

to the National Director of the Junior Red Cross; Miss Frieda Koontz of the Co-operative Education Association; R. E. Burson, Director of Parks in the Virginia Conservation Commission, who urged the beautification of school grounds; Rev. Dr. L. J. Joekel, professor of theology at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Austin, Texas; Rev. Dr. J. Dean Crain of the Greenville (S. C.) Baptist Church; Rev. Dr. Frederick W. Norwood, pastor of the City Temple, London; and Dr. Sidney B. Hall, Superintendent of Public Instruction, who spoke on the New Virginia Curriculum.

ALUMNAE NOTES

Only twenty alumnae were present at the alumnae meeting on Saturday, June 9. Both the president and vice-president were unable to attend, it was decided to let various business matters continue until the March business meeting, which is now becoming the most important alumnae occasion of the year.

President S. P. Duke made an interesting talk, emphasizing what the alumnae meant to the college and pointing out how they could help. Mrs. Cook also welcomed the alumnae. An alumnae luncheon was served in Harrison Hall, and was attended by both faculty and alumnae.

Mary Armentrout, one of the speakers at the Alumnae Homecoming last March, received her doctorate from the University of Virginia, June, 1934. She received high honors during her work there.

Ethel Hinebaugh Stubbs, '26, stopped over in June to see the changes that had taken place at H. T. C. She and her husband were traveling through the valley. Ethel is teaching Home Economics in Baltimore. Her sister, Alberta Hinebaugh Myers, is now living in Norfolk.

Another visitor on campus was Ruth Sanders Fuller, '15, who also was traveling through the valley with her husband. Ruth was formerly a police woman in Richmond.

Clarice Guthrie English is teaching in the elementary schools of Glen Burnie, Maryland.

Virginia Richards, '33, will teach Home Economics in the Berryville High School this coming year. She is taking the position held by Louise Ramsburg, who resigned to be married this fall.

The Alexandria chapter donated five dollars towards the furnishings of Alumnae Hall. The money was turned over to Mrs. A. B. Cook, who is planning to use it in purchasing a tea table for the reception room.

Marriages

LUCKY-LUCK

Grace Luck was married to Clyde Arthur Lucky on June 16 at her home in Ashland, Va. Mrs. Lucky has been teaching for some years at Westhampton High School in Henrico county. Mr. Lucky is a graduate of the University of Virginia and at present is in business in Pittsburgh.

On June 18, Virginia Maude Hughes was married to Benjamin Grant Rogers at Concord, Virginia. Mrs. Rogers has been teaching in the Greenwood High School. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are living near Crozet.

Mae Virginia Claytor, of North River, was married to Stewart Alanson Pike on June 19. Mr. and Mrs. Pike are living at 1226 Staples St., N. E., Washington, D. C.

Vesta Landes was married to David Adam on June 19. Both Mr. and Mrs. Adam are from Rockingham county and are living near Harrisonburg.

Beatrice Maria Shorts, daughter of Professor and Mrs. Clyde P. Shorts, was married to Everett Dulaney Ott, Jr., in Washington, D. C. on June 27. Mr. Ott is a teller in the First National Bank of Harrisonburg. Mr. and Mrs. Ott are living in Harrisonburg.

A wedding of much interest to faculty and students was solemnized in Washington, D. C., on June 27, when Ruby A. Norford of Cismont, Va., became the bride of Samuel A. Beazley of Beaver Dam, Va.

Miss Hamrick's Verse to be Published

Garnet Hamrick, Winchester, a graduate of '32, is the author of a book of verse entitled One to Another, which has been announced for publication in September.

While on campus Miss Hamrick was house councillor of a freshman hall, secretary and business manager of the Glee club, a member of Kappa Delta Pi, Y. W. C. A., Debating club, Scribblers, president of the Aeolian club, and poetry editor of The Breeze.

Miss Hamrick has unusual poetic ability; her familiarity with a wide variety of poetic forms and moods, and her definite rhythmic patterns give a charm to her work.

The school song Alma Mater was written by Miss Hamrick while she was a student here. Many of her poems were published in the Schoolma'am of '32 and in The Breeze.

Sylvia Herzog and Betty Jacobs who graduated from this college in '34 will attend Columbia University this winter.

The following placements of graduates from this college have been announced: Anne Davies, Arlington county; Eunice Meeks, Miller School; Elizabeth Burner, Shenandoah County; Pauline Hawkins, Warren County; Doris Marr, Brownville, Maine; Catherine Minnich, Rockingham County; Madeline Newbill, Norfolk County; Virginia Saunders, Prince George county; Janet Tapley, Rockland, Maine; Frances Whitman, Round Hill; Martha Bailey, Cypress; Toddy Beery, Wytheville; Rebecca Bennett, Vienna, Maryland; Rowena Brill, Campbell county; Lois Bishop, Norfolk city schools; Dorothy Williams, Norfolk city schools; Hilda Hisey, Edinburg; Sarah Lemmon, Arundel county, Md.; Vada Steele, Linville, Rockingham county; Emma Henry, Home Economics, Withernere County Life School, near Danville; Louise Stickley, Home Economics, New Market and Mt. Jackson; Ocie Huff-mond, Home Economics, Pittsylvania county.

Dorothy Cox (1928), now Mrs. Charles Yates, of 405 North Shields St., Richmond, Virginia, was a visitor on the campus during the latter part of August.

Mrs. Mary E. Rhodes, of Norfolk, who was enrolled as a student for the summer session, had her five-year old daughter, Katherine Anne, with her. This was Katherine Ann's third summer at H. T. C.; she first "came to college" at the age of twenty months.

---

A SOCK AT CANADA!

When very young, this scribe lived on the border near Canada at a time and place where it was considered humorous to poke fun at Canada. This tale was then current:

The purchaser of a pair of hose reluctantly shelled out fifty cents in payment. "I could buy the same hose in Canada for a quarter," he grieved. "Then why came you here?" the seller retorted. "Why not stay in Canada where you can buy hose for a quarter?"

"Well, you see," the buyer explained, "in Canada, I never had a quarter."

The Kalends

---

SAME HERE

Teacher—Is there anything you can do better than anyone else, Tommy?

Tommy—Yes, I can read my own writing!

---

Geography Teacher: "Why are there so many mountains in Switzerland?"

Pupil: "Switzerland is so small they have to heap the dirt up."

---

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

ALICE MARY AIKEN is professor of fine arts in the State Teachers College at Harrisonburg. M. BOYD COYNER is professor of education in the State Teachers College at Farmville, Virginia.

RAUS M. HANSON is associate professor of geography in the State Teachers College at Harrisonburg.