

Annual Conference on the Cause and Cure of War, held in Washington, D. C., January 21-24.

Defeating the Sophomores 27-12 in the last of the inter-class basketball games played this season, the senior sextet was declared the champion of the inter-class tournament. The sophomore class received second rating, and the freshman, third. The junior class team, though accounting for a low total score, was called by Mrs. James C. Johnston, head of the physical education department, the best of the class teams "considering the material it was composed of."

Gene Averett, Lynchburg, president of the Bluestone Cotillion Club, with James Harvey as her dancing partner, led the annual cotillion given Saturday evening, February 8. They were assisted by Anne Kellam, Weirwood, and Harold Jones, Norfolk.

Dan Gregory's orchestra, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, furnished the music for the dansant held in the afternoon and for the evening dance.

New members of the literary societies have been announced as follows: Lanier: Agnes Arnold, Dot Day, Catherine Jolly, Margaret Turner, Sophie Stinchfield, Helen Mitchell, Nancy White, Virginia Speed, Jane Logan, Lois Robertson, and Hannah Calhoun. Lee: Jean Fretwell, Virginia Rader, Billie Powell, Emma Rand, Ila Arrington, Hilda Finney, Lafayette Carr, and Anne Parlapiano. Page: Irene Collins, Elizabeth Rawles, Wanda Spencer, Edith Gammon, and Evelyn Vaughan.

ALUMNAE NOTES

"HOME COMING," MARCH 20-21

Plans are being rapidly shaped for the Home-coming on March 20 and 21. Each year has shown a marked increase in attendance, and this should be a record year.

Alumnæ Hall will be headquarters for registration and information. All alumnæ are urged to register as soon as they reach the campus, and to get their tickets for the play, the movies, and the dance.

On Friday night Sidney Howard's "The Late Christopher Bean" will be presented in Wilson Hall under the direction of Dr. Argus Tresidder of the college faculty. The rôles will be played by college students and local men.

On Saturday morning the business meeting will be held in Wilson Hall auditorium and will be followed by an open meeting, at which the speakers will include Vergelia Sadler, '11 and '21, Hazel Davis, '19, and Louise Elliot Shriver, '26. Virginia Gilliam, '31, will read a poem of her own composition.

Saturday afternoon there will be a basketball game between alumnæ and varsity, a movie, "She Married Her Boss," and a tea sponsored by the Harrisonburg chapter of the Alumnæ Association.

A banquet Saturday night will be followed by "In Old Kentucky," the last Will Rogers picture.

There will also be a dance Saturday evening. In recent years this has been a particularly popular occasion for the alumnæ.
