“Maidens All Forlorn” was the title of an amusing play presented by students in expression Thursday night, April 20, in the auditorium. Tres Charmant The play was directed by Miss Ruth L. Hudson, instructor in expression. Those in the cast were: Helen Smith, Margaret Moore, Elizabeth Robinson, Roselyn Brownley, Laura Lambert and Mary Bell Bear.

“Mother Goose Land”, an operetta produced under the direction of one of their number, Selina Walters, was the “stunt” presented by the Junior Class for the Spring quarter. It was so complete a success that the Harrisonburg Rotary Club arranged with the Juniors to present it again in the New Virginia Theatre the evening of May 19 when a Rotary benefit picture was shown.

Incidental music was very appropriate for the songs and dances through which the Mother Goose characters were portrayed. The costumes were quite clever, and some of the parts were notable, even in an all-round good performance such as it was. Alice Denby as the Crooked Man that Walked a Crooked Mile and Eloise Gay as Simple Simon were a delight to the children as well as the grown-ups. But everyone was charming, and the tout-ensemble deserves an A!

On April 21 Dr. Wayland went to Manassas where he addressed the Women's Auxiliary, at their regular monthly meeting, on “Some Practical Phases of Law and Government”; and at night he spoke in the court house on “The Progress of Democracy.” The ladies of the Manassas community have a large and enthusiastic membership in their organization, representing both the town and the rural neighborhoods adjacent. Miss Lillian Gilbert, a graduate of the Normal, is secretary of the chapter; and a considerable number of other members of the group are also graduates or have been students here for longer or shorter periods.

Dr. Henry A. Converse spoke before the Valley Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church meeting at Woodstock April 27. His subject was “Religious Instruction Through the Schools.”

I believe that the image is the great instrument of instruction. What a child gets out of any subject presented to him is simply the image which he himself forms with regard to it.—John Dewey.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE ALUMNAE

In the March VIRGINIA TEACHER the paragraph following Virginia Farley's item should have followed the paragraph beginning with Helen Bowman's name. The moving picture benefit, etc., referred to should be credited to the Petersburg chapter.

Check No. 2 has come in from the "Brown Teapot" at Hampton. And unless all signs fail there will be other evidences of business prosperity at the same establishment.

Dorothy Taliaferro is teaching at Nelly's Ford. She believes in socializing her work through music and other forms of art as well as through the more conventional channels of culture.

Mildred Kidd is teaching in the high school at Arvonnia. She mails her letter at Ore Bank and sends in a check for Alumnae Hall. She still recalls with pleasure her days at Blue-Stone Hill.

Mary McCaleb is teaching Latin, English, and Algebra at Eagle Rock. In a letter recently written to Miss Hoffman she enclosed two checks, one for THE VIRGINIA TEACHER and the other for the Home-Coming House.

Gladys Hopkins is principal of the Crab-bottom school in Highland County. She is planning for her commencement on May 31. A school fair was held on April 28.

Margaret Lewis, who is teaching with Gladys Hopkins at Crabbottom, paid Alma Mater a brief visit at Easter. She is enjoying her work in the Switzerland of Virginia.

Mabel Kiracofe came by Harrisonburg on Easter Monday and gave us good news of the work that she, Anne Smith, Bertha Huffman, and others are carrying on at Bailey's Cross Roads near Alexandria. This makes the fifth year at Bailey's for Mabel and the fourth for Anne. They began with 85 pupils. Their enrollment is now 160.

On April 15 Marie Scribner was married in Washington City to Mr. Benjamin Edwards of Charlottesville. Dorothy Lacy, who attended the marriage, came on to Harrisonburg for a call on old scenes and good friends.

Bessie Watson writes from Amherst. She and her school are getting ready to participate in "Amherst County Day," to be celebrated at Sweet Briar College on May 13.

Elsie Bloxom is teaching at Cheriton. Recently she sent us a good letter and enclosed a check for Alumnae Hall.

Florence Allen and Anna are both teaching in Hampton this year. Florence is working out some very interesting projects in her history class. It is also reported that she is making a great reputation for herself as a speaker before teachers' institutes.

Althea Lee Adams, a graduate of the class of 1915, died of pneumonia at her place of work in Madison County, on April 22. She and Florence Keezell were teaching in the same school at Etlan. The funeral was held at Althea's home church, at Ivy Depot, Albemarle County, on Sunday, April 23, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends, including a half dozen or more of former students of the Normal.

Mildred Hoshour, writing from home (Woodstock), sends a check for $25 for Alumnae Hall and says: "I should like very much to attend commencement, but don't think I can. Please remember me to those I know at H. N. S.

Banie Walden writes from Norton, expressing her good will for Alma Mater and enclosing a check for $10 for the "Home-Coming House."

Mary Frances Stell was married at Norfolk on April 8 to Mr. Hugh Lee Butler, Jr.
