M. Hanson presided over the geography section. Miss Julia Robertson gave a talk on "Reference Materials and How to Use Them." Miss Edna Shaeffer presented the college Glee Club in two programs, and directed a group of more than five hundred school children in a program of group singing.

Mr. C. T. Logan, head of the English department, prepared a paper on Composition Teaching in America Before 1850 that was read at the meeting of the National Council of Teachers of English in Detroit on December 1. His paper undertook to show that composition as a school subject was well established in America by 1850.

Two pictures have been shown at the college recently. They were The Affairs of Voltaire, starring George Arliss, and Cavalcade, a play written by Noel Coward.

Dr. John W. Wayland, a member of the faculty at Harrisonburg who is now on leave, addressed the student body on the literature of the Shenandoah valley. He discussed certain literary incidents, and then gave instances of writing and of publishing in towns of the valley.

Miss Elizabeth P. Cleveland, a member of the original faculty here, spoke to the student body recently. She recalled old times on the campus, struggles as well as amusing incidents.

The Aeolian Club gave a reception for all students taking any kind of music at the college. Members of the music faculty and officers of the club were in the receiving line. Two fifteen-minute programs were given by members of the club, and Mr. Robert Schane sang.

The Debating Club is planning intercollegiate debates with Shepherdstown Teachers College and Mary Baldwin College. Consideration is being given to an engagement with East Radford State Teachers College.

Basketball sports leaders have recently been elected in the classes. They are: Mary Smith, Lancaster, senior; Julia Courter, Amelia, junior; Marguerite Holder, Winston-Salem, N. C., sophomore.

The junior class has ordered its class rings from the C. H. Eliot Co., of Philadelphia, Penn.

ALUMNÆ NOTES

ALUMNAE VISITORS AT THANKSGIVING

We were glad to welcome so many alumnae back for all or part of the Thanksgiving Holidays. Quite a few of the girls teaching in Norfolk came up, among them Helen Goodson ('28), Leonide Harriss ('29), Dorothy Lindgren ('29), Othelda Mitchell ('30), and Florence Mitchell ('29).

Elizabeth Peake ('29) and Sally Face ('33) are teaching at Hampton.
