

and universities. They spent the four days studying the problems of the Christian student of today under the instruction of leaders of international fame.

Representing the Rural Life Club, Maria Bowman attended the Youth Section of American Country Life Association which held its annual meeting at the University of Kentucky in Lexington from November 1 to 4.

Music for the Hallowe'en prom held October 29 was furnished by Ray Frye and his Virginians. This was the first of the fall dances and was attended by members of the junior and senior classes and their dates. The following week-end the freshmen and sophomores danced to the music of Hartwell Clark's orchestra.

With Letitia Holler, Camden, N. J., as chairman, the Athletic Association is sponsoring the formation of a Dance Group on campus. This movement has been under discussion for several years and at last is taking definite form. Like a French Club, or a Science Club, or an Art Club, a Dramatic Club, or a Music Club, the Dance Group will meet for exploration and practice in a particular field.

Having successfully passed the second try-out, eighteen new members were admitted to the Glee Club October 17: Jean Birchall, Roanoke; Josephine Bowles, Hopewell; Katherine Butler, Welch, W.
