ALUMNAE NEWS

Home Coming has been announced for the week-end of March 19-21. Mary Brown Allgood, '30, of Richmond, will preside at meetings of the Alumnae Association on Saturday morning. Following the business meeting, there will be an open meeting at which an oil painting of our first president, Dr. Julian A. Burruss, will be presented to the college by Mrs. Harry E. Garber, of Harrisonburg, representing the Alumnae Association. Miss Elizabeth P. Cleveland of the faculty will accept the portrait on behalf of the college.

There have been many messages from alumnae who plan to be present. "Please do reserve me a place for the Home Coming week-end," writes Hilda Hisey, '34, of Edinburg. "Since I still know a few students at school, I am particularly anxious to come back. Then it has been a whole year since I last saw most of the faculty.

"I remember the very first alumnae meeting I attended when so many of the 'ex's' were speaking of the 'boardwalk' days. From all the news I can glean at odd moments I suppose we of the next period shall have to classify ourselves as of the 'double-deck bed' era. I do want to see the many changes and catch up with the progress the school is making."

Other alumnae express regret, in which we join, that they cannot be present. Florence Fray, '25, Madison, Virginia, who has spent several years at Blue Ridge but is now able to be at home, writes, "The entire program for Home Coming sounds so very interesting and I should like to be with you. I am still taking a rather strict 'cure,' therefore I cannot attend Home Coming."

From Brinkley, Arkansas, Phyllis Eastham Harrison, '21, writes, "I am so sorry that I cannot be with you all for the Home Coming. I do hope you will all have a grand time together on dear old Blue Stone Hill. Give my love to all my former instructors, friends, and classmates."

Evelyn Wilson Gunter, '31, of Richmond, Virginia, sends this message. "I am dreadfully sorry that it will be an impossibility for me to attend Home Coming. However, my thoughts will certainly be with you and I trust that you will have a very successful meeting. Your program sounds excellent and I do hope that the weather is fine and that you have many girls back with you."

Annie Spencer Sikes, '33, writes from Tuscaloosa, Alabama: "I regret that I shall not be able to be at H. T. C. for Home Coming. I don't know of anything that would give me more pleasure than a visit; and hope that some day this will be a realization."

Marguerite Bristow, '36, writes, "Last Friday afternoon when I arrived home for the week-end your letter was awaiting me. It was indeed a very delightful invitation and one which I would be overjoyed to accept. Just at this time it will be impossible for me to visit the college, much as I would like to do so. My sincerest hope is that there will be a great reunion and my thoughts will be with you during this time. May it be the very best ever!"
