

ALUMNÆ NOTES

MARRIAGES

Young-Fisher

Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Malcolm Fisher announce the marriage of their daughter, Francois Grace, to Mr. Wylie Nathaniel Young, on Friday, September the seventh, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, at Warrenton, North Carolina.

Wilson-Compher

Teufel-Roller

On Monday, December 3, 1928, Mr. Karl Christian Teufel, of Staunton, Virginia, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Matilda Magadlene Roller, also of Staunton. The ceremony was quietly celebrated at Bristol, Tenn. The bride and groom are at home to their friends at 136 North Broad St., Salem, Virginia.

ALUMNÆ CORRESPONDENCE

ETHEL DAVIS, 494 West Main St., Danville, Virginia: I was beginning to give up hopes of every writing and sending my Alumnæ dues and money for THE VIRGINIA TEACHER, but here it is at last. I am just as thrilled as I can be over the thought of hearing about the Alumnæ through THE VIRGINIA TEACHER and I can hardly wait for it to come to me.

I could ask a million questions about H. T. C., the teachers, the girls, and the Alumnæ, but I am going to wait for news, and, also, hope to come back and see everyone for myself before this year is over. . . .

I am still teaching history in the high school here and I like it better every day. I am sending several of my good seniors to H. T. C. next year. They are just as "pepped" over the thought as I. Please give my best regards to Miss Anthony, Dr. Gifford, and—I had better just stop and say all, as I can't list all the ones I would like to see.

Best wishes for a successful year, and love to you and all at H. T. C.

EMMA WINN, Winterville, Miss.: Now that I am not teaching, I enjoy THE VIRGINIA TEACHER more than ever; so I am enclosing two dollars for it and my Alumnæ dues.

Finding my strength unable to cope with the situation in Greenville, S. C., I am visiting relatives in Mississippi during November and December. While I am having an enjoyable time, I should much prefer teaching.

With best wishes for the success of the news publication.

OTHER LETTERS

EDITH AGNER writes that she is teaching third, fourth, and fifth grades in Dry Run School, which is just two miles from Covington. Edith sent in her Alumnæ dues.

THELMA W. LEWIS is teaching at Ballston, Virginia, and wishes to be remembered to all at H. T. C. Thelma subscribed to THE VIRGINIA TEACHER.

ALICE WILL sends her dues for the Alumnæ Association and THE VIRGINIA TEACHER and writes that she feels that she cannot afford to be without the magazine. Alice sent her dues for two years. She is teaching at Cross Keys.

MARGUERITE BLOXOM, who is now in Richmond, writes that she thoroughly enjoyed seeing all the H. T. C. people in Richmond at Thanksgiving and is already a subscriber to THE VIRGINIA TEACHER and the Breeze.

VIRGINIA HARVEY BOYD writes a long letter from Roanoke concerning the work of the local Alumnæ chapter there. Among other things, she writes: "Looking over the list you sent, I find that there are four other teachers at my school who are alumnæ of H. T. C. I only knew two of them, Los-sie Dalton and Mae Hoover. Mae is assistant principal. She has been acting principal this entire term due to the illness of our principal. She is splendid and is certainly a credit to H. T. C. This is her first year in the chapter, but she seems quite interested, and is glad to do all she can to help. Most of the girls who come to the meetings are quite enthusiastic—and we promise to at least try to make it an epidemic and give it to the rest.

"I surely hope we reach our goal in the Memorial Fund and I know that I speak for the rest of our chapter, too. I hope many alumnæ will take THE VIRGINIA TEACHER . . . I miss it now—so I am sending dues for the Association and the magazine."

MISSIONARY RETURNS

Eva Massey, of the class of '12, was a welcome visitor on the campus recently. Eva has been teaching English and conducting the devotional exercises in the Colegio Progreso, in Parral, a mining town, of about 2,500 in Mexico, for a number of years. She is now at her home, White Post, Virginia, and will be there for about a year.

Again we are reminded of the other girls who have gone out from our school as missionaries. They are:

Agnes Brown—Presbyterian Missionary to China.

Sallie Browne—Methodist Missionary to Poland(?)

Elsie Shickel—Church of the Brethren to India.

Mary Cooke Lane—Presbyterian Missionary to Brazil. (Now in Richmond.)

Sarah Shields (now deceased)—Presbyterian Missionary to India.

GRADUATE OF THE CLASS OF '13 RETURNS

Mrs. Bessie Leftwich Bailey, of the class of '13, recently visited the college for a short time. Mrs. Bailey, Evelyn Coffman, and other teachers from Lynchburg came to Harrisonburg to observe in the Training Schools of the city. We were mighty glad to see our "old girls" again.
