ALUMNAE NOTES

Alumnæ chapters in Norfolk, Portsmouth, and Roanoke are beginning their work for the year. The Portsmouth chapter, of which Clotilde Rodes is secretary, is planning a loan fund to be available, as soon as it is large enough, to Portsmouth students at H. T. C. The Norfolk chapter, with Annie Way Harrington as secretary, is also interested in a similar project. This is an undertaking that may be carried on through the years, embodying always the ideal of social helpfulness.

The Roanoke chapter, with Tita Bland Mottley as its president, gave a tea for the Roanoke H. T. C. students who were home for the Christmas vacation. It was much enjoyed by the girls.

Margaret Herd, Bela Outlaw, and Fannie Brown, all of Richmond, spent the second week-end in December visiting on the campus.

Margaret Eure, Prof. '32, is teaching in Lynchburg this year. Margaret took her last two years of academic work at Randolph-Macon Woman's College in Lynchburg.

Margaret Campbell, '33, of Richmond; Martha Warren, '32, and Elizabeth Warren, '34, of Lynchburg; Mildred Simpson, '34, of Clarendon; Marietta Melson, '34, of Machipongo; Frances Rand, '29, Amelia, and Mary Virginia Grogan, '34, Cloudville, were among the alumnæ on campus at Thanksgiving week-end.

Gladys Brubaker, of Luray, and Mr. Lynn Harris, of Luray and Los Angeles, were married on December 21 in Bethlehem Chapel, Washington Cathedral. Mrs. Harris has been principal of the primary department of the Luray school; Mr. Harris is a landscape architect with the Shenandoah National Park.

Mina Graves Thomas, '30, formerly of Richmond and now of Wilmington, Del., was married to Mr. John Burgess, jr., of Macon, Georgia, in the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Wilmington, the evening of December 30. Mrs. Burgess, who is private secretary to the president of the W. T. Grant Co., only recently moved to Wilmington from New York City, where she has lived since her graduation from H. T. C. She was president of the Student Government Association at Harrisonburg in 1930. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess are at home at 1308 Van Buren Street, Wilmington, Delaware.

At the annual meeting of the Harrisonburg alumnæ chapter in January Mrs. Walton Wine (Virginia Eubank) was elected president; Mrs. Wirt Wise (Margaret Lewis, '21) vice-president; Christine Long, '31, secretary; and Anna Laura Mauck, '30, treasurer.
