

THE TEACHER'S JOE MILLER

NATURE LESSON

Teacher: Every one of God's creatures is here for a useful purpose. Now what do we learn from the mosquito, Willie?"

Willie: "We learn from the mosquito how easy it is to get stung."

LUCKY DOG

"And now," asked the teacher, "will any-one give me an example of an indirect tax, please?"

"The dog tax," announced the pupil.

"Why do you term that an indirect tax?"

"Because the dog doesn't pay it."

ANYTHING SUITS

Tailor: "When your father sent you for samples of cloth didn't he say what color and material he wanted?"

Small Boy: "I don't think it matters, sir. He wants to use them for pen-wipers."

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

Teacher: "How old would a person be who was born in 1886?"

Bright Pupil: "Do you mean a man or a woman?"

A LESSON IN ECONOMICS

Professor: "When water becomes ice, what is the greatest change that takes place?"

Freshman: "The price."

THREE ROUSING SQUAWKS

"Yes, I graduated from an automobile school."

"What is your class honk?"

A TERRIBLE SIEGE

He had never had such a tough time in his life. First he got angina pectoris, followed by arteriosclerosis. Just as he was recovering from these he got pneumonia, followed by pulmonary phthisis and tuberculosis. Somehow he got over them in time to get appendicitis, to say nothing of pyorrhea. All in all, he never saw how he pulled through. It was the hardest spelling test he'd ever had.

THE STAMP OF LEARNING

"Pa, what's a postgraduate?"

"A fellow who graduates from one of those correspondence schools, I suppose."

Among the miracles of modern science is the privilege of sitting by the radio and hearing another fellow watch a football game for you.

IT'S A GOOD COURSE

"How in the world do you expect to stay in college?"

"By writing."

"Writing what?"

"Writing home."

THIS BOOK LARNIN

"How is Hennery gettin' along with school, Eph?"

"Not so well, Garge. They're larnin' him to spell taters, with a 'p'."

COUNTER

"So you go to school, do you?"

"Yes!"

"How high can you count?"

"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, jack, queen, and king."

DRY DEW

"Daddy, what is dew?"

"The rent, the note at the bank, and the installment on the car."

PAR EXCELLENCE!

"I see you got 73 in history," remarked the golfer-parent absently. "What's par for the course?"

If all the boys who slept in class were placed end to end, they would be much more comfortable.
