astic Press Association held at Columbia University, New York City.

Divorce in the Family, a sound picture starring Jackie Cooper, was recently shown in Wilson Hall.

ALUMNÆ NEWS

Anna Seaton Cameron, of the class of 1924, was married to Mr. Jesse Leggette McIver on Saturday, February 18, in Portsmouth, Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. McIver are at home in Westhampton Apartments, Portsmouth.

Lucie Macon Vellines (1931), of Newport News, was married on March 19 to Mr. Charles Glenn Crafton, of Staunton. Mr. Crafton, who is a graduate of V. P. I., is employed by the Du Pont Company in Waynesboro, Va., where the couple will make their home.

Alice Rhea Horsley, of the class of 1932, stopped in Harrisonburg for a brief visit as she drove from Roanoke to New York the week-end of March 24.

ALUMNÆ ISSUE IN MAY

The next issue of The Virginia Teacher will present papers of special interest to alumnae of the State Teachers College at Harrisonburg. In addition to the interesting recollections of Dr. M'Ledge Moffett, who was a student here during the first two years of the college's existence and whose letters home during those years had been fortunately saved, providing authentic source material on many intimate and specific matters, there will also appear the delightful comments of Miss Frances Mackey and Miss Penelope Morgan.

Another feature will be the address of Miss Beatrice Marable in accepting the portrait of Senator George B. Keezell on behalf of the alumnae of the college. Miss Marable, also a student during the first year of the college, enjoys the distinction of having made application number one for admission.

A complete list of all returning alumnae, and a digest of the talks made at the Alumna Dinner on March 18, will also appear in the May number of this magazine.

A PROPHECY

In the future there is going to be a substantial increase in the time and attention given to frills, fads and fancies—as part of our school is termed by part of our people. There will be added more subjects with scarcely any money-making value, and teachers of these subjects will be expected to have qualifications as high as those of any other teacher. The high-school standards will not be lowered; they will actually be increased because the actual education received today is far below what we fondly believe it to be. That is, many pupils take solid subjects and are passed with good marks, but their actual understanding is very low, indeed. This new material will appeal to the pupils and most of it will live with them for all their lives. Most young people can appreciate and have a liking for simple art, manual training, group music, dancing, health instruction, vocational guidance, practical civics, newspaper reading and home decoration, all of which subjects will be taught in the new school.—Henry L. Farr, in School and Society.

Before you give way to anger, try to find a reason for not being angry.—Bacon.

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

SAMUEL P. DUKE has been president of the State Teachers College at Harrisonburg since 1919. Dr. Duke in this paper offers vigorous championship of higher education for women in Virginia.

JULIAN A. BURRUS was first president of the State Teachers College at Harrisonburg, leaving to accept the presidency of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1919.

A. L. BENNETT is superintendent of schools in Albemarle County, Virginia.

NELLIE L. WALKER is supervisor of kindergarten in the training school of the State Teachers College, Harrisonburg. Miss Walker has formerly taught in Horace Mann School, Teachers College, N. Y., and was director of kindergarten-primary work in the State Teachers College at St. Cloud, Minn.