LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Mrs. L., thank you. "Nuf ced."

The "Harvest Song" has been sung. Rawley has over 100 visitors so far.

Any fellow can get into "hot water" now.

Trade dollars taken for subscription to this paper.

A big show—that advertises just eight dollars' worth.

Mrs. P. B. Delaney and son, of New York, are at the Pollock House.

This paper don't charge less for circus advertising than is charged to our home people.

An itinerant minstrel troupe has been singing on our streets for several days and nights.

Can't it be fixed some way so that the 4th of July won't come on such hot days as the last one was?

Safe, swift, and sure to regulate the bowels, are Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Recommended by eminent physicians.

Royal Glue is highly recommended by those who have used it. See advertisement elsewhere. Druggists sell it.

A new sign appears in the omnibus of the Revere House. "Twenty-five cents to the depot." Rough on "dead heads."

We got behind with the paper last week, but we have caught up again. Last week was a hard one on country papers.

Several old buildings on West Market, alongside of the bridge, have been condemned by the Council and will have to come down.

Hall's Vegetable Sillian Hair Restorer is a universal favorite for restoring gray hair to its original color, and making hair grow out thick.

Dr. Frank L. Harris will locate in the building adjoining the residence of Wm. Oit, Esq., where his friends will find him on Monday next, and until further notice.

The cereal crops, harvested and unharvested, are fine, so with vegetables, which are abundant. The prospect is good for a tremendous fruit crop. As a prophet locust bloom stands at the head.

The new Postmaster-General has issued an order instructing postmasters to be careful of newspapers passing through their offices as they are of letters, and to consider the former just as sacred as the latter.

The Clarendon Herald only got a half paper out last week—all on account of the 4th coming in the middle of the week. So says the Herald. Now, say, wasn't it on account of getting a day getting it into the office? Success to the Herald.

Ayer's Pills possess the positive virtues of some of the best known medicinal plants, prepared and combined with scientific skill—rejecting the crude and drastic portions, and retaining only the active principle—the part which cures and does not harm. If you are sick try them.

We hear it said that there will be a circus or some sort of a show in this place next week. A show that can't or won't advertise, that wants to travel in the Shenandoah Valley, it doesn't appear to us amounts to much. It may or may not be a good show, but the appearances are against the concerns that don't advertise.

Say, reader, how many subscribers have you gotten for this paper in the past twelve months? Have you ever asked your neighbor to take it? Couldn't you do that much? If all would do so, we could have several hundred new names this week. See how much good you could do, in a few minutes, if you would.

Several weeks ago Stuart F. Lindsey, Esq., of Bridgewater, went to Baltimore to have an operation performed on his eyes for strabismus. He has now been home for a fortnight or more, and we are pleased to learn from him that he believes he will get entirely well. He is improving rapidly. Dr. Chisholm, of Baltimore, performed the surgical operation.

The Fourth.

The catering for the inner man was one of the features which, when our citizens saw the crowd, caused an anxiety. However, J. P. Hyde, Esq., chairman of the Refreshment Committee, ably assisted by his fellow-committeemen, nobly, faithfully and fully performed their onerous duties. He fed 344 invited guests. The Revere House fed between 1,000 and 1,100 people. Just here it is well worthy of remark that the Revere and Spotswood Hotels, under the management of Messrs. A. A. Pitman and N. M. Cartmel, proved on the "fourth" their worth of the title, under the old English Blackstonian law, of being "fit to keep tavern." That they were ably assisted in the office by the genial and popular Col. H. O. Cary, need only be said that all persons who were not here may know how well every one of the large crowd was cared for. The bill of fare at the Revere comprised everything in market, local and from the cities, and for once we did not hear any complaint of insufficiency of food or meagerness of marketing. Next to the superb order of the town, we of Harrisonburg have a right to claim credit for our hotel arrangements on the fourth.

Personal.

Hon. John Paul and wife returned on Saturday evening last from their trip across the Continent to San Francisco and other points on the Pacific Coast. The trip was a very pleasant one to both Judge Paul and his much-esteemed wife.

E. A. Legg, Esq., who has been teaching at Sandy Hook, Md., the past year, is spending his vacation in this place. He speaks in the highest terms of his patrons.

Dr. Burke Chrisman and family have taken up their residence at Massanetta Springs for the season.

Prof. W. W. Robertson has gone to Bedford county on a visit and will be absent several weeks.

Postal Orders from July 1st.

From July 1st domestic money orders are issued at "Money Order office" for any amount from 1 cent to $100 (instead of $50 as heretofore), and three orders may be issued in one day to the same remitter, and in favor of the same payee, payable at same post-office. The fees have been reduced, and are now as follows:

Orders not exceeding $10.... 8 cents

Over $10 and under $15.... 10 "

Over $15 and under $30.... 15 "

Over $30 and under $40.... 20 "

Over $40 and under $50.... 25 "

Over $50 and under $60.... 30 "

Over $60 and under $70.... 35 "

Over $70 and under $80.... 40 "

Over $80 and under $100.... 45 "

The postal notes will not be issued until September 1st. Letter postage will be reduced from 3 cents to 2 cents for each half ounce or fraction, October 1st.

We were last week debarred from noticing many things that we desired. Among the most important was the article upon the outside in regard to the anthracite coal deposits of this section of Virginia. The article showed conclusively that for investment in coal and iron lands the Valley of Virginia affords the most profitable field now known. We shall continue to give information upon this subject as we can obtain it.

We have received a sample copy of the Shenandoah Valley Assembly Journal. This issue is a sample of what the daily paper of the same name will be, to be published at the Assembly grounds, near the town of Mt. Jackson. The Annual Assembly will begin in August, 1883, and last ten days.

Our Mt. Crawford correspondence was crowded out last week, much to our regret. But such things do not occur often, therefore we do not feel it necessary to further explain or apologize. We publish both letters to-day.

Theodore Rohr accidentally shot off a part of the forefinger of his left hand on Monday morning last, whilst handling a pistol. "Didn't know it was loaded," of course, especially loaded for forefingers.

Jno. Richard Gray, son of the late James Gray, who was born and raised in this town, and who has resided in this county all his life, died at his residence in the Northern part of this county on the 2nd of July, aged 57 years, 11 months and two days. There are many persons who will be saddened by the reading of this announcement. "Didn't Gray" may have had his faults, (who has not?) but amid all the vicissitudes which entered into the scenes of his life he was ever the faithful friend and showed a generous heart. Peace go the memory of the true in life.

Our commission merchants are paying 97 1/2 cents per bushel for new wheat. It seems to us this is quite low for new wheat.

We have received the first number of the "Valley Press," a new paper started at New Market, Va., Wickes & Co. publishers. Dr. J. B. Strayer, editor. It is an eight-page weekly. Politics—coalition.

Are we to have a new council, in favor of water-works, brick pavements, &c., or are we to talk about the matter another year? You gentlemen who want the offices should begin to show your hands.

Letter from Mt. Crawford.

Mr. CRAWFORD, VA., July 8, 1883.

Harvesting is still in progress, and some will be nearly all the week in taking off their crop. There seems to be general satisfaction with the crop, and we have heard farmers say that they never saw a finer crop in their life, and their wheat is the heaviest that ever grew on their plantations, and they have not been troubled with insects, rust, or any other blight, for all of which we presume they are very thankful.

Mr. D. C. McFall, who has had charge of the grinding department of the Mt. Crawford Mills for the past three years, has moved over to the "Snow Flake" Mills, and will take charge of them. We regret to lose our amiable neighbor, and wish him success in his new home. Mr. George Kiser has thoroughly repaired the mills here, having put in new bolting cloths, etc., and we anticipate a large business will be done this year by Messrs. McFall & Bro., who have them leased.

There seems to be an excellent crop of cherries this season, and large quantities of them are being brought to town by parties who go out into the country with wagons and purchase them by the tree.

Mr. F. A. Byerly and wife, formerly of this place, but now of Alexandria, are spending the summer with their parents here and at Pleasant Valley.

Mrs. John Bauserman was paralyzed (the third time) about ten days ago. The physician in attendance thought she would not recover, but at this time she is improving, and we trust she may recover.

Mrs. Virginia Raines, who has been spending several months in Chase City, Mecklenburg county, has returned home.

An infant child of Mr. Newton Steinbeck died last Saturday, aged about ten days. Mr. S. seems to be unfortunate, as he has lost two wives and two children in the past two years. May he find consolation in Him who has said, He will not put more upon us than we are able to bear.

The Messrs. Switzer are putting a coat of paint on the new house erected a short time ago by Mr. G. Calvin Fifer, and have also painted the new school house, which adds very much to its external appearance.

"And don't you forget it"—we mean to come to the "Boss" picnic to be held here on Saturday next by the Good Templars. They are promising a balloon ascension, etc., and should the day be favorable, no doubt a pleasant time will be enjoyed by all who may attend.

At a regular meeting held by Mt. Crawford Council No. 19, F. of T., held on last Saturday night, the following officers were elected for the present term: S. F. Landes, President; Charles Lynch, Associate; Thos. L. Gladden, Chaplain; Miss Ida Sherman, Secretary; J. W. Vawter, Financial Secretary; Wm. E. Shinnick, Treasurer; George D. Wise, Conductor; Miss Sallie Varner, Assisting Conductor; Ewing Fifer, Inside Sentinel; Calvin Fifer, Outside Sentinel, and Frank Lays, Ex-President.

The ladies of the M. E. Church South propose holding a festival on Friday and Saturday nights, July 20-21, for the purpose of raising additional funds to enable them to repair the church. As whatever they undertake is generally successful, we are satisfied they will make the occasion one of the most pleasant of the kind. Remember the date.

We are in hopes that the scarlet fever will soon be no more with us, as there is only one person reported sick, and he is improving. Our thermometer is 94 degrees in the shade.

We think of this the July day, While our eyes shine forth so bright, And while you had a big pain fan To cool us while we sweat and write.

Yes, verily, Wm.

Mr. CRAWFORD, VA., July 9, 1883.

Mrs. Christian Kiser, consort of Mr. George Kiser, departed this life July 5th, 1883, aged 78 years, 4 months and 3 days. She was a member of the Reformed Church, and Rev. Dr. Callender delivered an able and impressive sermon from John ii. 26: "And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believeth thou this?" After which Rev. W. L. Lynch, of the M. E. Church South, spoke in a feeling and touching manner concerning her spiritual condition during her illness. Her remains were then deposited in the graveyard connected with the last named church.

Mrs. Kiser was born in Rockingham county, Virginia, March 24, 1805, and was the daughter of Jacob and Anna Wynant. In early life she connected herself with the Church, and lived a consistent and conscientious Christian. She was married to Mr. George Kiser June 19th, 1834, and was the mother of seven children, all of whom survive her, and were present at her burial, save one—Mr. Jacob W. Kiser, of Hillsdale, Kansas. She was one of our oldest and most respected citizens, and a large concourse of sorrowing friends followed her to her resting place. "She will come in and go out before us as more," but her pure Christian life and maternal love will arise before us as a beacon star, to which we may look and be reminded of her excellence. Having lived longer than the usual term of life, in her ripe old age she went down to the grave in peace, where she will sleep until the resurrection morn.

The parsonage belonging to Bridgewater Circuit, M. E. Church South, and located in this place, is being repaired by the addition of new window blinds, etc.

Mr. P. J. Kiser, of Thomasville, N. C., is at home for the present. He reports the wheat very much damaged in that section by a heavy hail storm which passed over the country a few weeks ago, stripping the leaves of the trees, and injuring the wheat to such an extent that some of the farmers plowed up their fields to put in corn. The fruit crop is also damaged, and will not be near so large as last year.

Mr. Ben. Fifer and family, of Staunton, came down on Saturday, to visit relatives in this place.

W. W. Childress, the itinerant Knight of St. Crispin, has again located here, and opened shop with Geo. C. Shiplett.

Mrs. Minnie Miller, wife of Mr. Robert Miller, who has been absent for some months, has returned home.

A large crowd was present at the Good Templar picnic, on Saturday, and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

Mr. D. A. Flecker is again "on the wing." He started East, last week, and expects to be absent some time.

The ladies of the M. E. Church South will have a lawn party and festival, on Friday and Saturday nights, July 20 and 21, the proceeds to be used in repairing the church, and they cordially invite all to come and enjoy the festivities, and bestow upon them a liberal patronage.

Rev. W. L. Lynch, Thos. L. Gladden, and Wm. E. Shinnick, will start in the morning for Shepherdstown, W. Va., to attend the Sunday School Convention to be held in that place.

A Hot Day's Heavy Work!

On Tuesday, June 18th, in the city of New Orleans, before a large audience of prominent citizens, personally interested, Gen'l G. T. Beauregard de La., and Jubal A. Early of Va., as solely in charge of the regular distribution, being the June Grand Monthly (the 157th) and the Semi-annual Extraordinary Drawing, distributed prizes amounting to over $522,000, as they attest over their signatures (and who doubts their veracity or integrity!), with honesty, fairness, and in good faith towards all parties. Ticket No. 23,121 drew capital prize $150,000, and was sold—one-half to Mr. Jas. Demorelle, of Messrs. Demorelle & Casaca, prominent dealers in building materials in New Orleans; one tenth to G. Rosenthal, a most prominent German citizen of Raleigh, N. C., etc. No. 75,008 drew the second prize, $50,000—one-fifth sold to W. B. Hutchinson, well known broker, No. 19 Old Slip, New York city; and other portions to H. N. Pleasance, of Cleveland, O., and Jas. J. Walsh, of 189 Varick st., New York city, paid through Messrs. Winslow, Lanier & Co., bankers there. No. 31,903 drew the third prize, $30,000, one-half of which was paid to the Bank of Commerce, at Memphis, Tenn.; and other portions to party at Pasadena, Los Angeles, Cal. Tickets Nos. 20,683 and 30,001 drew each $10,000—the fourth prizes—sold to G. T. Kimberlin, Texas; P. O. Washburn, Co., Ky.; and New Orleans, etc., etc., to the end of the chapter. The next (the 150th) takes place August 14, and all information can be had on application to M. A. Dauphin New Orleans, La.

The Usual Result.

It is not to be denied that a good sewing machine is one of the most important appurtenances of the modern household.

We thought we had a good machine until one day the agent of the New Home presented himself at our door and proceeded to deliver an oration upon its characteristics.

"But," we answered, "our machine suits us well and we do not care for another."

The agent, however, begged the privilege of leaving one of his machines with us, "for the ladies to try."

The request was not unreasonable, so we granted it—but more to oblige the agent than anything else; for we really did not want the machine, and had not the remotest idea of buying it.

The machine one in the house, it was natural that the ladies should look it over; they did so, and as a consequence felt in love with it. They say "that without the slightest wish to decry or disparage any other machine, this, all things considered, is, in their opinion, the most desirable one to be had."

This unrivaled machine is manufactured by the New Home Sewing Machine Co., 30 Union Square, New York, who wish us to say that all who will send for their new illustrated catalogue and enclose their advertisement (printed on another page), will receive a set of fancy advertising novelties, of value to those collecting cards, &c.

The July Wide Awake is welcome with its two seasonable stories: "How They Celebrated," by Ada Carleton Stoddard, a story of boys in whom was the self-control which makes good soldiers; and "A Hero," by Mrs. Frances A. Humphrey, another story of a young lad's courage and self-discipline. The remainder of the story space is given up to long and delightful chapters of the three serials: "Cacique John," by Fred. A. Ober; "On Indiana Roads," by Mrs. Catherwood; and "More Than They Bargained For," by Charles R. Talbot; and as interesting as a story is Miss Harris' long article, "A Day with Rags, Tatters & Co." This is a description of the processes at a romantic old paper mill at Franklin, N. H., and is accompanied by twenty-four drawings made at the mill, by W. P. Bodfish, who is also furnishing the graphic Picture Serial, "Through Spain on Donkey-Back," three pages of which appear in this number. Another feature of interest to everybody, in this issue, is a portrait of Kate Greenaway, the world-famous London artist, accompanied by a glimpse of her methods of studio-work, from the pen of Margaret Sidney. Mrs. Diaz's John Spicer Lecture is upon "Fourth of July." Marion Harland's Cookery Lesson is excellent, and the Next Neighbor's talk to Anna Maria upon "Keeping the House Cool" is invaluable, and the "Pleasant Author" this time, is Dinah Muloch Craik. The number, as usual, is strong in poems, most of them charmingly illustrated; among them "Beatrice," by Celia Thaxter; "The Long White Seam," by Jean Ingelow; "Teddy, the Teaser," a rollicking Velocipede story, by M. E. B. (Mary E. Blake). Only $2.50 a year. D. Lothrop & Co., Publishers, Boston.

The Staunton Telegram and News editors have fallen out. They were before the Mayor of the city on Saturday last. One was fined $5 and the other $2.50. This action of the Mayor means the suppression of both of these sheets.

It is rumored that Hon. John Paul will denounce the official robes of U. S. Judges before the October term. We guess the new Judge will have grown enough by that time to fill the seat of his able predecessor.

Work Given Out. On receipt of your address we will make an offer by which you can earn $5 to $7 every evening at your home. Men, Women, Boys or Girls can do it. H. C. WILKINSON, Co., 193 and 197 Fulton Street, New York.

Monday next is County Court day and we hope to see a goodly number of our Democratic friends. We want several hundred more subscribers from within the ranks of the Democracy of this county. The re-organization of our party, the necessary energy to be thrown into the contest of this year, both make it necessary that every Democrat shall have a sound and reliable Democratic paper at hand. Subscriber be, therefore, on Monday next and bring your neighbor with you.

Nor is this all of your duty, come in and take part in the Democratic Mass Meeting on Monday. Do not fail to be on hand, if possible.

St. Nicholas, for July, is a memorable number. It contains a carefully written and wonderfully illustrated article on the "Brooklyn Bridge." The diagrams are numerous and the descriptions accurate and popular. Sophie Swett opens the number with a characteristically amusing story of "How Johnnie's Men Struck Work," and George Enos Throop contributes "A Story of a Brave Girl," a Revolutionary tale of the old Schuyler mansion in Albany. Silk culture also receives attention with an account of some bright girls' successes. J. T. Trowbridge tells how the Tinkhams outwitted their persecutors, Marries Thompson finishes "The Story of Robin Hood," Edward S. Ellis continues "Swept Away," and there is another "Drummer-boy" paper. An interesting feature of the number is the appearance of the prize compositions on "Rbert Burns" and "A Shark in Sight," with the long Roll of Honor of those whose essays were almost, but not quite so good. And there is much beside in the magazine that is timely, entertaining and amusing.

The report of a duel in Newtown—Harrisonburg's suburb—between the editors of the Staunton "News" and "Telegram" on yesterday morning, simmered down to a cat and dog fight, a colored citizen settling the fight with a shot gun.

It is said the Treasury official to select the site for the new U. S. Court House will be here in a few days.

Shooting in Greene County.

Tuesday evening of last week a difficulty occurred in Stanardsville, Greene county, between Drs. C. E. Gussaday and Edgar Sims, which resulted in the shooting of Dr. Cassidy. The ball entered his face near the left eye and lodged immediately under the right eye. The wound is a dangerous one, but not necessarily fatal, and from the last account it is probable that the wounded man may recover. Dr. Sims at once surrendered himself to a magistrate and was allowed bail. The cause of the difficulty has been reported to us in numerous forms, but it began in a discussion relating partly to medicine. It is said that Dr. Sims soted in self-defense.

ANOTHER.

Greene county is certainly displaying wonderful shooting proclivities. Last week a young man named Sims, son of B. P. Sims, of that county, had angry words with a man named Dickerson. Soon after a brother of young Sims met Dickerson, when the quarrel was renewed. Sims advanced on his adversary in a threatening manner, when Dickerson fired, and the ball entering behind the ear, lodged in the neck. It is supposed he will recover. Dickerson has been allowed bail.—Gordonsville Gazette, July 4th.

ORGANIZE!

There is one word that cannot be repeated too often, and that word is Organize. It may have a vague sound, but surely its meaning is clear. It is the word that is to determine the fate of the people of Virginia this fall. For unless there be thorough organization of the Democracy forces the people of this State will not be rescued from the hand of the corrupt Boss, but will, on the contrary, be held more firmly in his power than ever before.

Do all the people realize the full weight of the coming campaign? Do they know that if the Mahones succeed in securing a majority of the next Legislature that the State will be rededicated so as to send a Republican Congress to the next Congress? Do they know that the able and trusted judges who have served them long and well will be driven from the bench to give place to ignorant pettifoggers from the ranks of the Boss's adventurers?

Do they know that a petty potentate called a "Commissioner of Sales" is to be set up in every county and that this venous official is to have every seller and every buyer of land at his mercy, to extort from them what he will, being guarded by law from having any one to compete or to interfere with him?

Do they know that the negroes make up a large majority of the Mahone party and that this foolishly ambitious majority have it in their power to demand from the Mahone minority, with which they have coalesced, such political and social concessions as were never thought of before in Virginia, concessions which that minority of whites will be forced to grant in order to save themselves from defeat?

Who doubts that Mahone would reduce to the negro anything, however disgraceful it might be to the white race, so long as the negro can withdraw his support in retaliation for a refusal of his demands?

Knowing all these things, how important is it that the organization of our forces should be so thorough that the result of the campaign shall be nothing else than our victory.

Organize! Organize! Organize!!! Keep the word in mind day in day out, hour by hour, and minute by minute. Talk to your neighbor. Never forget the great cause for which you are striving—the redemption of your people from Boss rule. Talk of your cause—the people's cause—wherever you can do good. Inspire your indifferent friend and convert your doubting foe. Harry up the Democrats who lag and call back again the recreant ones who have left the Democratic fold. Never give up your argument. Read, inform your self, talk with those Democrats whom you believe to know more than you do, learn all you can, and then work with all your might to convince others of the faith in which you trust. Let no rebuff, no disappointment, no obstacle discourage you. Yours is a true and noble work whether its influence be measured by thousands or by only one.

The Dead Parcel.

The following has been issued relative to the death of the Archbishop: ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL, CINCINNATI, July 5, 1883.

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR—Our Most Rev. Archbishop, J. B. Parrell, died at St. Martin's last night at 11:45. His remains will be brought to the city as soon as can be arranged. The Bishop directs that the pastors of the city churches have the bells tolled at that time, awaiting the signal with the bell in the Cathedral tower. The remains will lie in state in the Cathedral residence until taken to the church. Visitors will be admitted to view the remains at the residence, and also at the Cathedral.

The funeral will take place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The Bishop desires the clergy to attend the obsequies, and bring with them coosock, surplice, biretta and breviary for the office. The Bishop also requests you to have a solemn mass said for the Archbishop, and to have the bells of your church tolled for ten minutes after the Angelus in the evening until July 18.

By order of the Bishop, HENRY MOELLER, Secretary.

CHEAPEST FASHION MAGAZINE in the world. 120 large pages, 4 pages new music, 1000 engravings each issue. 50 cents per year; single copies 15 cents. STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER, 8th and Market Sts., Philadelphia.

Maud Muller and the Apples, Quietly raking the new-mown hay. In the apple orchard, plain to be seen, Was plenty of fruit, both hard and green. Rashly she ate green apples, till she Was doubled up like the letter V. With pain in her stomach and tears in her eyes, Maud Muller thought she would surely die. But soon came an end of her woeful grief, For PAIN KILLER brought her sweet relief.

SOME unprincipled dealers, because they could see a few cents more profit, have been guilty of offering worthless substitutes for the only original and genuine Sulphur Soap—GLENN'S by name. Therefore, the public should mark carefully the description and always ask for GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, by its full name, and take no other.

READ the following evidence from a highly respectable source: C. N. CRITTENTON, Esq.

Dear Sir: I have traveled for three years for Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons, publishers, New York, and desire to inform you that I have used your incomparable GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP exclusively for about four years; my constant experience has been that it possesses all the medical advantages that you claim for it. All to whom I have recommended it say as well as myself, that it deserves its established reputation as the best and most efficacious Sulphur Soap that can be used for all skin cleansing, as well as toilet purposes. Some unprincipled druggists have endeavored to substitute other kinds of sulphur Soap for Glenn's—saying they were "just as good," but having myself tried other kinds, I find NONE so good or so beneficial as the Genuine Sulphur Soap stamped GLENN'S, and this I have observed always bears the name of "C. N. Crittenton, Proprietor," on the packet. Yours, truly, C. T. Z. DURAND.

HALL'S HAIR AND WHISKER DYE, black or brown, fifty cents. Do not throw your life away by neglecting a chronic cough which HALL'S HONEY AND GINGERBREAD AND TAR would cure in a few days. PIKE'S TOOTHACHE DROPS cure in one minute.

Ravage of Cholera.

LONDON, July 9.—The 96 deaths from cholera at Damietta, 48 at Mansurah, 1 at Alexandria, 6 at Samanoud and 6 at Sherbin, reported in a Cairo dispatch of last evening, were the fatalities for Saturday. The number of deaths on Sunday from the disease was 68 at Damietta, 64 at Mansurah, 9 at Sam
