

took three honors in the student mirror selected by campus poll. These were the places of best leader, most dignified, and friendliest.

Others selected for the Big Mirror, a large feature section of the annual, are: most intellectual, Virginia Cox; most dramatic, Mary Sampson; best-looking, Elizabeth Gilley; most musical, Josephine Miller; most literary, Virginia Cox; most artistic, Ethel Cooper; most athletic, Marguerite Holder; most versatile, Gene Averett; and most business-like, Evelyn Pugh.

The Little Mirror, a smaller feature of the annual, will include: most stylish, Marjorie Fulton; happiest, Sylvia Kamsky; best dancer, Frances West; quietest, Catherine Cartee; wittiest, Evelyn Pugh; most sophisticated, Bertha Jenkins; and most original, Helen Madjeski.

Under the leadership of Mary Cox, president, the Junior Class observed its annual class day this month. "Cultivating the beautiful things in life" was the theme of its class celebration.

Those elected to the Junior Mirror, class hall of fame, were: most versatile, Helen Mitchell; most popular, Mary Cox; most literary, Lois Sloop; most athletic, Martha Wratney; most dependable, Mary Cox; most intellectual, Ethel Cooper; most musical, Julia Kilgore; most stylish, Marjorie Fulton; best dancer, Florence Rice; best-looking, Bertha Jenkins; best leader, Mary Cox; happiest, Marie Craft; wittiest, Martha Wratney; and friendliest, Mary Cox.

The H. T. C. sextet emerged victorious from the four clashes played on the local floor this season, defeating Blackstone by a 40-8 score; Westhampton, by 31-26; East Stroudsburg, by 28-18; and an independent team from Augusta County, by 36-17.

Those making up the squad this year are Anne Kellam, captain; Helen Irby, Virginia Duncan, Catherine Brennan, Margaret Byer, Ruth Pullen, Margaret Fitzgerald, Florence Truberg, Billye Powell, Ann Van Landingham, Florence Stearns, Nancy Dorwin, Mildred Garrison, Mary Ella Carr, and Margaret Glover.

Between 400 and 500 people are expected to attend the annual Home-coming of the H. T. C. Alumnae Association to be held at the College March 20 and 21, according to Dr. Rachel F. Weems, alumnae secretary.

The program begins Friday night, March 20, when the Stratford Dramatic Club presents The Late Christopher Bean in Wilson Auditorium. On Saturday morning there will be a business session when reports from the various chapters will be given. On Saturday afternoon the basketball game between the alumnae and varsity will be followed by a movie and the Alumnae tea given by the Harrisonburg chapter. Saturday night there will be the Alumnae banquet, another movie, and the dance.

The famous Westminster Choir of forty voices, singing a capella and from memory under the direction of John Finley Williamson, will present a concert before the Virginia Federation of Music Clubs and the Virginia Music Teachers State Association when they meet in joint convention at the State Teachers College, April 15-17, according to an announcement by Miss Edna T. Shaeffer, head of the college music department and chairman of the convention. This will be one of the numbers included on the college entertainment course.

ALUMNAE NOTES

Messages in regard to Home-Coming are pouring in, and it is nice to hear from the different ones, even if some of the messages are regrets at being unable to attend.

Nora Hossley, '27, of the Alexandria High School, writes "I have been waiting to find out the definite date of our next play. It so happens that it coincides with Home-Coming. I really am sorry, for I had looked forward to coming back to Harrisonburg at that time. We are giving Seventeen the night of the twentieth and I have charge of dramatics this year. May everything go off splendidly; I'll certainly be thinking about you."

Peggy Regan, '35, is assistant director of girls' athletics at Woodmere, N. Y. She has been anticipating Home-Coming and is among those planning to be here that week-end.

Lucy Taylor Cole, '28, of Waynesboro, sends this message: "I received the letter about Home-Coming, and how I would love to be there! No, I can't make it this year. . . In a few years I may send my small daughter to represent the family, but so far she promises to make a better mechanic than a teacher. . . Best wishes for a most successful reunion."

We are delighted to know that the Norfolk alumnae have chartered a special bus to bring twenty-five representatives.

The Augusta County alumnae have organized a basketball team which played the H. T. C. Varsity on February 24. There was a good representation of alumnae from Augusta to root for their home team. Although the players hadn't had much practice together, they managed to roll up a score of 17, the final score being 36-17 in favor of the varsity. The Augusta team was made up of these alumnae: Mary Hanger, '24, captain; Dot Parker, '34; Kitty Bowen, '32; Claudine Rosen, '31; Sparky Hiserman Sweet, '28; Margaret Baylor, '33; and Lillie Buchanan.

Marriages

The marriage of Christine S. Long, '30, and Timothy T. Hering at the Riverside Church in New York City on June 22, 1935, was recently announced by the bride's parents.

Mrs. Hering has been a member of the Harrisonburg High School faculty for the past six years. She holds an M. A. from Columbia University.

Mr. Hering attended V. P. I. and is manager of the André Studio in Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Hering are making their home in Lexington.

On February 15, Helen Wayland Bargamin, '28, of Crozet and University, was married to William Lightfoot Lafferty, also of Crozet and University.

Mrs. Lafferty graduated from the University of Virginia School of Nursing after graduating from H. T. C. Mr. Lafferty is a graduate of the University of Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafferty are residing at University, Va.

Florence Ellen Reese, '29, of Atlee, and John Guthrie Moffett, of Staunton, were married on February 15. Since her graduation from H. T. C., Mrs. Moffett has been a member of the faculty of the Hopewell High School.

Mr. Moffett attended V. P. I., served in the World War, and is now superintendent of the Forestry division of the CCC at Mt. Solon, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffett are now living in Bridgewater, Va.

Death

On February 3, Nettie Quisenberry, '27, of Frederick Hall, Va., died from pneumonia of very short duration. For the past five years she had been dietitian for a hospital in New York City.

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

ARGUS TRESIDDER is professor of public speaking and dramatics in the State Teachers College at Harrisonburg. He has recently contributed articles to the Quarterly Journal of Speech and to American Speech.

HELEN G. McCORMACK is associated with the Valentine Museum in Richmond.

EDNA TUTT FREDERIKSON is an instructor in English and director of publicity at the College. Mrs. Frederikson has contributed to Spirit and other poetry magazines as well as to Contemporary American Woman Poets (1936) and to the Dictionary of American Biography.

MARY ELIZABETH SAMPSON is a senior in the State Teachers College at Harrisonburg. She is a native of New York and a graduate of the Savage School of Physical Education.

HELEN PULLIAM is a junior at the college, majoring in social science. She transferred to Harrisonburg from the Wilson Teachers College in Washington, D. C.