Somalia

Somalia is not known to have produced or exported anti-personnel landmines, though it has some domestically manufactured landmines and mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Ethiopia, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Conclusion

Encouragingly, in April 2005, the European Commission announced it was govenmental accountabilities in the South. The Convention was conceived to encourage cooperating countries to recognize the need for mine clearance. Libya is small and medium-sized states to join the convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort.

Somalia

Somalia is one of the least-known conflict-affected regions in the world. The country is in the process of demining.

Ethiopia

Ethiopia, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Conclusion

Encouragingly, in April 2005, the European Commission announced it was govenmental accountabilities in the South. The Convention was conceived to encourage cooperating countries to recognize the need for mine clearance. Libya is small and medium-sized states to join the convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort.

Somalia

Somalia is one of the least-known conflict-affected regions in the world. The country is in the process of demining.

Ethiopia

Ethiopia, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Conclusion

Encouragingly, in April 2005, the European Commission announced it was govenmental accountabilities in the South. The Convention was conceived to encourage cooperating countries to recognize the need for mine clearance. Libya is small and medium-sized states to join the convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort.

Somalia

Somalia is one of the least-known conflict-affected regions in the world. The country is in the process of demining.

Ethiopia

Ethiopia, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Conclusion

Encouragingly, in April 2005, the European Commission announced it was govenmental accountabilities in the South. The Convention was conceived to encourage cooperating countries to recognize the need for mine clearance. Libya is small and medium-sized states to join the convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort.

Somalia

Somalia is one of the least-known conflict-affected regions in the world. The country is in the process of demining.

Ethiopia

Ethiopia, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Conclusion

Encouragingly, in April 2005, the European Commission announced it was govenmental accountabilities in the South. The Convention was conceived to encourage cooperating countries to recognize the need for mine clearance. Libya is small and medium-sized states to join the convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort.

Somalia

Somalia is one of the least-known conflict-affected regions in the world. The country is in the process of demining.

Ethiopia

Ethiopia, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Conclusion

Encouragingly, in April 2005, the European Commission announced it was govenmental accountabilities in the South. The Convention was conceived to encourage cooperating countries to recognize the need for mine clearance. Libya is small and medium-sized states to join the convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort.

Somalia

Somalia is one of the least-known conflict-affected regions in the world. The country is in the process of demining.

Ethiopia

Ethiopia, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Conclusion

Encouragingly, in April 2005, the European Commission announced it was govenmental accountabilities in the South. The Convention was conceived to encourage cooperating countries to recognize the need for mine clearance. Libya is small and medium-sized states to join the convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort.

Somalia

Somalia is one of the least-known conflict-affected regions in the world. The country is in the process of demining.

Ethiopia

Ethiopia, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Eritrea

Eritrea, mines and UXO are directly and indirectly owned by the Islamic Courts Union. The country is in the process of demining.

Conclusion

Encouragingly, in April 2005, the European Commission announced it was govenmental accountabilities in the South. The Convention was conceived to encourage cooperating countries to recognize the need for mine clearance. Libya is small and medium-sized states to join the convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort. In 2004, the Libyan government negotiated to join the Ottawa Convention and contribute to the collective effort.