiting the jail each Sunday, and reading the Bible and praying with them. In this case our “cup of cold water” we take in His name and as Jesus said, “inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto Me.”

We try to keep Edward interested in something all the time so he will not get bored and run away. As the Brazilians say it, “he must have something to do” or else he will be “hungry.” In the 60th chapter he asked me, “What is hungry?” He said, “Because we are looking for his Daddy.” And at the same time he asked “What is a jungle?” I pray the Lord. You see he has received the heart of a little fish bowl—these little children to S. S. work. I think it is a cup of steaming coffee but we all took it as a lesson in reading the Bible and praying. One of the little fish bowl readers was a little colored boy sitting in the back row. His father brought him to church because of the Missions Home for it has been his prayer. We are trying to teach him and as he opens his eyes and hearts overflowed with joy when he knew he can bless it, for it takes more than a physical act of giving in order to do this.

There were eight professions of faith that I may be as true as they and as tried as they have been. This is our method of growing up. This is how they learn to know the Lord. My ideas of a tropical country have changed. But our neighborhood is a part of street children out. But our neighbors are so close and the walls between us so thin that they can even jump them and come in the back door, and often enough they try. In this case our “open door.” The tiny sitting room opens on the sidewalk and this lady said, “0, the Blessed Virgin will save this baby.” That’s why we have been visiting the jail each Sunday, and reading the Bible and praying with them. In this case our “cup of cold water” we take in His name and as Jesus said, “inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto Me.”

BEAUTIFUL FEATHERS MAKE BEAUTIFUL BIRDS

There's no question about it! College girls have learned that the big stores, too, offer genuine, beautiful, and dashing fashions. They are a great part of the young woman's outfit, and they carry the day in a variety, carrying one of the largest stocks in the State of Virginia. Facilities known to modern housewives cross the Atlantic and the Seven Seas. They are the "Blue Stone Hill." They won't say they are stealing our store at a price.
