Nineteenth College

DORMORY, DINNER HALL AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS

ARE NOTED

Harrisonburg opens its doors today, to begin its nineteenth scholastic year. Numerous improvements have marked the beginning of each school session. This year there is a difference, however, in that the college is indeed pleased. The new dormitory, a notable addition to the school, is made possible by a larger enrollment, as well as an increasing size and beauty of the school equipment. The new dining hall is also a valuable asset.

The place for the new practice hour for the House Economies department, arranged smoothly and efficiently, is a new term with an excellent start. There are numerous other plans for improvements at the college, as well as those mentioned above, for the coming year's most promising one.

POST OFFICE IS

VALUABLE TO ALL

One of the most important and convenient improvements of this college this year is the rear entrance to the post-office, located to the left of Harrison Hall lobby and easily identified by its large signboard. Mrs. Gladys Diggs has charge of the post-office and she is an efficient and cheerful person, for whose position the college is indeed proud. The new dormitory is an improvement. The new dining hall is also a valuable asset.

GENERAL SUGGESTIONS

Preparatory work of students;

with the aid of the printed schedule and a program card, prepare a tentative schedule for the first quarter of the year. This schedule will be of use if ill the upper part of all your program cards.

Bear in mind that this is a tentative schedule for the first quarter of the year.

The College opens this year with an anthropology in attendance to all that is of previous years. The school each year grows rapidly and offers more advantages to its students. During the past several years it has become necessary for students to leave homes of the large number of applicants which is growing. The college is trying to demand and each year opens with new spaces for students which mine be indicated an advantage to students in this city and an interested and active part in the work of the church. The various ministers are greatly interested in the students and are always glad to be of any service willing to any student at any time.

Any girl who is not a member of the church is most cordially invited to visit the various churches at any time and affiliate herself with the one of her choice if the situation is suitable.

A WORD TO THE WISE

An old proverb has always taught you, you know that a "word to the wise is sufficient"—isn't that an excellent thing for each of us to brush up on and absorb just now? It's certainly true today and we need our common sense, the "we commonly say" of which we speak.

But to the ignorance is no excuse. It's no much to avoid trouble than it is to get out of it—"the right road is the shortest think' to the wise". You are strong here. Our rules are different from your usual mode of living. Therefore, you must adapt yourself to them, and not expect your way of living to adapt itself to yours. You are here, we are here. Our rules are there to be followed, and they are there to help you.

OUR GOOD FORTUNE

Besides, Harrisonburg has always been noted for the friendly relations existing between faculty and student. Our family members are always ready to lend a hand, and to help us in every way possible. Such existing relations is a wonderful asset to any college. Our college is indeed thankful for such.

WE THANK YOU

To each one of you the College has a message. You are the students of today, and what you are, you must be. You are the students of tomorrow, and what you will be, you must be. You are expected to make the best of yourselves in all respects. You are expected to find out what you are, and to do the right thing to do and avoid the wrong. Don't hesitate to ask questions: Your methods and ours here are not alike, as you haven't expected to know. But you are expected to find out as to the right thing and you'll help everyone.

INTRODUCING YOUR PAPER

With this edition the scholastic term 1928-1929 opens at the State Teachers college, Harrisonburg, Virginia. Also this edition marks the beginning of the publication of the "Infallible". Therefore the attempt has been made by the editor to introduce the paper, the "Breeze", into the public, and to counteract the old student's

HOW I FEEL NOW THAT I AM A SENIOR

Dear Dad!

I must tell you that I am really thrilled at my change. I have been having so much fun, and I think I am beginning to realized [sic] what life is all about.

The Breeze is a wonderful publication and all the students are proud of it. The students of today are very fortunate in having such a fine school to go to. I have been here for four years and I am really beginning to appreciate what a wonderful experience it has been for me.

INTRODUCTION TO YOUR COLLEGE MOTHER
