

FULLFRAME

10 REASONS TO CHOOSE MADISON

BY MARTHA GRAHAM

1

You will earn a degree of substance and significance that will mean much more in practice than it will ever mean on paper.

2

JMU is a fun place to go to college. More than 92 percent of freshmen come back for their sophomore year.

3

Harrisonburg has a little bit of everything – mountains for biking and skiing; and a lively downtown full of great food and music.

4

JMU students are ambitious, but not obsessed.

5

It could change your way of looking at the world – JMU is one of the top master's-level universities in the nation for Study Abroad.

6

Unlike most universities, JMU undergrads learn from doctoral faculty members, not grad assistants.

Learn more at <http://jmubethechange.wordpress.com/2013/02/11/ten-reasons-to-pick-jmu>

7

8

9

10

You have a great shot at landing a good job. JMU is a liberal arts-focused university with accessible professors who understand real-world learning.

JMU has one of the highest four-year graduation rates in the nation.

JMU graduates citizens. There is more to life than education; and there's more to education than what happens in the classroom.

JMU has a spirit like none other. It's an extraordinarily open and friendly campus.

If you're a prospective JMU student:

Schedule your visit now at www.jmu.edu/admissions/visit

If you're a JMU graduate:

Give this copy of Madison magazine to a student thinking about college. Then come back to the 'Burg for Homecoming!