enrollment records), illustrative material, and other helps for the teacher who follows.

The committee wishes to make the following recommendations:

1. That there be the closest possible relationship and co-operation between the Special Methods teachers and the teachers of subject matter courses.

2. That, as far as possible, a series of lessons on Special Methods in related subjects be given by the teachers of these subjects.

3. That the Special Methods teacher not only do some supervision work, but also follow-up work in order that she may determine whether methods taught by her are functioning.

4. That as an aid in teaching the analysis of the job of Homemaking as a basis of a course of study, the Federal Board be requested to make available to each person engaged in teacher-training, a blue print of the chart on the analysis of the Homemakers Job, presented by Miss Richardson at this Conference.

The committee on Content of Course in Special Methods consisted of Bess Heflin, Chairman, Austin, Texas; Margaret Jones, Montevallo, Ala., Mrs. Clara McConnell, San Marcos, Texas; Mrs. Wm. G. Burgin, Columbus, Miss.; Mabel Chapman, Baton Rouge, La.; B. Alice Francisco, Ada, Oklahoma; and Lottie May Jenkins, Hattiesburg, Miss.

COMMUNITY LIFE CAMPAIGN

The Community Life Campaign to be held in every community in Virginia during the month of May, is to be conducted under the auspices of the State Council of Rural Agencies. At the last meeting of the Council Chairman R. Walton Moore appointed a Committee to make plans to conduct the statewide campaign including the most remote districts of the state so as to bring about a closer and more effective co-operation among the various statewide rural agencies. The aims and purposes are:

1st. To arouse the people to a sense of community responsibility and to organize for self-help.

2nd. To promote an intelligent public sentiment by making known the best that is being done for rural improvement in Virginia and the nation, by putting struggling communities in touch with sources of help and information.

3rd. A close and more effective co-operation of all the existing agencies so that the point of view of the community will always be the point of view of each.

The slogan is "KNOW YOUR COMMUNITY BETTER."

The home, the church, the school, the farm, health, transportation and recreation will be carefully discussed and studied and efforts put forth in every county to develop progressive programs for the enrichment and development of community life. To this end the support and interest of all the teachers, ministers, school authorities, health workers, the various farmers' and citizens' organizations, the Red Cross, the editors of all newspapers, home and county demonstration and agricultural agents and all organizations engaged in statewide rural work, is being enlisted.

There will be 500 local, state and national speakers and Dr. Roy K. Flannagan, Chairman of the Speakers' Bureau, is arranging the details of that phase of the work. Hon. Harris Hart, Supt. of Public Instruction, is Chairman of the General Committee and Dr. J. P. McConnell, President of Radford Normal School, is Chairman of the Organization Committee.

The earnest co-operation of every citizen of Virginia is needed to make this Campaign a success.

It is the policy of The Virginia Teacher to sell advertising space only to reputable firms. An advertisement in The Virginia Teacher is a guarantee of the genuineness of the articles advertised.

To the educator, the advertisements of new books, new charts and maps, and the newer methods of testing ability and intellectual attainments, are as valuable, perhaps, as the column of book reviews which appears in each issue.

The advertisements of new educational publications may be classed as "news".
